VINO CULTURA'S BACK TO SCHOOL

September is the month everything starts again — the bags are packed, the shoes already don't fit, and the house is quietly ten past eight.

This one is for the parents.

Twelve cases this month, from a €40 weeknight six to three cellar cases we have had to ration, alongside our usual single bottles at 25% off.

And something new. Oddbins is a page for the last bottles — the one- and two-bottle finds that were never worth printing on a wine list, and are far too good to keep forgetting about. Chevalier-Montrachet, Dauvissat, a 1998 Barolo.

VALUE — for the weeknights. From €40.

EXPLORER — for the ones who want to go somewhere. From €60.

LEGACY — for the cellar. €350.

ODDBINS — the last bottles. One or two of each. New this month.

SEPTEMBER CASES ____ MONTHLY WINE OFFERS

The Value Cases The Packed Lunch

TWO EVERYDAY WHITES

Two whites, three bottles of each, both under a tenner on the shelf and both better than they have any business being. The floral, Peloponnesian Semeli Armonía (Malagousiá/Moschofilero) and the high-altitude, grapefruit-and-cut-grass Alamos Sauvignon Blanc from Mendoza. Chill them properly and open one on a Tuesday.

The Explorer's Cases Geography

SIX WHITES, FOUR COUNTRIES

Six different white wines and nothing repeated. From a €10 Greek blend up to El Enemigo Chenin, one of the more serious white wines coming out of Mendoza and frankly the reason this case exists. Alongside them:

Gavi di Gavi (Piemonte), Valiano Chardonnay (Toscana), La Petite Perrière Sauvignon Blanc (Loire) and Alamos (Mendoza). Our recommendation for anyone who insists they only drink one thing.

The Explorer's Cases French Class

SANCERRE & SAINT-ÉMILION

The two lessons everyone should sit at least once. La Petite Perrière Sancerre is flint and white currant, Loire Sauvignon done properly; Château Vieille Tour la Rose Saint-Émilion 2022 is Merlot-led, plummy and already open. Three bottles of each — right-bank Bordeaux at a price that doesn't require a family meeting.

The Explorer's Cases Earth Sciences

SLATE, VOLCANO & GALESTRO

Three wines that taste more like the ground they came from than the grapes they are made of. Dönnhoff Kreuznacher Kahlenberg Riesling Trocken off Nahe slate, Torre Mora 'Scalunera' Etna Rosato grown in volcanic ash, and La Pevera Rosso Toscano off galestro. Two bottles each. The most instructive case we have put together this year.

SEPTEMBER CASES ____ MONTHLY WINE OFFERS

The Explorer's Cases The Exchange Programme

THREE CONTINENTS, THREE WHITES

New World whites, none of them obvious. Martin Ray 'Angeline' Chardonnay from California with the oak dialled well down, El Enemigo Chenin from Mendoza with real texture and grip, and Esk Valley Sauvignon Blanc from Marlborough built on citrus rather than the usual. Two bottles each — for the table that still thinks New World means sweet.

SEPTEMBER CASES ____ MONTHLY WINE OFFERS

The Explorer's Cases The Away Match

CALIFORNIA, COONAWARRA & MENDOZA

The deepest discount of the month. Martin Ray' Angeline' Chardonnay Parker Estate Cool Climate Cabernet Sauvignon— Coonawarra Cabernet with the red-soil signature, cassis and a lick of mint — and El Enemigo Bonarda the grape Argentina actually drinks at home rather than the one it exports. Two bottles each, and only fourteen Parkers in the building.

The Explorer's Cases The Extended Holiday

THREE ROSÉS, THREE COUNTRIES

Nobody has told the weather it is September. The fresh Oenops 'Apla' Rosé from Greek Xinómavro, the volcanic Torre Mora 'Scalunera' Etna Rosato from Sicily, and Villa Maria 'Blush' from New Zealand, which is really a Sauvignon in a pink coat. Two of each — the last case of the summer, or the first of a very long autumn.

SEPTEMBER CASES ____ MONTHLY WINE OFFERS

The Legacy Cases The Honour Roll

SIX WINES, SIX REGIONS

Six bottles, six different wines, no filler. The aged Monopole Blanco Seco Gran Reserva (Rioja), old-vine Estate Argyros 'Cuvée Gerontampelo' (Santorini), Dönnhoff Felsenberg Riesling GG (Nahe), Giant Steps 'Sexton Vineyard' Pinot Noir (Victoria), Delas 'Domaine des Tourettes' Hermitage and Château Giscours, Margaux. SEPTEMBER CASES ____ MONTHLY WINE OFFERS

The Legacy Cases The Head of Department

BEYOND THE CLOUDS & HERMITAGE

Two wines, three bottles each, one white and one red, both worth following over time. Elena Walch 'Beyond the Clouds' is a Chardonnay-led Alto Adige mountain white built to age far longer than most people give the region credit for. Delas 'Domaine des Tourettes' is Hermitage from a vintage they got very right. Open one of each now; put the rest away for five years.

NAHE, HERMITAGE & MARGAUX

The largest saving in the campaign and, unmistakably, a cellar purchase. Two bottles each of Dönnhoff Felsenberg Riesling GG Delas'Domainedes Tourettes' Hermitage , and Château Giscours Margaux 2021 — a vintage that will outlast the school year by about two decades.
