

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE 2026-2027

A book of remembrance was written before God, for those who revered the Lord and who thought upon God's name.

- Malachi 3:16

YIZKOR: A SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

Yizkor is a time set aside to formally include in our thoughts and prayers family and friends who have passed away. In reciting Yizkor, the veil between the worlds of the living and the dead becomes more transparent.

For some, memories of family and friends evoked by the holidays add to our sense of fullness and peace. For some, those memories bring sadness at the loss of those we loved. For still others, these memories may be disquieting. Whatever our circumstances, as we travel through the cycle of the year, the people who were once with us in person travel with us in spirit.

Some people whose parents are living have a custom of leaving the service at this time, but even those who do not yet need to say the personal prayers of remembrance might remain and recite prayers for others as well as join in the communal prayers.

- Siddur Lev Shalem (adapted)

Yahrzeit Candle Lighting

We light the yahrzeit candle because it serves as a remembrance of the departed soul. There is no required prayer when lighting the candle, however we offer the following prayers.

נֵר יי נִשְׁמַת אָדָם.

Ner Adonai nishmat adam – the light of God is the human soul. We light this candle to remember the light of our beloved _____, whose physical presence is no longer with us, but whose light and love guide our path now and always.

אָנָּא יי מֶלֶךְ מְלֵא רַחֲמִים, אֱלֹהֵי הָרוּחוֹת לְכֹל בָּשָׂר, אֲשֶׁר בִּידֶךָ נִפְשֹׁת הַחַיִּים וְהַמֵּתִים, אָנָּא קְבֵל בְּחֶסֶדְךָ הַגָּדוֹל אֶת נִשְׁמוֹת _____ וְהַסְתֵּר אֶת נִשְׁמָתָם בְּצֵל כְּנָפֶיךָ.

Ana Adonai melech malei rachamim, Elohei haruchot lechol basar, asher beyad'cha nefashot hachayim vehameitim, ana kabeil bechasd'cha hagadol et neshamot _____ vehesteir et nishmatam betzeil kenafecha.

Adonai, compassionate keeper of all souls, of those here on earth and those in the next world, please protect with utmost kindness the souls of _____ and continue to protect them in the shelter of your wings.

A MEMORIAL PRAYER

I haven't forgotten you, even though it's been some time now since I've seen your face, touched your hand, heard your voice. You are with me all the time.

I used to think you left me. I know better now. You come to me. Sometimes in fleeting moments I feel your presence close by. But I still miss you. And nothing, no person, no joy, no accomplishment, no distraction, not even God can fill the gaping hole your absence has left in my life.

But mixed together with all my sadness, there is a great joy for having known you. I want to thank you for the time we shared, for the love you gave, for the wisdom you spread.

Thank you for the magnificent moments and for the ordinary ones too. There was beauty in our simplicity. Holiness in our unspectacular days. And I will carry the lessons you taught me always.

Your life has ended, but your light can never be extinguished. It continues to shine upon me even on the darkest nights and illuminates my way.

I light this candle in your honor and in your memory. May God bless you as you have blessed me with love, with grace, and with peace. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTIONS

RABBI AARON BERGMAN

It is rare for a day or week to pass without thinking about those who are no longer with us and mourning for them. Sometimes we recall a relationship that was so sweet and nurturing and we feel sadness that the person is no longer here to continue that joyous feeling with us. Sometimes the relationship was very complex and hurtful and we regret not being able to heal its challenging aspects.

Why do we need a separate service devoted to memory, especially a service to remember the very people we think about so often? The word for this service is not Nizkor – we will remember. It is called Yizkor, which means that it is God who remembers.

What is it about us that reminds God of our loved ones? Values, ideals, commitments. God wants to see what we are doing about them. What if the relationship was difficult? How are we making a difference to the next generation?

We are the ones who will be remembered in the future. What do we think people will remember about us? What do we want them to remember? How do we want them to remember us? Will there be a place for them to say Yizkor?

Judaism is a religion of memory. As a people we remember the Exodus from Egypt and the exiles that began with the destruction of the Temples. We remember the Holocaust and the birth of the State of Israel. We come together on Yizkor to remember that we are part of these stories. That is what God will remember.

