CAMBRIDGE CONQUERED

Sheffield RUFC secured one of the stand-out results of the weekend, overturning an early deficit to defeat recently relegated Cambridge 33-22 at Abbeydale Park and underline their growing National One credentials.

There were headline-making displays elsewhere across the region. Dearne & District strengthened their grip on top spot in the NCEL Premier Division with a 5-1 victory over Keighley Town, inspired by a Jamie Austin hat-trick and two goals in three second-half minutes from Justin Circuit.

Handsworth continued their climb towards the play-off positions by recovering from an early setback to defeat Horbury Town 2-1, Toby Kenyon levelling before Mitchell Dunne struck a late winner.

Armthorpe Welfare also maintained their promotion challenge in Division One with a convincing 4-1 success over Immingham Town, moving into the top five as another weekend of impressive performances unfolded across the region.

Hallam’s New Beginning

Hallam FC chairman Andy (Ted) Emsley has pledged to build on the club’s recent success while strengthening links with supporters and the wider community.

Speaking to South Yorkshire Sport in his first major interview since being elected chairman, Emsley outlined an ambitious vision for the future of the world’s second-oldest football club while stressing the importance of protecting the values that make Hallam unique.

A former first-team coach at Sandygate, Emsley says his immediate focus is supporting managers Danny and Richard Patterson in their bid to preserve the club’s Step 4 status, while also driving plans for greater supporter involvement and improved commercial growth.

“We’ve got big, big boots to fill and we understand that,” said Emsley, paying tribute to outgoing chairman Richard Pillinger and former club officials.

The new chairman also reaffirmed his commitment to the long-discussed move towards Community Benefit Society status and promised better communication with supporters.

“We’re trying to create a community facility,” he said. “The supporters are phenomenal and we’ve got to repay some of that loyalty.”

Emsley’s election followed one of the most closely watched AGMs in the club’s history and signals the start of a new chapter at Sandygate.

Housley Returns As Parkgate Begin New Chapter

Parkgate have appointed Jamie Hous-
ley as their new manager following the resignation of Scott Mason, bringing one of the club’s own back to Rawmarsh to lead the Steelmen.

The announcement comes at the end of an era for Parkgate after Mason, affectionately known as “Nebsy”, stepped down during his fifth season in charge.

Mason leaves with his place firmly secured among the most successful managers in the club’s recent history.
During his time at Round-wood he guided Parkgate to the Northern Counties East League Division One title and League Cup double, including victory over Emley in the League Cup final at Scunthorpe United.

In an emotional farewell message, Mason reflected on the commitment he had given the club.

“I’ve put my heart, sweat, tears and countless hours into Parkgate, both on the phone and at the side of the pitch, and I’ve loved every minute of it,” he said.

Among his proudest memories were the title-winning campaign and helping develop a succession of players who progressed through the club during his five years at the helm.

“It’s now time for me to recharge my batteries, take a breather for a little while and concentrate on life outside of Parkgate,” he added.

With a significant vacancy to fill, Parkgate have turned to a familiar face.

Housley is a former Parkgate player and previously formed part of Mason’s management team before leaving during the summer to become manager of Swallownest.

His spell at Swallownest proved brief but successful.
Taking charge of the UCL
Division One side, Housley helped establish the club
among the promotion contenders before Parkgate made their approach.

Swallownest confirmed his departure after accepting an approach from another club, bringing an end to a tenure
which had begun promisingly and left the club firmly in the mix near the top of the Division One table.

For Housley, however, the opportunity to return to Parkgate was one he could not refuse.

“It’s great to be back as the manager of the club that I have a close connection with for numerous reasons,” he said.

“I’m really appreciative of the opportunity that has been given to me by Albert and Ricky.

“It’s never easy leaving a club in the midst of a season
but I am extremely thankful for how professional Swallow-nest FC have been. I wish them nothing but success in all that they do and I genuinely hope they continue their form for the play-off aims.”

Housley acknowledged the challenge of succeeding a manager who delivered so much success during his five years in charge.

“I’m aware I have huge shoes to fill in what Nebsy has created over the last five years
here and my aim is to get us back up the table and build on the foundations he’s created for many more years to come.

“I’m looking forward to getting back involved with the squad, some of whom I know already, and also bringing in fresh faces and ideas.”

The appointment ensures continuity for Parkgate at a time of significant change.

Having worked closely alongside Mason and already possessing strong links to the club, Housley arrives with a detailed understanding of the culture that has underpinned
the Steelmen’s recent success.

The task now is to write the next chapter while building on the legacy left behind by one of Parkgate’s most successful recent managers

Parkgate Handed FA Vase Lifeline

Parkgate have been given an unexpected second chance in the FA Vase
after being reinstated
into the competition following the disqualification of Burscough.

The Steelmen had appeared to see their cup run come to an end when they were beaten by the Lancashire side in the First Round Proper earlier this month.
However, developments
after the match have dramatically altered the picture and handed Jamie Hous-
ley’s side a route back into the national competition.

Burscough voluntarily informed the Football Association that they had inadvertently fielded an ineligible player during the
tie. The player had previously represented another club in an earlier round of this season’s competition, making him ineligible under FA Vase regulations.

As a result, Burscough have been removed from the competition and Park-
gate have been reinstated, earning a place in the next round where they will travel to North West Counties League Premier Division
side Nelson on October 31.

What makes the case particularly unusual is that the issue was self-reported by Burscough.

In a lengthy statement,
the Lancashire club explained that checks had been carried out before the match but a previous appearance in the competition had been overlooked. Once the mistake was discovered, officials immediately contacted the Football Association and accepted responsibility.

Burscough described the incident as a “genuine administrative mistake” and stressed there had been no intention to gain an unfair advantage.

Their honesty has been widely praised across the non-league game, not least by Parkgate themselves.

In their own statement,
the Steelmen commended Burscough for the manner in which they handled the situation, describing the club’s actions as an example of the values of fairness, sportsmanship and respect that should remain at the heart of football.

Parkgate also expressed sympathy for their opponents, noting that player
registrations and eligibility checks have become increasingly complex as player movement within non-league football continues to increase.

The reprieve provides a significant boost to Parkgate at a pivotal moment.

It comes just days after the appointment of Jamie Housley as manager following Scott Mason’s resignation. Housley was already facing the prospect of rebuilding confidence after a difficult spell of league
form, but now has the opportunity to lead the Steelmen into the second round of a national competition.

The tie at Nelson presents an intriguing challenge.

The Admirals currently compete in the North West Counties League Premier Division, the same competition that produced last season’s FA Vase finalists Lower Breck. Nelson are one of the most historic clubs in Lancashire football and play at Victoria Park, known commercially as The Daisy Arena.

For Parkgate supporters,
the news represents an unexpected bonus. FA Vase runs can provide valuable prize money, increased attendances and memorable days out, while success in the competition often becomes a significant part of a club’s season.

Having thought their involvement was over, the Steelmen now have another opportunity to make their mark.

As Parkgate acknowledged in their statement,
the circumstances are unfortunate for Burscough.
But with the FA’s decision confirmed, the Steelmen will now aim to make the most of their reprieve and continue their FA Vase journey.

Sheffield Gridiron Stars Set for High-Stakes Clash in Finland

Two of Sheffield's finest American football talents are packing their bags for a monumental international showdown.

James Eaton and teammate Djoss Balela will touchdown down in Scandinavia as part of the Great Britain national squad, preparing to face European powerhouse Finland on Saturday, October 24, 2026.

Competing in Level 1 of the IFAF European Championships, the British Lions face a formidable test against the host nation, currently ranked #2 in Europe. For Eaton and Balela, both of whom have honed their craft through relentless dedication in the local gridiron scene, earning national selection represents the pinnacle of their athletic careers. The Steel City duo will need to bring their absolute best to the turf as Great Britain squares off against a fiercely competitive Finnish side renowned for its tactical discipline and physical-

ity. A strong performance on the international stage not only highlights the rapid growth of American football talent emerging from Sheffield but also serves as a massive milestone for homegrown sports development.

Kickoff on Saturday promises a fierce battle as Great Britain looks to upset the continental heavyweights. Sheffield will be watching closely as Eaton and Balela represent their country on Europe's biggest stage.

Millmoor Could Become Home Of Rotherham Women

Football could be set for a dramatic return to Millmoor after Rotherham United Women unveiled ambitious plans to transform the historic site into a new home for the club and a national centre of excellence for the women's game.

The £9.5 million vision, being led by co-owner Phil Smith and chief executive Scott Thorpe, would see the former home of Rotherham United redeveloped into a 2,000-capacity stadium alongside a community sports village focused on sport, health and education.

For generations of Millers supporters, Millmoor remains one of the town's most iconic sporting landmarks. The stadium was home to Rotherham United for more than a century before the men's side moved out in 2008, and the site has spent much of the intervening years lying dormant.

Now, almost two decades after football disappeared from Millmoor, plans have emerged that could bring the game back to one of South Yorkshire's most famous footballing locations.

At the heart of the proposal is a dedicated centre of excellence for girls' and women's football. The development would create pathways from grassroots participation through to elite performance, with coaching, education and player development opportunities all based on the same site.

The plans also include a FIFA-standard

3G pitch, spectator and hospitality facilities, with scope for future expansion as the women's game continues to grow.

But the vision extends far beyond football.

Developers want Millmoor to become a community hub featuring padel courts, health and fitness facilities and multi-sport provision for schools, clubs and local residents. The aim is to create a destination that is active throughout the week rather than simply on matchdays.

The proposal represents another significant step in the remarkable rise of Rotherham United Women.

In recent seasons the club has emerged as one of the most ambitious forces in regional women's football, investing heavily both on and off the pitch. This summer alone saw the club recruit several high-profile players as it strengthened its aspirations of climbing the women's football pyramid.

The Millmoor project would provide a permanent home and infrastructure capable of supporting those ambitions for years to come.

There is still a long road ahead before any redevelopment can take place. A public consultation is scheduled to begin later this month, allowing supporters, residents, schools, businesses and sporting organisations to have their say on the future of the site.

However, the scale of the vision has already captured attention.

If successful, the project would not only bring football back to Millmoor but could establish Rotherham as one of the leading centres for women's football in the country, while breathing new life into one of the town's most historic sporting venues.

The Ted Plan – More than a Football Club

For all the debate, discussion and drama that surrounded Hallam FC's recent AGM, Ted Emsley's vision for the future can be summed up in a surprisingly simple way.

Protect what makes Hallam special. Improve everything else.

Just days into his tenure as chairman, Emsley is fully aware of the challenges facing the world's second-oldest football club. The first team are fighting to preserve their place at Step 4, finances remain tight and there is plenty of work to do as the club progresses towards Community Benefit Society status.

