STATES INN VACANCY

DAD

You don't know what you're asking.

HOSS

That's the problem.

Dad's hand drops.

The Car Week guy finds somewhere else to be.

Not here.

HOSS

You had fifteen years somewhere else.

Dad looks at him.

HOSS

Start talking.

DAD

You want to do this here?

HOSS

You came here.

Dad looks toward the Ferrari through the glass.

DAD

Get it home.

HOSS

Then come with me.

DAD

No.

HOSS

Then it stays here.

Everybody else knows what that car is.

DAD

It wasn't mine.

Hoss stops.

HOSS

Whose was it?

Dad looks at the Car Week guy.

DAD

Outside.
