WELCOME FROM THE BOARDROOM TO GOLDINGTON ROAD

David Gunner Chairman

Good afternoon everybody and the warmest of welcomes to Goldington Road, the home of Bedford Blues. Today it is our privilege to stage the final of Elior Champ Rugby, a home game earned by virtue of Bedford Blues and Worcester Warriors being victorious in their semi-final encounters last weekend.

Following our tremendous victory over Coventry last Friday night, we knew we would be playing in the final, but Warriors' success on the Saturday meant that the venue would be here. This has given our entire team the task of putting on this afternoon's game at a week's notice, an enjoyable, but demanding one, thank you to everyone involved.

We are expecting an absolutely packed ground and to welcome a large contingent of Worcester Warriors supporters to create a fervent final day atmosphere. We congratulate them on their first season back in the Champ, to have built their team from a standing start, and reach today's final is some achievement. We extend that welcome to Chris Holland and his colleagues, as well as former Blues; Billy Twelvetrees, Josh Bassett, Will Biggs, Jake and Alfie Garside. It will be some game!

The play-off games, from quarter finals right through to today have certainly generated excitement and wider interest around the league. This proves what we knew all along that we have a competitive and attractive competition which deserves more media attention.

We will be entertaining the Champ Board this afternoon, including Chairman Simon Gillham, who are always welcome here.

As this season comes to a close, whatever today's result we have had an incredible season. A huge thank you to all our players and coaches who, under Mike Rayer's leadership, have kept us around the top of the table and then gone on to reach today's final.

Equally, we have had a successful season off the field in creating a match day atmosphere and an event that is hugely in demand. Thank you to Gareth Alred and his team, I know they will be delivering a really special day that we can all be proud of. They have been going above and beyond the call of duty, since the semi-final, working very long hours in handling a huge non rugby event over the Bank Holiday weekend, and it is very much appreciated. Our thanks are due to each and every one of them.

It's a great day for Bedford Blues and the league as a whole, thank you for your support.