Yet speaking with the calm confidence of someone who has spent much of his working life building and leading teams, the newly elected chairman is far more interested in opportunities than obstacles.

The reason is straightforward. He believes Hallam already possesses something many football clubs spend decades trying to create.

"It's the people," he says. "I fell in love with it while I was a first-team coach. The supporters, for non-league, are phenomenal. The atmosphere they create, the camaraderie, the social aspect, everybody's connected.

"You can't help but fall in love with it."

That affection for Hallam was not born out of the recent election campaign or the heated debates which have dominated discussion around Sandygate over the last few months.

His connection goes much deeper than that.

Long before becoming chairman, Emsley was involved in the club's football operation and played his own part in one of the most successful eras in Hallam's history.

As a player, he spent much of his career in non-league football with clubs including Sheffield FC and Dronfield United. While he never reached the professional ranks, he competed at a level above where Hallam find themselves today and developed a detailed understanding of what successful football clubs look like.

When his business commitments eventually allowed him to step away from day-to-day work following the sale of a company in 2008, he turned his attention towards coaching.

That journey took him through Sheffield United's coaching system, where he began accumulating qualifications and experience before ultimately achieving his UEFA A Licence.

From first-team coach to chairman, Andy (Ted) Emsley insists Hallam FC's future will be built on the values that made him fall in love with the club in the first place.

It eventually led him to Hallam.

More specifically, it led him to Craig Denton.

Alongside Denton and a coaching team that would go on to achieve extraordinary success, Emsley became part of a football operation that transformed Hallam from a respected non-league club into one of the biggest stories in grassroots football.

Promotion, record crowds, national media attention and historic achievements all became part of the Hallam story. Those experiences have shaped how he views his new role.

In fact, one theme emerges repeatedly throughout the conversation. Respect. Respect for what came before. Respect for those who built Hallam's recent success. And respect for the volunteers who continue to keep the club running.

"You've got to congratulate where they've got the club," he says.

"Steve Basford was the catalyst and then Richard (Pillinger) took the reins.

"We've got big, big boots to fill and we understand that."

It is an important point. While the recent AGM has understandably been portrayed as a battle for the future direction of the club, Emsley is keen to stress that this is not a story about tearing things down and starting again.

Quite the opposite. The new leadership team believe Hallam's recent success provides a platform to build from. They simply want to take the next step.

"The plan is to build on what's already there," he says.

"We're trying to create a community facility. It was never about politics."

That message may come as some reassurance to supporters who have watched recent events unfold with increasing concern. The election process brought public disagreements, governance questions, social media debate and no shortage of strong opinions.

At times it felt as though Hal-lam's internal politics were attracting almost as much attention as the team's performances on the pitch. Emsley understands that. He also understands that supporters are ready to move on.

"We've all got to pull in the same direction now," he says.

"Everybody wants what's best for Hallam Football Club."

The challenge is turning that sentiment into reality. One of the first changes supporters are likely to notice is a different approach to leadership.

Rather than operating through a traditional committee model, Emsley talks enthusiastically about creating a leadership structure where responsibilities are clearly defined and people are empowered to make decisions.

"We're calling ourselves a leadership group rather than a committee," he says.

"Everyone's on a level playing field.

"Yes, I've been voted in as chairman, but I won't ask anybody to do something I'm not prepared to do myself."

Already he speaks with admiration about the people around him. Andy Taylor, Wayne Thompson, Steve Walmsley, Katie Ellis, Jamie Taylor. Others involved behind the scenes.

For Emsley, one of the biggest positives of the election process has been discovering the depth of talent available to the club away from the pitch.

"The amount of work these people have put in is phenomenal," he says.

"I'm humbled. The energy and freshness about it all is just fantastic."

That enthusiasm will be needed.

The reality is that the new leadership has inherited a substantial workload but the most obvious challenge sits in the league table.

Hallam's second season in Step 4 football has been significantly tougher than many supporters hoped. The Countrymen sit bottom of the Northern Premier League East Division and face a fight to retain their status.

It would have been easy for a new chairman to arrive promising radical changes. Emsley has chosen a different route. His message regarding managers Danny and Richard Patterson is one of support. Speaking to us before Tuesday evenings game at West Auckland Town, he says:

“They deserve a chance and I’m going to give them every chance, I’m going to give them every opportunity.

“We’re in a results-based business and they understand that and I understand that.

“But I think they’ve got a good chance of doing it.”

The relationship between the new boardroom and the management team is clearly something Emsley wants to establish quickly. He openly acknowledges the challenges facing the football department. At the same time, he believes stability offers the best route forward.

That does not mean standing still. Far from it.

One area where Emsley feels Hallam can improve rapidly is commercially. Throughout the interview he repeatedly returns to the same idea. Opportunity.

He sees opportunity in Hallam’s supporter base. Opportunity in Sandygate’s reputation.

Opportunity in the club’s geographical location. And opportunity in the unique story Hallam possesses.

“We need to be a little bit more acute commercially,” he says.

“Look at the geographical area of the football club, it’s an affluent area.

“We’ve got people there that we can tap into and I’m sure we can be better at that.”

Generating additional revenue is not an ambition in itself. For Emsley, commercial growth is a means to an end. The objective is strengthening the football club.

“If we can support the first team financially to get a better chance of staying in the league then that’s what we’re going to do.”

Equally important is the experience of supporters. One of the most striking aspects of the conversation is how often he references the fan-base.

The supporters are central to almost every answer. Not as customers. Not as spectators. But as stakeholders. People who should have a voice in the future of the club.

“People have shown incredible loyalty,” he says. “We’ve got to repay some of that.”

That commitment sits behind one of Hallam’s biggest ongoing projects with the move towards Community Benefit Society status.

While the concept can sound complicated, Emsley’s explanation is refreshingly straightforward. He sees it as a way of protecting Hallam’s future while giving supporters a meaningful role in shaping it.

“The plan is that supporters will have a say in who runs the club,” he says.

“We want to create a facility they can be proud of and become an integral part of the community.”

He also believes the current structure leaves too much responsibility resting on too few shoulders. “The unincorporated association model isn’t sustainable long-term.

“It places too much personal liability on individuals.”

The transition will not happen overnight. There are still procedures to complete and obstacles to overcome. But it remains one of the new leadership team’s key objectives.

If the short-term mission is survival, then this represents part of the long-term vision. A stronger club. A more sustainable club. A club more deeply connected to its supporters and community.

There is another aspect to Emsley’s vision which perhaps reveals the scale of his ambition.

He talks enthusiastically about strengthening Hallam’s place within Sheffield’s sporting landscape. Without revealing too much detail, he hints at discussions and ideas involving key figures within the city and wider football community.

The excitement in his voice is unmistakable.

“We’ve had some discussions and there are some exciting plans in place if we can get them over the line,” he says.

“It will promote the city.

“It will promote Hallam Football Club and Sheffield Football Club.”

For now, however, the focus remains firmly on the present. A football season continues. League points remain desperately needed. Volunteers are still required. Plans still need implementing. Promises still need delivering. The campaign for election is over. The hard work starts now.

That reality is not something Emsley appears eager to avoid.

If anything, he seems energised by it.

As the conversation draws towards its conclusion, he returns to the themes that have dominated throughout. Hard work. Humility. Communication. Respect. Community. Hallam.

Those values, he believes, are the foundation upon which everything else can be built.

“We want to be positive about the past and positive about the future,” he says.

“We’re going to give it a go.”

For a club entering a new and potentially defining chapter in its remarkable history, the message feels entirely appropriate.

Hallam FC has never been a club built on shortcuts.

Its story has always been one of people pulling together, overcoming challenges and taking pride in something bigger than themselves.

Ted Emsley’s task now is ensuring that story continues. A new committee is in place.

And, for better or worse, responsibility now rests with the people who asked for it and judging by the enthusiasm, energy and belief currently flowing through Sandygate, they are more than ready for the challenge.

Steels' Miserable Run Continues At Morpeth

STOCKSBRIDGE
PARK STEELS

Adam Allcroft

The honeymoon period is rarely a long one when a club is fighting near the bottom of the table and Stocksbridge Park Steels were handed another reminder of the challenges ahead as they suffered a 4-0 defeat at Morpeth Town.

It is still early days for Jason Blunt's reign and nobody will have expected overnight miracles. But the new management team would have travelled back down the A1 knowing there is plenty of work still to do if Steels are to drag themselves away from trouble.

There was little to separate the sides during the opening half-hour. Morpeth may be enjoying a much more comfortable season than their visitors, but Stocksbridge were organised enough and were not looking particularly troubled.

Then the game suddenly got away from them.

The breakthrough arrived on 29 minutes when Joshua Baggs found the net. It was the kind of setback Steels simply could not afford because three minutes later the lead was doubled through Mitch Hancox.

Just as the visitors were attempting to steady themselves, Morpeth struck again. Adam

Ross Lennox added a third goal on 39 minutes and what had been a competitive contest was effectively over before the half-time whistle.

To their credit, Stocksbridge did not completely collapse after the interval. Recent weeks have seen some heavy defeats and there would at least have been satisfaction in seeing the side show some resilience after the break.

However, Morpeth were always in control and they made certain of the points when experienced striker Luke James added a fourth goal on 68 minutes.

The result underlined the scale of the task facing Blunt as he attempts to guide Steels away from the foot of the Northern Premier League East Division. The squad has already seen significant changes since his appointment and more may yet be required.

Nobody associated with Stocksbridge will be panicking just yet. Blunt was brought in because of his reputation for building organised and competitive teams and he has barely had time to put his stamp on the squad.

But with points becoming increasingly precious and the season moving on quickly, Steels need signs of progress sooner rather than later.

At Morpeth they remained in the contest for half an hour. Unfortunately, football matches last considerably longer than that.

Reaction Required Again

HALLAM

Just when it looked as though Hallam were beginning to build some momentum, the Countrymen once again found themselves back at square one.

A battling and arguably unlucky point at Ossett United on Saturday suggested Danny and Richard Patterson’s side were finally starting to reap the rewards of several encouraging performances. Three days later, however, a sobering 5-1 defeat at West Auckland Town underlined just how quickly fortunes can change at Step 4 level.

The contrast between the two performances could hardly have been greater.

If Hallam left Ossett frustrated, it was only because they believed they should have won.

If they left West Auckland frustrated, it was because they never gave themselves a realistic chance.

Saturday’s trip to Ingfield Stadium was one of Hallam’s best league performances of the season.

The Countrymen arrived full of confidence following recent displays against Dunston and Garforth and immediately set about taking the game to their hosts.

Danny Patterson could hardly hide his pride afterwards.

“Really happy with it, I thought we were absolutely superb, honestly,” he said.

“From minute one to minute 90, I think we completely dominated the game.”

