Festive Season at Six Senses Laamu

2026 / 2027

SEASON'S
GREETINGS

WELCOME TO SIX SENSES LAAMU.

We are delighted you have chosen to spend the festive season with us. Whether you are here to explore the atoll, reconnect with loved ones, or simply enjoy a little time beside the ocean, we hope the island feels like home from the moment you arrive. For some, that happens after the first sunset. For others, it's after the second coconut ice cream.

Over the coming days, you will find a selection of curated experiences inspired by the people, traditions, and natural beauty of Laamu. Some take place beneath the stars. Others below the surface. We hope you will find a few favorites along the way.

Should you need anything during your stay, your GEM is never far away and always happy to help. They tend to know the answer to most questions, from restaurant recommendations to where the dolphins have been spending their time.

On behalf of all of us at Six Senses Laamu, thank you for joining us. We wish you a joyful festive season and a wonderful start to the year ahead.

Warm regards,

Marteyne van Well
Regional General Manager – Maldives

ACTIVITIES YOU CAN COUNT ON

A day on the water can take many forms in Laamu. You might find yourself watching dolphins at sunset, learning a fishing technique at first light, or spending the day on an island with no plans beyond where to swim next.

Some experiences are shared with fellow guests. Others are entirely your own. Your GEM can help you find the one that feels just right for you.

Sunset & Dolphin Cruise
Join our Sunset & Dolphin Cruise alongside a marine biologist from the Maldives Underwater Initiative. As the light shifts across the lagoon, keep watch for dolphins surfacing nearby while learning more about the waters they call home. Every outing is different, which is part of the appeal.

Early Bird Morning Fishing Trip
The Maldives has always had a close relationship with the ocean. Head out at sunrise with our experienced crew and try your hand at fishing as the atoll begins to wake. If you are lucky enough to make a catch, our chefs will be happy to prepare it for you later in the day.

Prefer a little more privacy? A few of our favorite experiences are best enjoyed at your own pace.

Sense of Escape
Step aboard Sense of Escape and set out across Laamu Atoll with your own crew and itinerary. Spend the day searching for dolphins, dropping a line in the water, cruising between islands, or finding a quiet stretch of lagoon for a swim.

Some guests like a plan. Others prefer to see where the day leads. Either way, we will take care of the details while you enjoy more of the ocean, and a little more space to explore it.

Private Picnic Island Experience
There are few addresses more memorable than a tiny island in the middle of the Indian Ocean.

Spend the day on a secluded island with a picnic prepared by our culinary team, clear water on every side, and plenty of time to do exactly as you please. Snorkel straight from the shore, stretch out beneath the sun, or simply enjoy the novelty of having an island all to yourself.

For a few hours at least, the castaway dream becomes surprisingly comfortable.

MALDIVES UNDERWATER INITIATIVE

The waters around Six Senses Laamu are home to sea turtles, manta rays, coral reefs, and countless smaller creatures that play an important role in the atoll's ecosystem.

The Maldives Underwater Initiative (MUI) brings together marine biologists from The Manta Trust, Blue Marine Foundation, and Olive Ridley Project under one roof. Through research, conservation, education, and community engagement, the team works to better understand and protect the marine environment that surrounds us.

At SHELL, our Sea Hub of Environmental Learning in Laamu, guests can step behind the scenes of marine conservation through interactive experiences, workshops, and conversations with the scientists themselves.

JUNIOR MARINE BIOLOGY PROGRAM

Some children collect shells. Others collect questions.

Created for young ocean enthusiasts aged seven to 12, our Junior Marine Biology Program invites children to spend time alongside the Maldives Underwater Initiative (MUI) team, joining science experiments, snorkel sessions, and marine adventures around the island. The more curious they are, the better.

Every two-hour session pairs learning with hands-on experiences, giving young explorers the chance to put their discoveries into practice. They might learn how to identify sea turtles by their unique markings, discover the life hidden within seagrass meadows, explore the differences between rays, or kayak among baby blacktip sharks in Hithadhoo's mangrove forest.

Complete three specialties and they will graduate as an honorary member of the MUI team. From experience, that often leads to a fourth specialty.

Group and private sessions are available. Group sessions follow a set schedule and curriculum, while private sessions can be customized to suit different ages, interests, and areas of curiosity.

Children should be comfortable snorkeling in the ocean.

Visit the team at SHELL to explore the possibilities together, then ask your GEM to help plan the next adventure.

Surf's Up, Skills Up!
A good surf session has a habit of turning into another one. Whether you are stepping onto a board for the first time or looking to fine-tune your technique, our Tropicsurf coaches are here to help. With ten levels and more than a hundred skills in the program, there is always something new to learn. Fortunately, there is no shortage of waves to practice on.

The first question on Christmas morning here isn't what's under the tree. It's how the waves are looking.

Instead of reindeer tracks, you'll find footprints in the sand and surfboards making their way toward the water. Join our annual Santa Surf Session and start Christmas Day in the lineup.

The exact timing depends on the conditions. Waves and tides are notoriously unmoved by holiday schedules, so we will follow their lead and let you know where to be.

Our Playground
Just a paddle from Sip Sip, Shoulders offers long, beginner-friendly waves that make a great place to get started. Across the channel, Yin Yangs is a different story altogether and has earned its reputation among surfers for good reason.

EARTH LAB

At our Earth Lab, sustainability is less about theory and more about seeing how things actually work.

This is where we share some of the practical solutions behind life on a remote island. Living in the middle of the Indian Ocean encourages a certain resourcefulness. Earth Lab is where many of those ideas take shape, from products made on the island to materials given a second life.

Sustainability Tour
Running a resort in the middle of the Indian Ocean comes with its own challenges. Join us behind the scenes as we visit the Organic Garden, Earth Lab, and our water bottling facility to learn more about how the island operates day to day.

Earth Lab Workshops
Sometimes the best ideas start with something that was about to be thrown away. Join one of our Earth Lab workshops and discover practical ways to reduce waste at home while giving everyday materials a new purpose.

Local Island Excursion
Step beyond the resort and spend time in a local community. Discover a little more about daily life in the Maldives and the people who call Laamu home.

Hithadhoo Mangrove Kayak
Paddle through one of Laamu's protected mangrove systems alongside members of the local community and discover a quieter side of the atoll.

Excursion dates and times vary with the tides. Ask your GEM for more details.