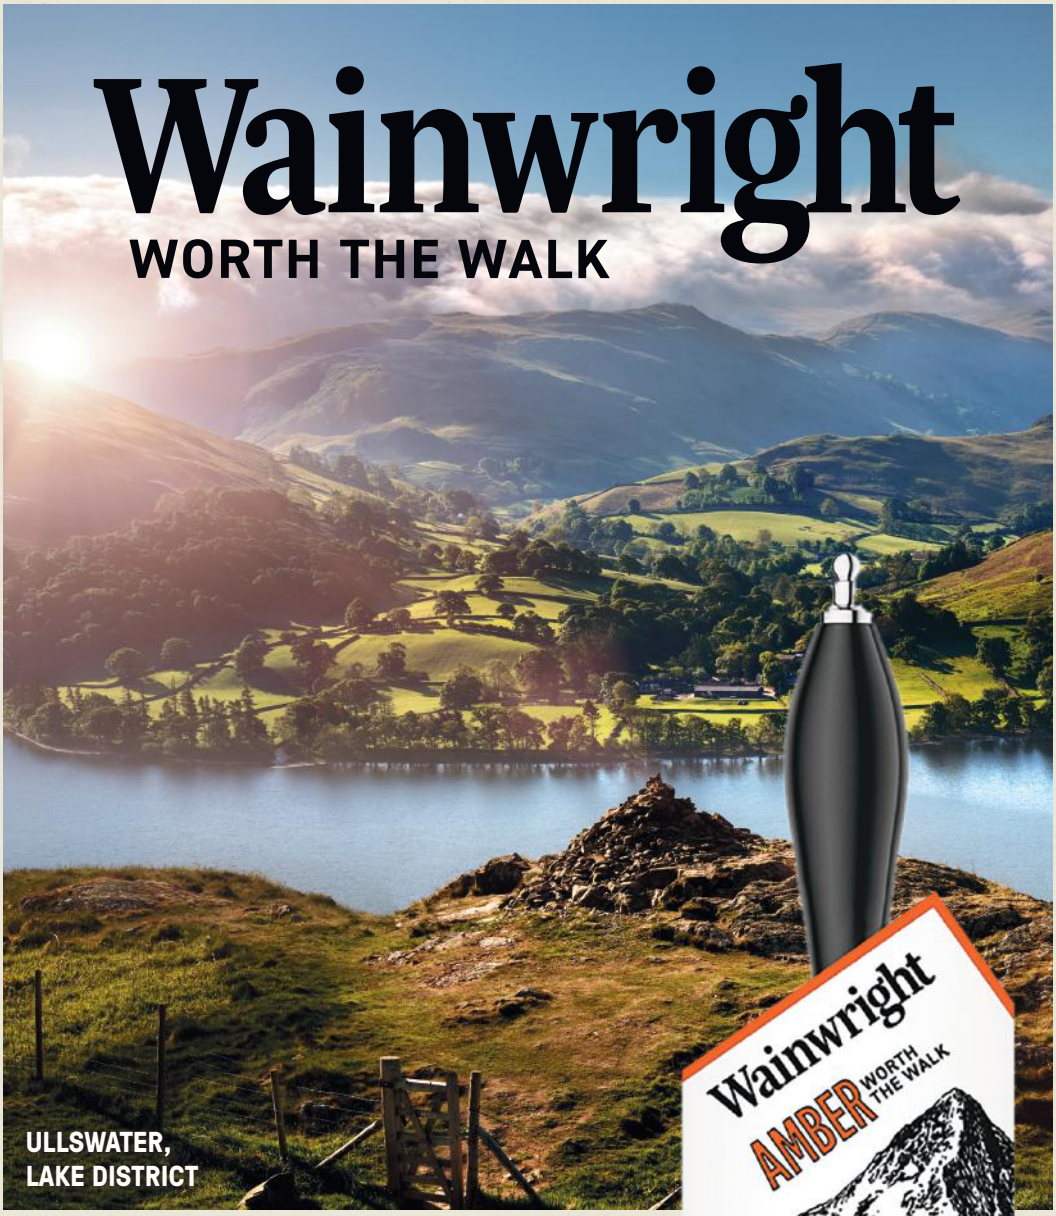

Come on you Blues...

WELCOME FROM THE
DIRECTOR OF RUGBY
TEAM TALK

Good afternoon everyone and welcome to the Elior Champ Rugby Final, held here with us in-front of a sold-out attendance at Goldington Road against Worcester Warriors.

We are very pleased to welcome Matt Everard, Tom Cruse, their coaching team, playing squad and travelling supporters here for what will be a pretty special occasion as we battle it out for the trophy.

The play-offs have been a fantastic addition to the league this season, and I thought both semi-finals were great spectacles to watch. Hopefully, a similar entertaining display is put on for you all this afternoon.

Finals don't come about very often, this is our first appearance in one since 2013, and the players have to enjoy the occasion. That's what we've said all week – go out and express yourself, and see where it takes us.

We've lived by our mantra of 'one game at a time' all season and there's no easier time to implement that belief than today. It is all or nothing.

I have to say, the performance in the semi-final, particularly that second half, will live long in the memory of not just the playing group and staff, but hopefully all of you who were in attendance also. The evening had everything and I was so proud to see it all come together so perfectly to set up today's final.

Worcester will be full of confidence themselves after inflicting a first defeat of the season on Ealing and will be determined to right the wrongs from the two league meetings so far this season.

To play in-front of a sellout for the second time this season is extremely humbling, and it's been an incredible home season with another record average attendance. All I can say is thank you and hopefully we can deliver you all with the ultimate prize this afternoon.

As you have done all season, be loud and proud again as we need you right behind us. We know Worcester are coming en masse and it's going to create an incredible atmosphere. We're all looking forward to the challenge.

Come On You Blues!

WELCOME FROM THE

CHIEF EXECUTIVE

A MOMENT IN HISTORY

When I wrote last week's notes, I declared 'what a season it has already been', but little did I think we would be back here nine days later!

Today is a moment in history, once in a blue moon and likely the only time Goldington Road will host the Champ final. So welcome to the Elior Champ Rugby Final between Bedford Blues v Worcester Warriors.

That welcome is extended to Stephen Vaughan and everyone travelling from Worcester, they have been a brilliant addition back to the league and it is a huge achievement for both clubs to reach this crescendo.

Today we have a fantastic matchday experience waiting for supporters as we bring the curtain down on a memorable 2025/26 Champ campaign in fitting fashion with the biggest prize on the line.

Both of last weekend's semi-finals were fantastic spectacles, and we expect nothing different this afternoon. This is a battle between the two best supported clubs in the division, and we know Worcester are travelling en masse, which is going to create an incredible final day atmosphere.

Our clubs have previous experience of meeting in a play-off situation, having met in the semi-finals back in the previous play-off structure in 2011. Blues were beaten by just a point on that day, so will need no more motivation to produce a different result today.

This is the chance to win genuine meaningful silverware, the chance to be the best club in England outside of a ringfenced franchise, and the chance to have the biggest party in our proud town. The same opportunity exists for Worcester, in their first season back, and we are under no illusions of how big the challenge in front of us will be.

Befitting a showcase final, you'll notice an increased matchday presentation around the ground with a second fan zone erected on the training pitch, plus a repeat of the flames, pyrotechnics and community flag display that lit up the semi-final. Make some noise and get behind your team.