That may sound like a bold claim from a manager whose side failed to score, but Hallam created enough opportunities to justify it.

Cal Ward, Omar San- yang and Jacob Priest- nall were all heavily involved as the visitors repeatedly found space in dangerous areas. The problem, once again, was turning pressure into goals.

“The chances we’ve had first half, we could have gone two or three up,” said Patterson.

“They’ve had one little chance.”

The statistics and eye test supported Hallam’s argument.

The Countrymen matched Ossett physi- cally, dominated large spells of possession and consistently won first and second balls.

Most importantly, they looked like a team carrying genuine belief.

That belief should have earned all three points.

The defining mo- ment came towards the end of the match when Hallam were awarded a penalty.

It was exactly the op- portunity they needed.

Unfortunately, it fol- lowed a familiar script.

The penalty was missed and with it went the chance to secure what would have been a richly deserved first league victory of the campaign.

“We’ve got a penalty at the end and we’ve missed it again,” Patter- son reflected.

“But that’s just what happens when you’re up against it.”

Despite the dis- appointment, there was a clear feeling that Hal- lam had taken another step forward.

The management team certainly thought so.

“I thought that was a massive reaction from all the lads,” said Patter- son.

“From one to 16, even the subs who came on, they’ve made a big influence on the game.

“We should have had three points but we can see massive improve- ments in our team and squad.”

Richard Patterson agreed.

The Hallam joint- manager felt his players deserved far more than their point.

“I think we deserve more,” he said.

“I think they de- served more in terms of the amount of effort and application that they put in.”

The challenge was obvious.

Go and do it again on Tuesday night.

Against West Auck- land Town, Hallam had the perfect opportunity to build on what they had achieved at Ossett.

Instead, they suf- fered one of their heav- iest defeats of the season.

The warning signs arrived early.

James Harrison gave the hosts the lead after just seven minutes be- fore Fin O’Gorman doubled the advantage midway through the first half.

When Cieran Jack- son added a third just before the interval, Hal- lam were staring at a mountain to climb.

The hope was that the visitors could re- group after the break.

Instead, West Auck- land scored again within two minutes of the re- start through substitute Cobi Jones.

Tom Hinton briefly gave Hallam something to cheer about when he reduced the deficit, con- tinuing an encouraging spell for the midfielder- forward hybrid, but Ben Trotter’s goal before the hour mark effectively ended the contest.

Five goals conceded.

Ten scored against the Countrymen in their last three away league matches.

And another difficult journey home.

The result was per- haps all the more sur- prising given the positivity generated by Saturday’s display.

Only three days ear- lier the management team had been talking about belief, progress and momentum.

Those words suddenly felt much harder to find.

The defeat leaves Hallam still rooted to the foot of the Northern Premier League East Division table and searching for the con- sistency needed to climb clear of trouble.

Yet while the result was undoubtedly dis- appointing, it should not completely erase some of the positives that have emerged during re- cent weeks.

The Countrymen re- main far more competi- tive than they were earlier in the season.

Players have re- turned from injury.

Competition for places has increased.

The arrival of the new committee has brought fresh optimism around Sandygate.

Following the AGM, Danny and Richard Pat- terson also spoke posi- tively about the support they have received from the club’s new leader- ship team.

“A massive thank you to Kev, Rich and Ash Carson on all the work they did with us,” said Richard.

“In terms of the new committee and Ted and what have you, we’ve had a couple of conver- sations.

“They’ve been really supportive in terms of trying to support us and trying to push us on.”

That backing is im- portant because Hallam now face a crucial period.

The league table is becoming increasingly uncomfortable reading.

Performances alone are no longer enough.

Saturday showed Hallam can compete.

Tuesday showed how brutally they can be punished when stan- dards drop.

Somewhere between those two performances lies the team the Patter- son brothers are desper- ately trying to build.

The encouraging thing is that they have seen what it looks like.

The frustrating thing is that it is still appear- ing too infrequently.

Hallam’s task now is simple.

Bottle the perform- ance from Ossett.

Forget the perform- ance from West Auck- land.

And prove that the side which dominated one of the division’s es- tablished clubs is the real Hallam FC, not the one that collapsed three days later in County Durham.

Late Drama Rocks NCEL Title Race

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST
Matt Jones

In the Macron Northern Counties East League Premier Division, late drama was the order of the day as the leaders continued to be tested across a competitive programme of fixtures.

Tadcaster Albion left Barton Town with all three points, denting the hosts promotion hopes, thanks to a dramatic winner from Noah Kiwomya just two minutes from time. A crowd of 220 had looked set to witness a goalless draw before Kiwomya struck in the 88th minute to secure a valuable 1-0 success for the Brewers.

Campion rescued a point in the dying moments of their home clash against Knaresborough Town. Jack Dyche's 21st-minute strike had the visitors in front for much of the afternoon, but Max Dickinson netted in the 90th minute to ensure the spoils were shared in a 1-1 draw.

Top of the table Dearne & District produced an impressive performance to defeat bottom side Keighley Town 5-1. Jamie Austin was the star of the show with a hat-trick, scoring twice before the interval and completing his treble shortly after the restart. Justin Circuit then struck twice in quick succession as Dearne pulled away, with Nathan Hunt's first-half effort proving only a consolation for Keighley.

Frickley Athletic also hit five as they overwhelmed Rossington Main 5-1 in front of 287 supporters. Rossington started brightly through Oliver Currie's early opener, but Sam Cable and a brace from Joshua Dacre turned the contest around. Late goals from Keelan Grist and Charlie Clegg added further gloss to an emphatic victory.

Handsworth edged out Horbury Town 2-1 in another closely fought encounter. Lucas Smith gave Horbury an early advantage before Toby Kenyon levelled just before half-time. The visitors looked set for a point until Mitch Dunne's 88th-minute winner secured the victory for Handsworth. Parkgate and Pickering Town could not be separated as they shared a 1-1 draw. Joseph Pratley put Pickering ahead midway through the first half, but Alex Bonnington's second-half equaliser earned Parkgate a deserved point.

Retford FC claimed a thrilling 4-2 win over Penistone Church. An explosive opening period saw Krzysztof Jarosz and Aaron Sennett-Neilson, who scored twice, put Retford in command, although William Heath's brace kept Church firmly in contention. Alex Wonham's late goal eventually settled matters in favour of the home side.

Thackley came from behind to record a convincing 4-1 success against Golcar United. Ash Flynn's early strike for Golcar was cancelled out by Alex Ingham's penalty before the interval. Lewis Sugden and Luke Brooks scored within five minutes of the restart to seize control before George Birley completed the scoring late on.

In Division One, Armthorpe Welfare moved into the play off positions with a comfortable 4-1 victory over Immingham Town, a result that marked the Pilgrims 11th straight league defeat and saw them drop to the foot of the table. Tom Joynt opened the scoring from the penalty spot before second-half goals from Bayley Lowe, Jacob Robinson and Liam Flanagan ensured the points remained at home despite Harvey Hulance's late reply.

Winterton Rangers were in ruthless form as they dismantled Athersley Recreation 5-0. An own goal started the scoring before Ben Silburn added a second. Lewis Walker and a double from Harry Fenton completed an emphatic afternoon for the visitors.

Club Thorne Colliery left it late to overcome Wakefield AFC, with Reiss Harrison scoring in the final minute to secure a hard-earned 1-0 victory after a goalless opening 89 minutes.

Crowle Colts continued their strong home form with a 2-0 win over Leeds UFCA. Rhys Plater struck early and Carlo Midwinter doubled the advantage before half-time, with the hosts seeing out the second period comfortably.

Field Olympic enjoyed a productive afternoon against LIV, recording a 4-1 victory. Junayd Cassius-Gill claimed a hat-trick, with goals either side of Kieron Batey's effort giving the home side complete control before Ryan Whincup netted a consolation for the visitors.

Route One Rovers claimed an impressive 2-1 win at Goole AFC in front of the day's highest attendance of 337. Muhammad Arshad opened the scoring early and Bubacary Conteh Samateh doubled the advantage after the break. Ross Duggan's stoppage-time penalty reduced the deficit but arrived too late to prevent an away victory.

Harrogate Railway Athletic made home advantage count with a 3-1 success against Hems-worth Miners Welfare. Sam Barker scored in each half, either side of Jack Mason's strike, before Adam Walsh pulled one back for the visitors.

The biggest victory of the day came at Kinsley Boys, where league leaders Brigg Town ran riot in an 8-0 triumph. Reece York opened the scoring before two own goals by the unfortunate Jack Compston helped the visitors establish complete control. Josh Batty netted a hat-trick, while Dayle Southwell and Jack Richardson also got on the score-sheet in a dominant display.

Selby Town and Ilkley Town shared an entertaining 2-2 draw. Dan Clark-Coates gave Ilkley the lead before Maximillian Bauer levelled shortly before half-time. Auzair Khan restored the visitors' advantage after the break, but Harry Clapham struck six minutes from time to earn Selby a point.

South Leeds snatched a dramatic point in a 1-1 draw against Wombwell Town. Nash Connolly's first-half goal looked set to hand Wombwell victory, only for James Law to score in the 90th minute, a result that moves the visitors off the bottom of the table.

Waudby Double Keeps Barton Flying

Due to many teams' involvement in county cup competitions, just five midweek matches took place across the Macron NCEL league and League Cup.

There was no separating Bottesford Town and Tadcaster Albion as the sides played out an entertaining 2-2 draw in the Premier Division. Oliver Green gave Tadcaster the lead midway through the first half before Owen Vincent levelled just before the interval. Henry Moore put Bottesford ahead after the restart, but Ryan Gothard struck 20 minutes from time to ensure the points were shared.

Barton Town continued their strong form with a deserved 2-0 win at Horbury Town. Tom Waudby opened the scoring just before the half-hour mark and wrapped up the victory three minutes from time with his second of the night. The result moves Barton up to third in the table, with games in hand on the teams above them.

Immingham Town earned their first point in 12 matches in new manager James Swann's first game in charge as they drew 2-2 with Athersley Recreation in Division One. Khalid Suleiman struck in the fourth minute to give the visitors the advantage before Declan McLaughlin equalised with a well-worked goal after 34 minutes. Suleiman added his second just two minutes later to put Athersley back in front, but Jack Barlow's curling free-kick shortly before the hour mark earned Immingham a share of the spoils.

Golcar United booked their place in the third round of the NCEL League Cup with an impressive 4-0 victory at Albion Sports on Tuesday evening. Alfie Wilkinson set the visitors on their way after 16 minutes before George Doyle doubled the advantage shortly before the break. Golcar remained in control throughout the second half and added further goals through Hayden Webster and Oliver Russon in the closing stages to complete a convincing success.

