Dear Bride & Groom

As you begin one of life's most exciting journeys, you're carefully choosing every detail that will bring your wedding day to life. From your venue and flowers to your stationery and décor, each decision reflects your unique love story.

Your wedding website is no different.

It's often the very first glimpse your guests receive of your celebration. Long before they take their seats at your ceremony, they'll visit your website to learn about your day, discover your story, RSVP, and share in the excitement leading up to your wedding.

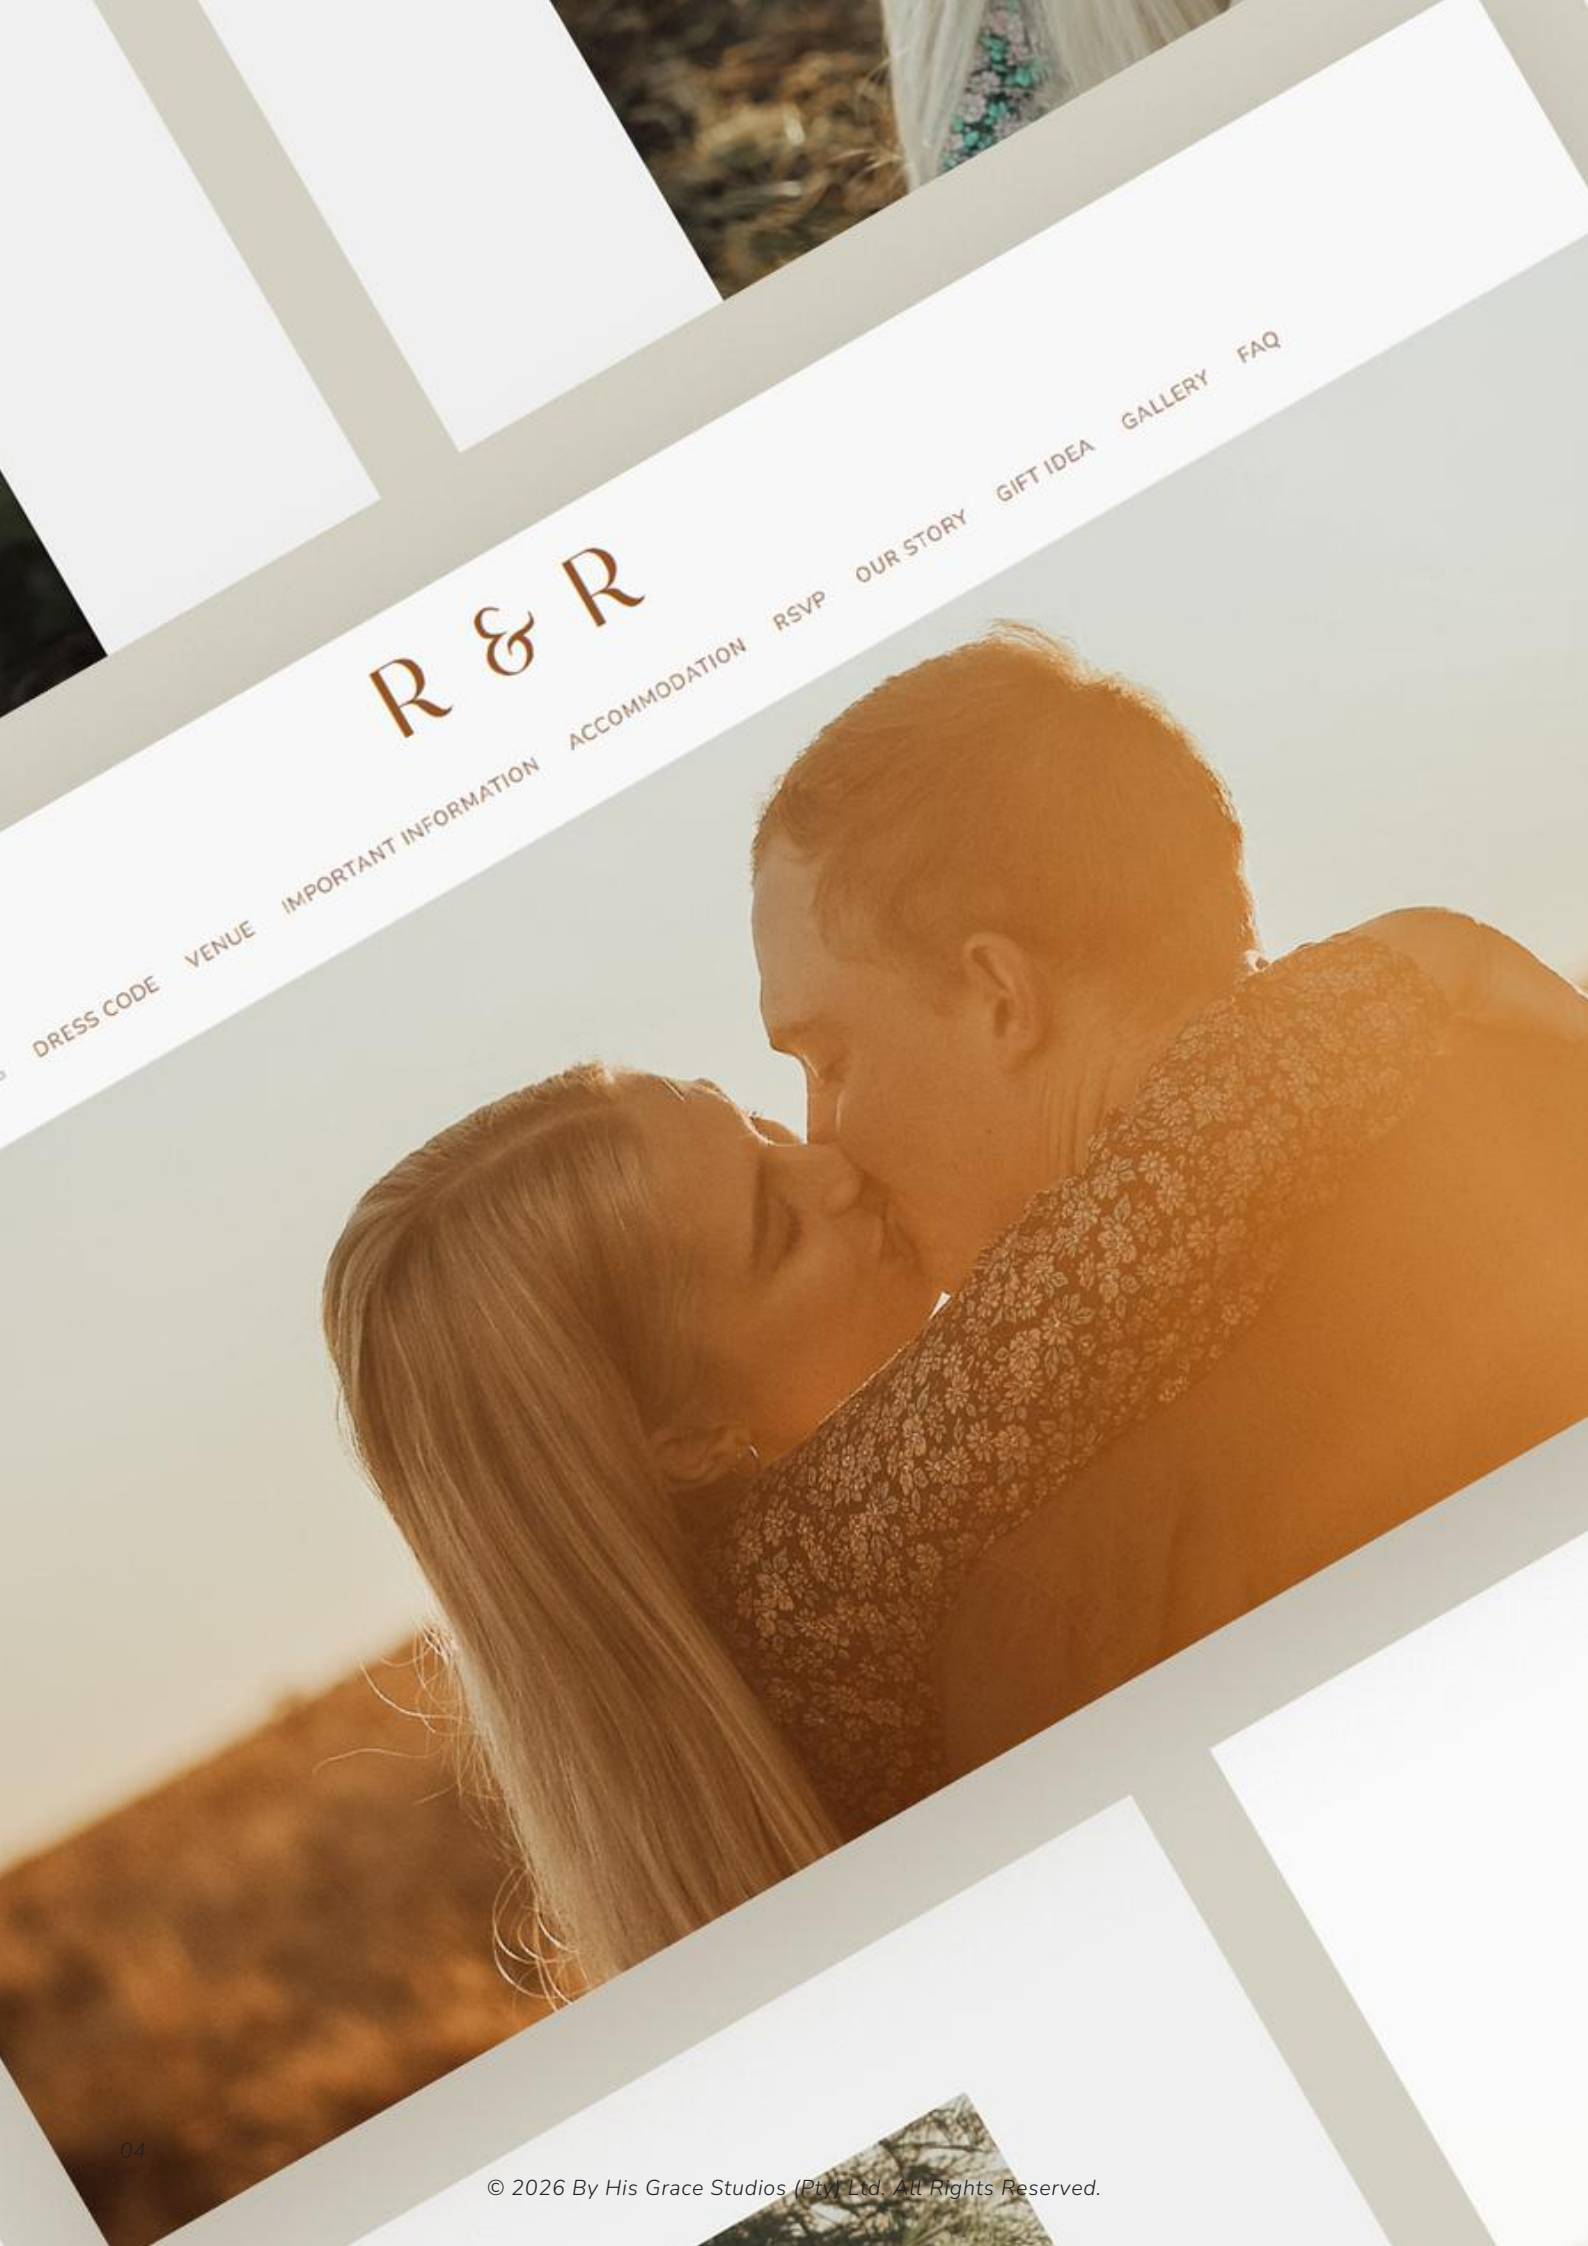

At By His Grace Studios, we believe your wedding website should be more than a place to share information—it should be a beautiful extension of your wedding. A space that feels personal, elegant, and thoughtfully designed, while making every step easier for both you and your guests.

