I'll never forget you, Mr. Roof.
Although, at times, you're quite

I'll miss you learning me

And also your help in writing

PHOENIX COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

P. O. BOX 15087

PHOENIX, ARIZONA 85060

To the Class of 1977:

It is traditional on this occasion to make some ponderous statement on the future of private education or the state of the world. I plan to depart from this tradition.

Why publish a yearbook? This question has been posed by a variety of educational institutions during the past ten years. Rising costs and declining student interest seem to be the main factors prompting this question. Some schools have decided to drop yearbooks. Others have changed the traditional format.

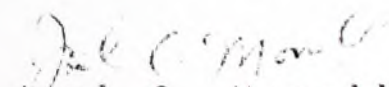

I believe that publishing a yearbook is an important part of the educational process in a secondary school. For many students it is the first experience at organizing a major project. Many skills are involved; editing, fund raising, photography, lay out, and budgeting. It is truly a multi-faceted experience. Many resumes cite yearbook experience and rightfully so.

Yearbooks are important for other reasons. They provide an ongoing chronicle of events and personalities. They are, in effect, the official history of a school. Yearbooks are also a living reminder to alumni/ae of their educational experiences. Yearbooks from my various alma maters are shelved in my favorite bookcase. I often pull them out to remind myself of a name or a face recently encountered on a downtown street.

In short, this is an important document. All of you will benefit from it in many ways. Treasure it as a reminder of a very important period in your lives.

Good luck in your future endeavors!

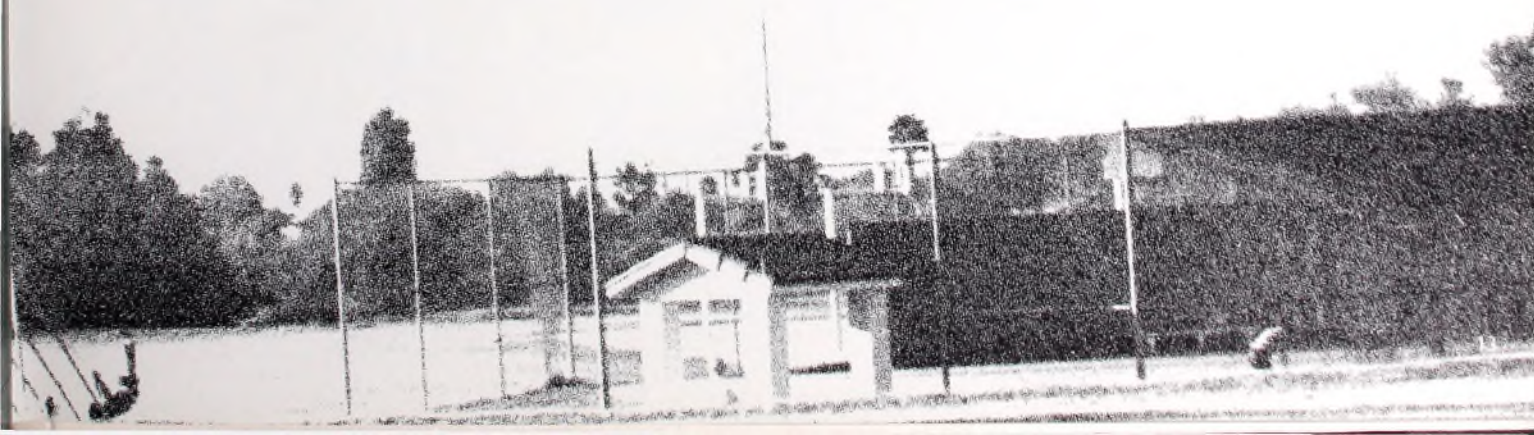

Sincerely,

Joel C. Monell
Headmaster

Sometimes not often enough
we reflect upon the good things and those thoughts always center around those we love and I think about those who mean so much to me and for so many years
have made me so very happy and I count the times I have forgotten to say thank you and just how much I love them.

-F. Mancini-

It came on the day of Jupiter, a war between Ignicia, land of fire, and Fluida, land of water. While the air people in Etheria would not get involved, the Terrans, of the earth, intervined and tried to calm things down. By the day of mercy all was quiet, but the fire people will never rest.

If you smile at me then I will understand-cause that is something everybody everywhere does in the same language.

"You come and tell me the big news," said Boaz. "Boaz-" you say, we're going to be free! And I get all excited and I drop everything I'm doin', and get set to be free. "And I keep saying it over to my self about how I'm going to be free," said Boaz, "And then I try to think what that's going to be like, and all I can see is people. They push me this way, then they push me that-- And nothing pleases 'em, and they get madder and madder, on account of nothing makes 'em happy. And they holler at me on account of I ain't made 'em happy, and we all push and pull some more . . . "And then I knew what I was going to say to you, Unk, when I got back here," said Boaz.

"I found me a place where I can do good without doing any harm, and I can see I'm doing good, and then I'm doing good for I know I'm doing it, and they love me, Unk, as best they can. I found me a home."