A solitary goal from Harry Day was enough to send Parkgate into the third round of the League Cup with a 1-0 victory at Thackley. Day's effort after 18 minutes proved decisive in a tightly contested encounter as Parkgate held firm to see out the remainder of the match and secure their progress.

We now know 15 of the 16 teams in the next round of the League Cup, with the remaining tie between Worsbrough Bridge Athletic and Kinsley Boys due to be played next week.

UNITED COUNTIES LEAGUE

Just when things appeared to be settling down across the region's United Counties League clubs, another managerial departure ensured there was no shortage of headlines.

A week after Sheffield FC changed direction and handed the reins to Craig Denton, Swallownest were rocked by the resignation of Jamie Housley, who departed for NCEL side Parkgate after over-seeing the club's rise into the Division One promotion conversation. The timing made for an intriguing backdrop to a week that also saw Sheffield continue their improvement, Dronfield Town collect an impressive point under new boss Lewis Naylor and Maltby Main slip back to earth. Sheffield remain the feel-good story of the moment. Craig Denton's unbeaten start stretched to three matches as Club battled to a 1-1 draw against Leicester Nirvana. Once again it was Leon Howarth who found the net. The striker has now scored four goals in his first three appearances under Denton, following his winner at Newark Town and brace against Ramsbottom United in the FA Vase. Howarth put Sheffield in front after 23 minutes before Tamar Clayton-Naute equalised seven minutes later for the visitors. The draw extended Sheffield's unbeaten run under their new manager, but Denton was left frustrated that the game had not been won long before the final whistle. "I think it was a fair result at the end, but I'm really disappointed in that first 20 minutes," he said. "Again, we're having opportunities three or four times to come in at half-time three or four-nil up. "What I am seeing is lots of endeavour, lots of hard work." Denton even hinted that additions could arrive in the coming weeks, but the early signs remain encouraging. For much of the season Sheffield looked heavily reliant on Alex Hardwick for goals. Suddenly they have another player finding the net regularly and it has transformed the mood around the Home of Football Stadium. At Dronfield Town, Lewis Naylor picked up his first point as manager in highly encouraging fashion. Town travelled to play-off hopefuls Shirebrook Town and looked set to claim all three points after an excellent display. Sam Bebbington opened the scoring after Alex Wilkinson's effort came back off the post before the two players combined again for Dronfield's second goal, Bebbington turning provider and Wilkinson applying the finish. At 2-0, Town were on course for one of the results of the season. However, a triple substitution transformed the hosts and Jay-Jay Cutts struck twice in quick succession to rescue a point.

There was understandable disappointment at surrendering a two-goal lead, but Naylor will have seen plenty to encourage him against one of the division's stronger sides. The afternoon was marred by a serious-looking ankle injury suffered by debutant Ryan Oxley, who had impressed before being stretched off. Maltby Main endured a far less enjoyable weekend. Fresh from their important victory over Louth Town, the Miners were unable to build on that momentum as Dunkirk left Muglet Lane with a 3-1 victory. Shaun-Michael Tai gave Nick Buxton's side the perfect start with an early opener and looked set to continue his excellent goalscoring run. Instead, the visitors responded impressively. Dunkirk turned the game around before half-time and protected their advantage during the second half to leave Maltby reflecting on a frustrating afternoon. After signs of progress against Louth, it was a reminder of the inconsistency that has plagued much of Maltby's campaign. The biggest talking point of the week, however, arrived at Swallownest. Housley's departure came as a surprise given the excellent work he had done in lifting the club into the upper reaches of Division One. On the pitch, attention turned to the Sheffield and Hallamshire Senior Cup, where Swallownest hosted Sheffield Wednesday Under-23s. The young Owls proved clinical in front of goal and established a two-goal advantage before Haydn Goddard gave the hosts hope with a goal of his own. Wednesday's youngsters added a third to win 3-1, ending Swallownest's interest in the competition. Yet the bigger challenge for the club now lies elsewhere. With Housley gone, Swallownest must ensure the momentum built during an impressive opening to the season is not lost. The foundations remain strong. The question is who will now be tasked with building on them. Elsewhere, Clipstone continue to set the pace at the top of Division One while Southwell City, Staveley Miners Welfare and Shirebrook Town remain firmly in contention. For the region's clubs, though, this week was defined by change. At Sheffield, the early signs under Denton are undeniably positive. At Dronfield, Lewis Naylor has already shown his side can compete with the division's best. At Maltby, consistency remains elusive. And at Swallownest, attention has suddenly shifted from promotion ambitions to finding the right man to continue an encouraging journey.

Harworth Hit Six As Burngreave Go Top

CENTRAL MIDLANDS ALLIANCE

Richard Lane

Three matches on Tuesday night, two involving the top pair in the Camper UK Premier North division plus the opening tie in this season's Abacus Lighting Floodlit Cup.

It's as you were for Harworth Colliery and Burngreave United, who kept their playing records free from defeat while adding another three points to their growing totals.

Harworth had little difficulty in sweeping aside Rossington Main 6-1. They could not have made a better start, with Billy Stafford netting in the first minute. Surprisingly, there was no addition to the score until a minute after half-time when Joe-Brooke Parkin put the visitors level.

That was the beginning of the end as Harworth were stung into action. Daniel Boulton restored the lead with 57 minutes played, before Stafford grabbed his second six minutes later. Not to be outdone, Boulton scored again on 67 minutes, Stafford completed his hat-trick on 72 minutes, and Kian Docherty brought up the half-dozen a minute into added time.

The most surprising aspect of Burngreave's visit to Worksop Town Reserves was that the match produced only two goals from the numerous chances created. The deadlock was finally broken after 62 minutes by Abdulrahman Asad, with the same player adding a second seven minutes later to keep his team in second place in the table.

The Abacus Lighting Floodlit Cup got underway with Staveley Reserves travelling to Teversal and going a goal behind after four minutes to an Alfie Matthews effort. Alex Coates on 18 minutes and Sam Davies after half an hour gave them an interval lead. Rocco Hardy's goal on the hour levelled the scores again, but Tevie could not hold on. Davies grabbed his second after 67 minutes and Charlie Bingham made sure of a place in round two five minutes later.

SATURDAY'S GAMES

Holbrook Sports maintained their lead in the Camper UK Premier South following a 4-3 win at Ripley Town. Nathan Bennett gave Holbrook a 22nd-minute lead, with Brad Daly adding a second seven minutes later and Joel Searcey making it three four minutes before the break. Russell Caines had scored for Ripley before half-time.

The home side had the better of the second half, with Caines completing the day's only hat-trick, but Daly's second goal on 52 minutes proved decisive.

Wirksworth Ivanhoe are a point behind, having played one game more. They opened a four-point gap over Derby Singh Brothers, with a single goal from Tom Mellor proving sufficient.

Melbourne Dynamo's remarkable recovery continued with a 4-0 defeat of Mickleover RBL, their seventh successive win in all competitions. On target for Melbourne were Danny Guild, Jorge Knowles, Tyler Withers and Regan Bickerton.

A four-goal win also arrived for Holbrook St Michaels against FC Sunnyhill, whose winless run now extends to five matches. Scorers for St Michaels were Jack Tyson, Rich Hanslow, Steve Malinder and Anrie Burmeister.

Yet another 4-0 scoreline came at Borrowash, where the Vics got the better of Bakewell Town. Two goals in each half did the trick. Oscar Supple's 25th-minute opener was followed by Charlie Tovell eight minutes later. Tovell's second arrived midway through the second half, with Jacob Hawksworth's strike on 73 minutes completing the scoring.

The biggest score of the day came at Graham Street Prims, where Gresley Rovers B hit the home side for six. There were doubles for Stevie Savage and Ethan Watson, while Riley Greaves and Sheene Gordon completed the half-dozen.

Action from Dinnington Town v Staveley MW Res

The bottom two both took welcome points from 1-1 draws. Cromford & Wirksworth Town left it late to pick up their point at Blidworth Welfare, with Simon Scully's equaliser arriving just six minutes from time after Aidan Reader had given Blidworth the lead on 52 minutes.

Linby Colliery's leveler was also delayed. George Scott's 18th-minute goal for Derby Gazers was matched by Josh Wass with 10 minutes remaining.

With Harworth Colliery out of action, Burngreave United took full advantage to move to the top of the table with a 4-1 win at Glapwell.

They went ahead after 21 minutes through Abdulrahman Asad, before Umar Mohammed made it two eight minutes later. The expected rush of goals never materialised and it was the hosts who struck next after 32 minutes, Dylan Thornley blasting home from 25 yards. Asad's second restored the two-goal advantage before Glapwell managed to limit their opponents to just one second-half goal, scored by Mohammed Tahir on 76 minutes.

Staveley Reserves moved up to third after defeating Dinnington Town 2-1 on their own ground. The Trojans struck in the 15th minute through Leo Rimmer, while Alex Coates' second goal two minutes before the break left them in a more comfortable position. Staveley successfully negotiated the second half, with Mitchell Carlton's consolation proving too little, too late.

Elite AFC have quietly moved into fourth place and still have their 100 per cent record intact, while also holding three games in hand on all of their rivals. Their latest victims were Worksop Town Reserves, with the score ending 3-1. The match was all but settled by half-time as Travis Gordon's fifth-minute opener was followed by goals from Jacob Swales on 20 minutes and Robbie Wood two minutes later. In reply, the Tigers were limited to a 52nd-minute penalty from Will Hunter.

Teversal and Ollerton Town shared the points in a dramatic 3-3 draw. Ollerton made the brighter start, George Slack breaking the deadlock after five minutes. The visitors held the lead until the opening minute of the second half when Sam Jackson levelled the scores, before Ty Macaskill put Tevie ahead just two minutes later.

To Ollerton's credit they dug in and were rewarded with a quick double of their own. Slack made it 2-2 on the hour mark before Joe Hewes put them back in front three minutes later. With time running out, Teversal earned their reward as Alfie

Matthews levelled once again with two minutes remaining.

AFC Phoenix remain at the foot of the table following a 3-1 defeat at Rossington FC. Damian Wiczorek scored twice, while Leo Graham was also on target for Rossington. Ishaq Bouhe-raoua replied for Phoenix.

Down the road, Rossington Main beat RHP Sports thanks to a single goal on 37 minutes, credited to Oscar Jones after he got in the way of a clearance which rebounded into the net.

Brodsworth Main were 3-0 winners at SJR Worksop. Callum Stockton's fourth-minute opener was backed up by two goals from Calum Verhees on 37 and 65 minutes.

Evo FC and AFC Bentley shared the points in a 1-1 draw. Adam Winder gave Bentley the lead in the 16th minute before Noah Killoyne levelled three minutes into the second half.