May we all find comfort and strength together, and may we create the beautiful and nurturing memories for those who come after us.

HAZZAN DANIEL GROSS

In Judaism, light symbolizes both life and loss. It also represents the soul. On the first day of Creation, God brings forth or (אֵר), the Hebrew word for light. Yet this primordial light did not emanate from the sun or stars, for the heavenly bodies were not created until the fourth day. The nature of this light is never fully explained, inviting generations of reflection and interpretation.

In much the same way, our understanding of God remains deeply personal, something felt, searched for and wrestled with throughout our lives.

As Jews, we use light both to sanctify and to remember. The lighting of Shabbat and holiday candles ushers us into sacred time, while shiva and yahrzeit candles remind us that the souls of those we love continue to illuminate our lives long after they are physically gone.

There is something uniquely powerful about the Yizkor service. In these moments of quiet prayer and remembrance, the sanctuary itself can feel transformed, a sacred bridge connecting past and present, memory and presence, earth and eternity. The lights of the memorial wall become more than symbols; they reflect the enduring bonds between us and those whose lives still shape our own.

The book of Proverbs teaches, Ner Adonai nishmat adam, “the human soul is the light of God.” When someone we love dies, we pray that their soul returns to its divine source. My prayer for all of us is that the lights of remembrance help us remain connected to those we can no longer see, and that their memory continues to illuminate our lives with guidance, love and inspiration.

RABBI BLAIR NOSANWISCH

If you have ever spent time wandering an old cemetery, you have seen how the letters carved into stone have often faded with time. This physical manifestation of wear could seem to suggest that these lives have been forgotten; but the monument itself still stands, even if the particulars of the life it stands for have been rubbed away. Every action we do with our bodies traces a neural pathway. There is a physical impression made on us as we act in the world. Yizkor, a memorial service, makes physical requirements of us. To sit, to stand. To speak, and to name. These are all embodied acts that make an impression on us.

Grief, if it is not allowed to move through us, stays in our bodies. The Yizkor service is a recurring opportunity to visit our grief, to walk through the imaginary (or real) graveyard of our losses and visit with them. To place stones at each grave and to trace the names of those we have lost.

A centuries-old folk ritual, called kneytlakh leygn (“laying wicks”), involved women measuring the physical plant of a gravesite, or even a whole cemetery, with candlewick. They would then use these wicks to make candles that were burned, at home or in shul, on Yom Kippur. The wisdom of this ritual seems to be an instinct to give our grief a physicality, a size, a girth we can touch and feel with our own hands, and then to kindle that loss into something that illuminates us and warms us. May it be so for you and whatever loss you are sitting with this year.

YIZKOR SERVICE

The Yizkor (יִזְכּוֹר) service was called seder matnat yad (סֵדֶר מַתָּנַת יָד), the service of expressing generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals: "Every person giving a gift according to the blessing they have received from Adonai" (Deuteronomy 16:17).

Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love, and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honoring their memory and continuing their influence for good.

"May the memory of those we recall be a blessing in our lives."

- Siddur Lev Shalem

יְיָ, מָה אָדָם וַתִּדְעֵהוּ,
 בֶּן אָנוּשׁ וַתִּחְשְׁבֵהוּ.
 אָדָם לְהִבָּל דָּמָה,
 יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
 בִּבְקָר יִצִּיץ וְחֶלֶף,
 לְעָרֵב יִמּוּלֵל וַיָּבֵשׁ.
 לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדַע
 וְנִבִּיא לְבָב חֲכָמָה.

Adonai, what are human beings that You take account of them, mortals that You care for them?

Humans are as a breath, their days like a passing shadow.

In the morning they flourish anew; in the evening they shrivel and die.

Teach us to count each day, that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

- Psalms 144:3-4, 90:6 & 90:12

[SEE FOLLOWING PAGE FOR YOM KIPPUR]

The deaths of those we now recall left holes in our lives, but we are grateful for the gift of their love.

May their memory, recalled this day, be a blessing for us and all who come to know us.