This lookbook has been created to inspire you. Inside, you'll discover our signature design styles, explore beautiful wedding website features, and see how every website is carefully crafted to reflect each couple's personality and vision.

Whether you're dreaming of timeless elegance, modern romance, rustic charm, or something completely unique, we're honored to be part of your journey.

EVERY CELEBRATION BEGINS WITH a story

Before your guests arrive at your ceremony...
Before they find their seats...
Before they witness your first dance...
Your wedding website welcomes them into your celebration.

More than just a source of information, it becomes the heart of your wedding planning journey—a beautifully designed space where your guests can stay informed, celebrate your love story, and share in every exciting moment leading up to your special day.

From your engagement to your "I do," your wedding website keeps everything beautifully organized in one convenient place. Guests can RSVP, find directions, explore accommodation options, view your wedding timeline, and revisit your cherished memories long after the celebration has ended.

Thoughtfully designed and effortlessly elegant, your wedding website becomes more than a planning tool—it becomes a digital keepsake that reflects your unique story and the beginning of your forever.

Because every love story deserves to be shared beautifully.

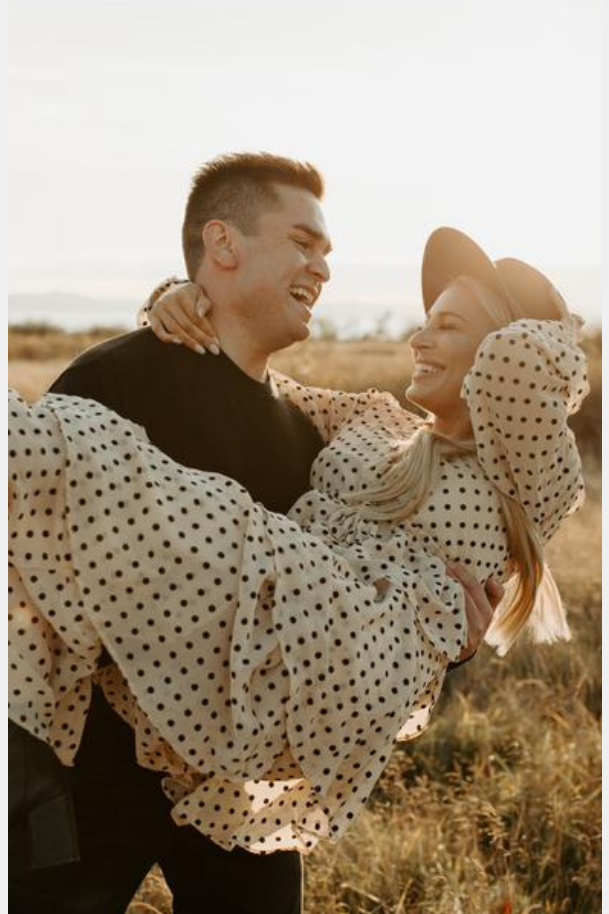

BEAUTIFULLY DESIGNED. THOUGHTFULLY CONNECTED.