Brinsworth March On As Chasers Stumble

ROTHERHAM
SUNDAY
Mark Pilley

The leading sides in the Rotherham & District Sunday League enjoyed another productive weekend, with several promotion races beginning to take clearer shape as the season approaches the end of its opening month.

In the Premier Division, leaders Brinsworth DC produced arguably the result of the season so far as they dismantled defending champions The Gate Inn 6-0.

Lewis Ford, Harley Battison and Harry Day were all on target, while Matthew Blakemore grabbed a brace as Brinsworth extended their unbeaten start and opened a four-point gap at the summit. Having taken 16 points from their opening six matches, they now boast a healthy advantage over the chasing pack.

Deer Park Tap remain second after a comfortable 4-0 success at Butchers Arms. The promoted side are still unbeaten and look increasingly capable of sustaining a title challenge after collecting 14 points from six games.

AFC Lord Nelson continue to climb after edging a thrilling 5-4 victory at Thorpe Hesley Village. Jahmal Riley maintained his superb goalscoring form and Lord Nelson's perfect record from four matches keeps them firmly in the hunt with games in hand on the teams above them.

AFP Press Box and Thurcroft Hub shared an eight-goal thriller. Jorome Anthony Slew hit a hat-trick for Press Box, but Alfie Eagle did the same for Hub as the sides drew 4-4.

At the lower end of the table, Clubhouse picked up a useful point in a 2-2 draw at Jack in Box, while Thorpe Hesley edged Whiston 2-1.

The Championship leaders Darnall Urban finally saw their perfect winning run come to an end but remain unbeaten after a hard-fought 3-3 draw at Sheffield Spartans.

Otis Junior Pyke, Kaiden Simpson and Leon Walford were on target for Darnall, who now sit four points clear at the top on 16 points from six matches.

Milldam remain their nearest challengers despite not being in league action and still hold a game in hand on the leaders.

Handsworth Inn and Maltby Main Haynook played out one of the games of the day, sharing eight goals in a 4-4 draw. Ben Shackshaft, Reece Webster, Kian King and Aurel Ceka found the net for Hands-worth, while Ryan Smyth struck twice for Haynook.

Brinsworth Whitehill JFC Men's moved into fourth after a 4-2 victory over AFC Yorkshire Terrier thanks largely to a Ryan Bailey hat-trick, while Swinton Athletic and Ecclesfield Blues drew 2-2.

AFC Monkwood and AFC Maltby also shared the points in a remarkable 5-5 draw. Joshua Mackey scored a hat-trick for Monkwood, while Owen Evans added the other two goals.

Division One remains firmly under the control of The Little Mester. Goals from Charlie Baird, Louis Hellewell, Joshua Shepherd, Corey Walker and Elliott Barnard secured a 5-2 victory over Shakhtar Sheffield and maintained their perfect start to the campaign.

Langold Old Boys remain their closest challengers after defeating Beighton Magpies 4-1. Vinnie Elliott, Ryan Parker, Aaron Redfern and James Cave were all on target as Langold stayed unbeaten and moved onto 10 points from four matches.

Brecks Snooker's unbeaten league record continues after drawing 2-2 at The Colin, with Alex Bell and Dominic Pearson on the score-sheet, while Joker produced the division's biggest win by hammering Harthill 7-0. Bradley Carroll claimed a hat-trick in an emphatic success.

In Division Two, AFC Brush and Easel produced the most astonishing scoreline of the weekend with a 22-0 demolition of AFC Sheffield.

Connor Gregg scored five times, Logan Day grabbed a hat-trick and the goals flowed throughout a remarkable afternoon which leaves Brush and Easel perfect at the top with five wins from five and a staggering goal difference of plus 43.

Hope Valley Tap remain unbeaten and occupy second place after a 3-0 victory over Tree-ton Terriers. Logan Draper, Dale Fletcher and Adam Kennedy were the scorers.

Woodman Woodlaithes continued their climb with a 3-2 victory at Wickersley AFC, while Ravenfield Arms recorded a 7-0 win over Wickersley AFC thanks to goals from seven different scorers.

Chaucer Athletic strengthened their position in mid-table with a 4-2 success at Middlewood Rovers.

Division Three remains one of the most competitive sections in the league.

Rosegarth remain top after defeating Brinsworth FC 3-0, with Taylor Askham scoring twice alongside Owen Struggles.

Steel City Whippets strengthened their promotion credentials by earning a 2-2 draw at Aston Swallownest and sit second, just two points off the summit.

Stag United remain a major threat after sharing six goals with United 4 Communities. Tyler Doman was among the scorers for Stag, who are only three points off top spot with games in hand.

Sportsman Inn produced a seven-goal display against Yorkshire Wanderers. Yusuf Saho netted a hat-trick while Jake Bridges and Will Snow both scored twice in a commanding 7-2 victory.

At the top of Division Four, Brampton United delivered one of the weekend's most significant results by defeating leaders Wincobank Rovers 4-1.

Jack Arundel was the star performer with a hat-trick as Brampton moved level on points with Wincobank and strengthened their own promotion hopes.

FC Kimberworth RHT continued their impressive campaign with a 5-2 victory at Inter Rother, inspired by a James Leake hat-trick, while Thurcroft Juniors finally enjoyed a breakthrough result with a 7-0 hammering of Rawmarsh thanks to four goals from Kyle Conneally and a Ty Stewart treble.

The Sheffield and Hallamshire Sunday County Cup also provided plenty of drama.

The Little Mester progressed with a 2-0 win at Innings FC, while Langold Old Boys claimed an impressive 2-1 victory at Kinsley Boys.

The Colin hit six in a 6-3 success over AFC Mallard and Loca FC RDSL eased through with a convincing 6-0 win against The Club Pot.

Brecks Snooker edged one of the ties of the round, defeating Woodsetts Rangers 5-4, while Rotherham Town Spartans produced the performance of the day by dismantling Sheppey 10-0.

AFC Lounge progressed with a 3-0 victory over AFC Brush and Easel, but there were exits for AFC Langold, Horse and Jockey, Kilton United, Bradgate and Stag United.

With Brinsworth DC, Darnall Urban, The Little Mester and AFC Brush and Easel all leading the way in their respective divisions, the first genuine gaps are starting to appear. However, with plenty of football still to come and several sides holding games in hand, the race for honours remains wide open.

Sportsman Spot-On As Owen Saves The Day

BLADES SUPER DRAW
Keith Firminger

The County FA Sunday Trophy saw The Sportsman pip fellow Blades Super Draw team Crookes on a penalty shoot-out, thanks to two penalty saves by stand-in keeper Nicky Owen.

Crookes looked the more likely to take the lead, so it was against the run of play when Josh Booth put The Sportsman ahead. After the break Crookes kept pegging away and eventually grabbed a deserved equaliser with an Oliver McQuillin strike. That took the game to a penalty shoot-out and The Sportsman’s stand-in keeper Nick Owen used his experience as a striker to make the two saves that took his side through to Round 3. Also, through to Round 3 is AFC Wise-wood after they beat Doncaster’s Yorkshire Grey 12-0. Alfie Wright led the way with a hat-trick along with doubles for both Harry Hayes and Oliver Scott. Their others came from one each for Jake Carr, Sam Civil, Whylie Walford, Lewis Hunt and Louis Farquhar in a totally one-sided affair. Our third team through is Southey So-cial after a Jack Whyers hat-trick helped them win a 7 goal thriller, 4-3, against Rotherham’s Division 1 Kilton United. Whyers put Southey in front the first time and although their visitors levelled, they were back in front by half-time thanks to a Ryan Whitney strike. After the break Kilton United levelled a second time, but two more Whyers strikes put Southey in charge and they held on after the visitors netted a late third. Doubles for both Danny Reet and Elliott Wilkes helped Wadsley Bridge Sixers keep their perfect away record with a 5-0 victory at Boynton Sports to go top. Reet’s first gave Sixers a half-time lead and he added his second 15 minutes into the second half. With Sixers George

Rudd, Brad Howe and Louie Ashton dominating, more goals for Sixers looked certain and Archie Houston squared the ball for Wilkes to make it three. Wilkes was then taken out in the penalty area, allowing Chris Belshaw to make it four from the spot and Wilkes completed the scoring with his second of the game. Previous leaders Wickersley CC were beaten for the first time this season, 3-1 by reigning champions Royal Earl. After a goalless first half, Earl took the lead straight after the break with a Jed Phillips strike from the edge of the area. An own goal then handed Earl a second, but Wickersley reduced the arrears when a good move paved the way for a Liam Tomlinson strike. Wickersley pressed for an equaliser, but instead it was Owen Haigh that netted Earl’s third with a back-post header to seal the points for the visitors. Stannington Village went third with a 7-1 home win over Hacken-thorpe. That scoreline didn’t look likely as Stannington had only gone close in the first half when they hit the woodwork, but they managed to grab the lead just before the interval when Luca De-Falco set up Mikey Vella and although his shot was saved the rebound fell perfectly for Aemad Gadour to put the home side in front. The second half saw Stannington step up a gear and their lead was soon doubled when Dan White flicked on for Gadour to glance in his second. Gadour then turned provider for Vella to make it three with a finish into the corner. A corner was headed down by White for Vella to turn it in and their fifth came when Jack Worrall was brought down in the area and he picked himself up to score from the spot. Their sixth came when Harley won the ball before smashing it in from the edge of the area and, despite a chad Gibson strike for Hackenthorpe, Stannington completed the rout when DeFalco and Joel Purkiss combined to set Worrall up for his second. Jubilee Rangers stayed joint third with a 3-2 victory at Loca FC. After a cagey start it was Jubilee that got their noses in front when a ball over the top allowed Will Osgathorpe to get round the back and score in off a post. Loca rallied and deservedly level before half-time when a good move was finished off by Jamie Goldenburgh. After the break it was Jubilee that started better and they went back in front when a corner was only half cleared and Liam Hill-Simmons’s crisp shot beat the keeper. Loca fought back a second time and another good move was finished off by Dan Richards. Loca went flat out for a winner, but it went to Jubilee instead when Harry Trotter hit a 35 yard strike worthy of winning any game. Eckington MW also moved up the table with a 3-1 win at Mosborough

Reds. A fast start saw Eckington take the lead when Aiden Horspool knocked home the rebound after his first shot was blocked. Reds responded quickly and were soon level with a Matt Ellis strike, but it was Eckington that led at half-time after Dan White intercepted a short back-pass before beating the keeper. The second half saw both teams have half chances, but it was Eckington that finally sealed the points when Joe Harris headed down for Horspool to grab his second. The only Division 1 game saw Queens Head go second in the table with a 15-0 win at Brinsworth Whitehill. Queens goals came from Frank Clarke with 4, Josh Hague with 3, doubles for Nathan Metcalfe, Harrison Marvin and Aaron Mushet, and one each for Liam Hannah and Jared Galloway, but there was also plenty of praise for the young Brinsworth side who never gave up.

