HIGHLANDER

McLain High School Tulsa, Oklahoma Volume XI

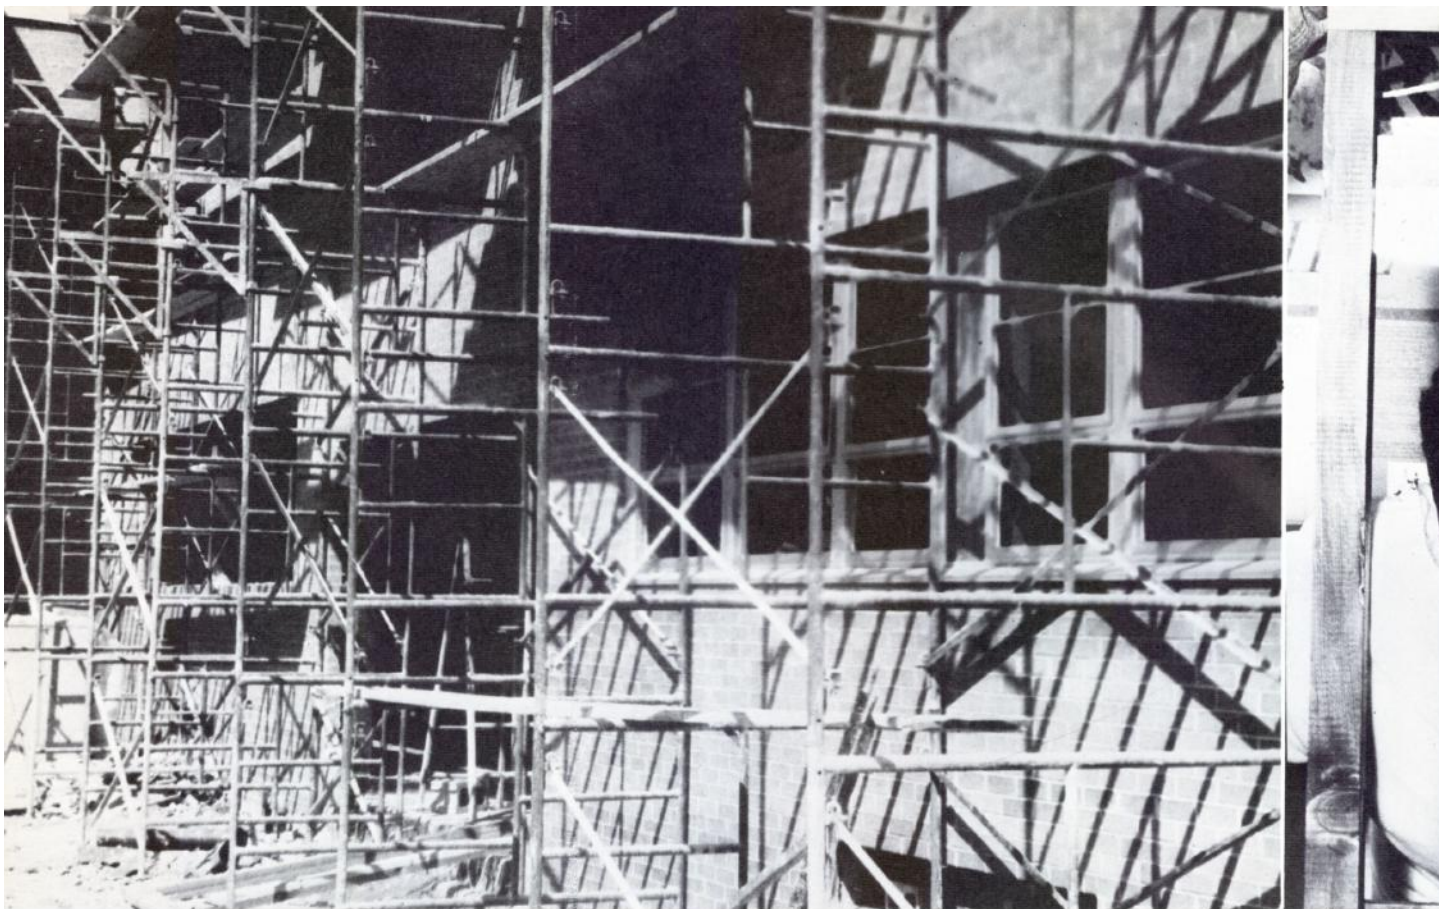

The Scot Generation . . .

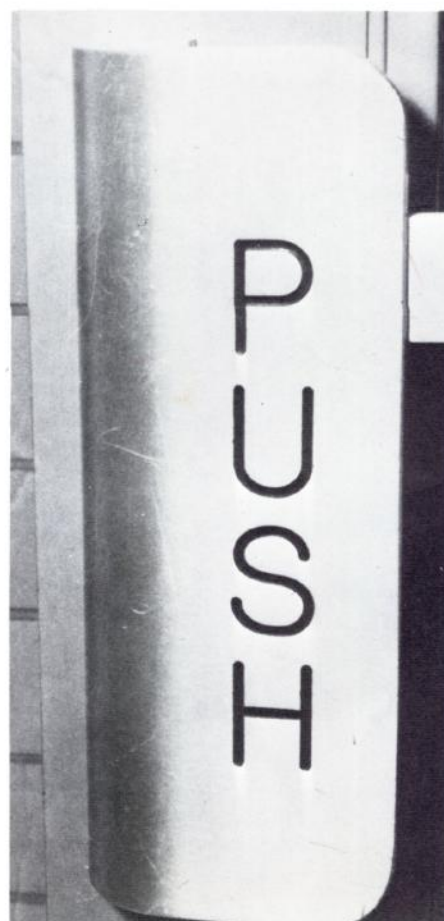

This is the Scot Generation . . .
 The NOW generation,
 A new Decade of tomorrow's leaders . . .
 An introduction to the future
 for the student,

An end to the old ways of yesterday,

A union of traditional and modern mingled together to form a sound fiber of mind and spirit.

This is a new clan . . .
universal in idea,
complete in motive,
colorful in thought . . .

... A young generation ...
The debut of a grand performance enacted by its numerous players, grand finale ... a finale of excellence, never doubting, always hoping for a new beginning to yesterday's ending ...

