

WELFARE RISE

Liam Flanagan's double kept Armthorpe Welfare firmly in the promotion picture as the NCEL's leading South Yorkshire clubs enjoyed another productive weekend.

Armthorpe Welfare continued their charge with a 2-0 victory at Kinsley Boys, extending their unbeaten league run to eight matches.

Flanagan (pic - number 9) struck both goals as Welfare maintained fifth place in NCEL Division One and stayed firmly in contention with games in hand on several of the sides above them.

Many viewed Welfare as dark horses before the season began and they are beginning to justify that tag after taking 18 points from their last eight league matches.

Elsewhere, Dearne & District increased their lead at the top of the NCEL Premier Division to 10 points with a 5-1 victory at Knaresborough Town. Jamie Austin scored a hat-trick and Justin Circuit added two more, while second-placed Bottesford Town slipped to a 3-1 defeat at Rossington Main.

Rossington's victory was one of the results of the weekend and further enhanced their own impressive campaign.

Maltby Main also enjoyed a welcome boost, ending a difficult spell with a hard-earned 3-2 victory at Selston.

With rivals dropping points and Armthorpe continuing to collect them, Welfare are starting to emerge as genuine promotion contenders.

Sheffield City Chairman Tackles 134-Mile Charity Challenge

A Sheffield grassroots football chairman will swap the boardroom for the saddle next month as he takes on a gruelling 134-mile charity bike ride to raise money for men’s mental health charity Andy’s Man Club.

Jamie Barton, chairman of Sheffield City FC, will embark on the challenge across two days on November 6 and 7, travelling from Wrexham AFC’s Racecourse Ground to Sheffield City’s home at Frecheville Sports & Social Club.

The ride will cover 134 miles and take in some of the country’s most famous football venues along the way, including Anfield, Old Trafford, the Etihad Stadium, Stockbridge Park Steels, Sheffield Wednesday, Hallam FC, Sheffield United and Sheffield FC.

Barton says the challenge is about far more than covering the miles.

The fundraiser has been organised to support Andy’s Man Club, which provides free peer-to-peer support groups for men across the UK, while also raising awareness of the importance of talking openly about mental health.

As chairman of Sheffield City, Barton says he has seen first-hand the role grassroots football can play in supporting people’s wellbeing.

“Mental health, particularly amongst men, is something that simply isn’t spoken about enough,” he said.

“Far too many men suffer in silence, feeling that they have to put on a brave face and carry on regardless.

“Being involved in grassroots football, I have seen just how important football clubs and the friendships formed within them can be. For many men, those couple of hours on a Saturday afternoon are more than just a game of football. They are an escape from everyday pressures, a chance to forget their worries and, sometimes, the only opportunity they have to talk to someone.”

Barton hopes the ride will encourage people to seek help when they need it and raise valuable funds for a cause close to his heart.

“I want this ride to help spread one simple message: no man should ever feel that he has to face his struggles alone,” he added.

Andy’s Man Club has grown significantly in recent years and now operates hundreds of support groups across the country under its slogan, “It’s okay to talk”.

The challenge will conclude at Frecheville Sports & Social Club ahead of Sheffield City’s home fixture against Denaby Main Development, where supporters will have the opportunity to welcome Barton back after completing the ride.

Anyone wishing to support the fundraiser can donate via the JustGiving page:

<https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/132miles2days1mission>

Barton hopes the challenge will not only raise money but also help start conversations around men’s mental health and remind those who may be struggling that support is available.

Sheffield's Kettleborough Joins Cricket's Elite

Sheffield-born Richard Kettleborough has become just the fourth umpire in cricket history to stand in 100 Test matches, reaching a landmark achieved by only a handful of officials in the history of the game.

The milestone came during the current third Test between South Africa and Australia at Newlands in Cape Town, the latest achievement in a career that has taken Kettleborough from the local cricket grounds of South Yorkshire to the biggest stages in world cricket.

For Kettleborough, the achievement fulfils an ambition he spoke openly about after becoming England's most-capped on-field Test umpire last year.

"I've always seen Test cricket as the pinnacle of the game, so getting to 100 on-field Test matches would be the ultimate achievement," he said.

Before becoming one of the world's most respected umpires, Kettleborough enjoyed a distinguished playing career.

Former South Africa captain Shaun Pollock made the official presentation to Richard Kettleborough on behalf of Cricket South Africa and the International Cricket Council commemorating his entry into the elite club of umpires with 100 test appearances.

A talented left-handed batsman from Sheffield, he progressed through the county ranks with Yorkshire before moving to Middlesex. Across 33 first-class matches he scored more than 1,250 runs, including a century against Essex.

His links with the local game remained strong throughout. After his county career, Kettleborough played for Sheffield Collegiate and was part of the side that won both the Yorkshire ECB County Premier League and the National Club Championship in 2000. He remains closely associated with the Abbeydale club and still occasionally turns out alongside his son Jack when his officiating schedule allows.

The move into umpiring proved inspired. After joining the ECB's first-class umpiring panel, Kettleborough rose rapidly through the ranks, making his international debut in 2009 before being appointed to the ICC Elite Panel just two years later. He went on to win the ICC Umpire of the Year award in 2013, 2014 and 2015, establishing himself among the leading officials of his generation.

Reflecting on his career, Kettleborough admitted he never imagined reaching such heights. "It's a big honour. I honestly never imagined it would happen, but I'm very proud of my achievements," he said.

He also paid tribute to the late David Shepherd, the former England umpire who played a significant role in his development.

"To overtake the late, great David Shepherd, who was one of my idols growing up, is something I'm very proud of," he said.

Kettleborough now joins an exclusive club. Pakistan's Aleem Dar holds the record with 145 Tests, while West Indies umpire Steve Bucknor stood in 128 and South Africa's Rudi Koertzen officiated in 108. Reaching 100 places the Sheffield official among the most experienced umpires the game has ever known.

Last year he surpassed Shepherd's mark of 92 Tests to become England's most-capped on-field Test umpire. His latest milestone further strengthens a legacy that has earned admiration throughout the cricketing world.

Sheffield Home Of Football Celebrates Landmark Year

Sheffield Home of Football has hailed a landmark 12 months after reaching more than 2.7 million people, expanding its heritage programme and taking a significant step forward with its bid for UNESCO World Heritage recognition.

The charity, which works to promote Sheffield's status as the birthplace of modern football, has released details of its achievements during the past year and says interest in the city's unique football story continues to grow both nationally and internationally.

Among the highlights was the submission of Sheffield's UNESCO World Heritage bid, an ambitious project seeking global recognition for the city's contribution to the development of football.

The organisation also continued its popular programme of heritage walks and talks, attracting hundreds of participants and generating vital funding for future projects.

A total of 852 people attended Sheffield Home of Football events during the year, while its walks, talks and educational activities raised around £5,000 to support the charity's work.

The city's football heritage trail also continued to grow, with 15 blue plaques now installed across Sheffield recognising key locations, individuals and moments in football history.

One of the year's most successful initiatives centred on women's football.

The charity worked alongside the Crucible Theatre during the run of Ladies Football Team, delivering a series of talks exploring the history of women in the game. Volunteer Nell Farrell's presentation, From Presence to Participation, examined women's involvement in football from 1867 through to the Football Association ban of 1921 and received enthusiastic feedback from audiences.

Sheffield Home of Football also staged exhibitions, continued its academic research programme and strengthened partnerships with organisations including the National Football Museum, The FA, archives services and heritage groups across the country.

Research carried out by the charity attracted growing international interest, with one academic paper reaching almost 3,700 readers worldwide and a second publication already in development.

Community engagement remained a major focus.

The charity increased its work with schools, supported local schools' football finals and continued efforts to promote opportunities for girls in the game. During the year it also donated £250 to Sheffield & Hallamshire Para Disability Football through a partnership involving Yard Ball and Howdens.

Meanwhile, the first commissioned Sheffield Home of Football artwork, Heads or Tails, was unveiled in the city centre, while heritage projects featured at events including the Penistone Film Festival and the Yellow Bus World Cup celebration in the Peace Gardens.

Digital engagement also reached record levels, with the organisation connecting with more than 2.7 million people through Facebook during the year.

Looking ahead, Sheffield Home of Football plans to expand its heritage walks programme, install additional blue plaques and continue educational outreach while awaiting further progress on the UNESCO bid.

The charity believes growing public interest proves there is an increasing appetite to celebrate Sheffield's claim as the birthplace of modern football.

A spokesperson said the foundations laid over the past 12 months leave the organisation well placed for an even more ambitious future as it continues to preserve and promote one of the city's most important sporting stories.