Seven-Up Davis Destroys Athletic

MEXBOROUGH SUNDAY
Shaun Best

Jonathan Davis grabbed the headlines as well as the match ball courtesy of an incredible seven-goal haul at the weekend.

Davis was ruthless in front of goal as Highgate WMC cruised to a 9-2 victory at Mexborough Athletic to earn a share of third place in Division One. Michael Goddard and Robbie Billam added the other goals for Highgate, while Jay White and Tyler Dyas were on target for Mexborough. A brace from Joshua Whitehouse, alongside strikes from Archie Corker, Simon Tierney and Bailey Winnard, helped Cross Keys Wath to a 5-2 victory at New Masons Arms, lifting them into second place. Jake Scott and George Goodinson replied for the hosts. Both Premier Division fixtures produced seven-goal thrillers and narrow victories. Swinton Sportsbox came from 3-1 down to defeat White Hart Wadworth 4-3. Nathan Ashbridge, Tim Miles and Callum Drummond had put Wadworth in control at the break, but Harry Emp-tage and Rhys Plater both scored twice to snatch victory for Sportsbox. Swinton Ring O' Bells edged out Denaby United by the same 4-3 scoreline. Harrison Norton scored twice for Ring O' Bells, while Cobi Rushton matched that feat for Denaby. Elliott Harrison and Scott Walsh completed the Ring O' Bells scoring, with Max Moseley also finding the net for the visitors. Both Barnburgh WMC and Sim Roomz bowed out of the Sheffield & Hallamshire Trophy following heavy away defeats. Barnburgh lost 4-0 at Auckley, while Sim Roomz went down 7-1 at Scawthorpe Herons Seconds.

Steels Hit Twelve to Stay Perfect

MEADOWHALL U18
Martin Gilmour

Stocksbridge Park Steels maintain their 100% start to the Premier League season to move clear at the top with a convincing 12-0 away win at hapless Work-sop Town Yellows.

Victory Ogbebor with a glut of goals (5), a brace for Devon Bow-skill and one each for Will Sutcliffe, Lincoln Marriott, Jacob Barry, Luca Esposito and Ethan Nkube gave the points to Steels. An excellent game at Staveley saw a share of the spoils with Staveley Miners Welfare Blues and Penistone Church Blacks sharing six goals. A goal for Jack Lenton along with two assists and goals for Josh North and Jefferson Bradley for Welfare, with Dan Fawcett, Luke Fretwell and Luke Challand replying for the visitors. Sheffield FC go second in the division after a 3-0 home win against Dodworth Miners Welfare. A hat trick for Fin-ley McCabe giving Sheffield FC the points. Wombwell Town staged a second-half comeback to maintain their 100% start to the season 2-1 down at half-time to Staveley Miners Welfare with Luca Si-gona and Freddie Rooke putting the Welfare ahead at the break. However, Hayden Sykes with two and Ethan Haywood and Womb-well Town turned it around to win the game 3-2. A share of the spoils at Penistone as Pen-istone Church Whites and Mexborough Rangers played out a tight entertaining 1-1 draw. Lucas Malcolm with Penistone’s goal and Rohan Moncult with the Rangers reply. In the Work-sop Derby at Sandy Lane it was their home team Work-sop Town Amber who came out winners 5-2 against Work-sop Town Tigers. Caiden Drobnica, Hadley Far-rand-Jones, Noah Tay-lor and two own goals for the home team. De-spite 2 assists from Dan-iel Green for two more goals for Esoosa Osa-henmwinda Tigers still came out second best. In the other Division One game Thorncliffe Villa with two goals from Sam Macreath beat North Gawber Colliery 2-1. Ollie Stott with the Colliery reply.

Kiveton Turn Up Heat On Leaders

COUNTY SENIOR
Warren Bird

The County Senior Premier Division title race took another fascinating twist as Kiveton Park strengthened their challenge while leaders Dodworth MWFC maintained their advantage at the summit.

Dodworth remain top after making light work of Oughtibridge WMSC with a convincing 6-1 victory. Jake Bedford, Brandon Gusdal and Ethan Kenny were all on target, while Matty Love scored twice and Harry Sagar added another as the leaders continued their impressive run.

Kiveton Park remain firmly on their heels after arguably the result of the weekend. Chay Searston continued his outstanding season with a hat-trick and Jordan

Claxton was also on target as Kiveton defeated fellow contenders Denaby Main 4-2. Luke Winder and Marcus Edwards scored for Denaby, but the defeat was a setback for a side that had worked their way back into contention after a slow start to the campaign.

Wombwell Main's impressive season continued with a 2-0 victory at South Elmsall United Services. Ryan Wingrove maintained his fine goalscoring form, while Alex Good was also on target as Wombwell kept themselves firmly in the promotion conversation.

AFC Dronfield produced one of the biggest surprises of the weekend with a stunning 5-2 victory over Denaby Main. Having struggled during the opening weeks of the season, Dronfield's recent improvement continued as they claimed another eye-catching result against one of the division's leading sides.

Penistone Church Reserves enjoyed a productive afternoon as Oliver Casson and a Harry Hoyland double secured a 3-1 victory over Handsworth Reserves. Cole scored the visitors' consolation.

Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves continued to prove they can influence the division despite being unable to win promotion. Josh Wharin scored both goals in a 2-0 victory over South Elmsall United Services.

Thorncliffe Villa claimed an important three points with a 2-0 success over Swinton Athletic thanks to goals from Daniel Ashton and Ben Vigrass.

The fixture between Silkstone United and Ecclesfield Red Rose was abandoned in the 74th minute following a serious injury to a Silkstone player. Everyone at South Yorkshire Sport wishes the injured player a full and speedy recovery.

In Division One, leaders Jubilee Sports tightened their grip on top spot with a resounding 6-1 victory over Denaby Main Reserves. Daniel Barnsley led the way with a hat-trick, George Rudd added two more and Jubilee's other scorer was not reported. Josh Jones found the net for Denaby.

Hepworth United Reserves strengthened their position near the top with a 3-0 victory over Parkgate Reserves.

Sheffield City and Dinnington Town Reserves shared an entertaining 3-3 draw. Coen Nicholson Cooper, Regan Millard and Lucas Risenmay were all on target for City.

North Gawber Colliery collected another valuable win, defeating Sheffield Union 3-0 to continue their climb up the table.

Maltby Main Reserves were edged out 3-2 by Swinton Athletic Reserves in a closely fought encounter.

Division Two leaders Dronfield Town Reserves maintained their promotion push with a 5-2 victory over Wombwell Town Reserves. Liam Lambert and Reilly Dyas scored for the visitors, but Dronfield's attacking strength again proved decisive.

Wombwell Main Reserves stayed firmly in contention with an emphatic 8-1 County Cup victory over Youdan.

Adam Taylor was the star of the show with four goals, while Blake Davenport, Lewis Wood and a Ryan Hallsworth double completed the scoring.

Treeton Terriers kept pace with the leading teams thanks to a convincing 5-0 victory over AFC Dronfield Reserves. Harley Battison struck twice, while Jack Binney, Kieran Hawley and Lewis Jewitt were also on target.

West End Terriers and Rotherham Town served up the highest-scoring league game of the weekend, with West End emerging 7-5 winners despite a Sam Dannatt hat-trick. George Shaw and Daniel White added Rotherham's other goals.

In the County Cup, Dodworth MWFC Reserves progressed thanks to Sam Smith's goal in a 1-0 victory over AFC Manton.

Sheffield Medics also advanced in style with a 6-0 win against Athersley Rec Over-45s. Manny Basra and Matthew Okonji both scored twice, while Josh King and Rayan Kunnummal were also on target.

DONCASTER SUNDAY

Chris Daines

County Cup action dominated much of the weekend for Doncaster & District Sunday League clubs, with several sides booking their places in the next round and a number of impressive performances against opposition from outside the league.

Carcroft Village needed penalties to see off their opponents after a hard-fought goalless draw. Nerves were held in the shoot-out as Carcroft eventually prevailed 4-3 to keep their cup ambitions alive.

Auckley FC enjoyed a far more comfortable afternoon, easing past Barnburgh WMC 4-0. Auckley have been among the Championship promotion contenders this season and carried that form into cup competition with an assured display.

Innings FC were unable to join them in the next round, suffering a 2-0 home defeat to Little Meisters, while FC Ivanhoe edged through after an entertaining 3-2 victory against Queens Head Hoyland.

AFC Mallard bowed out despite finding the net three times, eventually losing 6-3 to The Colin in one of the highest-scoring ties of the weekend.

Langold Lakeside were involved in one of the closest games of the round. After a thrilling 3-3 draw with Ecclesfield Stocks, Lakeside kept their composure from the spot to win the shoot-out 4-3 and progress.

Kinsley Boys were less fortunate, seeing their cup run ended by a 2-1 defeat against Lan-gold Old Boys.

Yorkshire Grey endured a difficult afternoon, crashing to a 12-0 defeat away at AFC Wisewood, while SFC Glasshouse continued their impressive recent form with a convincing 4-1 victory over Rose and Crown.

Shireoaks Welfare were also successful, beating Williams Bar Cudworth 2-0, and Scawthorpe Herons Reserves hit seven goals without reply against Sim Rooms FC to book their place in the next round in style.

The Sportsman completed a disappointing cup afternoon with a 5-1 home defeat against Shaktar Sheffield.

League business continued alongside the cup programme and there were some important results in the title races.

In the Premier Division, Flying Childers edged past ZK Dons 1-0 in a closely fought encounter. The victory keeps Childers in touch with the leading pack, while ZK Dons were unable to build on recent encouraging performances.

Horse & Groom produced one of the results of the day by ending Murphys' unbeaten start to the season. A 2-1 victory lifted Horse & Groom further clear of trouble and demonstrated their ability to compete with the division's strongest sides.

Defending champions Temple remain some way short of the form that carried them to last season's title.

They were held to a 3-3 draw by Styrrup Rats, dropping further points despite scoring three times. The result leaves the champions with work to do if they are to reel in the early leaders.

The Championship continues to be led by Epworth Town Colts, who maintained their excellent run with a 2-0 win over Rawcliffe United.

Dunscroft United remain their closest challengers after a convincing 3-0 success against Harworth Colliery MUSC. Dunscroft have quietly put together an impressive run and continue to apply pressure at the top.

FC Willaspoons returned from Warren Park Red Lion with all three points thanks to a 2-1 victory and remain firmly in the chase for the promotion places.