Robyn Smith

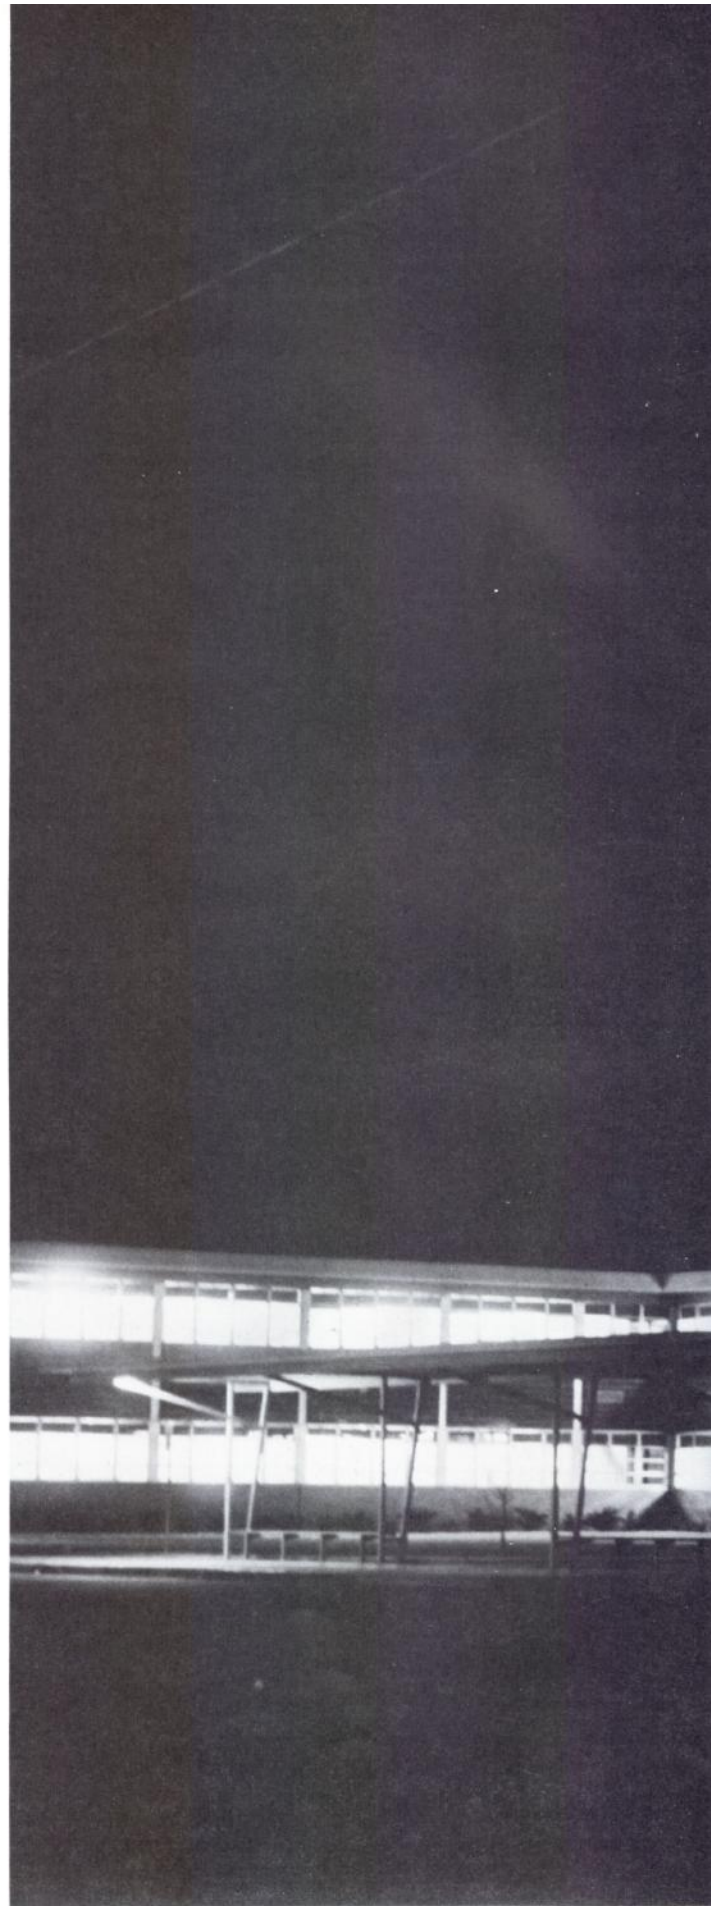

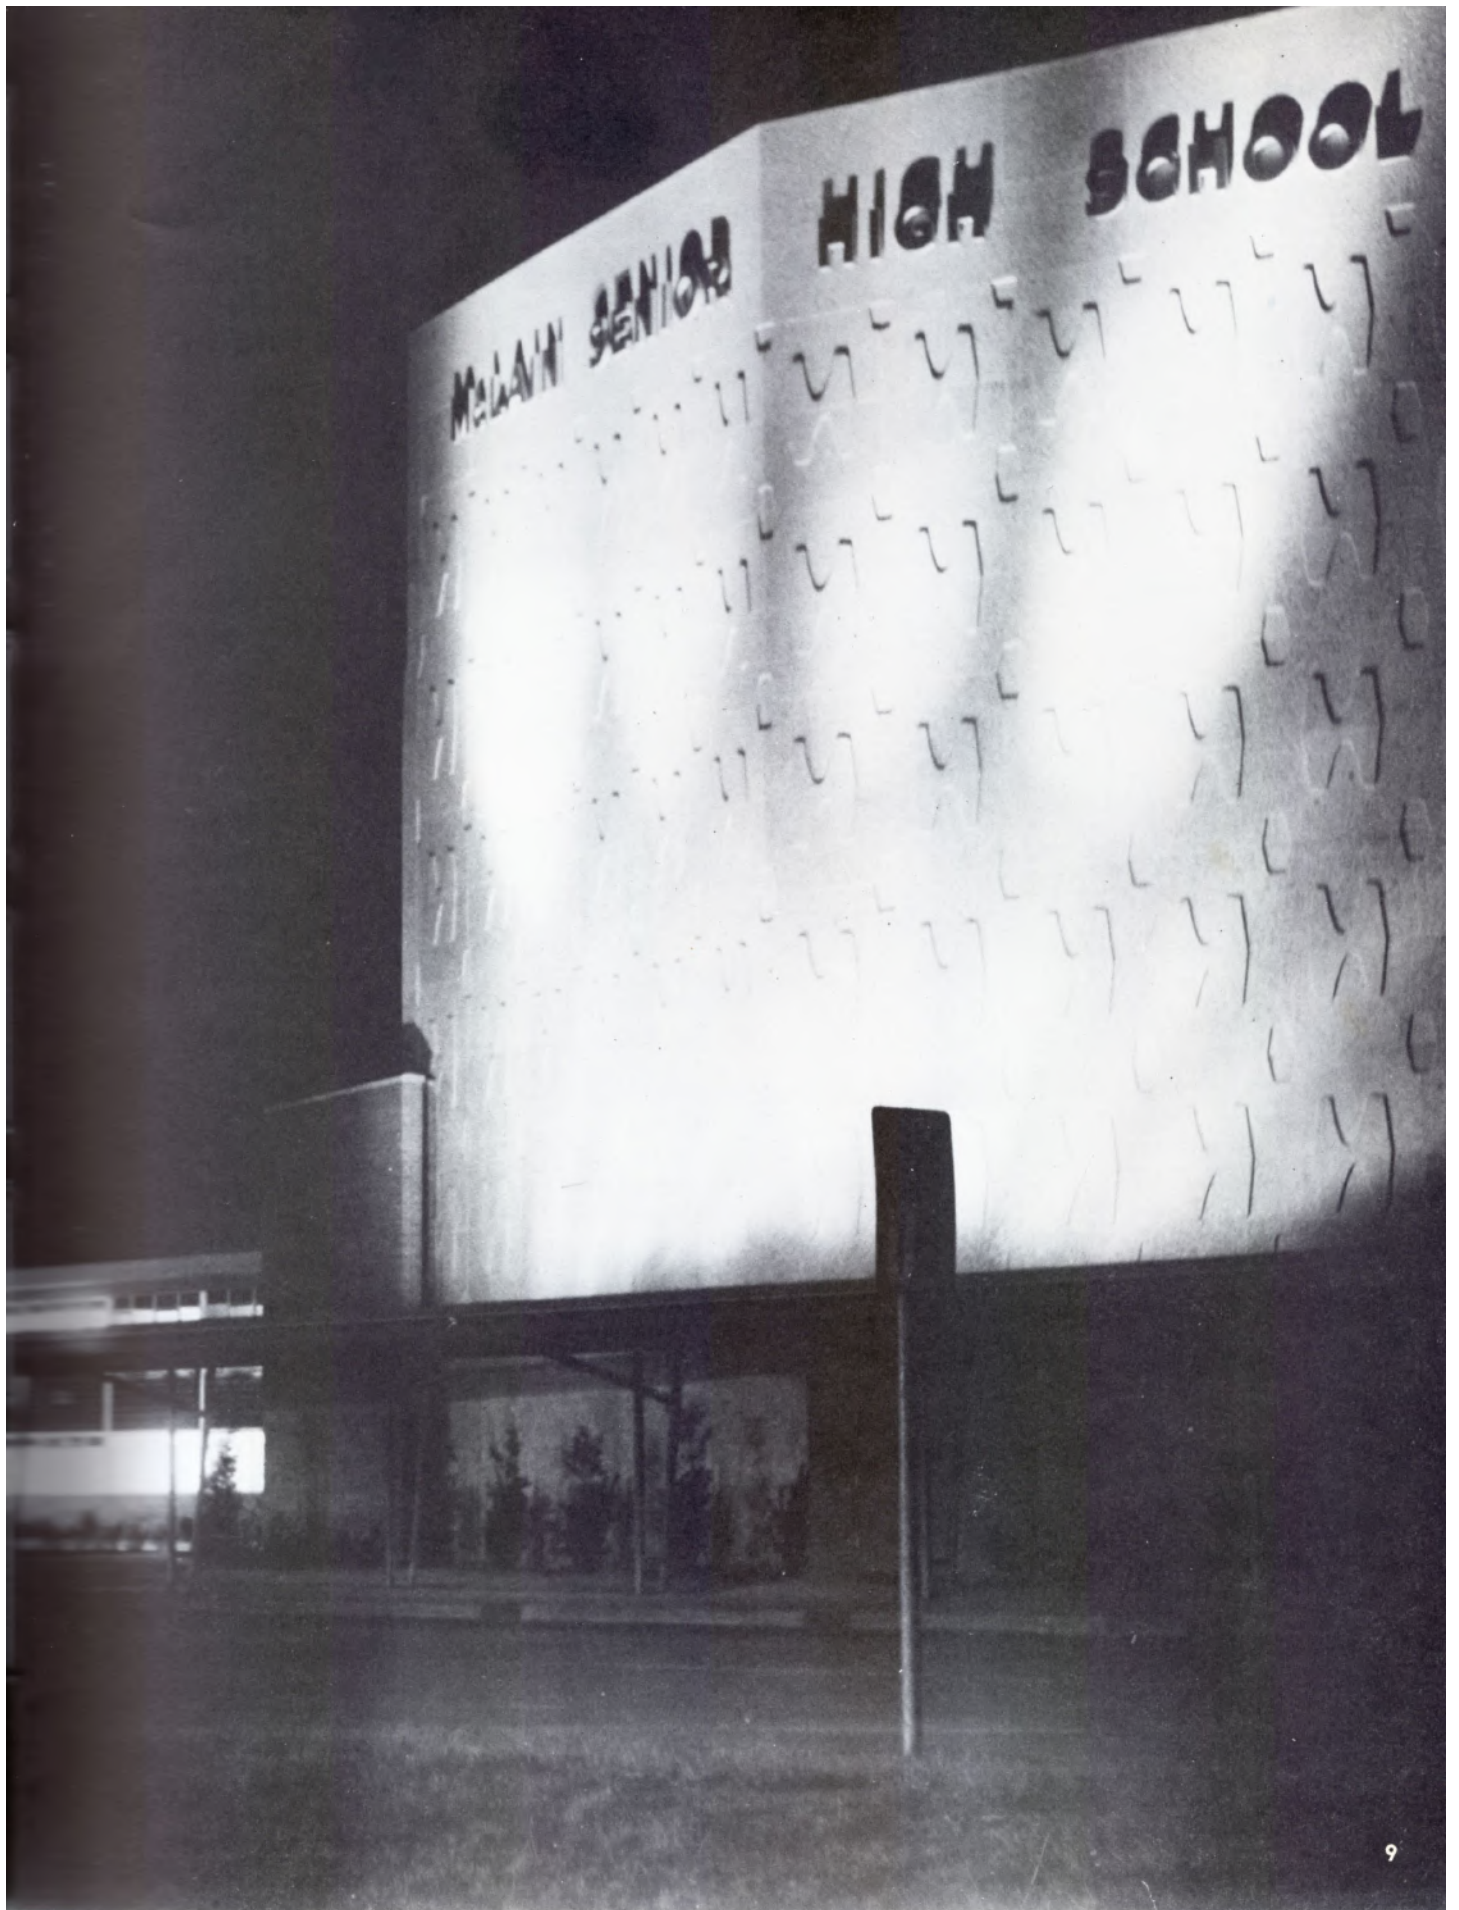

General Raymond S. McLain

"Raise your voices, let them ring,
To our alma mater sing.
Look to our Scots
And you will find Tomorrow's leaders of Mankind."

This is McLain High School . . .
a heritage of the Highlander . . .
people have ascended and descended within this heritage . . .
they have been sophomores, juniors, or seniors . . . they have been royalty, musicians, athletes, poets . . . they have been students participating in the activities of a great high school, giving to it the Fighting Scot Spirit.

Through the doors of McLain have walked tomorrow's leaders . . .
today they are members of the Scot generation, a new clan of Fighting Scots, discovering in themselves a new light
shining brightly in Scotland, casting a victorious hue on the Highlander . . . the glory of McLain.

McLain's Number One Scot

Our Number One Scot, Mr. Joe Gibson, is head man around McLain, often seen in the halls talking with students ... our school principal, a worthy member of the Scot Generation, devoted to a young generation of Fighting Scots ... with McLain in the beginning, he is a loyal Scot who has remained faithful throughout the years ... Joe Gibson ... a dynamic man with an alert and ready smile ... quick to help in a time of need ... gifted with the ability to speak with students ... dedicated to the betterment of McLain High School ... we will look back upon the Scot Generation with fond memories, and we will remember him ... Our Number One Scot ...