"And when I die down here someday," said Boaz, "I'm going to be able to say to my self, 'Boaz-you made millions of lives worth living. Ain't no one ever spread more joy. You ain't got an enemy in the universe.'" Boaz became for himself the affectionate mama and papa he'd never had. "You go to sleep now," He said to himself, imagining himself on a stone deathbed in the caves. Your a good boy Boaz," he said. "Good Night."

Every individual has a place to fill in the world and is important in some respect--whether he chooses to be so or not.

Nathaniel Hawthorne

I have an acquaintance called Jennie Miller. Although I like her, sometimes I could kill her. She always drives from my back seat and is afraid of that lightpost that my bumper will meet.

This the beginning of a new day. God has given me this day to use as I will. I can waste it or use it for the good, but what I do today is important because I am exchanging a day of my life for it. When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever leaving in its place something I have traded for it. I want it to be gain and not loss; good and not evil; success and not failure; in order that I shall not regret the price I have paid for it.

Getting out is getting in Going in is getting through (Around it not through)
"I am here" is getting there
"Wish I were there" is staying here

Having is getting Wanting is not receiving

People lust for fame
Like athletes in a game
we break our collar bones
and come up swinging
Some of us are downed
Some of us are crowned
and some are lost
and never found
But most have seen it all They live their lives in sad cafes and music halls
They always have a story.

I cried because I had no shoes
Until I met a man who had no feet.

Love is hopeful,
it tempers the noble mind.

Pull!!!

Be careful of people coming up, because you never know when you'll meet them coming down.

In the one's column there was a one
Which was the only one in the one's column.
So the only one in the one's column was lonely
And had another one added to the only one
In the one's column.
Now there are two one one's in the only one one's column.

Child of the Universe

Go placidly amid the noise & haste, & remember quietly & clearly; and listen to others,
even the dull & ignorant;
they too have their story.
Avoid loud & aggressive persons,
they & lesser persons than yourself.
Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.
Keep interested in your own career,
however humble;
it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.
Exercise caution in your business affairs;
for the world is full of trickery.
But let this not blind you to what virtue there is;
many persons strive for high ideal.
and everywhere life is full of heroism.
be yourself.
specially, do not feign affection.
Neither be cynical about love;
for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial
as the grass.
Take kindly the counsel of the years,
gracefully surrendering the things of youth.
Nurture strength of spirit to shield
you in sudden misfortune.
But do not distress yourself with imaginings.
Many fears are born of fatigue &
loneliness.
Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.
You are a child of the universe,
no less than the trees & the stars;
you have a right to be here.
And whether or not it is clear to you,
no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.
Therefore be at peace with God,
whatever you conceive Him to be,
and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.
With all its sham, drudgery & broken
dreams,
it is still a beautiful world

Yeah that's what they are
... A carousel
An interesting collection of animals
Only WE are not there
Moving endlessly ...
In time
Suspended from a point
Dangling on a string ...
JUST BEING THERE
And isn't that really
What life is all about?

To Mimi- memories past, present, future
in and around the lake mountains come out of the sky
and they stand there
one mile over we'll be there and laughing too.
Twenty-four before my love and you'll see I'll be there with you.
I will remember you
Your silhouette will charge
the view of distance atmosphere
call it morning driving
thru the sound and ever
in the valley.

mariposas aladas de estrellas,
 butterflies with wings of starlight-
 how can i express the feelings
 held deep inside me, locked away,
 deeper even than i dare to search:
 look into the mirror of my memory
 and watch the ripples of your own reflections
 floating on the dream-waves of my thoughts, forever to remain there, always dear.
 palabras amoldadas de mi alma que nopuedo ahora expresar-la lengua de mi mente aun no se.
 quizas, algun dia, a sabre como expresar
 las fantasmas que, ahora, solo puedo suponerlas mariposas aladas de estrellas que temblan en el crepusculo de mi ser.
 and someday, it may be that i will find the words, the concepts worthy to be used-perhaps i will myself create the thoughts, and then invent ideas suitable to express what cannot ever be expressed-my thanks.
 pero, hasta que el dia que no vendra, llega a ser,
 but, until the day that may never come, should come to be,
 para vosotros dejo atras mis mariposas queridas,
 i leave with you my beloved butterflies,
 para que digan lo que no puedo decir.
 that they may say what i must leave unsaid.

...people often say of Him; "I'm ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don't accept His claim to be God." That is the one thing we must not say. A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would be either a lunatic - on a level with the man who says he is a poached egg - or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God; or else a madman or something worse. . . Let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us.

Our Soccer team of 76-77 was a young but very skillful and determined squad. Unable to score extensively, but playing dogged defense, the team was able to force a play-off game with Scottsdale Christian to determine which team would play against Judson for the League Championship. This game was indicative of our efforts throughout the season. Though dominating play from the opening whistle, we were still unable to score, and after two scoreless overtimes, the rules demanded a kick off of penalty shots, each team alternating a shooter and goal tender. After eight shooters from each team had gone to the penalty line, Scottsdale booted the winning goal. Though it was a heartbreaking loss, our team, losing only John Gleason via graduation, is looking forward to what seems a very good shot at the League Championship next fall.