In Division One, leaders Adwick Park Foresters continued their unbeaten start by defeating Scawthorpe Herons Thirds 4-0. Foresters now have 19 points from their opening seven matches and have established themselves as the team to catch at the summit. Shireoaks Welfare remain unbeaten in third after winning all four league matches to date, while Kinsley Boys occupy second place with four wins and two draws from six games. [fulltime.thefa.com]

Balby FC recorded a useful 3-1 victory over Goole Borough to strengthen their position in mid-table, while Hensall Hawks produced the most eye-catching result of the division, hammering Sands United South Yorkshire 9-1. The Hawks' fourth victory in five league outings keeps them firmly in the promotion mix. [fulltime.thefa.com]

Having lost 1-0 at FA Women's National League Division One leaders Leaffield Athletic the previous week.

Last Sunday's home game against Sporting Khalsa became even more of a must win game for Barnsley Women in their quest to achieve promotion to the third tier.

Barnsley made a good start when Millie Wortley put them in front, but after Sporting hit back to lead 2-1, Barnsley responded in perfect fashion to go into the break 3-2 up, Lucy Cook equalising and then Jodie Snelson netting the first of her brace. Amber Sewell completed a fine 5-2 home win with a chip from the left of the area.

It was the first time this season that Barnsley had conceded more than once in a League game. Last season they did not concede more than once in 19 of their League games, but in the other three games their opponents netted 5 each time.

Victory enabled Barnsley to swap places with Sporting and keep the pressure on Leafield who remain four points clear at the top.

Having lost 7-0 at Sutton Coldfield Town in the Women's FA Cup a fortnight earlier, Sheffield FC returned for their League encounter and though they suffered a sixth successive League defeat, Sheffield will be hoping the light at the end of the tunnel is shining more brightly.

The hosts scored late on to win by just 1-0 and move six points clear of Sheffield who remain bottom of the table. Having leaked goals in every game since gaining their only point in a 1-1 opening day draw at Kidderminster Harriers, Sheffield go into their next game at home to Chesterfield, who are fourth in the table with an aggregate scoring record of 4-4, with renewed optimism.

The eight ties in the Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA Women's Cup second round yielded 64 goals, but that was chiefly down to the draw which featured just one tie between teams at the same level.

Millmoor Juniors were the round's top scorers and their 18-0 home victory over Tree-ton Terriers was the highest score in this season's competition. Tree-ton are newcomers this season and play four divisions below their fellow County League hosts.

Chrissy Lee netted five times making her the round's top individual scorer. Leanne Corns, Ebony Deans, Laura Machin, Tilly Payton and Issy Williams all scored twice while there were singles for Emily Evans, Carly Gill and Karly Salter.

The other double figure score was not unexpected, Rotherham United winning 11-1 at home to Doncaster Rovers Development. Rotherham have strengthened their squad considerably this season. New signing Mo McIntosh (who was at Sheffield FC last season) bagged a hat trick. Both Gracie Lucas and Freya Rattenbury scored twice and there were singles for Erren Davies, Sophia Swann, Lauryn Wilcock and keeper Ellie Sharpe who netted from the halfway line.

Meanwhile, Belles (first team, from tier four) were involved in a tie where they were firm favourites to progress, opponents Barnsley Women Under-21s who play in Division Three of the tier seven County League.

The interval score of 5-0 had increased to 6-0 by the hour mark when a serious knee injury to Belles captain Ruby Jex-Oldfield caused play to be halted and after a long delay both teams agreed to let the score stand. County FA have since confirmed that rather than requiring the “abandoned” game to be replayed. Both Charlotte Gowlett and Bradie Wild scored twice and Taylah Charlton and Tiana Hicks once for Belles.

Barnsley Women Reserves were too strong for their fellow County League Division One opponents Rotherham United Under-23s with five different players - Lizzie Coates, Jess Jones, Fran Lambert, Zoe Laughton and Katie McCreadie - on target in a 5-0 away win.

Both Francesca Brown and Isabelle Cleverly netted twice for Huddersfield Town Development in the 4-0 home win over Rossington Main.

Abby Watkinson scored half of Handsworth's goals in their 8-0 home victory over Barnsley FC Ladies. Katie Jepson 2, Demi Hartas and Dani Pinder, who has recently re-joined Handsworth, were the others on target.

Amy Broomhead bagged a hat trick for Sheffield Wednesday in their 5-0 home win over Parkgate, Eve Bennett and Nicole Shaw also scoring.

Jodie Clarkson put Brodsworth Main ahead away to SJR Worksop, but the hosts hit back to run out 5-1 winners thanks to goals from Toni McHamilton 2, Millee Clarke, Mollie Crump and Freya Topliss.

The only Regional League action involving a local team saw Dronfield Town draw 2-2 at home to Arnold Town in East Midlands Division One North, Abigail Clark and Emily Osgerby on the mark for Dronfield.

Leaders Stocksbridge Park Steels moved six points clear at the top of Sheffield & Hallamshire Women's County League Division One thanks to a 6-0 home victory over Frickley Athletic. Gemma Harte netted four times with Caitlin Devins and Jenna McGee also on target.

Holly Jenkins, Millee Sims and Kelly Wright were on target for Dinington Town in the first half of their 3-1 home win over Handsworth Reserves for whom Brooke Tully scored just past the hour.

SJR Worksop stretched their 100% start in Division Two to five games, their 6-1 victory at start of day leaders Brinsworth Whitehill taking their scoring record to 26-1. Brinsworth's Caitlin Cooper had the distinction of ending the League's last unbreached defence.

Sheffield Wednesday Reserves climbed to second with Sheridan Betts netting the only goal of the game at Charnock Ridgeway. Demi Cassinelli was on target from 30 yards just past the half hour to give Socrates a single goal victory at Dearne & District.

Penistone Church registered their first clean sheet since the opening day when drawing at Rossington Main Reserves.

Bobbie Tonks scored for Brampton United who started the day top of Division Three on goal difference, but a 5-1 home defeat to Brinsworth Whitehill Development saw them slip to fourth. Millie Lee 4 and Emily Licence were the away scorers.

Also scoring four was Mikayla Harper with all of the goals for Kiveton Park Reserves who moved top with victory by the odd goal in seven over Swallownest Miners for whom Sara Tyler 2 and Cassie Barrett were on target.

Sheffield Wednesday Development are now second, two points behind, but with two games in hand after Alexandra Wybourn's early goal proved enough for victory at Chancet Wood. Maltby Juniors were 2-1 home winners over Wickersley Youth.

Frickley Athletic 2nd XI remain unbeaten in Division Four winning 3-1 at Scawthorpe Scorpions for whom Ffion Brown scored. The clash between the bottom two teams produced a first victory of the season for FURD, Football Unites, Racism Divides. Martha Hallam 2, Kay Bryning and Alicia Dins were on target at New Lodge whose goals by Jenna-Lea Portess 2 and Steph Marsland meant they scored more than twice in a game for the first time (but to no avail).

Sheffield Medics recorded their first home point in a 2-2 draw against Brodsworth Main Development whose scorers were Jill Edmonds and Joanna Meads.

The only game in Division Five saw Rossington FC move top, winning 8-2 at home to Kinsley Ladies whom they had beaten 7-2 in their earlier meeting.

Summer Pearson was top scorer with 4, while Eve Micklethwaite bagged a hat trick and Katie Clarke also scored.

The British Universities and Colleges Sport (BUCS) season is now underway. The competition is split into regions and tiers.

Sheffield Hallam 1s who have won promotion to the top tier began with a 6-2 defeat at Leeds Beckett 1s. Jemima Jarvis, who also plays for Barnsley Women, scored both. Hallam 2s lost 3-0 at Leeds Uni 3s in tier 3B, while Mia Jervis, Lily Sargeant and Kate Thompson netted for Hallam 3s in their 4-3 home defeat to Manchester based UCFB 2s in tier 4B.

University of Sheffield are again fielding four teams. Daisy Moore scored for the 1s in their 3-1 defeat at Northumbria 3s in tier 3B. Jenny Ryan bagged a hat trick with Maia Ball the other scorer for the 2s in a 4-1 victory at Leeds Beckett 3s in tier 4B. Tier 5B saw the 3s lose 3-0 at Huddersfield 1s and the 4s also lose at York 2s.

Bonus-Point Boost For Sheffield

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Sheffield RUFC produced one of their best performances of the National One season to secure a valuable 33-22 victory over Cambridge at Abbeydale Park.

After back-to-back trips to London and a difficult run of results, Sheffield desperately needed a response and they delivered with a five-try display that earned a welcome bonus-point success against opponents who only last season were playing Championship rugby.

The win was made all the more impressive by the club's continuing injury problems.

There was some good news with the return of George Rogers, Will Archer and Chris Hooper, but Alex Fawdry joined the growing casualty list. The changes saw Josh Kent move into the back row, Will Smith return to midfield and Peter Hudson-Kowalewicz handed his debut.

Unfortunately for Sheffield, the afternoon started in familiar fashion.

Cambridge struck with less than two minutes played when centre Eli Craven burst through the defence before sending second row Jake McCay over beneath the posts. Luke Bouchier converted and Sheffield found themselves trailing 7-0 almost before the game had settled.

The visitors continued to apply pressure during the opening stages but Sheffield gradually found their rhythm.

The levelling score arrived after 19 minutes when debutant Peter Hudson-Kowalewicz marked his first appearance for the club with a try just left of the posts. Jack Delaney added the conversion and Abbeydale was level once again.

Cambridge regained the lead through a Bouchier penalty before Sheffield responded impressively.

Returning winger Chris Hooper weaved his way through a crowded defence to score near the posts and Delaney's conversion edged the hosts 14-10 ahead.

That lead proved short-lived.

Two penalties handed Cambridge attacking territory and winger Benji Ritson crossed in the corner before Bouchier converted to restore the visitors' advantage at 17-14 approaching half-time.

The turning point arrived early in the second period.

Following a lengthy stoppage which saw Cambridge winger Ethan Thorne stretchered from the field and taken to hospital, Sheffield emerged strongly and immediately piled pressure onto the visitors' try line.

When Cambridge try-scorer McCay was sent to the sin-bin, Sheffield took full advantage.

Replacement prop George Rogers crashed over from close range and Delaney converted to put the hosts back in front.

With Cambridge still down to 14 men, Sheffield struck again. Second row Dom Parsons powered over for the fourth try and Delaney maintained his perfect afternoon from the tee to stretch the lead to 28-17.

Now fully in control, Sheffield continued to dominate territory and possession.

Another period of sustained pressure saw Hooper claim his second try of the afternoon to secure the all-important bonus point. Although Delaney was unable to convert, Sheffield had established a commanding 33-17 advantage.

Cambridge refused to surrender and hooker Harry Tunningley crossed to reduce the deficit, but Sheffield were not to be denied.

The hosts defended resolutely during the closing stages to secure a much-needed victory and move themselves further clear of the bottom end of the National One table.

