A Note From Marie

Thank you to all my new and returning customers — I don't take either for granted.

2027 is JetLife's Year of Customer Appreciation, and South Africa has been on my heart for months. I built this trip out a while back, but with everything going on economically right now, I went back and took a second look — because a journey this beautiful shouldn't be out of reach.

I reworked the numbers, moved a few of the tours to optional add-ons, and brought the price down without losing what makes this trip special. Johannesburg's history, Cape Town's beauty, a safari under the African sky, and ringing in the New Year together as one JetLife family — all of it is still here.

Travel should be attainable, and until things ease up, JetLife will be right here with you, every step of the way.

Welcome to the JetLife South Africa experience.

With love, Marie

DESIGNER VACATIONS BY JETLIFE

Welcome to South Africa

Your journey begins in Johannesburg — often called the New York City of Africa for its energy, skyline, and hustle. This is a city built on resilience, home to Soweto and the legacy of Nelson Mandela, who fought against apartheid so that South Africa, and the world, could move toward freedom.

From there, you'll fly into Cape Town, where mountains meet the ocean and every turn feels like a postcard. Table Mountain rises over the coastline, the beaches stretch for miles, and the beauty here is the kind that's hard to capture in photos alone.

Breakfast is included every morning of your stay.

Over eight nights, you'll walk through Soweto and Mandela House, safari across Pilanesberg, ring in the New Year together in Johannesburg, and dance through the color of the Kaapse Klopse Carnival in Cape Town.

When the sun goes down, both cities come alive in their own way — Johannesburg's rooftop energy, Cape Town's ocean air — an experience that doesn't quit.