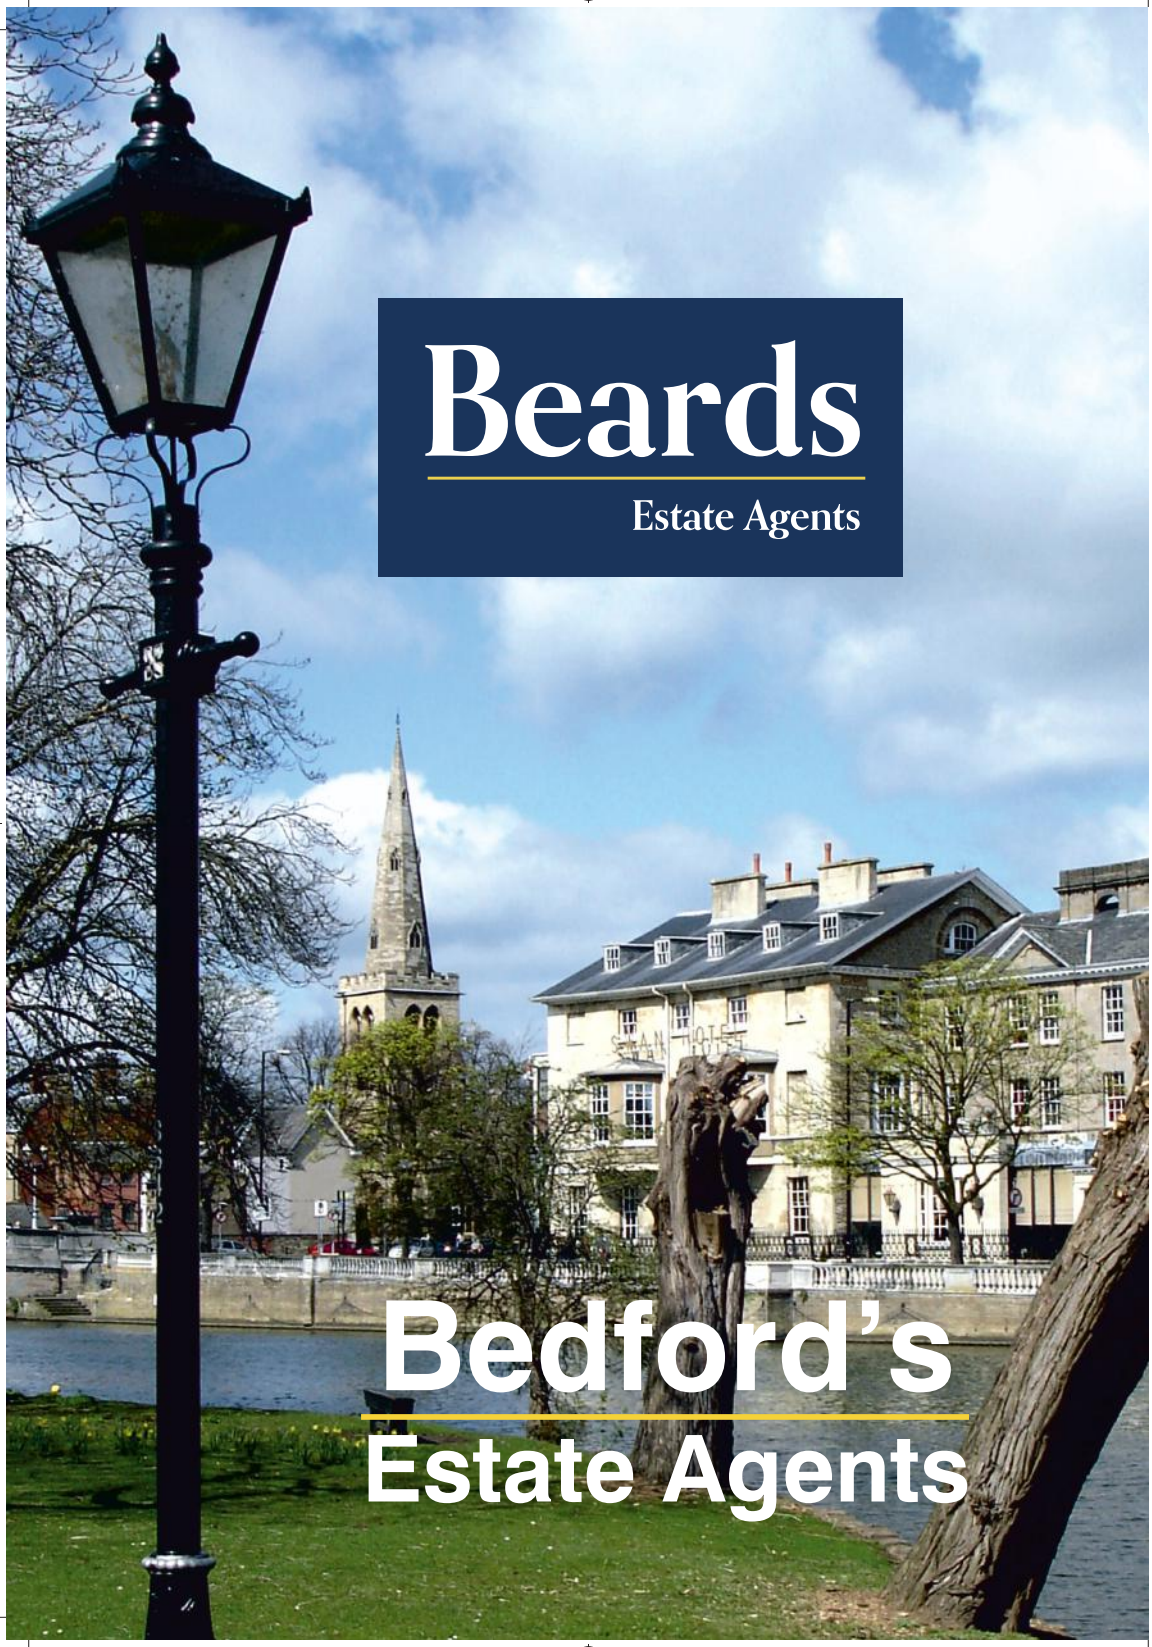

The final, and very special, thank you must go to our wonderful Blues Family. Our attendances have grown yet again, with an average of over 3,000 at Goldington Road this season, including today as our second sellout of the season.

I may have said it before, and I may be slightly biased, but this is a special club and that's down to our community of supporters. We are on course for another record year on and off the field, on behalf of our Board of Directors and everyone at the club, thank you.

Now back to the rugby, Come on you Blues!

BEDFORD BLUES SUPPORTERS CLUB

GET ON-BOARD AND FOLLOW THE BLUES

It is my privilege to be able to write these words ahead of our 'final' fixture of the season – one where the team have delivered week after week and kept us enthralled and entertained.

As supporters, we will keep turning up to Goldington Road and getting on the coaches no matter what. It is part of who we are. However, there is no denying that performances filled with skill, adventure, grit and determination make being a Blue that little bit more enjoyable.

This season was encapsulated in the semi-final – a second half for the ages. It wasn't just the attacking intent, Hutler's intercept, the Deano offload, Maisey under the posts... but the crunching tackles, tenacious defence and doggedness that made the night for me. A complete team performance which showed commitment to each other and to Bedford Blues.

It has been an honour to be part of the Bedford Blues Supporters Club this year. The connection between Club and supporters is priceless. There is a real sense of togetherness and community which positively contributes to Bedford as a whole. Towns and communities need a focus, something which we can all be proud of. We have that with Bedford Blues.