On this solemn day we each make judgments about the quality of our life.

We re-examine our deeds and relationships with our community and with others.

We express our yearnings for a new year, a new beginning, a year during which we commit ourselves to work toward bringing health and peace to all.

We long for a year when individually and communally we shall strive to live in a way that is more reflective of the ideals that we cherish.

Now, in the midst of looking at our life and assessing its quality, we pause to reflect and to remember, and to dedicate ourselves anew.

שוֹיִתִּי יְיָ לְנִגְדֵי תָמִיד,
כִּי מִיְמִינִי בֶּל אֲמוּט.
לֵכֵן שָׂמַח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי,
אֲףִי בְשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֵּן לְבָטָח.

Adonai is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall.
Therefore I am glad, made happy.

- Psalms 16:8-9

A LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

- Rabbi Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer

PRE-YIZKOR PRAYER MEDITATION

Eternal God, Master of mercy, give me the gift of remembering.
May my memories of the dead be tender and true,
undiminished by time;
let me recall them, and love them, as they were.
Shelter me with the gift of tears.
Let me express my sense of loss, my sorrow, my pain,
as well as my love, and words unspoken.
Bless me with the gift of prayer.
May I face You with an open heart,
with trusting faith, unembarrassed and unashamed.
Strengthen me with the gift of hope.
May I always believe in the beauty of life,
the power of goodness, the right to joy.
May I surrender my being,
and the soul of the dead,
to Your all-knowing compassion.

A YIZKOR MEDITATION IN MEMORY OF A

PARENT WHO WAS HURTFUL

Dear God,

You know my heart. Indeed, You know me better than I know myself, so I turn to You before I rise for Kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/Her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and of dismay that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love or to grief that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You, who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me from this desert to Your holy place.

IN MEMORY OF FALLEN

AMERICAN SERVICE MEMBERS

God on High and in our hearts:

Grant reassuring peace beneath the cover of Your Presence to all the men and women who gave their lives in defense of our country and the freedom of the world.

Shelter them among the righteous souls who are as radiant as the luminous firmament. Source of Compassion, may we continue to feel their touch on our souls.

Hasten the day when peace and security shall prevail, when “nation shall not lift up sword against nation, and there shall be no need to prepare for war.”*

May the day come when the world will stand together as one. May the memory of our fallen brothers and sisters serve as an inspiration to us and as a comfort to all their loved ones.

Amen.

And let us say: Amen.

OCTOBER 7, 2023

May God remember all the women, men and children of Israel who were brutally murdered on the 7th of October. We are shattered, God, our hearts continue to break on this day. Our minds cannot grasp the enormity of the loss.

We wish we could understand Your ways, God. The cries of the victims echo through the universe. God of the broken-hearted, God of the living, God of the dead, send comfort and strength to the grieving, send hope to the children, send healing to Israel.

We pray they are at peace now, far away from the horror they endured. Their lives ended in tragedy, but that is not how we will remember them. We will remember their heroism, their love for family and for life itself, their faith in the future, their laughter, their kindness, their determination, their spirit of hope, their passion for Israel and for peace.

Teach us, God, to believe that we can rise up from this tragedy with hope for Israel, hope for our people, hope for peace.

Let them find peace in Your presence, God. Their lives were extinguished, but their light will forever shine upon us and illuminate our way.

Amen.

בְּשָׁלוֹם עַל מִשְׁכַּבּוֹתֵיהֶם. וְנֹאמַר אָמֵן.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, to the souls of the Adat Shalom family, and to the souls of all those we have recalled today.

May their memory be a blessing, and may they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. Adonai is their portion. May they rest in peace.

And let us say: Amen.

וְנֹאמַר אָמֵן.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, to the souls of all the men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered, strangled, and burned in the Shoah. May they rest in paradise.

Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. Adonai is their portion. May they rest in peace.

And let us say: Amen.

This is a special Kaddish to remember and elevate the souls of those who lost their lives because they refused to stop living their lives proudly as Jews. Many of them never had anyone to say Kaddish for them. We say this together to honor the great courage and strength of those who came before us. May their memory be an inspiration and blessing for all of us.