Counselors, Assistant Principals, Deans . . . guiding and instructing, disciplining when necessary, assisting the student . . . counselors, co-ordinating schedules and arranging for scholarships, making decisions for the betterment of the pupil, pointing in the direction of success . . . assistant principals, people with a heart for others, concerned with the actions of youth, helping to operate a sounder school system . . . deans, the key word in self-control, studying the problems of the novice, mastering restraint . . . they are all people, with human interest . . . they understand . . .

ROYALTY

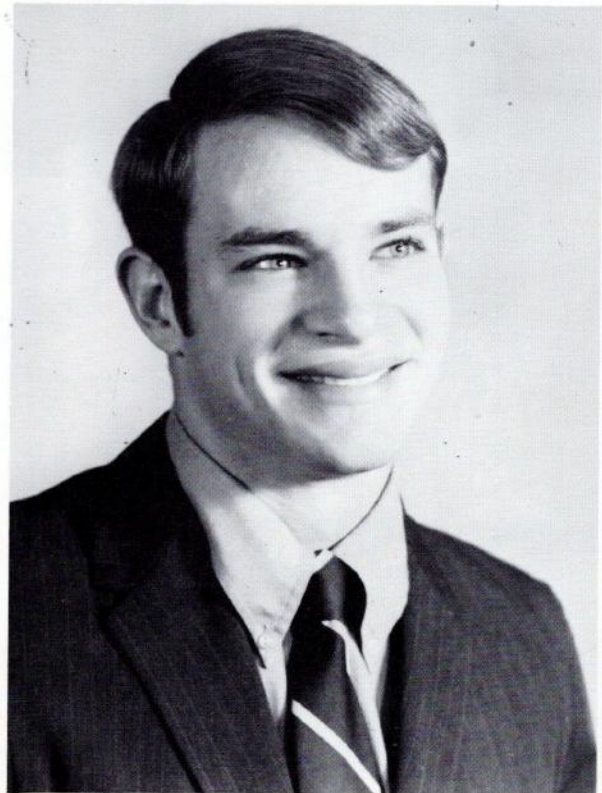

Sir Alphonso Rider

Mike Bowden Reigns as Lord of the Clan

Relive the dream . . . a queen, three candidates, standing before an audience of students, awaiting the arrival of the scroll . . . a scroll bearing the name of the Lord of the Clan, an honor of royalty given to only one deserving young man, who will accept the challenge of leadership and achievement. The scroll has arrived and is now being read, all are viewing the selected three, as relief and happiness amid a myriad of disbelief spread across the winner's face . . . he kneels and accepts the crown . . . Mike Bowden, Lord of the Clan, 1970.

Sir Mike Koch

Sandi Eaton Leads Scot Generation in Beauty

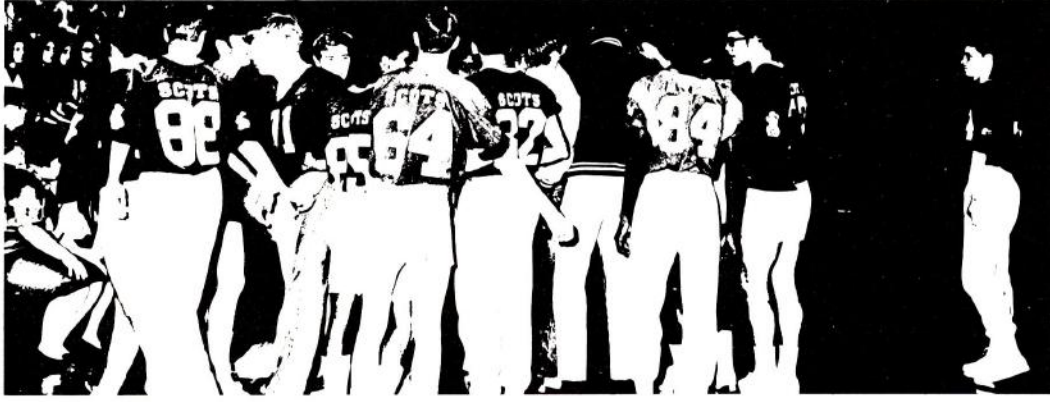

There was a tense moment on stage . . . then the Lord High Chancellor spoke, and the Queen was made known to all in Scotland. In the presence of all her subjects stood Sandi, Queen of Scots . . . radiant in her beauty . . . tearful in her time of joy . . . a Scot Worthy, beginning and ending her reign in only a year's time . . . yet bearing her crown with a decisive glory that all will remember in the times that follow.