In our first year as the 'new' unified supporters' body, we have balanced continuity with change. We haven't been afraid to innovate where it adds value and our move to online voting for away 'Man of the Match' and the 'Supporters Club Player of the Season' are good examples. Increased engagement, more votes cast, and less effort for our wonderful volunteers.

This season has been an undoubted success. I don't think we need to be modest about that, but we should acknowledge that it came with a lot of hard work from the committee and volunteers. We'd love more help next season so if you want to get involved, let me know.

I want to end with our successes. A significant monetary contribution to the Club in excess of £20,000. Thriving away travel and plenty of new travellers. The 'Cambridge Big Away Day' and the first 'Annual Bash' which were full and re-enforced the relationship between the supporters and the players. I'm proud to be part of a small group of passionate Blues supporters who make all of this happen.

Let's celebrate our contribution to Bedford Blues, Elior Champ Rugby and our community.

What a season and what a club.

TODAY'S OPPONENTS

WORCESTER

It's a bit like London buses as you wait for a first meeting with Worcester Warriors for more than a decade and then three battles come in the space of a season. Blues will be hoping it's not third time lucky for their opponents this afternoon after two impressive victories in the league phase of Elior Champ Rugby.

Expected to do well when it was announced they would be joining the league for this 2025/26 campaign, it would be fair to say that Worcester have had to battle some peaks and troughs this season and are peaking at the right time of the season.

They may have lost the final four fixtures of their league campaign, but the play-offs are where it becomes truly important – just ask Ealing, after they were shocked by Warriors in the semi-final last weekend to ensure a trophyless season despite winning every game in the regular season.