MOURNER'S KADDISH TRANSLATION

May God's great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the house of Israel. And we say, Amen.

May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed – though God, who is blessed, b'rich hu, is truly (truly) beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And we say, Amen.

May heaven bestow on us, and on all Israel, life and abundant and lasting peace.

And we say, Amen.

May the one who creates peace on high bring peace to us and to all Israel.

And we say, Amen.

POEMS & READINGS

BACKWARDS AND FORWARDS

We remember backward

We live forward.

Looking backward, we recall our ancestry.

Looking forward, we confront our destiny.

Looking backward, we reflect our origins.

Looking forward, we choose our own paths.

Looking backward alone we turn memory into a pillar of salt, yielding neither fruit nor flower.

Looking forward alone, we rob ourselves of history,
The significant knowledge that informs us whence we have come.

Backward and Forward — the two tenses “was” and “will be,”
Shaping the present tense.

Yizkor, deepening our roots and widening our horizon.

Yizkor, remembering that we are a tree of life

Holding on and holding to,

Not letting go, willfully forward.

- Rabbi Harold M. Schuhweis

PSALM 23

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God gives me repose in green meadows,
and guides me over calm waters.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path, for that is God's way.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:
You anoint my head with oil,
my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life,

And I shall dwell in the house of Adonai
in the fullness of time.

- A Psalm of David

WHEN I STRAY FROM YOU

When I stray from You, Adonai, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.
The dust returns to dust;
but the soul, which is God's, is immortal.

Adonai has compassion for His creatures.
God has planted eternity within our soul,
granting us a share in His unending life.

God redeems our life from the grave.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace,
so that we will be remembered as a blessing,
as we lovingly remember, this day,
those who live on in our hearts.

- Rabbi Jules Harlow

ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8

There is a time for everything,
a time for every experience under heaven:
a time for being born, and a time for dying,
a time for planting, and a time for uprooting the planted;
a time for destroying, and a time for healing,
a time for tearing down, and a time for building up;
a time for weeping, and a time for laughing,
a time for mourning, and a time for dancing;
a time for throwing stones, and a time for gathering stones, a time for embracing, and a time for refraining from embraces;
a time for seeking, and a time for losing,
a time for keeping, and a time for discarding;
a time for tearing, and a time for sewing,
a time for silence, and a time for speaking;
a time for loving, and a time for hating,
a time for war, and a time for peace.

LIFE IS A JOURNEY

Birth is a beginning and death a destination; but life is a journey.

A going, a growing from stage to stage:

From childhood to maturity and youth to old age.

From innocence to awareness and ignorance to knowing;

From foolishness to discretion and then perhaps, to wisdom.

From weakness to strength or strength to weakness and often back again.

From health to sickness and back we pray, to health again.

From offense to forgiveness, from loneliness to love,

From joy to gratitude, from pain to compassion.

From grief to understanding, from fear to faith;

From defeat to defeat to defeat, until, looking backward or ahead:

We see that victory lies not at some high place along the way,

But in having made the journey, stage by stage,
a sacred pilgrimage.

Birth is a beginning and death a destination;

But life is a journey, a sacred pilgrimage,

Made stage by stage...to life everlasting.

- Rabbi Alvin Fine

THE ECHO OF YOUR PROMISE

When I cry my voice trembles with fear;
when I call out it cracks with anger.
How can I greet the dawn with song
when darkness eclipses the rising sun?
To whom shall I turn
when the clouds of the present eclipse the rays of tomorrow?
Turn me around to yesterday that I may be consoled by its memories.

Were not the seas split asunder,
did we not once walk together through the waters to the dry side?
Did we not bless the bread that came forth from the heavens?
Did your voice not reach my ears
and direct my wanderings?
The waters, the lightning, the thunder remind me of yesterday's triumphs.

Let the past offer proof of tomorrow,
let it be my comforter and guarantor.
I have been here before,
known the fright and found your companionship.
I enter the sanctuary again to await the echo of your promise.

- Rabbi Harold M. Schulweis (Based on Psalm 77)

THE SUMMER DAY

Who made the world?
Who made the swan, and the black bear?
Who made the grasshopper?