Kilt Klan

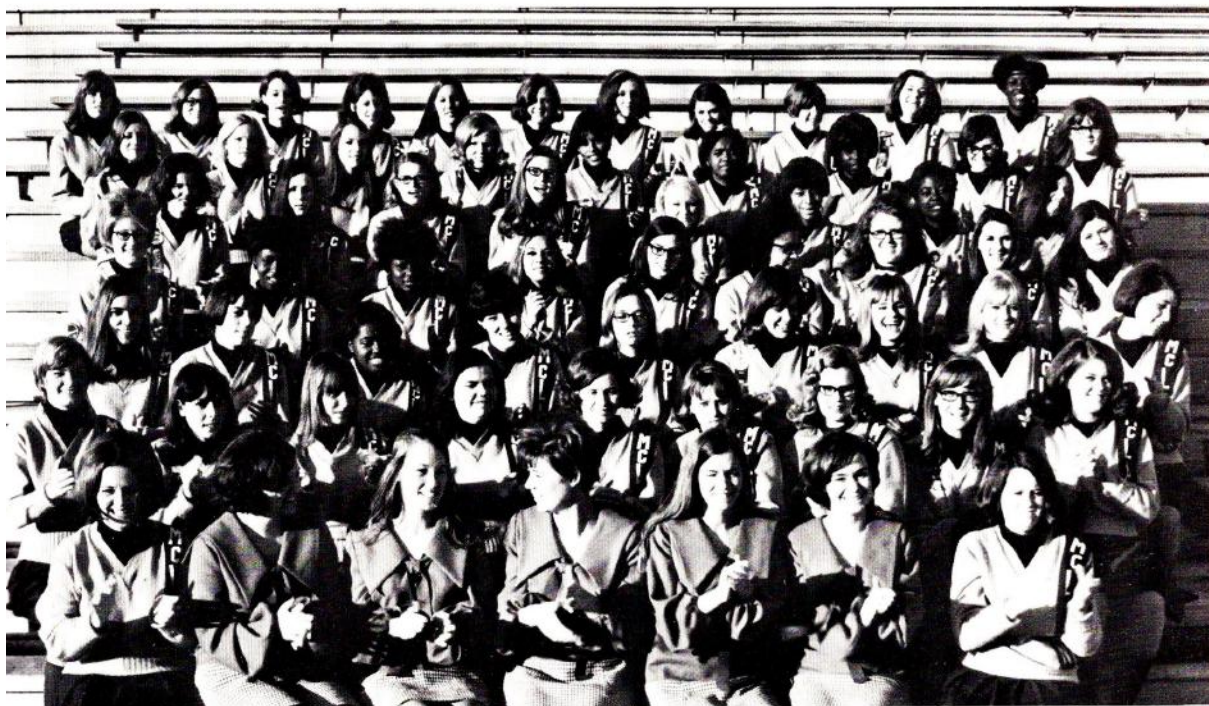

The Kilt Klan, sponsored by Mrs. Michaelyn Martin, led a very spirited year. Seated in the picture at the upper right are the Kilt Klan officers. FRONT ROW, left to right: Geneva Biffle, Program Chairman; Debbie Fields, Vice President; Melva Davis, Program Chairman. SECOND ROW: Ellen Baker, Secretary; Nina Young, President; and Mechele Andrews, Treasurer.

The main goal of the Kilt Klan is to preserve spirit and keep it at its height. Kilt Klan sponsored Loyalty Week, which included, the Quiet Days, The Crazy Legs contest, the Hot Lips contest, Maroon and Gray Day, and a Faculty versus the F.C.A. basketball game held during the pep assembly. Kilt Klan made favors for the athletic events and posters for the boys' buses and the school halls, helping to create spirit.

This year was one of change as the Kilt Klan introduced new uniforms for the basketball season. The outfits consisted of maroon pantdresses worn with white blouses. This helped to give the spirited Kilt Klan a new and fresh look.

Kilt Klan Adds to Spirit With Skits

A typical skit in a Pep Assembly.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Head Cheerleader is Debby Rogers.

Varsity cheerleaders for this year are all Juniors and Seniors. They are smiling, spirited girls who are coordinated and skilled in their routines. Throughout the 69-70 year, the cheerleaders attend all sports events for McLain's Varsity athletics and keep the Fighting Scot spirit at its peak. They provide entertainment at pep assemblies in the form of pom-pom routines, precision cheers and comic skits. Bake sales and spirit drives also add to the completion of an exciting year.

With Mrs. Jeanne Hornsby as the girls' sponsor giving the best influence possible of leadership, character, and organization, McLain's cheering section for 69-70 was the greatest!

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

For the first time in the history of the Scot Generation, Junior Varsity cheerleaders pepped up the Spirit of McLain. These seven sophomore girls cheered at Junior Varsity football games and basketball games. They also performed at B-team wrestling and attended B-team baseball games.

Mrs. Dale Mingo was Junior Varsity cheerleading sponsor, with Joyce Bewley serving as head cheerleader and Donnia Roach as Co-head.

Red Cross

This has been a very successful year for McLain's Red Cross. Helping the American Red Cross' need for clothing and can goods, McLain's Red Cross held drives in which each home room in the school participated in a contest to see which home room contributed the most can goods or clothing. The Red Cross held weekly meetings and held several bake sales.

Mrs. Juanita Ellis

The Vocal Music Department, consisting of the Concert Chorus, Girls' Chorus, and the two Mixed Choruses, combined their vocal efforts to produce a full year of sound. In addition to performing in concerts, the Christmas and McLain Day Assemblies, and Vespers' Services, they also compiled a major part of the musical cast.

Under the direction of Mrs. Juanita Ellis, who has taught at McLain for three years, the vocal department maintained a steady pace throughout the year. They sang at some half-time performances during football season, and a selected few serenaded Miss McLain XI during her coronation. The concert chorus made several out-of-town trips, and also visited neighboring junior highs. Senior members of the vocal department were allowed to sing in the city-wide "Messiah," adding a climactic touch to their years at McLain.

Mr. Fred Shields

The 1969-70 Instrumental Music Department has had quite a full year. Beginning with football season, the marching band kicked the year of music off to a fine start. They performed at all football games and participated in the Tulsa and Muskogee Fair Parades, and also the Christmas Parade. Concert season was next to roll in with a performance in December and one again in March. The orchestra performed during the Coronation Assembly and held its own mid-winter concert in January. Stage band performed in several combined concerts and also for "Brigadoon." Performing at the Commencement Ceremony in May ended the concert season as well as the 69-70 year.

Mr. Fred R. Shields, Jr. has sponsored the instrumental department for two years now. He formerly taught at another high school in Tulsa, and has almost completed studies for his PhD. at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Ardell Higginbotham
Stage Director

Stagecraft

Stagecraft, under the supervision of Mr. Ardell Higginbotham, is concerned primarily with the setting of stage productions. They handle the lighting, provide sets, and produce sound effects for the plays, assemblies, concerts, water show, and the Musical. Elaborate Scottish settings were produced for the musical "Brigadoon" by the Stage crew.

Stagecraft personnel worked hard all year managing back drops and building props for scenery. They were responsible for the maintenance of the stage, and sound and lighting equipment. Preparations for programs and assemblies were made weeks, or even months in advance, to insure the perfection of the performance.

ROW 1: Mr. Higginbotham, Steve Alcorn, Clyde Haas, Gene Kelly, Robert Allen, Student Director Keith Parker. ROW 2: Danny Day, Larry Burns, Jesse Rhoden, Ronnie Horn, Greg Brown.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, sponsored by the counselors, is a credit to the school for its outstanding members. Those compiling the NHS are honor roll students who have maintained a high grade average during their sophomore, junior and senior years.