New Managers Spark FA Vase Dream

Fresh optimism surrounds Parkgate and Sheffield FC as they prepare for second-round FA Vase ties that could take them into the last 64 of the national competition.

Both clubs head into the weekend revitalised by recent managerial appointments. Sheffield remain unbeaten since Craig Denton took charge and produced another eye-catching display last weekend, leading 4-1 against Blackstones before the NCEL Premier Division fixture was abandoned. Parkgate have also enjoyed an immediate uplift under Jamie Housley. The Steelmen are unbeaten under their new boss, with two victories and a draw across league and cup competition, including an emphatic 5-0 victory at Keighley Town on Saturday.

The stakes are continuing to rise in a competition that began with 601 entrants. A place in the Third Round Proper awaits the winners, along with another £900 in prize money and the prospect of Monday's draw. By the time the second-round ties have been completed, the remaining 128 clubs will have been reduced to just 64, leaving the survivors five victories away from a place in the final at Wembley next May.

Both clubs face opponents steeped in football tradition. Sheffield welcome historic Merseyside outfit South Liverpool to the Home of Football Stadium in Dronfield, while Parkgate travel to Lancashire to face former Football League club Nelson, whose remarkable history includes becoming the first English club to defeat Real Madrid on Spanish soil in 1923.

If recent form is any guide, Sheffield will head into Saturday's tie full of confidence.

The world's oldest football club have shown signs of becoming an increasingly difficult side to beat under Denton. Their progress into the Second Round Proper came courtesy of a deserved 2-1 victory over Ramsbottom United, with Leon Howarth scoring both goals to secure passage through.

Standing between Sheffield and a place in the Third Round Proper is one of Merseyside's most historic non-league clubs.

South Liverpool were founded in 1935 and remain one of the North West's best-known traditional non-league names. The club currently competes in the North West Counties League Premier Division and, while sitting in the lower half of the table, arrive in Dronfield with a recent record suggesting they are a more dangerous proposition than their league position implies.

The visitors have won four of their last six league matches, recording victories over Abbey Hey, FC Isle of Man, Longridge Town and Charnock Richard. While heavy defeats against Trafford and FC St Helens reveal vulnerabilities, their recent upturn mirrors Sheffield's own improvement.

Victoria Park (or the Daisy Arena), home of Nelson FC who host Parkgate on Saturday

Much of South Liverpool's identity is shaped by manager Martin Ryman.

Ryman has been in charge since August 2001 and is closing in on 1,000 matches at the helm. A former South Liverpool player, he has spent a quarter of a century rebuilding the club and guiding it back into the National League System. Only Bacup Borough's Brent Peters and Dorking Wanderers boss Marc White have served longer continuously as managers in English football, underlining the scale of Ryman's commitment to The South.

His longevity is almost unheard of in the modern game and has made him one of the most respected figures in non-league football.

On the pitch, Sheffield will need to keep a close eye on James Flight, Neil Weaver, George Clarkson and Joseph Clarke, all of whom have played significant attacking roles during the current campaign. South Liverpool's goals are spread throughout the side rather than relying on one prolific scorer, making them difficult opponents to contain.

Even so, Sheffield will believe this is an opportunity. Home advantage, strong recent form and growing confidence under Denton make the Club worthy favourites, but South Liverpool's blend of tradition, experience and improving results suggest there can be no room for complacency.

While Sheffield have been handed a home draw, Parkgate face arguably the tougher challenge of the weekend as they make the long trip to Lancashire to face high-flying Nelson.

The Steelmen's FA Vase campaign appeared over when they were beaten 3-0 by Burscough in the previous round. However, Burscough's subsequent expulsion from the competition handed Parkgate an unexpected reprieve and, since then, events on the pitch have transformed the mood around Roundwood.

The appointment of Housley has provided an immediate uplift. Saturday's emphatic 5-0 victory at Keighley Town was followed by a narrow 3-2 defeat against Knaresborough Town on Tuesday evening, a result that ended the Steelmen's unbeaten start under their new manager but did little to diminish the growing sense of optimism around Roundwood. Having won two of his opening four matches and drawn another, Housley has already overseen a marked improvement in performances.

If Parkgate's form is encouraging, Nelson's is formidable.

The Admirals currently sit second in the North West Counties League Premier Division after winning nine of their opening 12 league matches. They have scored 34 goals already this season and arrive on the back of five victories from their last six league outings.

Among their principal attacking threats are Luke Hepple, Sefton Gonzales, Max Cane and Andrew Hill, with goals shared throughout a side that has established itself as one of the promotion contenders in the division.

Yet league form tells only part of Nelson's story.

Founded in 1882, Nelson are one of the most storied clubs left in the competition. They were members of the Football League during the 1920s, won the Third Division North title in 1922-23 and famously became the first English club to defeat Real Madrid in Spain when they triumphed 4-2 during a tour in 1923.

They play at Victoria Park, known as The Daisy Arena and affectionately nicknamed "Little Wembley", providing a fitting backdrop for one of the competition's most intriguing ties.

On paper, Nelson will start as favourites.

However, Parkgate are a very different proposition to the side eliminated by Burscough earlier this month. Housley's arrival has brought renewed belief and improved performances, while the narrow midweek defeat to Knaresborough did little to dent confidence generated by recent displays.

Given a second chance in the competition, the Steelmen now have an opportunity to prove they belong in it, although one of the hardest assignments left in the draw awaits against a Nelson side flying high in the North West Counties Premier Division.

Blackout And Storms Cause Chaos

Football and cycle speedway fixtures across the region were hit by floodlight failure and severe weather during a frustrating week of disruption.

The first setback came in the Rotherham Charity Cup when the quarter-final between Groves Social and The Gate Inn was abandoned at Swallownest MW after a localised power issue blew a fuse supplying the floodlights.

With the ground plunged into darkness, the referee had little option but to halt proceedings. Competition organisers have confirmed the tie has yet to be rearranged.

The postponement leaves the quarter-final stage incomplete. Wick-ersley CC are already through to the semi-finals after a 5-1 victory over Brinsworth Whitehill, while Westville booked their place in the last four with a 2-0 win against Thorpe Hesley Village. The remaining quarter-final between AFC Lord Nelson and Marquis has been rearranged for November 11 at Swallow-nest.

Storm Austen then took its toll over the weekend.

On Saturday, Sheffield FC's United Counties League Premier Division North match against Blackstones was abandoned despite the Club holding a commanding 4-1 lead.

A day later, the Sheffield Grand Prix and Sheffield Club Individual Championship cycle speedway meeting were postponed because of the weather. The event has already been rearranged for this Saturday.

CLUB HIT FOUR TO REACH LAST EIGHT

FEATURE GAME

Steve Birch

Sheffield FC booked their place in the quarter-finals of the Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup with a deserved 4-2 victory over Handsworth as Craig Denton's side continued their recent resurgence.

Having led Blackstones 4-1 before Saturday's abandonment, Club followed that display with another four-goal haul to eliminate a Handsworth side whose focus may now firmly switch back to league matters.

The opening 20 minutes were high on energy but low on quality. Both teams played at a frantic pace, yet overhit crosses and misplaced passes regularly halted promising attacks.

The first meaningful opportunity arrived in the ninth minute when Nathan Whitehead's missed header allowed Jordan Hines a sight of goal, but the Handsworth forward dragged his effort across goal and wide.

Ben Harriott then headed over from a corner before Sheffield made the breakthrough with their first effort on target.

A well-weighted through ball found Alex Hardwick in the 21st minute and the striker showed impressive composure to turn his marker before slotting neatly beyond James Pollard.

The visitors almost doubled their lead just after the half-hour mark when Paulo Aguas raced through, only for Pollard to make an excellent save at his feet.

At the other end, Hines came closest to an equaliser when his powerful volley from the edge of the area was brilliantly pushed away by Will Dean.

Kyani Clayton was beginning to influence the game from the left flank and after one mazy run that ended with an effort sailing over the bar, he would soon have a much greater impact.

Handsworth joint manager Jon Froggatt felt there had been little between the sides before the break.

“I didn’t think there was much in it first half,” he said. “If we’d been a bit more ruthless and clinical when the ball was going into the six-yard box, we might have gone in with a slender lead ourselves.” The game exploded into life after the interval.

Just two minutes into the second half, Mitchell Dunne curled an effort wide for Handsworth. From the resulting goal-kick, Sheffield swept forward and Clayton embarked on one of his trademark runs before calmly slotting into the bottom corner.