Soccer Coach

VARSITY WATER POLO

The P.C.D.S. Water Polo team was a young and inexperienced team. The team ended up by placing third in the state water polo tournament at P.C.D.S. Agua Center. There was only one upper classman on the squad. The season record was three and four for the year.

Upper School varsity basketball team, otherwise known as the Kiddie Core at Phoenix Country Day School, engaged in a rough basketball season. Rough in regards to the won-loss record, but great in relation to hustle, desire, and dedication. Don Singer, Mark Three Stars, Greg Haus, Bart Hechtman, Bill Leiber, Steve Gates, Todd Gilmore, Stuart Frische, Matt Gregory, Brian Rose, George Kokalis, and Randy Steckler were the members of the varsity basketball team which included Paul Valach as the Team Manager. This team was comprized of no seniors, only one Junior, seven sophomores, and four freshmen which compiled a 4 win 10 loss record and a State Tournament berth. The varsity team lacked age and playing experience, but can be regarded as the team of the future.

The P.C.D.S. Trap team became well known in Arizona shooting circles as a result of their winning ways during the 1976-77 season. Pierre de Tarnowsky and John Levitz sparked the collection of trophies with some outstanding wins at registered trap shoots throughout the state, in addition, the P.C.D.S. squad participated in the Arizona Winter Chain Shoots and the Spring Grand American Trapshoot.

The trap and skeet program at P.C.D.S. gained national attention as a result of the team appearing in magazines and newspapers.

As President of the Lettermen's Club, I feel the Lettermen's Club is the powerfulllest club on campus. So far, the Lettermen have put a trophy case in the west wing of the Library, put on the Athletic Banquet, and will have a "Lettermen's Day" in which the Lettermen will go anywhere we would like. The next few years will be even more promising. I would especially like to thank Mr. Thompson, without his help nothing would have been possible.

CLASH DAY WINNERS: Glen Bean (third place), John Crockett (first place), Jan Lorant (second place)

The French Club was organized this year with a dual purpose: one, to promote an awareness of French culture and customs; two, to generate enthusiasm and participation, of student body and faculty alike, in extracurricular activities at P.C.D.S.

For it's first goal, the Club organized a series of bake sales and a bi-weekly donut sale. Profits will eventually go towards the building of a French kiosk as a donation to the student body. In the second instance, a "Clash Day" was held on February 14, 1977. A free, fun-filled event, it provided the participants with a chance to win several prizes and made for an interesting and exciting activity.

The Club's membership was not restricted to French students, allowing for a larger and more dedicated participation.

IMPRESSIONS magazine has attempted to change its image of former years; it has undertaken to become more current and more concerned with the issues and events presently affecting the entire student body. The staff has tried to accomplish this aim by increasing the size of the magazine, the frequency of its publication, and its appeal to readers of all ages who are interested in the events of the school. It is hoped that this example will be followed and improved upon in future years.

A CALENDAR OF MUSIC

On November 19, 1976, the Lower School presented its fall music program, A CALENDAR OF MUSIC. All Lower School children participated in singing and playing of rhythm and melody instruments, and the Fifth Grade Band had its debut. Beginning with January and "Auld Lang Syne", music from the various seasons and holidays was performed for a large and appreciative audience of parents and upper grade students.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

In February, thirteen students participated in the fifteenth annual Arizona Model United Nations at the University of Arizona in Tucson. PCDS represented Argentina and Tunisia. For the Argentina delegation, Ana Maria Lopez sat on the Special Political Committee, Martha Smith on the Social/Humanitarian Committee, Charles Ladlow on ECOSOC, and Lori Reynolds on the Conference for Human Rights. Three students—Jennie Miller, Jacques DeLisle, and Brit Etzold—served as justices on the International Court of Justice. They also represented Argentina. For the Tunisia delegation, Katie DeLongy sat on the Political Committee, Debra Ziehm on the Special Political Committee, Jenifer Crolius on the Social/Humanitarian Committee, Paul DeCerbo on ECOSOC, and John Gleason on the Conference of Human Rights.

Jacques DeLisle received a special honor among our delegates. He was named outstanding justice in his division of the ICJ and delivered a synopsis of his case and the majority opinion before the Plenary session of some 800 delegates.

This was the Advisory Board's first full year of operation under its constitution. With the social function of the Advisory Board in mind, we held an Upper School and Middle School dance at the beginning of the year with the band, Orpheus. In its legislative position, the Juniors finally won off-campus privileges.

During the second semester, Mr. Monell spoke to us about the role of the Advisory Board. With the aid of this speech, and some imagination, I hope that the ensuing years will show the Advisory Board actively improving the school.