There probably isn't too much for the two sides to learn about the other following two hotly contested encounters in December and April respectively, but there's certainly a lot of familiarity heading back to Goldington Road this afternoon.

Tom Cruse returns once again to his old stomping ground, and there's a squad containing Billy Twelvetrees and the Garside brothers among others – they'll certainly know a lot about Bedford before arrival.

These two sides know what it's like to face each other in play-off competition, Bedford coming mightily close to shocking Worcester at Sixways Stadium back in 2011 with only a narrow missed drop goal denying them the most famous of away victories.

As always, we hope everyone associated with Worcester Warriors has a fantastic afternoon on what, for some, will be their first visit to Bedford's premier sporting club.

FORWARD

Fraser Balmain

TIGHTHEAD PROP

One of the most experienced players within the Worcester Warriors squad, Fraser Balmain will be tasked with providing Worcester some solidity in the set-piece, an area Bedford were able to exploit in the league phase against his contemporaries.

He arrived at the club with a player-coach hybrid of offering advice at the scrum, and he's going to have to lead by example on the field within that role this afternoon to give Worcester go forward.

The 34-year-old made close to 200 Premiership appearances across spells for Leicester Tigers, Gloucester and Saracens across more than a decade spent in the top-flight, including winning the title in 2013 with Tigers.

He has also played in two European Challenge Cup finals, and a showpiece Anglo-Welsh Cup, so is familiar with matches of high importance. Balmain has made 15 appearances for Worcester this season, impressing every time he takes the field.

BACK

WING / CENTRE

Oval Insights 'Player of the Round' for both weeks of the play-offs so far, Siva Naulago is peaking at exactly the right time – scoring a brace in both of Worcester's Quarter Final and Semi Final victories in recent weeks.

He's had his injury problems this season, making just six appearances, but they've certainly been important ones in recent times. Naulago featured against Bedford at Sixways Stadium on the wing, but has shifted to outside centre for the play-offs, forming a lethal combination with former Blue, Billy Twelvetrees.

A member of the British Army, Naulago started in Rugby League with Hull FC, scoring a remarkable 23 tries in 34 appearances.

That alerted the attentions of Bristol Bears who persuaded him to swap codes in 2020. He made 45 appearances across his five years at Ashton Gate, adding 21 tries.

SAFETY MATTERS

All persons attending fixtures at Bedford Rugby Club in possession of tickets for the Eagle Stand should note that in order to comply with the conditions of the Club Safety Certificate certain restrictions have to be imposed on occupants of seats within this stand:

No smoking is permitted in any part of the stand. No bottles, cans or glasses can be taken into the stand.

OTHER AREAS

In addition to the above it should be noted that bottles and glasses are not permitted in any part of the ground except inside the bars, therefore drinks will continue to be served in plastic containers on matchdays.

EVACUATION PROCEDURES

All spectators should note that in the unlikely event of an evacuation becoming necessary, an announcement will be made over the public address system immediately proceeded by a warning klaxon sound, informing them of areas that are to be evacuated. As this announcement is being made stewards will open emergency exits and gates, all of which are clearly indicated. Safety stewards will then direct spectators as to which route they should use to leave the ground. In order that any evacuation is conducted as quickly and safely as possible all spectators are requested to comply with the instructions of Safety stewards.

Match tickets should be retained in the event of an evacuation should the game be rescheduled for another date.

THE GILBERT BIG INTERVIEW

ALEX DAY 9

As Bedford Blues look for a first trophy since 2005, captain Alex Day talks about this momentous occasion as the Elior Champ Rugby Final comes to Goldington Road.

THE GILBERT BIG INTERVIEW

ALEX DAY

Let's start by talking about today's Elior Champ Rugby Final, Alex. What sort of test are you expecting from Worcester Warriors?

Firstly, I have to say, I wouldn't even look at the two games in the league season to be honest. It's going to be a completely different game, they're a different animal – you only have to look at what they did against Ealing by beating a side who hadn't been beaten all year.

They'll be coming all guns blazing, we fully expect that. So we have to be ready for it and rise to the challenge. I think what we've been really good at this year and especially when we play these bigger, full-time teams, is just our physicality. We can go above and beyond what we've been doing, and we need to meet fire with fire in that respect, otherwise they'll run riot.

They brought a different physical edge against Ealing, and they'll look to bring it again, I'm sure.

There is an incredible amount at stake today. How do you maintain a sense of calm at times like these?

Both teams will know what is coming and it's now about who can best deliver it on the day. There will be added pressure of a final and added motivation on the line.

I expect they've seen our semi-final, we've seen theirs, and both teams will I'm sure be coming up with things to stop the other team. It'll be fine margins that decide a game like this. We have to be on it from minute one.