The response was immediate.

Straight from the restart, Dunne turned provider, producing an excellent pass for Hines, who made no mistake to reduce the deficit to 2-1.

Any momentum the hosts gained was quickly halted when Sheffield restored their two-goal cushion in the 52nd minute.

Two minutes later Cutts almost produced a spectacular fourth. Spotting Pollard off his line, the midfielder unleashed an audacious effort from around 45 yards that crashed against the top of the crossbar.

Denton was delighted by the attacking efficiency shown by his side.

“We’ve obviously been looking for goals,” he said. “A little bit like Saturday, we came out strongly and scored in quick succession. We probably could have had another one or two as well.”

Handsworth continued to battle and almost worked their way back into the tie, but Sheffield carried a threat every time they broke forward.

The game was effectively settled after 69 minutes when Hardwick grabbed his second goal of the evening.

The striker won possession near the halfway line and, after the ball broke kindly into his path, raced clear before finishing confidently beyond Pollard.

The hosts did give themselves a lifeline three minutes from time. Rion Arbouin’s shot struck the inside of the post and bounced perfectly for substitute James Simmonite, who reacted quickest to convert from close range.

Froggatt took encouragement from the contributions of some of his squad players.

“It was pleasing to see Simmo get his goal because it’s not easy when you’re not getting lots of minutes,” he said. “And Louie Thorpe came on and handled himself really well at 17 years old.”

The closing stages almost became nervy for Sheffield when Dunne thundered a 20-yard effort against the crossbar, but the visitors saw out the remaining minutes comfortably to secure their place in the last eight.

Denton was also pleased to use the occasion to give opportunities to younger members of his squad.

“It was nice to give players who haven’t had as much game time recently some minutes,” he said. “And having three lads from our Under-19s programme involved was fantastic.”

Despite the defeat, Froggatt was keen to keep the result in perspective.

“We’ve been on a great run and one game isn’t going to derail that,” he said. “The league is our bread and butter. We need to learn from a few mistakes tonight, put them right and make sure we’re ready for Saturday.”

For Sheffield, meanwhile, confidence continues to grow. Denton’s side have now scored eight goals across their last two matches and head into Saturday’s FA Vase tie against South

Liverpool with momentum firmly on their side.

“We’ll hopefully have one or two players back available,” said Denton. “It’ll be another good test and we’ll go full tilt to try and get the result.”

Steels Punished By Ruthless Dunston

STOCKSBRIDGE
PARK STEELS

Adam Allcroft

Football has a habit of being brutally unforgiving. There are no bonus points for promising performances, no extra column in the league table for matches that could have gone either way, and certainly no asterisk beside a result explaining that the scoreline might not tell the whole story.

For Stocksbridge Park Steels, their 4-1 defeat to Dunston was one of those afternoons when the final score felt particularly harsh. The visitors left with all three points, and nobody could argue that they had not shown their quality, but the margin of victory did little justice to a contest in which the Steels had their moments.

This was a meeting between two sides with very different objectives, but with a little extra history thrown into the mix. The fixture brought together two clubs who had faced each other in that memorable play-off final 17 months earlier, when Stocksbridge's Tommy Marshall stepped up to score the winning penalty. This time, Marshall returned to the contest with a new responsibility, wearing the captain's armband for the first time in his career.

If the captaincy brought any extra pressure, it certainly did not show in the opening exchanges.

The Steels could hardly have asked for a better start. Inside two minutes, Tom Shepherd battled his way into possession inside the Dunston penalty area before squaring invitingly across goal. Marshall was perfectly positioned to apply the finishing touch, steering the ball home from close range and sending the home support into early celebration.

It was an ideal moment for the newly appointed skipper and a dream start for a Stocksbridge side desperate to make their mark against one of the division's most in-form teams.

Tommy Marshall - who captained Stocksbridge for the first time and opened the scoring - in action against Dunston on Saturday.

For a brief moment, the Steels had Dunston exactly where they wanted them.

Unfortunately, there is a reason the visitors have established themselves among the division's leading sides. Dunston possess the quality to punish even the smallest lapse in concentration, and their response was both swift and assured.

The equaliser arrived courtesy of a well-constructed attacking move that opened up space for JJ O'Donnell. The forward needed little encouragement, finding the net to bring Dunston level and undo much of the good work Stocksbridge had achieved with their explosive start.

The Steels had barely had time to settle after conceding when Dunston began to demonstrate why they have been so difficult to stop. Their movement and combination play repeatedly caused problems, and the visitors increasingly dictated the rhythm of the contest.

O'Donnell was again the beneficiary as Dunston completed the turnaround. Another impressive team move created the opening, and the forward showed his instincts inside the penalty area to finish clinically for his second goal of the afternoon.

From a position of early promise, Stocksbridge suddenly found themselves chasing the game.

The second half, however, offered reasons for optimism. The Steels adjusted their shape after the interval, making tactical changes designed to give them greater control and a better platform from which to attack. The improvement was noticeable, with the home side looking more competitive and showing greater intent as they searched for an equaliser.

For a period, the contest felt far from settled.

Ryan Cook provided a useful focal point in the attacking third, and a flick-on from the forward presented substitute Benni Ndlovu with a significant opportunity to bring Stocksbridge back into the game. Ndlovu looked to make the most of the opening, but the Dunston goalkeeper was equal to the effort, producing the save needed to preserve his side's advantage.

It was the sort of moment that can change the direction of a match. Had the ball found the net, the pressure would have shifted firmly onto the visitors, and the Steels would have had every reason to believe a point was within reach.

Instead, Dunston delivered the decisive blow.

Catching Stocksbridge on the counter-attack, the visitors moved forward with purpose before David Robinson finished the move to make it 3-1. It was a clinical demonstration of the difference between creating an opportunity and taking it, leaving the Steels with a mountain to climb despite their improved second-half display.

The final goal made the scoreline even more uncomfortable for the home side. A defensive mistake presented Wilson Kneeshaw with the chance to put the result beyond doubt, and the Dunston attacker accepted the invitation, finding the net to complete a 4-1 victory.

For the Steels, it was a frustrating conclusion to an afternoon that had begun so brightly. Marshall's early strike had promised much, and the second-half response showed that Stocksbridge were capable of competing with their opponents for meaningful periods.

But football is ultimately decided in the penalty areas, and Dunston proved more ruthless when it mattered most.

The visitors deserved credit for their attacking quality, their composure after falling behind and their ability to exploit the opportunities presented to them. Their four goals were not simply a product of good fortune; they reflected the clinical edge that has helped establish them near the top of the division.

Nevertheless, the scoreline remained a difficult one for Stocksbridge to accept. The Steels started with energy, created opportunities to get themselves back into the contest and improved after the break, only to see the game slip further away.

There is no consolation prize for playing better than a result suggests. The league table will record a 4-1 defeat, not the encouraging opening two minutes or the chance that might have made the second half far more interesting.

Yet the performance offered lessons as well as disappointment. Against opponents of Dunston's calibre, promising spells must be turned into sustained pressure, chances must be converted and defensive errors eliminated.

Marshall's first outing as captain provided an early highlight, but it was Dunston who supplied the decisive moments.

• There was little respite for Stocksbridge on Tuesday evening as they suffered a second heavy defeat in four days, going down 4-0 at Consett.

The hosts struck early through Donny Holdsworth and took that advantage into the half-time interval before taking control after the break. Isaac Walker effectively settled the contest with a second-half hat-trick, opening his account from the penalty spot before adding two further goals in the space of four minutes. Despite Jason Blunt turning to his bench with a triple substitution in an attempt to spark a response, the Steels were unable to stem the tide as Consett ran out convincing winners.

The result means Stocksbridge have now conceded four goals in three consecutive matches following defeats to Dunston, Bridlington Town and Consett. For Blunt, whose rebuilding job is still in its infancy, the immediate challenge is finding the defensive resilience that can turn encouraging spells of football into the points his side desperately need.

Warning Signs Growing

HALLAM

The postponement of Tuesday night’s home game against Blyth Spartans may have denied Hallam the chance to climb off the bottom of the table, but it has also left the Countrymen with an uncomfortable amount of time to reflect on their current situation.

And the reality is becoming harder to ignore.

Hallam’s 3-0 home defeat against Pontefract Collieries on Saturday leaves them still searching for a first league win of the campaign and increasingly in danger of becoming detached at the foot of the Northern Premier League East Division.

There have been plenty of occasions this season when Danny and Richard Patterson have been able to point towards encouraging performances despite disappointing results.

