

ORACY IN THE PRIMARY CLASSROOM

AUDIENCE

Oracy Champions, Literacy Leads, Senior/Middle Leaders

DESCRIPTION

An opportunity to explore Oracy across primary settings, drawing on the work of Neil Mercer, Julia Snell and Adam Lefstein.

Optimising opportunities for Oracy is powerful for learning; by teaching students to become more effective speakers and listeners we empower them to better understand themselves, each other and the world around them. Through a high-quality oracy education pupils learn through talk and how to communicate. Facilitating, modelling and scaffolding talk enables deeper subject knowledge and understanding.

AIMS

- To understand why Oracy and Dialogic Teaching is valuable to classroom practice
- To develop strategies to use talk effectively across the curriculum
- To recognise what effective talk looks like in everyday practice
- To understand the teacher's role in classroom talk
- To develop Oracy across a school, considering progression