> "Both teams will know what is coming and it's now about who can best deliver it on the day."

Today brings an end to a fantastic Elior Champ Rugby campaign. As a player who has played many games in this league, what have been your thoughts?

There was a big rebranding at the start of the season and I personally don't think the league has ever had as much coverage as it has this year. Obviously social media is a lot more prominent now, and the league is getting loads of views and clicks.

It probably is the best year of the Champ in terms of all those factors, and the play-offs are so unique that they give everyone something to aim for, even at the bottom of the league. There's no dead rubber games anymore – it's about picking up points for the play-offs, avoiding relegation.

It's been amazing. I said earlier in the week to a few media outlets that I've played a lot of years in this league, and there's not many years where at the end of it, you can still actually win or go after something – unless you're at an Ealing, or Bristol / London Irish before that.

It's really special. We have a pretty tight group here, been together five or six years, so to get something tangible over the line and to do it here at Goldington Road, would be pretty incredible. We'll be going all out for that.

You are the only previous winner of the Champ within the squad and only two others had played in play-off games before last weekend. Have you tried to steer the lads away from their nerves this week?

It's not something we've spoken about too much because this is a unique situation.

If myself of some of the other more experienced lads can offer some words of wisdom then great, but ultimately everyone has to enjoy it. If you're not enjoying it, you'll get nervous and stop playing like we want to.

We're under no illusion that they've got Premiership winners and international players in their team, and they'll have a fair bit of experience. Like I said before, it'll come down to fine margins.

Today marks a first final for Bedford Blues since 2013. Why do you think we've been able to get here this year?

I think it's been a lot down to the consistency of players we have had for a number of years. If you look at the spine of the team there's myself and Maisey, I don't know how many games we've played together. Then you add into that Booj and Dean, Woolfy, Fish, Ois – boys who have been together a lot of years now.

That just brings cohesion, continuity, and a presence about the place. We know what each other is going to do, we understand the game plan obviously and we don't differ too much year on year.

It's a very settled squad and that helps massively, we're all singing from the same hymn sheet and ultimately, we've just got good players which makes it easier.

A rather matter of fact question to finish. Is this the biggest game of your career?

I think in terms of what the club means to me, then yes. Because I think winning it with this club would be the pinnacle.

I've been through a journey with these boys, five seasons I've been here now. You don't get many chances to lift a trophy, particularly for a club that means so much to you. So it would definitely be the best, 100%.

FINALS ARE A FAMILY TRADITION

As Sonny Tonga'uiha prepares to represent Bedford Blues in the Elior Champ Rugby Final this afternoon at Goldington Road, he is set to continue a family tradition of involvement in showpiece fixtures.

The 19-year-old will follow in the footsteps of both his father and grandfather, a third generation with close club connection at the highest level.

Final Number 1
The RFU Club Competition, Twickenham. 1975

Dave Jackson. No.8. Grandfather/Father-in-law

Final Number 2

Soane Tonga'uiha. Prop. Father/Son-in-law

Final Number 3
Elior Champ Rugby Final. Goldington Road, Bedford. 2026

Sonny Tonga'uiha. Prop. Grandson/Son

Dave and Sue Jackson have three daughters. Lucy married Soane Tonga'uiha, and Polly married James Ross, another Bedford former player. The family was well represented last week for the semi-final v Coventry (see photo). I am sure the same will happen today!

SONNY'S FAMILY SUPPORTING BEDFORD AT LAST WEEK'S SEMI-FINAL V COVENTRY

DAVE JACKSON (SONNY'S GRANDFATHER)

SOANE TONGA'UIHA (SONNY'S FATHER)

1975
The RFU Club Competition

Bedford v Rosslyn Park, Twickenham

Rosslyn Park struck first with an unconverted try after twenty minutes. However, just before half-time, the Bedford backs handled well, and Derek Wyatt raced over for a try, far out, converted with a superb kick by Neil Bennett.

The second half started with Bedford moving the ball speedily until, finally, Chris Bailward dived over. Bennett again converted. In the next twenty minutes, wing Bob Demming scored two tries, with one converted. The final try added by prop Brian Keen was also converted.

We probably 'eased up' with Park scoring two unconverted tries before the final whistle. Bedford win 28-12! Then, of course, the celebrations began!

2005
Powergen Shield

Bedford v Plymouth Albion, Twickenham

Plymouth arrived with a formidable pack, but outside the scrum, Bedford was supreme.

However, after only two minutes, Plymouth took the lead with a converted try before a penalty soon followed to make the score 10-0.

