Not One Moment, But Every Moment

A beautiful bloom born from roots deeply nurtured by the love, warmth, and support of every fan. The relationship between an artist and their fans isn't defined by one extraordinary moment, but by the small, heartfelt feelings they continuously exchange over time.

“ผลผลิต” ที่ผลิบานจากรากของความผูกพันที่เต็มไปด้วยความรัก ความอบอุ่น และกำลังใจจากแฟนทุกคน
สุดท้ายแล้วความสัมพันธ์ระหว่างศิลปินและแฟนคลับไม่ได้เกิดขึ้นจากช่วงเวลายิ่งใหญ่เพียงครั้งเดียว
แต่เติบโตจากความรู้สึกเล็กๆ ที่คอยส่งถึงกันเสมอ

To everyone who has ever supported me, even if it was only for a brief chapter of our journey together, I sincerely hope that every moment of your life is filled with happiness.

I've been on this journey since 2012, when I debuted with JJProject. It's been 14 years now.

I never thought those years were short, but when I look back, they really do feel like they passed in the blink of an eye.

Some of you have been cheering me on since the very beginning. Some joined me later along the way. And there are also those who have stepped away from this journey of support.

To everyone, I want to say thank you for allowing me to become a small part of your memories, even if only for a moment. In return for that love, I'll continue to repay you with better albums and performances.

Thank you to everyone who is here with me today, to those who couldn't be here, and even to those who were once by my side but have since moved on.

Between us

Deep within our hearts, there are still roots quietly connecting us. They can be found in a song that gently embraces us on our most exhausting days, a heartfelt message from the artist arriving just when we need it most, the words of encouragement fans send back in return, the love of the people around us, or even the smiles and warmth shared among friends in the fandom.

Though they may seem like ordinary moments, they slowly take root within us. Over time, they become a quiet source of strength, steadily holding our hearts, keeping us grounded, and carrying us through life's most difficult days.

A story about people who become each other's roots offering strength, growing together, and holding each other's hearts with care, even through the moments when they are carrying their own heaviest burdens.

JAY B of Got7

JAY B and GOT7 are more than just artists we look up to. They are a safe haven where we can rest our hearts, melodies that bring comfort when words fall short, and a source of happiness that gently embraces us through life's most tiring moments.

The Place We Belong Seven Branches, One Bond.

A tree with seven branches symbolizes the seven members, whose lives have grown side by side through the years. Their bond has become a place of comfort, where they continue to support and lean on one another. And the warmth born from that connection has quietly spread, reaching and embracing all of us.

have rooted for you