Ossett United, Dunston, Prescot Cables, even sections of the Garforth and West Auckland defeats.

There has usually been something positive to cling to. Against Pontefract there was far less comfort available.

The visitors arrived at Sandygate in excellent form and with ambitions at the opposite end of the table. They left having rarely looked troubled.

An early goal set the tone and Hallam spent much of the afternoon chasing the game.

There were moments.

Ben Dyer’s excellent work down the left created an opportunity for Chaynie Burgin, whose effort drifted narrowly over the bar, while Burgin later headed another Jacob Priestnall delivery over from a promising position.

But as has happened too often this season, the Countrymen found themselves punished at key moments.

Pontefract doubled their lead midway through the second half before adding a third minutes later to put the game beyond doubt.

The scoreline was harsh in some respects. Hallam continued to compete until the final whistle and Cal Ward came closest to a consolation when he broke through late on, only to drag his effort wide.

Yet the bigger concern is the league table. Hallam now find themselves deep into the season without a victory and running out of opportunities to describe defeats as unlucky.

The encouraging displays that earned praise earlier in the campaign are becoming increasingly difficult to reference when points remain so scarce.

That is not to say hope has disappeared. Far from it.

The arrival of a new committee headed by chairman Andy (Ted) Emsley has injected fresh optimism around Sandygate. Players continue to return from injury and the management team remain convinced they have a squad capable of competing at this level.

But football rarely waits for long-term plans. The immediate task is collecting points. And quickly.

Perhaps the postponement of Tuesday night’s fixture against Blyth Spartans could prove a blessing in disguise.

The players have been through a demanding run of matches and the management team will now have additional time to work on the areas that continue to cost them.

Defensively, Hallam have often remained competitive for long periods before suffering damaging lapses.

Going forward, they simply need to score more goals.

The statistics tell a worrying story and it is no coincidence that most of Hallam’s strongest performances have come when they have looked dangerous in the final third.

The challenge is turning promising moments into consistent production. That has to happen soon.

The fixture against Blyth will be rearranged, as will the opportunity to claim those precious points. But the season continues to move quickly.

The gap between Hallam and safety is not insurmountable. However, every postponed game and every missed opportunity places greater importance on the next one.

One piece of club news did bring a degree of sadness this week.

Media manager Lucas Daft has brought his time with Hallam to an end after building an impressive reputation for his coverage of the club.

Whether battling through miserable winter weather, travelling the length of the country or helping tell the story of Hallam, Lucas has been a familiar and valued presence around the first team.

His work has helped connect supporters with the football club during one of the most significant periods in its history, and his contribution has been widely appreciated throughout Sandygate.

For Hallam, the focus now turns back to football. The new committee has a vision. The management team retain belief. The supporters continue to back the side in impressive numbers. What everyone is waiting for now is the result that changes the conversation.

Because until that first league win arrives, the pressure at the bottom of the table will only continue to grow.

Dearne Open Up Ten-Point Lead

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST

Matt Jones

Dearne & District tightened their grip on the Macron NCEL Premier Division title race after a storm-lashed weekend of action that saw all 20 scheduled fixtures survive despite torrential rain and gale-force winds sweeping across the region.

The league leaders showed no signs of being blown off course as they stormed to a convincing 5-1 victory at Knaresborough Town, extending their advantage at the summit to ten points. Justin Circuit struck twice early on to put Dearne in command before Jamie Austin, Jordan Kershaw and Adam Baskerville added further goals. Nathan Cartman’s penalty proved little more than a consolation for the hosts.

Dearne’s nearest challengers, Bottesford Town, failed to keep pace, slipping to a 3-1 defeat at Rossington Main. Jack Varley was on target for Bottesford, Kinsley Boys and Armthorpe Welfare fans take cover as all 20 games survived despite the torrential rain and gale-force winds in a storm-lashed weekend.

but a Rob Guilfoyle double and a strike from veteran frontman Ross Hannah earned Main all three points and lifted them into tenth place.

There were hat-trick heroes elsewhere in the top five. Danny Earl helped himself to three goals as Barton Town secured an impressive 4-1 win at Penistone Church. Will Heath’s penalty had cancelled out the opener before Earl took centre stage, with Lewis Stephens completing the scoring for the Swans.

Retford FC matched that feat as Iren Wilson grabbed all three goals in a 3-1 home success against Albion Sports. Junior Nasihunu netted a late consolation for the visitors, but the result keeps Retford firmly in the promotion picture.

Retford United climbed into fifth spot after edging a five-goal thriller at Worsbrough Bridge Athletic. Oliver Wilson struck twice in the final 15 minutes to turn the game in the Badgers’ favour and seal a dramatic 3-2 victory, leaving them just two points behind their town rivals.

Handsworth complete the top six after a 3-1 success at Tadcaster Albion, with Alex Asaba bagging a brace to continue his fine form since joining the Ambers from Parkgate.

At the foot of the table, things look increasingly bleak for Keighley Town. The basement side suffered a crushing 5-0 home defeat against fellow strugglers Parkgate in a result that opened up a 13-point gap between the two sides.

Parkgate were ruthless from the outset, racing into a three-goal lead inside 24 minutes through Josh Nodder, Bradley Gregory and Bailey Wright. Nodder added his second before the break and Qur’an Raynor completed the rout midway through the second half.

Thackley enjoyed a productive afternoon at Pickering Town, where goals from Alex Ingham, Luke Brooks and Alex King earned a comfortable 3-0 victory and lifted them into 13th place.

The weekend’s action had begun on Friday night when Golcar United defeated Frickley Athletic 2-0 thanks to goals from George Doyle and Alfie Wilkinson, while Horbury Town and Champion battled out a goalless draw.

In Division One, Field Olympic fought back to reclaim top spot after coming from behind to win 4-1 at South Leeds.

The hosts led through an unfortunate Jonathan Mwembie own goal and looked set to frustrate the title hopefuls, but Olympic found another gear in the final quarter of the match. Goals from Sam Bradley, Ellis Wade, Danyal Yasin and Aidan Day completed an emphatic turnaround and returned them to the summit.

Brigg Town’s 45-day stay at the top came to an end as they were held to a goalless draw at home by Selby Town.

Route One Rovers and Armthorpe Welfare both strengthened their play-off credentials with victories. Reece Thompson struck twice for Rovers, while Muhammad Arshad, Lamin Drammen and Ebaraema Suko also found the net in a 5-2 win over Ilkley Town. Armthorpe, meanwhile, left Kinsley Boys with all three points thanks to a Liam Flanagan double in a 2-0 success.

Goole produced one of the performances of the day as they thrashed Athersley Recreation 6-1 away from home. Ross Duggan and Liam Owen both scored twice as the Vikings surged into sixth place.

That result saw them

leapfrog Wakefield AFC, who suffered a frustrating 4-1 defeat at LIV. Despite Kenzie Dillon giving Wakefield the lead just before half-time, LIV responded in style through Ryan Whincup, a James Nichols brace and a goal from Henry Barker. [footballwe...ages.co.uk] , [wakefieldafc.com]

Club Thorne Colliery also enjoyed a successful afternoon, with Luke Williams scoring twice before Joe Hare added a stoppage-time third in a 3-0 victory at Hems-worth Miners Welfare.

One of the come-backs of the weekend came at Leeds UFCA, where Appleby Frodingham recovered from 3-0 down to snatch a point. Joshua Fraiwald, James Chester and Callum Stenton all struck during a remarkable final 21 minutes to rescue a 3-3 draw.

Crowle Colts edged out Winterton Rangers 3-2 thanks to goals from Carlo Midwinter, Thomas Moulds and Jamal Stewart, while Immingham Town and Harrogate Railway Athletic shared the points after a goalless encounter.

Despite the atrocious weather, the Macron NCEL delivered another weekend packed with goals and title-race twists. Dearne & District continue to look increasingly formidable in the Premier Division, while Field Olympic’s late charge back to the top ensures the Division One battle remains just as compelling.

Kinsley Complete Last-16 Line-Up

Away from the county cup ties, it was a quiet midweek in the Macron NCEL, with just two matches as Knaresborough Town claimed an important Premier Division victory at Parkgate while Kinsley Boys booked their place in the last 16 of the League Cup with a notable success at Worsbrough Bridge Athletic.

In the Premier Division on Tuesday night, Knaresborough Town edged a thrilling contest 3-2 at Parkgate to continue their strong form on the road.

The visitors made a bright start and moved ahead after just eight minutes through Jack Degruchy. Parkgate responded well and were back on level terms on 18 minutes when Marcus McKernan found the net. Knaresborough restored their advantage six minutes later through Ben Gelder, only for the home side to hit back again as Josh Nodder equalised on 34 minutes.