This grasshopper, I mean—
the one who has flung herself out of the grass,
the one who is eating sugar out of my hand, who is moving her jaws back and forth instead of up and down—who is gazing around with her enormous and complicated eyes.

Now she lifts her pale forearms and thoroughly washes her face.
Now she snaps her wings open, and floats away.
I don't know exactly what a prayer is.

I do know how to pay attention, how to fall down into the grass, how to kneel down in the grass, how to be idle and blessed, how to stroll through the fields,
which is what I have been doing all day.

Tell me, what else should I have done?
Doesn't everything die at last, and too soon?

Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?

- Mary Oliver

WHERE IS GRANDMA?

The young child asked
“Where is Grandma?”
the adults gasped
Not knowing what to say.

Not in the earth
Buried, covered over with soil and small rocks
Not in the heavens
Distant, far off, a fantasy of the imagination.

Closer than earth, closer than heaven
Grandma, dear child is within us all
In our memories of her kindness and goodness
Not faint echoes but memories resonate in us.

Grandma is in our tenderness with each other
In our loyalty to family
For friends, in our love of our people.

Nothing noble dies with death
Warm embraces, wise counsel, celebrations of the spirit
Do not evaporate into the air.

Grandma is not “where” but “when”
Whenever we gather together to celebrate festivals
Whenever we offer help to the poor
The homeless, the sick
Whenever we defend the innocent
Raise our voice against injustice
Grandma’s influence is present.

Grandma stood for noble purposes raised her voice against injustice
Grandma stood for ideas and ideals
Grandma stood for care and concern and comfort of the Other.

What she stood for we now stand for Even as we stand for the Kaddish in her memory
In her honor with our love.

- Rabbi Harold M. Schulweis

A PRAYER FOR THE WORLD

Let the rain come and wash away
the ancient grudges, the bitter hatreds held and nurtured over generations.
Let the rain wash away the memory of the hurt, the neglect.
Then let the sun come out and fill the sky with rainbows.

Let the warmth of the sun heal us
wherever we are broken.
Let it burn away the fog so that we can see each other clearly.
So that we can see beyond labels,
beyond accents, gender or skin color.
Let the warmth and brightness of the sun melt our selfishness.

So that we can share the joys and feel the sorrows of our neighbors.
And let the light of the sun be so strong that we will see all people as our neighbors.
Let the earth, nourished by rain,
bring forth flowers
to surround us with beauty.
And let the mountains teach our hearts
to reach upward to heaven.
Amen.

- Rabbi Harold S. Kushner

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE

Each year, members of Adat Shalom place the names of their loved ones before our eyes for the collective prayer of remembrance, Yizkor.

In doing so, they link the act of remembrance to the great mitzvah of charity. In supporting the congregation, they provide a place of solace and shelter for countless people who seek a place of prayer, of Torah, and of compassion.

Tzedakah may not be able to reverse the physical death of our relatives, or even prevent our own, but it can make our lives a true blessing and ensure that our impact will be felt for good far into the future. May our acts of generosity and kindness reflect honor upon the memories of our beloved family members.

ADAT SHALOM MEMORIAL PARK

The wise and caring decisions we make today bring peace of mind and lessen the burdens of tomorrow.

Adat Shalom Memorial Park's graceful, winding roads and handsome landscaping ensure the beauty and peaceful solitude which you desire for yourself and your loved ones.

To ensure that the park will always retain its quiet beauty, Adat Shalom has an established Memorial Park Board of Trustees. A Perpetual Trust Fund provides for the continuous maintenance of the park.

ADAT SHALOM MEMORIAL PARK

We invite you to visit Adat Shalom Memorial Park, open every weekday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The park is closed on Shabbat and Jewish holidays.

If you no longer wish to keep this Book of Remembrance as a keepsake, you can recycle it.

This book does not contain any sacred words or materials that require special treatment, such as containment in a genizah. In Jewish tradition, a genizah is a special storage area for documents and materials containing God's name or other sacred words, which are not to be casually thrown away or destroyed.
