THE SAME COFFEE AND BITE, JUST AT A DIFFERENT SITE.

Your favorite brasserie of the south going on almost 30 years will soon be no more. But wait, just not at that place in the passage. That corner of the passage will be razed to the ground. So before we have to serve you a Frankburger with a lot of dust and pieces of plaster, we'll be going further a little down the street at the square of Meiveld. It's not very far to walk, and you don't have to worry that it will not have the same atmosphere. Here you will get the same dishes, the same waitress and the same jokes.

It will take a while before you get used to this; we're aware of that! That is why at the end last year we have started with a little coffee place where you can come drink a Ludiek cup of joe . We don't know for sure when we will have to make the permanent move yet. But when we do, so will you. And so until that time we are going to have a grand Ludiek time here together!