With the sides locked at 2-2 at the interval, the game remained evenly balanced before Gelder struck for a second time six minutes into the second half. His 51st-minute effort ultimately proved decisive as Knaresborough held firm during the closing stages to secure all three points in front of an attendance of 105.

The following evening saw League Cup action take centre stage as Kinsley Boys progressed to the third round with a 2-1 victory at Worsbrough Bridge Athletic.

The visitors laid the foundations for success with two goals shortly before the interval. Akram Lasalire broke the deadlock in the 39th minute before Mackai Davies doubled Kinsley's advantage on the stroke of half-time, leaving the hosts with a mountain to climb after the break.

Worsbrough Bridge Athletic pushed hard to get back into the tie and finally reduced the deficit in the 88th minute through Joseph Booth, setting up a tense finish. However, Kinsley Boys successfully negotiated the closing moments to seal their passage into the next round and complete an impressive cup victory in front of a crowd of 145.

Across the two matches, supporters were treated to eight goals, a pair of away wins and another memorable chapter in an already entertaining Macron NCEL season.

All eyes on the ball! Handsworth came away from Tadcaster Albion with the points.

Maltby Show Their Fighting Spirit

UNITED COUNTIES LEAGUE

Maltby Main demonstrated the character needed to grind out results in difficult conditions as Nick Buxton’s side fought back to claim a valuable 3-2 victory at Selston.

The Miners’ comeback provided one of the week’s positive stories among the region’s United Counties League sides, but fortunes were mixed elsewhere. Swallownest suffered successive heavy defeats, Sheffield FC saw their game against Blackstones abandoned despite leading 4-1, while Dronfield Town battled their way to a point against Radford in atrocious weather.

For Maltby, the victory was particularly satisfying after their recent inconsistency, and Buxton was quick to praise the attitude of his players.

“In tough conditions with the wind and rain, every one of the lads put a real shift in,” he said.

“At times, we played some really good football and created some good chances.”

The manager was also honest about an issue that continues to frustrate him, with defensive mistakes making life more difficult than necessary.

“We’re still making things difficult for ourselves by conceding silly goals, something we need to keep working on and improve.”

However, it was the determination shown by his players that pleased Buxton most.

“But the most important thing today was the lads’ attitude, effort and determination. They dug in, stuck together and got the job done to take all three points!”

The Miners had to work hard for their reward after Nick Hines gave Selston the lead in the 20th minute. Maltby went into the interval trailing but emerged with renewed purpose, and substitute Harry Marshall levelled the contest on 54 minutes.

Sam Limber then put the visitors ahead with 12 minutes remaining before Thomas Pawson extended the advantage three minutes later.

Hines pulled one back for Selston in the closing stages, but Maltby held on to secure all three points.

The result offered a timely response to the previous weekend’s 3-1 home defeat against Dunkirk and demonstrated the importance of having players capable of making an impact from the bench.

Buxton’s challenge now is to build on that performance and turn encouraging displays into a more consistent run of results in Division One.

At Dronfield Town, Lewis Naylor’s side had to settle for a 1-1 draw against Radford after battling through torrential rain and strong winds at Stonelow Stadium.

The first half was short on quality, which was hardly surprising given the conditions, but Radford created the better opportunities. Tom Hill made several important saves, while Bailey Morgan cleared Craig Westcarr’s effort off the line to keep Town on level terms.

Dronfield improved after the break and began to threaten more regularly, although it was the visitors who broke the deadlock with a moment of individual quality.

Oakley Kennedy collected the ball around 25 yards from goal before curling a superb right-footed strike into the top corner on 66 minutes.

Town responded positively, and the introduction of substitutes helped shift the momentum. Jack Worrall played a neat through ball to Max Rhodes, who finished in trademark fashion down the right channel to equalise on 78 minutes.

Rhodes almost completed the turnaround late on, but Radford captain Harrison Mellors produced an outstanding block to deny him a potential winner.

Naylor felt the draw was a fair reflection of an evenly contested encounter, despite his side finishing strongly.

“It was quite a scrappy affair. It was always going to be with the torrential rain we’d had, which was very persistent,” he said.

“I thought the game lacked any real quality. Their goal was a bit of quality — he’s put it in the top corner from the edge of the box.”

The Dronfield manager also acknowledged that the weather had affected his team’s ability to play as intended.

“We wanted to win second balls and play with a little bit of quality going forward. I think particularly in the first half, we didn’t do that.”

Despite the difficult conditions, Naylor was encouraged by his side’s response after going behind and the opportunities created in the closing stages.

“We got our goal and I felt the momentum was with us slightly. We had a couple of chances.”

He added: “It would have been nice to get the win, but I think, if I’m being honest, a draw is probably a fair result.”

The point left Dronfield 18th and Radford

19th in Division One, making their next home fixture against Louth Town another important encounter in the battle to move away from the bottom of the table.

Naylor knows his side will need to show greater quality in the final third if they are to turn competitive performances into the victories required.

Swallownest, meanwhile, have endured a difficult week as their search for consistency continues following Jamie Housley’s departure.

Saturday’s 3-0 defeat at West Bridgford Colts was followed by a 4-0 loss at Clipstone on Wednesday evening, leaving the club with plenty to consider after two disappointing away performances.

The midweek assignment was always going to be challenging against a Clipstone side leading the Division One table, but the scale of the defeat will be a concern for Swallownest as they look to regain their earlier momentum.

Housley had helped establish the club among the division’s more competitive sides during his spell in charge, making the recent downturn particularly frustrating.

The managerial change inevitably brought uncertainty, but the immediate task is to restore confidence, tighten up defensively and ensure the recent results do not become the beginning of a prolonged slump.

There is still time for Swallownest to rediscover the form that made them one of the more encouraging stories of the campaign, but a response on the pitch is now needed.

Sheffield FC’s afternoon against Blackstones offered a different kind of frustration.

Club appeared to be heading towards an emphatic result after recovering from an early setback, only for the match to be abandoned after 59 minutes.

Eddie Thorpe gave Blackstones the lead in the 25th minute, but Alex Hardwick equalised seven minutes later to bring Sheffield level.

The second half began spectacularly for the hosts. Kiyani Clayton scored twice in the opening six minutes after the restart before Leon Howarth added a fourth, putting Sheffield firmly in control at 4-1.

However, the abandonment meant the scoreline could not be treated as a completed victory, with the fixture’s eventual outcome still to be clarified.

The attacking display nevertheless offered encouragement. Hardwick, Clayton and Howarth all found the net, giving Sheffield a positive response after conceding first and providing evidence of their threat going forward.

Sheffield then scored another four on Wednesday evening when they overcame Handsworth 4-2 in the Sheffield & Hallamshire CFA Senior Cup (see Page 5 for full match report).

The Premier Division North continues to provide a demanding test, with Sheffield looking to build consistency and improve their position. The circumstances surrounding the abandoned Blackstones match will need to be resolved before its effect on the table becomes clear.

Dinnington Turn On The Style

CENTRAL MIDLANDS ALLIANCE
Richard Lane

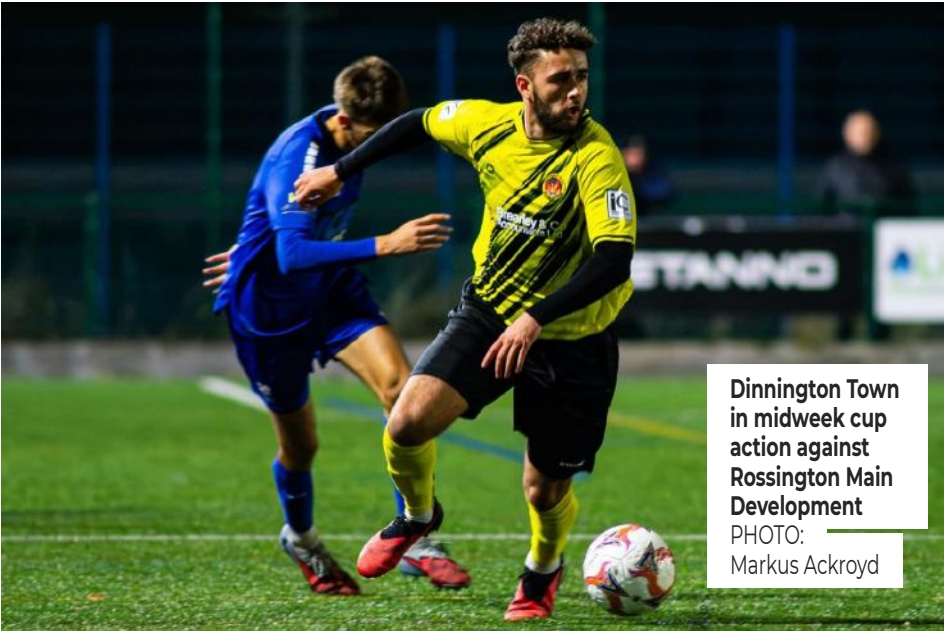

Dinnington Town enjoyed another productive week as they progressed in the Floodlit Cup before producing the standout result of the weekend in the Buckingham Insurance League Cup.

