

lonely
puppy

introduction to a writer

Hello! my name is goyejun.

When I wrote this book, I thought about how to write it, but I think it'd be better to write it with loneliness It's a book I wrote after thinking about it.
I am a student at Gyeongun Middle School, and I wrote this book in English class.

I like reading book, listening to music and playing game.

There's a lonely
puppy

puppy is whining

The dog's house is so small that the dog's loneliness is getting bigger and bigger.

When cat heard the dog whine, my friend's cat looked at the dog and said something bitter.

First of all,
the cat said to go to the sea to refresh himself.

When cats and dogs came to the sea, the two of them became quiet.

The dog suddenly started crying.

The dog said, "I'm sorry, kitty." It was because the dog was lonely but didn't call the cat.

The cat forgave me calmly. "It must have been hard for you, too. It's all right."

The cat asked me to go find the owner instead.

The dog cried and said,
"Yes," and recklessly said,
"Let's go find it now."

The dog and cat came out on the street, but there was no one passing by.

Will dogs and cats ever find their owners?