While Sheffield celebrated an important win, Sheffield Tigers completed an equally impressive comeback to record their second consecutive victory in National League Two North.

Few inside Dore Moor would have believed what was to come after seeing Tigers trail Chester 26-10 midway through the contest.

Facing a Chester side that arrived in South Yorkshire sitting fourth in the table with five wins from six matches, Tigers looked to be heading for defeat despite tries from Louis Redfern-Brown and James Broadley.

However, the hosts produced a magnificent second-half turnaround.

Joe Mitchell crossed shortly after the restart to breathe fresh life into the contest before James Norman added another score as Tigers steadily chipped away at the deficit.

Tom O'Brien's reliable kicking kept the scoreboard moving and ensured Chester never felt comfortable despite holding the advantage.

The dramatic finale arrived in the closing moments.

Still trailing by four points entering the final minute, Tigers launched one last attack and were rewarded when Josh

Cliff crossed for the decisive try. O'Brien then kept his nerve to add the conversion and complete an extraordinary 29-26 victory.

The success followed the previous week's win at Wharfedale and means Tigers have now transformed their season after a difficult opening month. Having lost several matches by narrow margins, back-to-back victories have lifted confidence significantly at Dore Moor.

Both clubs now have a welcome weekend off from league action.

For Sheffield RUFC, the break arrives at an ideal time with injuries continuing to test squad depth. The coaching staff will hope to welcome more players back before attention turns to the next phase of their National One campaign.

The pause may be less warmly received at Sheffield Tigers, who have built genuine momentum with successive victories after finally getting their first win on the board. However, it does provide an opportunity for bumps and bruises to heal before they look to continue their resurgence.

For now, both Sheffield clubs can reflect on a successful weekend, with Sheffield proving they can compete against former Championship opposition and Tigers demonstrating the resilience required to turn a season around.

Titans Continue To Defy Expectations

Rotherham Titans’ remarkable return to Championship rugby shows no sign of slowing down after Harvey Biljon’s men recorded a fourth victory in their opening five matches, while Doncaster Knights were left wondering what might have been after a narrow defeat to Coventry.

Just a few months ago, survival was widely viewed as the primary objective for the newly-promoted Titans. Five games into the campaign, they are sitting fourth in the table and looking increasingly like one of the stories of the season. Their latest success came on the road at Richmond, where a composed and clinical display earned a deserved 29-14 victory and their first away win of the campaign. Rotherham settled quickly in south-west London and needed only five minutes to make their mark. Number eight Lekima Ravuvu powered over for the game’s opening try, immediately setting the tone for another confident Titans performance. Richmond responded through hooker Will Goffey, but the visitors remained firmly in control. The platform was once again provided by a combination of defensive discipline and forward power, qualities that have become hallmarks of Rotherham’s impressive start. Russell Bennett restored the lead after a well-worked lineout move before the visitors effectively seized control during a devastating spell before half-time. Ben Cambriani was at the heart of it. The winger produced a superb break from deep inside his own half before sending John Okafor away for one of the tries of the afternoon. Moments later Cambriani was celebrating himself, finishing in the corner to cap an outstanding first-half display and send Titans into the break 22-7 ahead. From there, Rotherham rarely looked troubled. Richmond continued to battle but found opportunities difficult to create against a well-organised Titans defence. Any lingering doubts were removed ten minutes from time when replacement hooker Dewald Kotze was driven over from another powerful maul to secure the bonus point and put the result beyond doubt. A late Richmond consolation failed to alter the mood. For Rotherham, this was another significant statement. Having already defeated Coventry and Bedford, two sides expected to challenge near the top end of the division, they are beginning to establish themselves as genuine contenders rather than simply promoted survivors. Biljon was understandably delighted afterwards. “I think what people do not always see is the disruption behind the scenes; we had to make two late changes this morning, but we could still come down here and get a result,” he said. “That is a huge effort from the players considering the early start we had this morning and then playing a game at four o’clock.” The Titans boss was particularly pleased with the character his side continue to show. “The effort that those guys have put in today, they can be really proud of that performance. “We are really pleased with how things have gone. You could see the emotion from Richmond, and they worked so hard to keep us out, but for us to get the scores we did and to get five tries was outstanding.” The statistics make impressive reading. Four wins from five games, fourth place in the table and a growing belief that the Titans can compete with anybody in the division on their day. Attention now turns to another huge test at Clifton Lane when Cornish Pirates arrive looking to halt Rotherham’s momentum. While the Titans continued their excellent start, Doncaster Knights suffered late heartbreak in a 33-31 defeat against Coventry at Castle Park. The scoreline represented one of the closest contests of the Championship weekend and ultimately left the Knights with a losing bonus point after a match that swung repeatedly between the two sides. Doncaster started brightly and twice took the lead during an entertaining first half. Ryan Olowofela crossed inside four minutes before Wilf McCarthy added a second try midway through the opening period. Tom Curtis was in excellent form with the boot and his accuracy kept the Knights firmly in contention throughout. Coventry responded through tries from Ben Sugars and Jordan Poole before scrum-half Sam Maunder took control of proceedings, crossing twice as the visitors established a narrow interval advantage. Penaia Tagutu continued his excellent season after the break with two tries of his own, helping Doncaster stay within touching distance as the contest entered its closing stages. The Knights refused to go away and continued to throw everything at Coventry, earning a losing bonus point when Charlie Turnbull crossed late on. But despite their efforts, they could not find the decisive score and Coventry left South Yorkshire with a hard-earned 33-31 victory. The result leaves Doncaster with two wins from their opening five fixtures. There have been encouraging attacking signs throughout the opening weeks of the season, but consistency remains the challenge facing Director of Rugby Dean Richards and his squad.

Elsewhere in Champ Rugby, Worcester Warriors maintained their unbeaten start with another victory, while Ealing Trailfinders produced a dominant display at Blackheath. Amptill continued their strong form with a high-scoring win at Caldy and Cornish Pirates strengthened their position in the play-off places by defeating Chinnor.

Five rounds into the campaign and the early table is beginning to take shape.

Worcester lead the way, Ealing are firmly in the hunt and Coventry remain among the front runners.

But perhaps the biggest surprise of all sits in fourth place.

Promoted Rotherham Titans were expected by many to spend this season fighting for survival.

Instead, they are making the rest of the Championship sit up and take notice.

Sheffield Eagles have appointed former player Ryan Sheridan as their new head coach, with the experienced coach returning to the club ahead of the 2027 Championship season.

Sheridan, whose professional playing career began at Sheffield, brings extensive experience from both sides of the game, having held coaching positions at several established clubs, including Super League outfit Catalans Dragons.

The 2026 season marked the conclusion of his three-year spell with the French club, where he joined in 2024 as assistant coach under Steve McNamara. He subsequently worked under Joel Tomkins and briefly assumed interim head coach duties following Tomkins’ departure before John Cartwright took charge.

Before moving to France, Sheridan held assistant coaching roles at Featherstone Rovers, Castleford Tigers, Warrington Wolves and London Broncos.

His return to Sheffield represents a homecoming more than three decades in the making. A former half-back, Sheridan progressed through the Eagles’ academy before making his first-team debut on December 8, 1991. Carrying Heritage Number 142, he came off the bench in a 35-2 victory over Workington Town.

Over the following five seasons, Sheridan became an established member of the Sheffield side. His most prolific campaign came in 1994-95, when he scored 16 tries in 30 appearances.

He was also part of a significant moment in the club’s history, partnering Dean Lawford at half-back in Sheffield’s inaugural Super League fixture against Paris Saint-Germain in March 1996.

Sheridan departed at the end of that season having made 97 appearances and scored 40

Sheffield Eagle New Head Coach Ryan Sheridan

tries for the Eagles. His playing career continued with Leeds Rhinos, Widnes Vikings, Castleford Tigers and Dewsbury Rams, spanning 14 years before he transitioned into coaching.

Sheridan will take up the role with immediate effect, with Sheffield due to return to pre-season training in November as preparations begin for the 2027 Championship campaign.

The appointment marks a new chapter for the Eagles as they look to build for the season ahead, with

Sheridan returning to the club where his rugby league journey first began, this time tasked with leading the team from the sidelines.

Sheffield Stars Shine To Back-To-Back Titles

SHEFFIELD STARS
Robert Mawhood

Sheffield Stars ended the 2026 season as they had started it, in winning form in the Northern Fours League. A win that sealed back to back titles.

Sheffield provided nine race winners from their sixteen races. Three each from Oliver Banyard and Kielan Burton, two for Pawel Idziorek and one from Matt Parrott. Bury Comets started the day as title challengers, but finished in third place, which gave Sheffield a League winning margin of four points. On the day Astley and Tyldesley finished in second place, with the help of two Sheffield riders. Ed Morton, on a season long loan from Sheffield, topped the scoring, while Kieran Hale scored 12 as a guest rider for the day.

Match Result
Sheffield Stars (49), Astley and Tyldesley (47), Bury Comets (46), Hull (41), Heckmondwike Saints (26), Stockport (17).

In the Junior League GP Individuals Sheffield topped the scoring with 160 points, with champions Hull in second place on 70.

Joey Athersych won the under 10's with his brother Zach in second place. Lucas Shale was fourth with Timothy Platten fifth. Lincoln Ackroyd finished second in the under 13's with George Platten fourth.

The season long Grand Prix saw Sheffield have three champions, Oliver Banyard (under 16), Laura Watson (Women) and Kielan Burton (Open).

Abbeydale Make Winning Start

Abbeydale's men's doubles team got their regional league campaign off to the perfect start with a convincing 4-0 victory over Loughborough Lawn Tennis Club.

The national doubles competition is split into five regional divisions across the country, with the winners of each league progressing to the national finals at Roehampton in London. Abbeydale compete in the eight-team East Midlands section and opened their season on home courts against Loughborough.

Each fixture sees clubs field two doubles pairings, with both pairs facing each of the opposing team's combinations. The side winning the most of the four matches claims the fixture, while a 2-2 draw is decided by a tense ten-point shootout.

Abbeydale left no need for any tie-break drama as both pairings won their two matches. Joseph Newman-Billington and Aaron Jinks, playing together competitively for the first time, recorded impressive victories of 6-1, 6-2 and 6-1, 6-0.

The other Abbeydale pairing of Conor Tordoff and Joe Gill also made a successful first outing together, winning 6-1, 7-5 and 6-2, 6-3 to complete the clean sweep.

The Sheffield club now turn their attention to their next fixture against David Lloyd Narborough on November 7. Narborough reached last season's national finals and are expected to provide a stern test, although Abbeydale will be boosted by the return of Alex Jinks for his first appearance of the campaign.

After a dominant opening-day performance, Abbeydale have laid down an early marker in their bid to reach the national finals.
