

빵 장민주

Hello! My name is minju. I'm like to first-year middle school student.

I like istening to music.

I worte this story because I wanted to share the importance of friendship.

Thank you for reading my book.

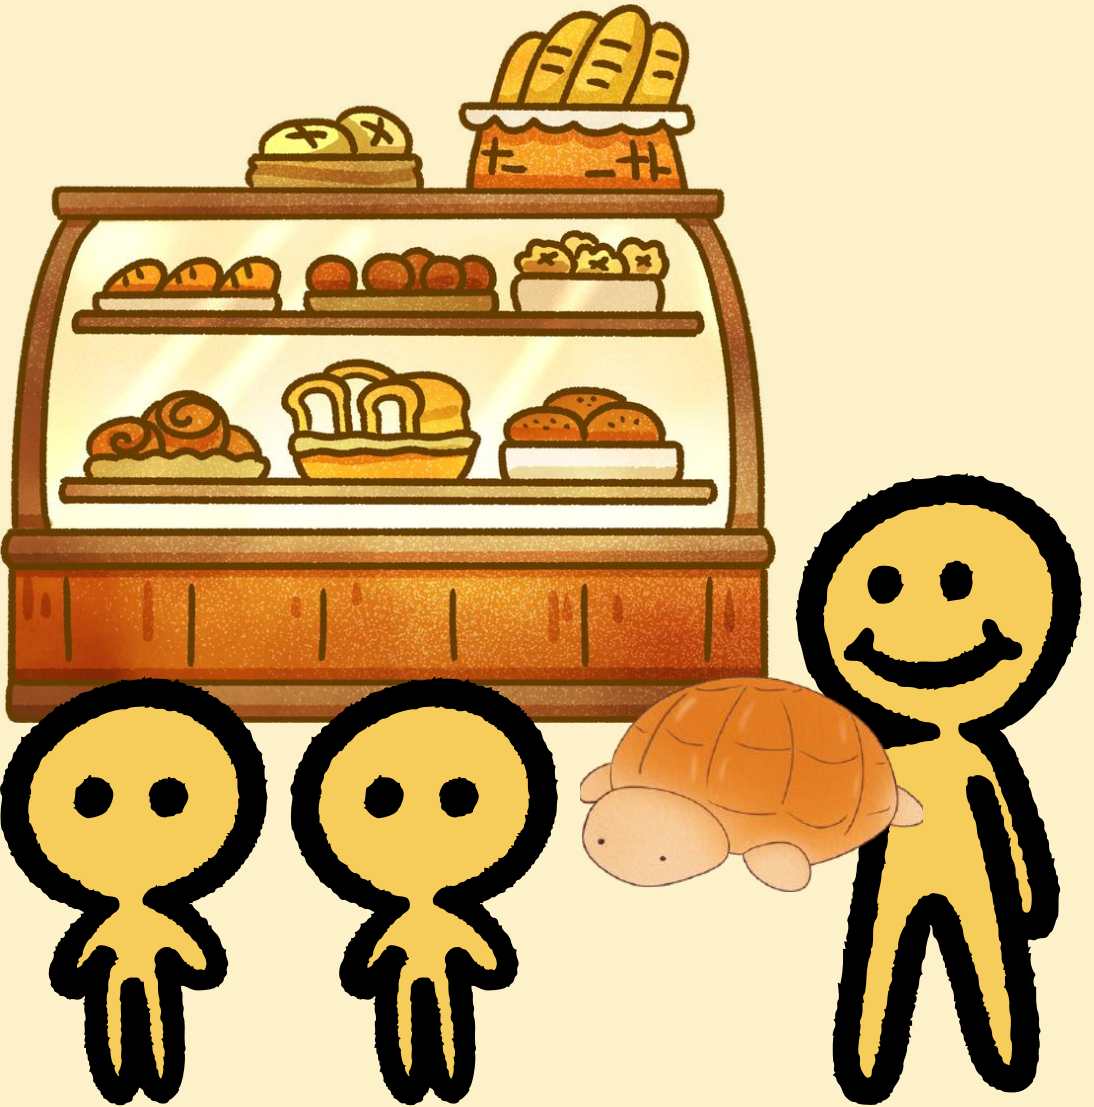

I hope you enjoy it

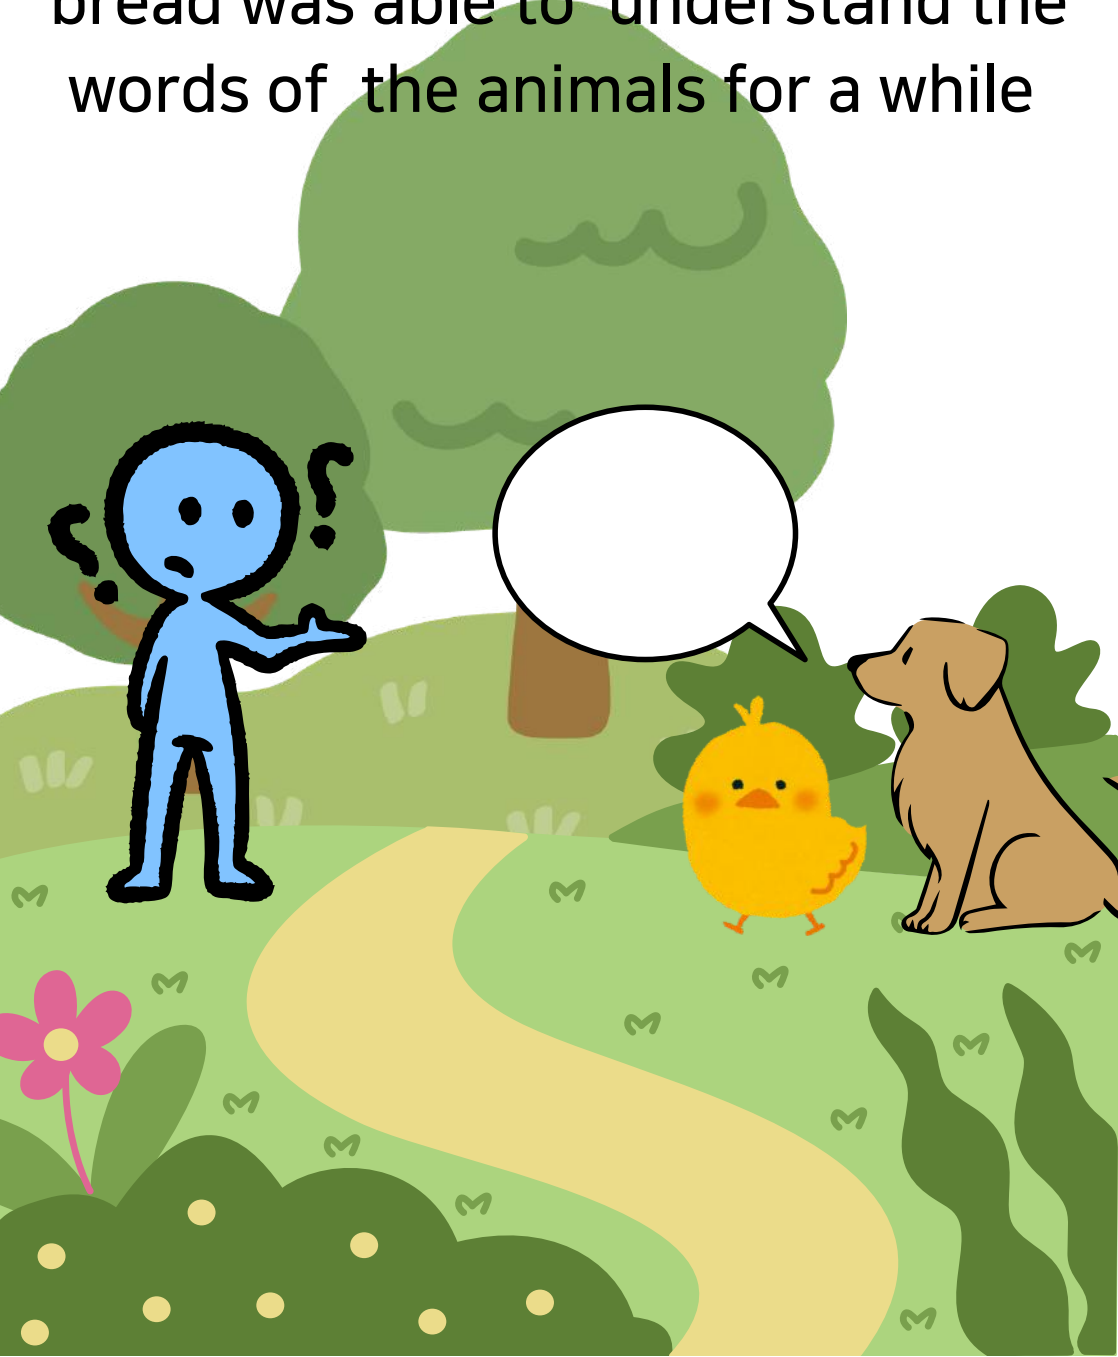

one day, a child and his friend
find a hidden bakery

A bakery grandmother says, “If you eat this bread, you will have a mysterious ability”

The main character who ate the bread was able to understand the words of the animals for a while

At frist, it was fasinating

but the story of the animals continnes to make the main character harder and harder

The main character wants to eliminate this ability
