Latvia blends medieval charm with wild, untamed nature. Wander through Riga's art nouveau streets, breathe pine-scented air along the Baltic coast, and lose yourself in misty forests dotted with lakes. It's Europe's best-kept secret—where culture, quiet, and creativity meet in a country small in size but vast in spirit.

The Maltese Islands are home to a most remarkable concentration of intact built heritage, including the highest density of UNESCO World Heritage Sites (3) in any nation-state anywhere. With a superb year-round mild climate, attractive beaches, a thriving nightlife and 8,000 years of intriguing history, there is a great deal to see and do.