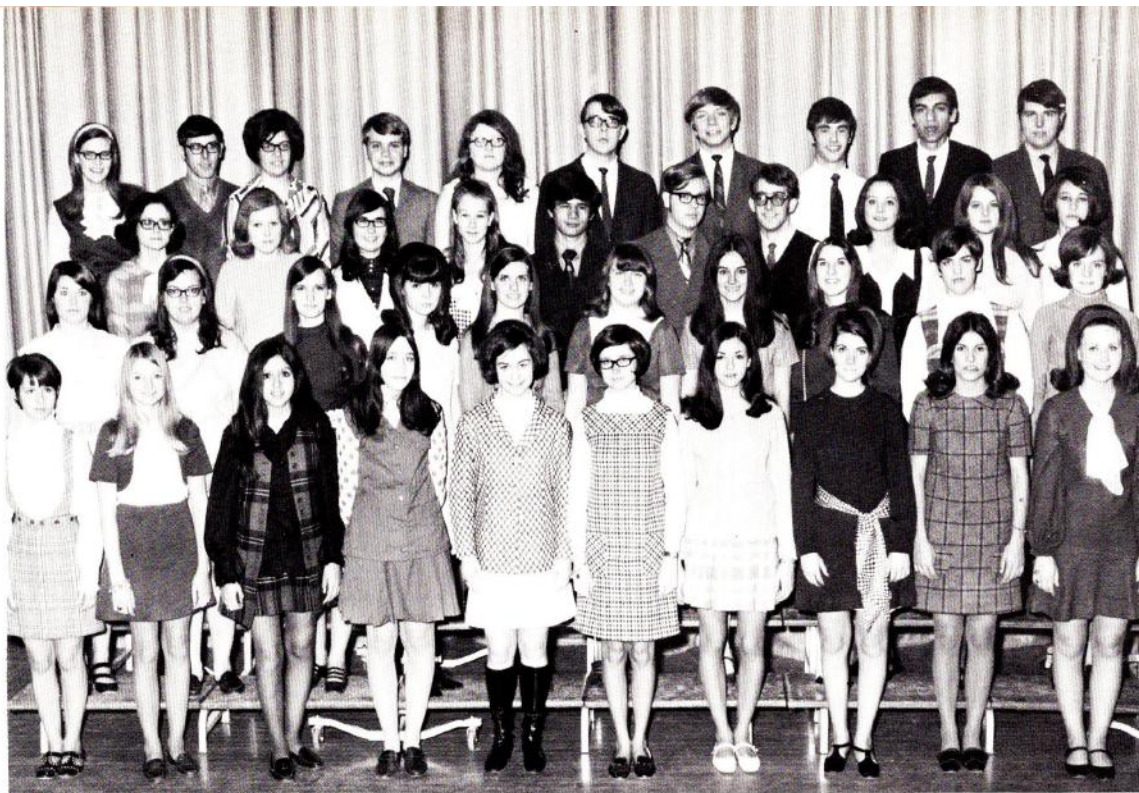

In November, a candlelight ceremony was held in the McLain auditorium for the initiation of worthy members. Those selected for NHS were chosen for their scholarship, leadership, and character.

Highlander Staff

Sports Editor, Debby Rogers pauses momentarily from her busy schedule.

The 69-70 Highlander Staff has put a lot of time and effort into the composition of this book. This yearbook endeavors to be an improvement over all previous Highlanders, and to capture a special meaning of purpose to all in the Scot Generation, so that this 69-70 year will not be forgotten.

The yearbook is really a recollection of all that has happened at McLain this year. The coronation, the dances, the plays, the athletic events, the organizations, the people . . . all have been recorded in this Highlander as a precious treasury of memories.

Deanna Brown greets the Classes section each day with a bright and shining smile.

Copy Editor, Robyn Smith, in one of her more somber moments.

The Highlander Staff consists of thirteen hardworking seniors and one sponsor, Miss Karen Fisher. There are photographers, and editors for classes, organizations, sports, royalty, activities and copy. Also there is one Editor-in-Chief who coordinates the whole yearbook, and a business manager who manages the financial and business matters of the Staff.

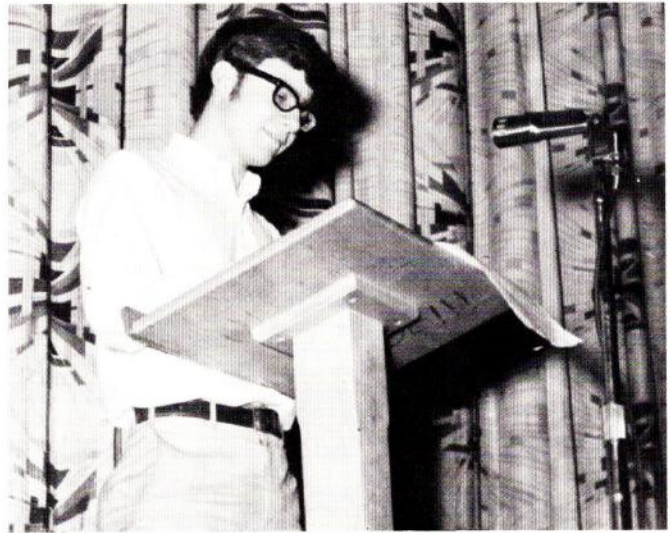

Under Miss Fisher's supervision the 69-70 Highlander has received both criticism and praise. Careful consideration has gone into the construction of this book and great effort has been put forth to perfect the pages. The chosen theme, "The Scot Generation" has portrayed the ideas and motives of a priceless generation devoted to the Spirit of McLain.

McLain Day

McLain day is a day set aside to honor our namesake, General Raymond S. McLain. It is, in a way, a celebration of his birthday, but mostly, a day to honor and to remember the greatest Scot.

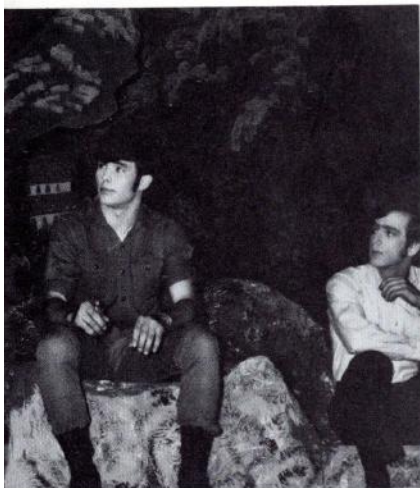

Activities for McLain day began with a breakfast. Our guests (center) were, l. to r., Rev. McCutchen, Assistant Principal Mr. Granville Smith, McLain's first principal Mr. Carl McCafferty, Student Council sponsor Mr. Gary Shannon, and breakfast speaker Mr. James Jones.

Other activities included an assembly and a dress-up day for students.

SPORTS

Football

The 69-70 football season proved to be a rather disappointing one. At the beginning of the year, hopes were high, but ability appeared low due to injuries to key players at inopportune times. This left the Scots with too many players having to play both ways. This season may have been looked upon as a rebuilding year, since around twenty-five will return for the 70-71 season.

Cross Country Takes Second in Conference

Cross Country

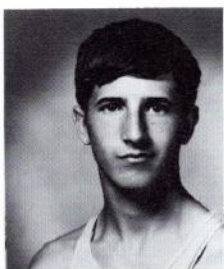

The end of the 1969-70 Cross country season found McLain finishing second in the conference and tenth in the State meet for one of its best seasons in recent years. The squad consisted of five seniors, two juniors and nine sophomores.

Medal winners in the various tournaments and meets were senior, Gerald Woffard and sophomore, Gary Clark at the Sequoyah Invitational. Seniors Dale Seawright, Gerald Woffard, and junior, Frank Spangler won medals in the Magic Empire meet. In the All-City meet, sophomores Mike Bradshaw and Ronald Taylor won medal honors.

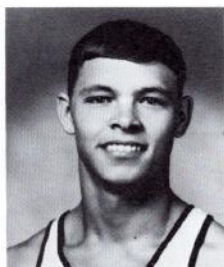

In the state meet Dale Seawright, senior, placed twenty-seventh out of one hundred and thirty contenders.

Basketball

The 1969-1970 Basketball season got off to a fine start this year rolling away with four straight wins. However, shortly after that, a losing streak began and continued throughout the remainder of the year. The Scots were unable to recover completely from the losses before the season's end and won only two games in the latter part.

