Meet the Instructors

SHEIKH ABU SUHAIB BASSAM

Sheikh Abu Suhaib Bassam, a Jordanian of Palestinian origin, began attending the lessons of Sheikh Al-Albani (Rahimahullah) in Jordan from 1992 onwards. He subsequently studied under Sheikh Al-Albani's students and received tazkiyyah from Shaykh Mashhoor Aal Salmaan, Shaykh Ali Al-Halabi, and Shaykh Saleem Al-Hilaali. After completing his undergraduate studies in Manchester, Sheikh Abu Suhaib returned to the UK, where he has been engaged in da'wah for over twenty years, serving as an imam and delivering lectures and khutbahs across the country.

SHEIKH ABU RUMAYSA

Abu Rumaysa Refi Shafi was born and raised in High Wycombe, UK. He is the chairman of WISE (Wycombe Islamic Society) and is deeply active in his local community and masjid. He has translated numerous works—including Ibn Taymiyyah's The Criterion between the Friends of Allah and the Friends of Shaytan and Relief from Distress (the Dua of Yunus 'alayhi al-Salām), as well as Sheikh Muhammad Ibn Abdul Wahhab's Kitab-ut-tawhid & authored The Spiritual Cure, an explanation of Sūrah al-Fātiḥah. He delivers lectures primarily within his local area.

Meet the Instructors

USTADH YAHYA RAABY

Born in Denmark, Ustadh Yahya Raaby moved to the UK at a young age and studied under Somali sheyookh before spending approximately two years in the ma'had programme at Masjid An-Nabawi. He furthered his education at university, earning a Bachelor of Islamic Law and later a master's in U'loom-ul-Qur'an. Known for his beautiful recitation, Ustadh Yahya delivers lectures across the UK and internationally.

SHEIKH MAQSOOD SIDDIQUI

Sheikh Maqsood Siddiqui grew up in Texas, USA, before travelling to Saudi Arabia to graduate from Imam Muhammad bin Saud University in Riyadh. He later served as a khateeb in Qatar and now resides in the UK, where he continues to deliver classes, lectures, and khutbahs.

Mission

Statement

The Islamic Studies Diploma is dedicated to providing a structured, comprehensive, and accessible pathway into the core sciences of Islam.

Our mission is to cultivate students who are grounded in authentic knowledge, guided by the Qur'an and Sunnah, and connected to rich scholarly tradition. Through a carefully designed curriculum covering creed, worship, character, Qur'an, Hadith, and Seerah, we aim to impart students with both foundational understanding and a desire for personal development.

The programme is to be taught by qualified teachers, paced for consistency and clarity and we hope through this course, a pursuit for knowledge will awaken.