The first round of the Abacus Lighting Floodlit Cup saw Dinnington ease past Rossington Main Reserves 2-0. Luke Thorpe struck after just five minutes before Ashley Cooper sealed passage into the next round with a second-half goal.

Worksop Town Reserves also advanced with a 2-1 victory over Borrowash Victoria. Rhys Butterworth bagged both goals before Alex Quigley's late reply threatened to set up a tense finish.

There was disappointment for Frickley Athletic Reserves, who let a three-goal lead slip in a remarkable 5-4 defeat at Linby Colliery. Cory Stables scored twice, with Ashton Johnson and Joe Cooney also on target, but Linby completed a stunning comeback with Charlie Tassi's late winner.

Holbrook Sports avoided an upset against struggling Glapwell, eventually prevailing 2-1 thanks to goals from Alex Curd and Brad Daly.

Saturday's Premier North fixtures produced plenty of goals and drama. AFC Phoenix finally gained reward for several encouraging displays, beating Worksop Town Reserves 4-0 to climb out of the bottom two. Dillon Gregory struck twice, while Rhys Alsop and Max Wadsworth were also on target.

Evo FC recorded their biggest win of the campaign with an impressive 5-0 success at Ollerton Town. Oliver Beautyman, Noah Kilcoyne, Sam Owen, Ben Gott and Finn Hagin shared the goals in a dominant display.

SJR Worksop edged a five-goal thriller at RHP Sports. Ryan Attwood and Luke Horne both scored for the hosts, but SJR hit back through Callum Lytham before late goals from Matty Templeton and Kyle Wesley secured a 3-2 victory.

Rossington Main Reserves were edged out 1-0 at Brodsworth Main, Callum Verhees scoring the only goal shortly before half-time, while Elite AFC and Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves could not be separated in a goalless draw.

At the top of the division, Burngreave United moved four points clear after dismantling AFC Bentley 7-0. Abdulrahman Asad scored once and remarkably provided six assists as the leaders ran riot. Mohammed Shebani, Abdulrahman Alghamdi, Umar Muhammad, Hisham Awadh, Aymane Amine and Mohammed Tahir were also among the scorers.

In the Premier South, Holbrook Sports strengthened their grip on top spot with a 2-0 victory at Cromford & Wirksworth Town. Brad Daly broke the deadlock before substitute Joel Searcey struck late to secure a win that keeps Holbrook four points clear.

Linby Colliery followed up their cup heroics by drawing 1-1 at Mickleover Athletic, Mason Moore cancelling out Kaelin Cole Tonks' opener.

Bakewell Town and Holbrook St Michaels shared six goals in one of the games of the day. Leighton Mycroft and Josh Edwards twice put Bakewell ahead, only for Sam Pegg and a Rich Hanslow double to turn the match around before Alfie Woodhouse earned the hosts a 3-3 draw.

FC Sunnyhill's difficult run continued as they slipped to a 3-2 defeat against Gresley Rovers B despite goals from Callum Wilson and Josh Gardner.

Borrowash Victoria climbed into the top six after a comprehensive 5-0 victory over Blidworth Welfare. Charlie Tovill scored twice before Jakeem Jennings completed a rapid hat-trick. Mickleover RBL also collected three points with a 2-1 win over Ripley Town.

The second round of the Buckingham Insurance League Cup brought more success for Dinnington. After conceding inside two minutes against Teveral, they responded superbly to win 5-1. Lewis Fretwell, Nathan Jessop, Deniz Guldede and a Cole Thorpe double completed an impressive comeback.

Glapwell also celebrated a rare cup success, their first since 2023, with a 3-0 victory at Armthorpe Reserves. Kaine Britton opened the scoring, debutant Harvey Nunn added a second and Dylan Thornley completed the job in stoppage time.

Brinsworth Strengthen Grip At The Top

ROTHERHAM
SUNDAY
Mark Pilley

The Rotherham & District Sunday League title races are beginning to take shape, with several leaders strengthening their positions while a number of challengers suffered costly set-backs.

In the Premier Division, Brinsworth DC took another significant step forward with a convincing 9-2 victory at Whiston. Harry Day led the charge with four goals, while Matthew Blakemore and Josh Nodder both scored twice and Tyler Sylvester was also on target.

The result leaves Brinsworth top with 19 points from seven matches and extends their advantage after another weekend in which their rivals dropped points.

Deer Park Tap remain the closest challengers after edging a thrilling 4-3 victory over Jack in Box. The promoted side are still unbeaten and moved on to 17 points from seven games, continuing a remarkable start to life in the top flight.

AFC Lord Nelson’s perfect record remains intact after a 6-1 success at Thurcroft Hub. They have now won all five of their league matches and sit third, just four points off the summit with two games in hand on leaders Brinsworth.

AFP Press Box climbed into fifth after a 5-0 victory over Clubhouse, while Thorpe Hesley Village collected a valuable win against Whiston to continue their climb away from the lower reaches.

The Championship title race continues to be dominated by Darnall Urban. They made it six wins and a draw from seven matches with a comprehensive 6-0 victory at Ecclesfield Blues.

Harrison Coleman, Kyan Pemberton, Otis Junior Pyke, Kaiden Simpson and Leon Walford, who struck twice, were all on target as Darnall maintained their advantage at the summit and continued their unbeaten campaign.

Milldam remain their nearest challengers after being held to a 1-1 draw by AFC Maltby. Charlie Crapper was on target for Milldam, while Drew Houghton earned Maltby a valuable point.

The result leaves Milldam still well placed in the title race with games in hand on the leaders.

Division One leaders The Little Mester continued their flawless start with a 4-1 victory over Harthill. Keegan Hubbock struck twice while Alex Newton and Corey Walker also found the net as Mester maintained their perfect record and further strengthened their grip on top spot.

Beighton Magpies remain firmly in contention after winning an 11-goal thriller at Shakhtar Sheffield. Matthew Dickinson scored four times as Magpies claimed an 8-4 victory to stay among the leading challengers.

The Colin also remain in the hunt after edging Joker 4-3. Joe Dawson scored twice in another entertaining contest as the promotion race continued to gather momentum.

In Division Two,

Hope Valley Tap took advantage of AFC Brush and Easel’s absence from league action to keep the pressure on at the top.

Goals from Logan Draper and Dylan Stevenson secured a 2-0 victory at Bradgate, maintaining Hope Valley’s excellent start to the campaign.

Chaucer Athletic continued their climb with a 5-2 victory over AFC Sheffield, inspired by doubles from Liam Latham and Ellis Munden.

Treeton Terriers produced one of their best performances of the season, defeating Woodsetts Rangers 6-2 with Mohamed Sy scoring twice, while AFC Sheffield remain rooted to the foot of the standings.

Division Three remains one of the most competitive sections in the league.

AFC Lounge maintained their impressive form with a 6-0 victory over The Club Pot. Joe Tidy scored a hat-trick while Daniel Ashby added two more in a dominant display that keeps Lounge firmly among the promotion favourites.

United 4 Communities boosted their own challenge with a 4-3 victory at Aston Swallow-nest, while Sportsman Inn defeated Aston Athletic 3-1 thanks to goals from Jake Bridges, Imran Raza and Kristian Wroe.

Elsewhere, Steel City Whippets earned a valuable point from a 2-2 draw at Aston Swallow-nest and remain firmly in the promotion picture.

In Division Four, leaders Wincobank Rovers responded superbly to their recent setback by hammering Thurcroft Juniors 7-0 to preserve their place at the summit.

Sheppey continue to apply pressure near the top after a hard-fought 4-3 victory at FC Kimberworth Park RHT, while Brampton United remain firmly involved in what is developing into a tightly contested promotion race.

Away from league action, the Brian Beeley Knock Out Cup produced several eye-catching performances.

