Aranka Siegal, after surviving the Holocaust, embarked on a life-long mission against hatred, prejudice and intolerance.

Aranka received numerous accolades for her three books, Upon The Head of The Goat, Grace in the Wilderness and Memories of Babi including the Newberry Honor Award, Boston Globe Award and a Humanitarian Award at the United Nations. Aranka gave seminars and workshops for educators of all levels, countless speeches and public appearances at schools, universities, churches, in countries including the US, UK, France, Netherlands, Hungary and Japan sharing with her audiences her message:

"To a World Without Scapegoats!"

Leviticus 16
