

DOUGLAS-BROWN

THE COLLECTION 2026

DOUGLAS-BROWN

Cashmere, without compromise.

Handmade in Britain. Exceptional yarns, substantial weights and patterns refined for the way a garment should fall on the body. Everything is considered.

THE CROPPED CARDIGAN

An enduring silhouette.

A compact cropped cardigan with the substance of true luxury. The interest is not decoration for its own sake, but the quiet precision of texture, proportion and finish.

THE DUFFLE COATS

Two lengths. Familiar redefined.

Long, substantial and intentionally uncomplicated, the duffles have the ease of knitwear with the presence of a coat, moving with the body rather than sitting rigidly around it.

Traditional references are stripped back until only the things worth keeping remain.

THE LONG DUFFLE

THE EXTRA LONG DUFFLE

THE CABLE QUARTER-ZIP

Complexity, made quiet.

Cable, rib and garter structures create depth without excess.

THE SHAWL NECK CARDIGAN

Autumnal shades. Effortless.

Deep ribs, generous sleeves and an easy length. A Douglas-Brown staple. There is a reason this piece remains in the collection after 12 years.

THE SKIPPER SWEATER

Relaxed, yet considered.

A casual fit with a structured collar. Generously weighted in a 4-ply, impeccably finished and designed to be worn without thinking.

DOUGLAS-BROWN

Fewer pieces. Better pieces.

Luxury is not a logo, a trend or an endless succession of newness. It is the decision to make something properly: exceptional materials, considered construction and the time spent getting the details right.

Made in Britain and produced in limited runs. Each piece in the cashmere collection can be made to order, tailored to your specification with adjustments to fit and a selection of 180 shades.

Perfection is simple. Never compromise.
