

Until We Meet in Pink

By Raon

About the Author

Hello! My name is Raon Kim. I'm a first-year middle school student.

I like drawing picture, listening to music, and playing with my friends.

I wrote this story because I wanted to show to show their encounter and separation.

Thank you for reading my book. I hope you enjoy it.

It is time for cherry blossoms to bloom

Oh, cherry blossoms are blooming!

Cherry blossom Fairy appears

what is this?

Hi!

Let's be friends

Okay

Let's be friends!

They were good friends with each other

They ate straw
barries together and...

made

flower garlands

But, one day

It was time to say goodbye

I've got to go

But we'll see each other next year

I'm gonna get going now

Goodbye

A watercolor illustration featuring a yellow circular shape, possibly representing a sun or a flower, with a sad face drawn on it. The face has a single blue tear falling from its eye. The yellow shape is surrounded by numerous pink petals or leaves, some of which are overlapping the yellow shape. The background is white.

Catch you later