Brinsworth Whitehill JFC Men recorded the result of the round with an emphatic 8-0 victory over AFC Langold.

Handsworth Inn progressed comfortably after a 6-0 win against The Lounge Ryecroft, while Langold Old Boys enhanced their growing reputation with a 5-1 success at Woodman Woodlathes. Ryan Parker and Aaron Redfern both scored twice for the Division One promotion hopefuls.

Brecks Snooker booked their place in the next round thanks to two goals from Matthew Lucas in a 2-0 win over Steel City Whippets.

AFC Brush and Easel progressed with a 2-0 victory over Ecclesfield Stocks, Loca FC edged Rosegarth 2-1, and Yorkshire Wanderers caused a surprise by defeating Ravenfield Arms 2-1.

With Brinsworth DC, Darnall Urban, The Little Mester and AFC Brush and Easel continuing to set the pace, the leading contenders are beginning to emerge. However, with plenty of football still to be played and several sides holding games in hand, the race for honours remains wide open across every division.

Sportsbox Hit Seven To Lead Trophy Charge

MEXBOROUGH
SUNDAY
Shaun Best

There was no shortage of goals as the Steve Venables Memorial Trophy took centre stage, with several sides booking their places in the next round in style.

Swinton Sportsbox produced the most eye-catching result of the weekend, powering to a 7-2 victory over Union Jack. Harry Emptage, Bayley Lowe and Riley Weaver all claimed doubles in an impressive attacking display, while Harry Feeley also got on the scoresheet as Sportsbox ran riot.

Sim Roomz were equally convincing as they swept aside Mexborough Athletic 5-0. Cameron Flint broke the deadlock on the stroke of half-time before the visitors turned on the style after the interval. Gage Parton stole the headlines with a second-half hat-trick, while Cody Mee added the fifth to complete a dominant performance.

White Hart Wadworth were made to work harder for their place in the next round after surviving a late scare against Highgate WMC. Goals from Triston Taylor, Tim Miles and Callum Drummond appeared to have put Wadworth firmly in control, but Highgate refused to give in. Michael Goddard and substitute Troy Machin both struck during the closing stages to set up a tense finale, although Wadworth held on to secure progression.

The closest contest of the round came between Cross Keys Wath and Courtyard. Christopher Chappell and Joshua Whitehouse were on target for Cross Keys, while Todd Brennan and Scott Eshelby replied as the sides finished level at 2-2. Penalties were needed to separate them and it was Courtyard who kept their composure from the spot, recording a 3-0 shootout success to move into the next stage.

Groves Social also advanced after edging out New Masons Arms 2-1. Liam Squires and Harley Pratt found the net for Groves, while Steven Cocksedge’s effort proved only a consolation for New Masons.

In the Peter Walker League Cup, Swinton Ring O’ Bells booked their place in the next round with a professional 2-0 victory over Barnburgh WMC. Tom Lambert and Scott Walsh supplied the goals that ensured a comfortable afternoon for the Bells.

Wombwell March On At Summit

MEADOWHALL U18
Martin Gilmour

Storm Boelo caused widespread disruption across the Meadowhall Under-18 League programme, leaving just four matches completed across the top two divisions.

In the Premier Division, there was only one fixture to survive the weather as Handsworth FC and Staveley Miners Welfare Blues shared the points in a 1-1 draw at Olivers Mount.

Neither side could find a breakthrough before the interval, but the contest came to life after the restart. Joe Garrett gave Handsworth the lead before Staveley responded through Taylor Russell, who was set up by Jack Stanley, to earn the visitors a deserved share of the spoils.

Division One leaders Wombwell Town maintained their flawless start to the season with a remarkable 4-2 comeback victory against Penistone Church Whites.

Penistone looked in complete control at half-time after Lucas Malcolm struck twice to put the visitors 2-0 ahead. However, Wombwell produced a stunning second-half turnaround. Owen Hardman led the charge with a hat-trick, including a penalty, while Hayden Sykes also found the net as the leaders made it six wins from six to remain firmly at the top of the table.

Staveley Miners Welfare secured a 2-1 victory over Thorncliffe Villa after recovering from a goal down.

Lewis Keyworth’s strike gave Thorncliffe the advantage, but half-time substitute Dylan Metcalfe transformed the game. The youngster netted twice after the break to swing the contest in Staveley’s favour, while goalkeeper Alfie Roe preserved the lead with a crucial late double save.

Dinnington Town also came from behind to claim all three points, winning 3-1 away at Workop Town Tigers.

Eseosa Osa-henmwinda’s first-half goal put the Tigers ahead at Sandy Lane, but Dinnington responded strongly after the interval. Goals from Alastair Nicholas, Oliver Smith and Zak Taylor completed the turnaround and kept Dinnington firmly in the hunt near the top of the Division One standings.

Boynton Battle Back For First Win

BLADES SUPER DRAW
Keith Firminger

Boynton Sports claimed their first points of the Blades Super Draw Sunday Sports League season despite playing half the match with 10 men, while AFC Wisewood climbed to second place and the Premier Division's top two cancelled each other out.

In the CBC Premier Division, Boynton came from behind to stun Hackenthorpe 2-1. Curt Modest gave the hosts the lead and Boynton's task looked even tougher when they were reduced to 10 men before half-time.

However, Jake Gamban produced two spectacular strikes after the break. The first was an unstoppable volley from 35 yards to level matters before he repeated the trick deep into stoppage time, firing home an instinctive volley from the edge of the area to earn Boynton a dramatic first win of the campaign.

Leaders Wadsley Bridge Sixers and second-placed Wickersley CC remained locked at the top after sharing a 1-1 draw.

George Rudd headed Sixers in front after 18 minutes, but Jacob Pearson capitalised on defensive pressure to equalise 10 minutes later with a strike that went in off the crossbar. Both sides created chances in the second half but neither could find a winner.

Jubilee Rangers moved up to third after a convincing 3-0 victory over Mosborough Reds. New signing Ali Mofrad opened the scoring by racing clear and finishing emphatically before Sam Phillips doubled the advantage with an excellent 25-yard effort into the bottom corner.

As conditions deteriorated, Jubilee sealed the points late on when Adam Darton headed home from another dangerous Phillips delivery.

The matches between Royal Earl and Loca, and Eckington MW and Stannington Village, were postponed because of the weather.

In Division One, Woodman Cotts climbed to fourth with an emphatic 8-1 victory over The Sportsman, inspired by another prolific display from Chris Salt.

The Sportsman actually led through Dylan Williams after a goal-keeping error, but Woodman quickly responded when Sam Stacey converted a penalty with an audacious chipped finish.

Salt then struck from close to the halfway line to put Woodman ahead before Andrew Swift added a fourth shortly before the break. The second half brought further domination as Salt completed his hat-trick, Stacey grabbed another and Yassine Teache scored twice to cap an impressive afternoon.

AFC Wisewood moved into second place after overturning a deficit to beat Southey Social 2-1 and knock their visitors off top spot.

Southey led five minutes before half-time when Louie Mattimore's cross found captain Jay Slocombe, who finished from close range.

Wisewood fought back in difficult conditions, with Harry Hayes equalising 15 minutes from time before Jay Travis struck late on to secure all three points and send Wisewood up the table.

Leaders Let Off As Nobody Cashes In

COUNTY SENIOR

Warren Bird

The County Senior Premier Division title race remains as tight as ever after a weekend in which every one of the leading contenders dropped points.

Leaders Dodworth MWFC suffered a 3-1 defeat at Hepworth United, with Matty Love scoring their only goal, but remarkably the clubs directly behind them all failed to take full advantage.

Kiveton Park missed the chance to close the gap after a surprise 3-0 home defeat to Penistone Church Reserves. Luke Fretwell, Jack Roberts and Lucas Malcolm were all on target as Penistone produced one of the results of the day.

Ecclesfield Red Rose were also frustrated as they were held to a 2-2 draw by Oughtibridge WMSC. Malachi Smith and Kenan McKenzie-Grey scored for Ecclesfield, but Leo Higgins struck twice to earn Oughtibridge a share of the spoils.

Denaby Main likewise dropped points after being held 1-1 by Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves. Charlie Outram-Jeffery was on target for Denaby, while Josh Wharin replied for the Steels.

Wombwell Main were unable to gain ground either despite sharing six goals with Handsworth Reserves. Cole Fisher scored twice for the hosts, while Ryan Wingrove matched that tally for Wombwell and Jordan Good added the visitors' third in an entertaining 3-3 draw.

The end result was that Dodworth emerged from the weekend still in a strong position despite defeat, with none of their nearest rivals able to put together the victory they needed.

