

The last tree

About the Author

Hi! My name is Soeun.

Im first-year middle school student.

I like making something.

I wrote this story

because I want to share the seriousness of environmental poliution.

Thank you for reading my book.

I hope you enjoy it.

Lily walks under a gray sky
in the empty city.

Lily sees something green
in the distance.
And she walks toward.

There is a only one tree left on earth.
It is a last tree.

The tree speaks to her.
Lily is very surprised.

The tree tells Lily about the beautiful forest and nature of the past.

The tree says that people cut down too many trees.
The forests disappeared.

Lily feels sad and ask.

The tree is quiet
for a moment.
Then, it shows her a small seed.

The tree says,

"There is still hope."

Time passes,
The sprout grows and became a forest.