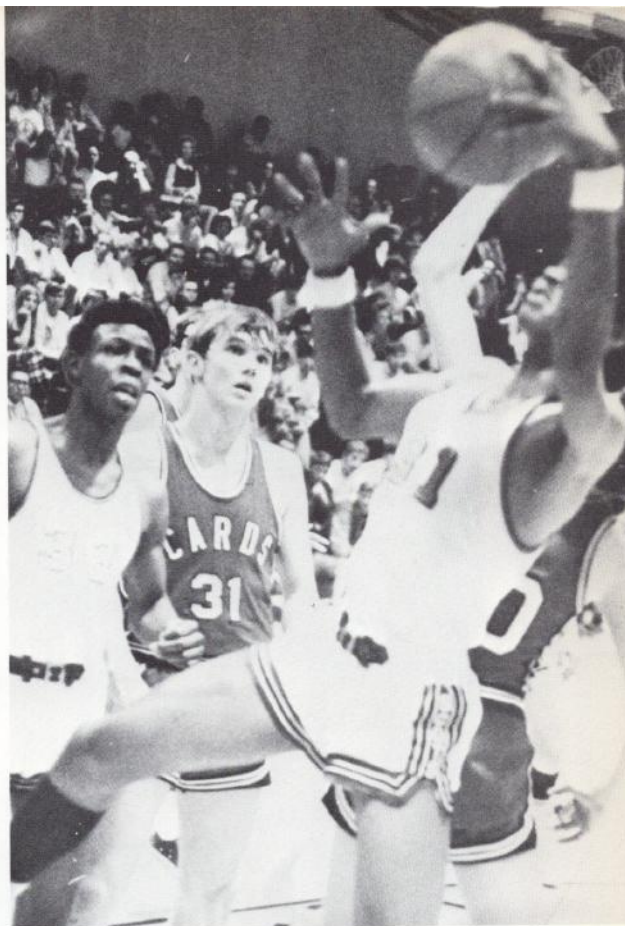

Basketball coach Joe Shoulders and assistant coach Tom Byrd felt the team this year was more of a training season for next year's team. A mediocre season was fully anticipated by the coaches and preparations for a better 1970-1971 season are in progress.

Five Scot wrestlers placed in the regional tournament. Frank Hammontree went on to receive honors as he took State in his division. His title boosted his team to a tenth place finish in the State.

The swimming team at McLain experienced an industrious year as they tied for 5th in All-City with 11 points and 4th in conference with 22 points.

In the State meet, which was held at Oklahoma State University, the Scots placed 17th with two points. Seven boys from McLain competed this year:

Diving—Charles Lee and Eldon Hadley.

200 yd. Intramural—Earl Mozingo.

100 yd. back and breast—Richard Hill.

50 yd. Free Style—Tom Price, Dana

Davidson, Earl Mozingo and Richard Hill.

The 69-70 Tennis team had a rough go of it this year. They won only two matches during the season, but proved to be tough competitors for their opponents.

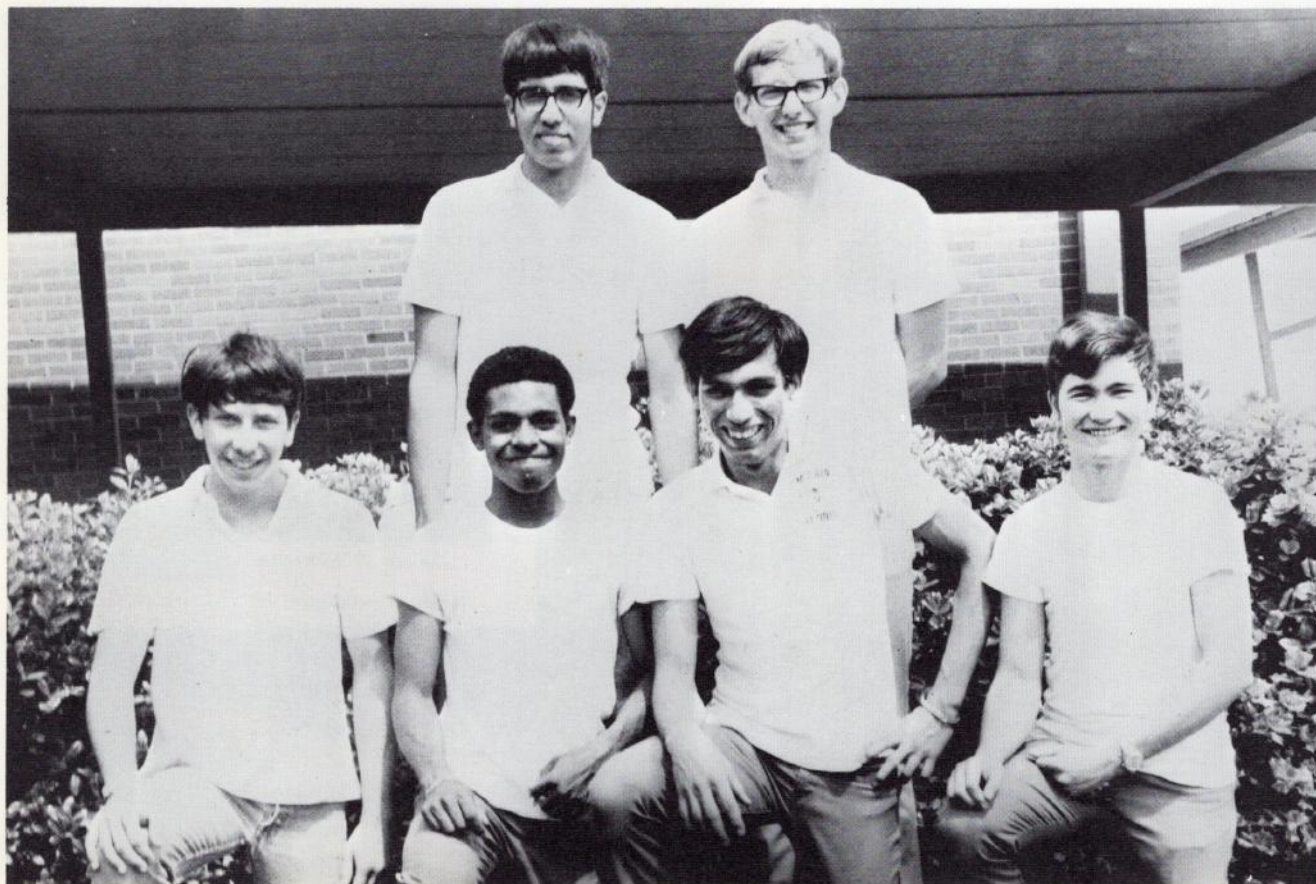

Ten boys went out for the team this year—a few more than that of previous years. Bill Beaty and Pepper Crocker proved to be the more outstanding members on the team.

