

RESIDENTIAL LIFE

"RECTORY IS RELATIONSHIPS" AND SOME OF THE MOST IMPORTANT RELATIONSHIPS ARE CREATED WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE RESIDENTIAL COMMUNITY.

The boarding experience at Rectory is more than a place to stay — it's a vibrant, caring community where students live, learn, and grow together. With dedicated dorm parents, a strong focus on well-being, and a true home-away-from-home environment, students feel safe, supported, and known.

Each student is both challenged and supported through Rectory's personalized academic approach, while life beyond the classroom helps build independence, responsibility, time management, and lasting friendships. Along the way, families remain connected through open communication, family weekends, and a partnership built on trust.

RESIDENTIAL LIFE

RECTORY IS RELATIONSHIPS

Some of the strongest friendships begin in the everyday moments of boarding life. Living, learning, and growing together helps students build trust, practice respect, and form meaningful connections with peers from different cultures and backgrounds. Along the way, they share traditions, adventures, laughter, and memories that often last well beyond their time at Rectory.

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT & LIFE SKILLS

At Rectory, growth goes far beyond the classroom. Students build character, confidence, resilience, and independence through daily routines, shared responsibilities, and real opportunities to lead. In a supportive, family-like community, they learn to manage their time, care for others, and become capable young people ready for what's next.

TECHNOLOGY IN RESIDENTIAL LIFE

At Rectory, technology is balanced with connection, rest, and community. Each evening, devices are distributed after study hall and collected by dorm parents before bedtime, then stored securely overnight. This screen-free time helps students wind down, connect with dormmates, and build healthy sleep habits. On weekends, students have additional access during appropriate times, while activity blocks remain focused on participation, friendship, and face-to-face connection.

WEEKEND ACTIVITIES

Weekends at Rectory are anything but dull. Students can explore local museums, cheer at live sporting events, catch a movie, get creative in the Art Barn, enjoy outdoor adventures, or simply relax with friends. With activities for every interest, there's always something fun to look forward to.

SKI PROGRAM

When winter arrives, Rectory students hit the slopes at Wachusett Mountain for six Sundays of skiing, snowboarding, fresh air, and fun with friends and faculty. It's a favorite way to stay active, build confidence, and make the most of a New England winter.