Blues were playing adventurous rugby and making several breaks, but it was a penalty from Leigh Hinton that resulted in our first points of the game. Then came a drop goal from Plymouth's Carrington, taking their score to 13-3.

Another penalty by Hinton made the score 13-6 at half-time. A deserved try for Bedford came at last from a long pass from Ali Hepher to Craig Moir, who found Mark Harris, who dived over to make it 13-11. The conversion would have made the scores level, but it was sent wide.

Plymouth started running the clock down and tried to keep possession. However, Bedford persevered, and this was rewarded with five minutes to go when Plymouth conceded a penalty.

Nerve-racking for the Bedford supporters with all eyes on Hinton. He certainly didn't let his teammates or the Bedford crowd down, as his kick flew between the posts and Blues were ahead for the first time!

The team still had to keep fingers crossed and endure the last very nervous minutes. Bedford's tackling was superb, and the Powergen Shield was on its way to Goldington Road and a night of celebrations.

Bedford win 14-13!

2005 - POST MATCH CELEBRATIONS

One year later, Soane was at Twickenham again, this time Bedford v Harlequins in the Powergen National Trophy.

What an ending to Mike Rayer's first year as Director of Rugby.

This final appearance in Twickenham highlighted a highly successful season for Bedford, who also secured a strong second-place finish behind Harlequins in the National One League.

Bedford opened the first half very well. They put up a strong fight against the Harlequins team that was expected to dominate. World Cup winner Will Greenwood was playing in what was likely to be his final Twickenham appearance, and he scored midway through the first half.

At half-time, the score was Bedford 17 - Harlequins 19. Bedford's scores came from a penalty try and from back row Adam Kettle, with Ali Hepher kicking two conversions and three penalties.

Final score Bedford 23 Harlequins 39.