Coach Nix, who also sponsors wrestling, said the Tennis team wasn't as good as desired at first, but the boys grew surprisingly better as the season progressed. The team went on to defeat Washington and Bartlesville Sooner to finish 4th in conference.

Six to State

69-70 Track was one of the most successful sports at McLain this year. Under the coaching of Jim Archer, who kept the team together, track won several honors.

For the second year in a row, McLain took first at the Eastern Invitational. They also won the Tulsa Classic Invitational at Webster. Another 1st place win was at McLain's Track Meet. They placed 2nd at the Sapulpa Meet and along with being conference runners-up, they won the Otto Endrus trophy.

Six members of the team went to State. They were: LeRoy Tatum—Pole Vault, Gerald Wofford—2 Mile (with a timing 2nd best in State), Greg Warren—Broad Jump, 100, 200, Mile Relay, Richard Jackson—Low Hurdles, Relay, 100 Dash, Dwight Jackson—440 Mile Relay, Roderick Maupin—440 Relay, 120 High Hurdles, 180 Low Hurdles, Mile Relay, Dempsey Ramsey—880, Mile Relay, Dale Seawright—1 Mile, 2 Mile, Russel Forth—1 Mile.

Bright lights indicate the excitement of baseball.

Honored Fighting Scots baseball rests in Victory showcase at McLain.

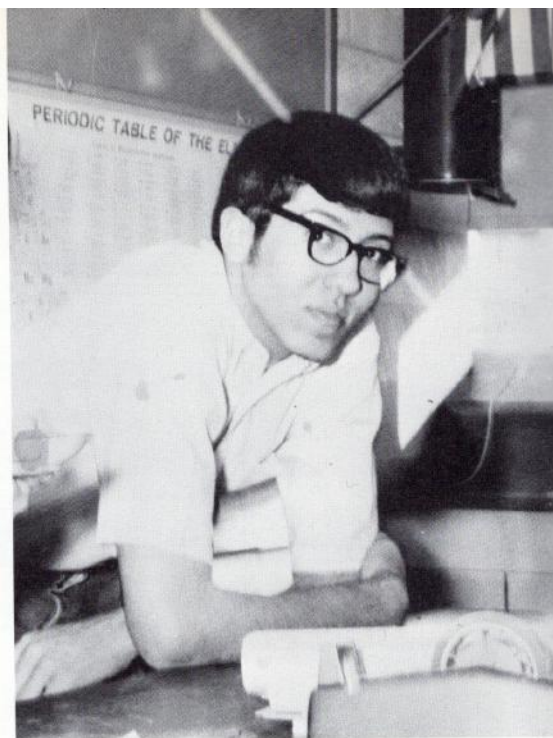

The Junior Varsity baseball team had quite a struggle this year to maintain an average season. The boys, mostly sophomores, appeared to be rather inexperienced in their teamwork, but nevertheless had a great vitality for the sport.

Under Coach Ken Pitts guidance, the Junior Varsity team gained valuable experience and knowledge of baseball, which aided in preparation for their advancement to the Varsity team in years to follow.

"Burp! ... Ah!"

Senior boys and faculty look for the stars.

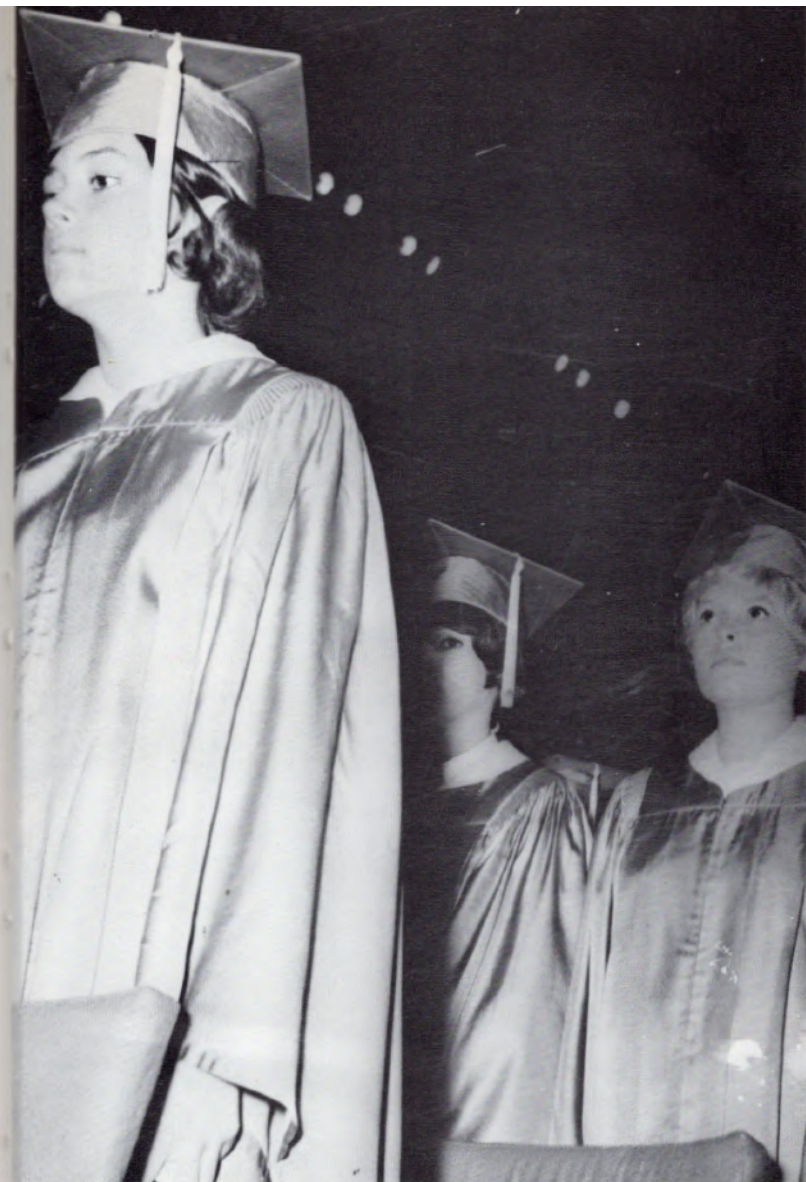

Elaine and Paula are frequently seen in the halls together.

Graduation

This is the end . . . a finale of the Seniors in the Scot Generation . . . graduation marks the completion of schooling, a turning point in the history of the Senior, where he gains a more mature outlook on life and takes a step up in society . . . the Senior—the Graduate . . . gradually growing with insight on Tomorrow . . .

Flat-topped caps, ankle-length gowns and swaying tassels . . . Vespers', Commencement . . . all signifying accomplishment. Graduates with diplomas . . . ending an aged era of learning, beginning a new phase of knowledge and inexperience . . .

TOP LEFT: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gibson take time out to pose.

TOP RIGHT: Sandi Eaton and Ina Dresser make an extraordinary entrance?

ABOVE: Rodger Scott and Glenna Stairs, a typical cavalier and dame strike a pose, worthy to that of American Gothic.
