WELCOME

Welcome to this special Pesach Magazine, dedicated to celebrating our signature luxury Pesach experience in Switzerland. At STARGUEST, we believe Pesach should be a time of freedom, joy, and family — all embraced within an atmosphere of true five-star environment.

For over a century, the Wagner-Kahn family has been synonymous with exceptional kosher hospitality. Since 1896, our family tradition has been built on uncompromising standards of kashrut, service, and elegance. Today, that heritage continues with STARGUEST, bringing generations of knowledge, care, and expertise to create a Pesach unlike any other.

This year, we are delighted to host Pesach 2027 at the Kempinski Palace Engelberg. Nestled in the majestic Swiss Alps, just one hour from Zurich, the Kempinski Palace combines breathtaking mountain scenery with timeless grandeur. Here, our guests will enjoy world-class kosher cuisine, fantastic activities, and the warmth of a family Yom Tov.

I look forward to welcoming you and your family to Engelberg for an unforgettable Pesach in the heart of Switzerland.

Best regards,

THE DESTINATION

Nestled in a picturesque mountain valley just 25 km south of Lake Lucerne, Engelberg offers an unparalleled winter escape at an altitude of around 1000 meters. This charming alpine village combines pristine natural beauty with exhilarating outdoor adventures, making it a must-visit for snow enthusiasts and nature lovers alike.

The highlight of your Engelberg experience is Mount Titlis, where you can push your limits on the famous Titlis Cliff Walk, the highest suspension bridge in Europe. Suspended at a breathtaking 3,000 meters above sea level, this thrilling experience offers stunning panoramic views and an unforgettable adrenaline rush.

Whether you're skiing down powdery slopes, exploring serene hiking trails, or simply taking in the majestic alpine scenery, Engelberg promises a winter getaway like no other.

FLY TO “THE TOP OF EUROPE”

SWITZERLAND

We made a last-minute dream come true with a visit to the "Top of Europe"—the Jungfraujoch summit, renowned as Europe's highest train station. Located at an elevation of 3,463 meters (11,362 feet), this iconic destination is a highlight of any Swiss adventure.

While the traditional journey takes 2.5 hours by train and cable car, we elevated the experience by arranging a helicopter transfer, reducing the travel time to just 20 minutes. To make it even more seamless, we secured a nearby landing spot with special permission from a local farmer.

Delivering extraordinary experiences like these is what we do best—ensuring every moment is unforgettable.