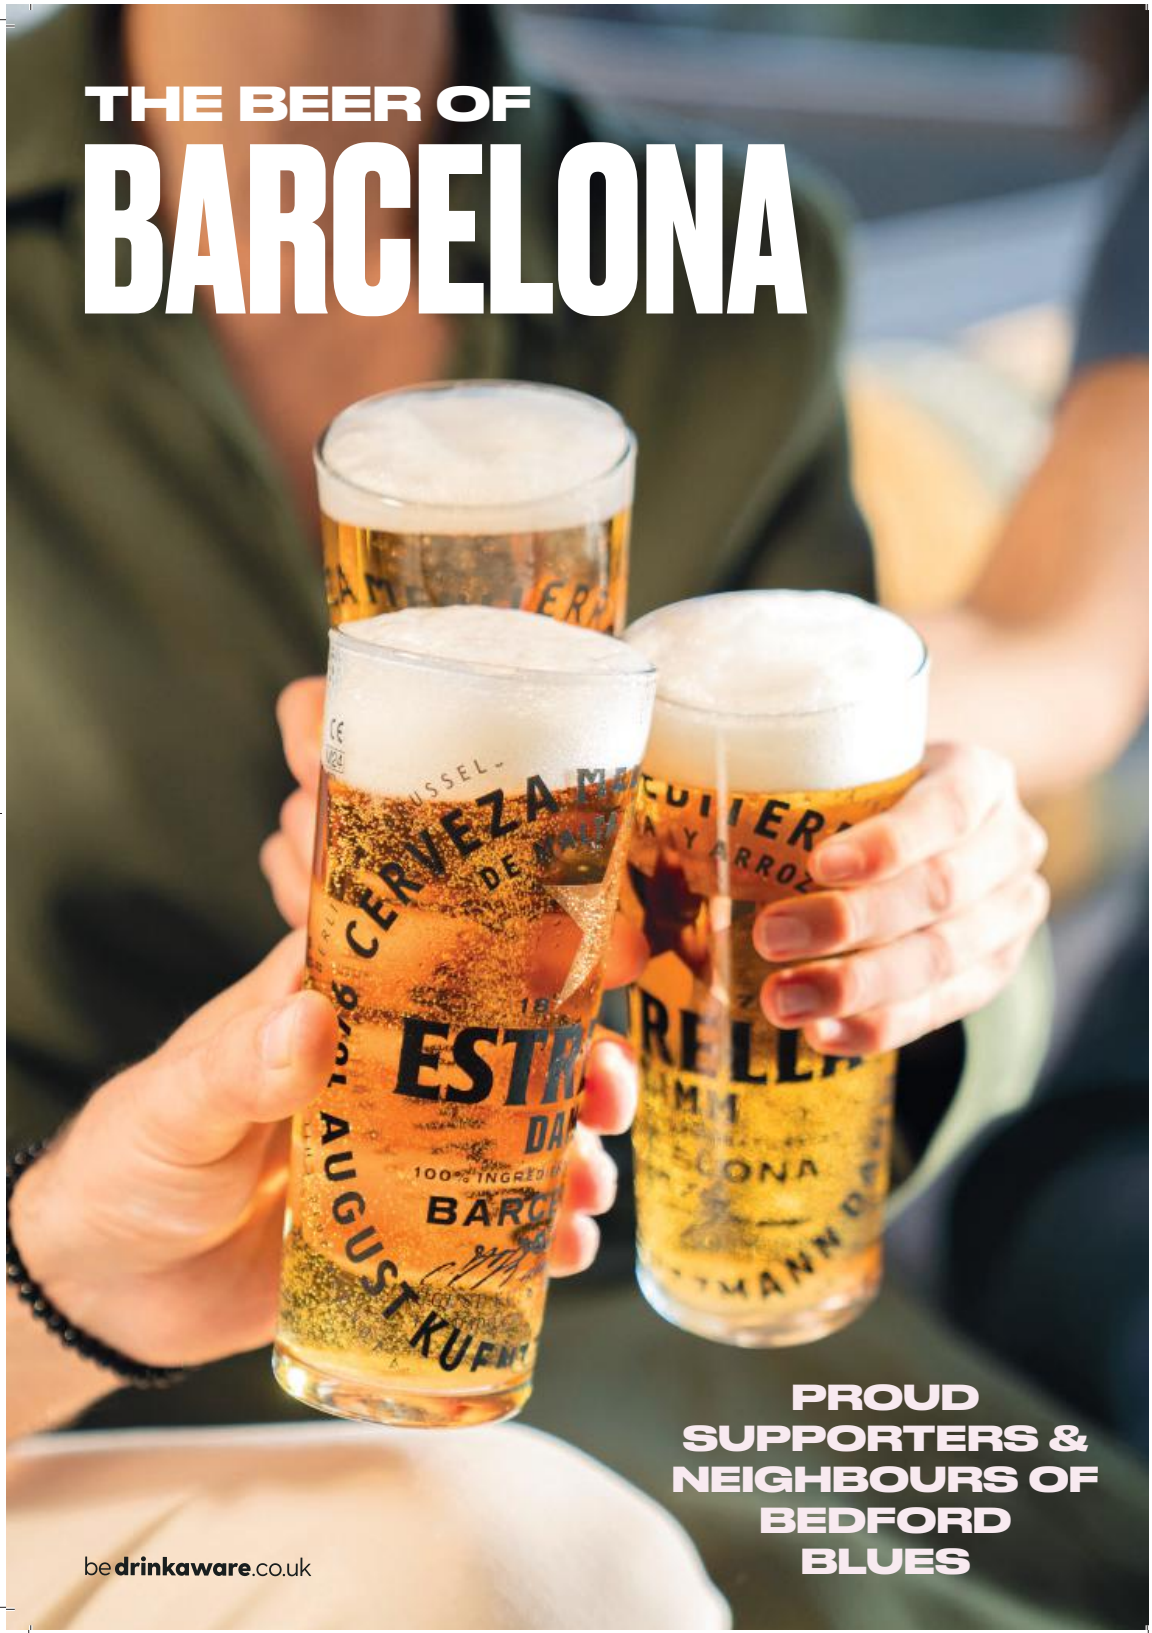

2026
Elior Champ Rugby Final

Bedford Blues v Worcester Warriors, Goldington Road

Sonny Tonga'uiha is the latest to benefit from a dual-registration agreement between Bedford Blues and Northampton Saints, making nine appearances so far in the 2025/26 campaign.

He has proved a useful foil to Oisin Heffernan in a competitive battle for the tighthead prop, most notably winning a scrum penalty against the head down in Cornish Pirates back in December to allow a penalty to be kicked for the late and great victory.

Tonga'uiha has also featured for Saints on a number of occasions in the Premiership Rugby Cup this season, as well as for England U20s in the Six Nations. But this is unquestionably his most important appearance of the season as Blues look to make it a win apiece for all three members of the family.

Bedford Blues produced a performance for the ages to set up today's home final as a second half destruction saw them topple their oldest rivals, Coventry.

Ryan Hutler scored twice against his former employers, first with an intercept then by rounding off a stunning team score, and that second effort lit the touch paper as Blues romped to victory in-front of a jubilant Goldington Road.

Captain Alex Day, Will Maisey, Toby Thame, Dean Adamson and Archie Benson all got in on the second half act as Bedford couldn't help but keep scoring as they notched up their highest points total on home soil of the season.

Supporters were asking if this was the best performance of the Mike Rayer era. You'd struggle to find one with as much importance. Only today could rip up the copybook and give a new and improved answer.