Nostell MWFC continued their recent improvement with a 3-1 victory at South Elmsall United Services. Sam Borrie scored twice and Kieran Thomas added the third as Nostell collected another useful three points.

Silkstone United defeated Swinton Athletic 3-1, while Thorncliffe Villa edged out AFC Dronfield 3-2. Josh Hall, Ben Vigrass and Oliver Wood were all on target for Thorncliffe.

In Division One, leaders Jubilee Sports suffered a rare setback as Dinnington Town Reserves left with a 2-0 victory thanks to goals from Tom Stratford and Zak Thompson.

Hepworth United Reserves were unable to make significant inroads into the deficit as they were held to a goalless draw by Dearne & District Reserves.

North Gawber Colliery produced the division's standout performance, defeating Denaby Main Reserves 6-3. Jake Chapman, Josh Collinson with two, Shylow Howard-Coles, Preston Miller and Carey Welford all found the net.

Sheffield Union enjoyed an excellent afternoon at Maltby Main Reserves, recording a convincing 4-0 victory through goals from Nathanael Dover, Jack Miller, Ben Humphrey and Jay Chandar.

Barnsley Town and Sheffield City served up another entertaining contest. Kai Clarke, Conor Asquith and Tom Watson scored for Barnsley, who edged a 3-2 victory despite goals from James Neild-Smith and Luke Challand for City.

Parkgate Reserves picked up three points without kicking a ball after being awarded a walkover against Royston.

Division Two remains equally competitive.

AFC Dronfield Reserves recorded a convincing 5-1 victory over North Gawber Colliery Reserves, with Jake Bedford scoring the visitors' goal.

West End Terriers produced the highest score of the weekend with an emphatic 8-1 victory at Youdan. Toby Jones scored twice, while Kacper Olejniczak, Elliott Probert, Braiden Barry and Bailey Oates were among the scorers.

Dodworth MWFC Reserves continued their good form with a 4-1 victory over Rotherham Town. Jack Huxley struck twice and Chris Chapell and Stevie Moore were also on target, while Sam Dannatt replied for Rotherham.

Sheffield Medics defeated Tusaale United 3-1 through goals from Rahul Mohanraj, Oliver Omand and Manny Basra.

Wombwell Main Reserves strengthened their promotion credentials with a comprehensive 5-0 victory over fellow challengers Tree-ton Terriers. Blake Dav-enport, Ryan Hallsworth, Adam Taylor, who scored twice, and Lewis Wood shared the goals.

Wombwell Town Reserves also enjoyed their best result of the season, defeating Middlewood Rovers 5-1. Liam Lambert and Logan Mee both scored twice, with Tom Lambert completing the scoring.

Dunscroft Take Charge As Leaders Win Again

DONCASTER SUNDAY

Chris Daines

The promotion and title races across the Doncaster & District Sunday League are beginning to take shape and this weekend produced another significant round of results, particularly at the top of all three divisions.

In the Premier Division, league leaders Edlington Tumbler strengthened their position with a 4-2 victory away at Murphys FC. Murphys had made an impressive start to the campaign and spent much of the opening weeks amongst the frontrunners, but Tumbler showed why they currently sit at the summit with another clinical display.

Hot on their heels remain Scawthorpe Herons, who kept up the pressure with an emphatic 5-0 victory away at ZK Dons. Herons have established themselves as one of the division's strongest attacking sides this season and once again demonstrated their firepower with a comfortable success.

The most eye-catching result near the top came at Flying Childers, where an in-form Horse & Groom side claimed a superb 3-2 victory. Horse & Groom have quietly built momentum in recent weeks after their promotion and this win against a side sitting third in the table further underlined their credentials.

Defending champions Temple FC continue to recover from a sluggish start to their title defence. A professional 3-0 victory away at Scawthorpe Herons Reserves moved them up to fourth place and back into the conversation. Having dropped points in their opening fixtures, the champions are beginning to look much more like the side that lifted the trophy last season.

Although goalscorers for the Premier Division fixtures could not be independently verified through publicly available reports, the results leave Edlington and Scawthorpe Herons setting a relentless pace at the top while Temple continue their climb back into contention.

The biggest development in the Championship came at the summit, where Dunscroft United moved clear as outright leaders.

Their 5-2 victory over local rivals FC Willaspoons was arguably the statement performance of the weekend. Not only did it maintain their excellent recent form, it also opened up a two-point gap at the top of the table after previous leaders Epworth Town Colts were held.

Epworth travelled to Innings FC and were forced to settle for a 1-1 draw, ending a run of victories but remaining firmly in the promotion race.

Carcroft Village continue to emerge as serious challengers. A convincing 5-1 victory over bottom side Edlington FC kept them third and within striking distance of the leading pair.

Just behind them, Warren Park Red Lion enhanced their promotion hopes with a hard-fought 3-2 win over Auckley FC. The newly formed side have enjoyed an impressive first season and continue to surprise more established opposition.

AFC Mallard and FC Ivanhoe shared six goals in an entertaining 3-3 draw, while Harworth MUSC edged past SFC Glasshouse 1-0 in one of the tightest contests of the day.

In Division One, Adwick Park Foresters continue to look the team to beat.

Their 4-1 victory over Langold Lakeside maintained an unbeaten league record and kept them top of the standings. Foresters have built their success on consistency, and once again they delivered when the pressure was on.

The nearest challengers remain Shire-oaks Welfare, who preserved their own unbeaten record with an impressive 4-1 away victory at fellow promotion hopefuls Hensall Hawks. Having won every league game before this weekend, Hensall represented a significant test, but Shireoaks passed it with flying colours and remain firmly in the title hunt.

AFC Murphys and Goole Borough served up one of the games of the day, with Murphys eventually prevailing 5-3 in an eight-goal thriller.

Balby Rec enjoyed a productive afternoon with a 4-1 victory over Yorkshire Grey to continue their climb up the table.

The most emphatic result of the division came at Sands United South Yorkshire, where The Sportsman ran riot in a remarkable 10-1 victory. It was a much-needed boost for The Sportsman and a difficult afternoon for a Sands side still searching for consistency.

With Dunscroft now leading the Championship outright, Adwick Park Foresters maintaining their grip on Division One and both Edlington Tumbler and Scawthorpe Herons refusing to blink in the Premier Division title race, the battle for honours across the Doncaster Sunday League is becoming increasingly intriguing as the season gathers pace.

Handsworth Hit Seven To Keep Flying

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL
Julian Barker

Handsworth won 7-0 at leaders Arnold Eagles in the East Midlands Women's Regional League Division One North to climb into second place. Brooke Chappell, Millie Kenyon and Abby Watkinson all scored twice, while Hannah Rissbrook was also on target in a victory that took Handsworth's scoring record after three league games to an impressive 24 goals scored and none conceded.

Handsworth were moved laterally across tier six to the East Midlands League from the North East Regional League Southern Division, where they had been pushing for promotion to the Premier Division over the past two seasons. They have built a strong squad and Sunday's win featured a scoring debut for Kenyon, who is one of three former Brunsmeer Athletic players now at Handsworth. The others are Harriet Lloyd, who has already made her mark, and Rhianna Fox, who also made her debut at Arnold. The result sets up Sunday's home game against YP Women, who have taken seven points from their opening three unbeaten matches. Talia Brammah and Annie Davidson both scored twice, while Heidi O'Reilly and Daisy Oxley were also on target in YP's 5-1 home victory over Dronfield Town, who had opened the scoring through Paige Pickering. Brunsmeer had to fold after being unable to persuade the FA to approve an appeal to move from the travel-heavy North East Premier Division into the more geographically favourable East Midlands League. Doncaster Rovers Belles were the major beneficiaries of Brunsmeer's demise. The Belles squad includes Sheldon Ashton, Imogen Burnley, Libby Hallam, Nat Shaw and Bradie Wild. Other former Brunsmeer players have found new clubs at county level, including Claire Bratton-Carr and Ellie McKeegan (both Oughtibridge), Kim Brown (Dinnington Town) and Carly Gill (Millmoor Juniors). While all wins are worth three points, some carry a significance beyond the league table. Just how important the postponement of Doncaster Rovers Belles' trip to Newport Pagnell Town proves to be will only become clear as the season develops. The Belles, who have a game in hand, remain seven points behind East Midlands Regional Women's League Premier Division leaders Mansfield Town. However, Sunday's home clash with Lincoln Women, who sit one point above them, is one neither side can afford to lose. Mansfield visit second-bottom Stamford AFC, who are still searching for their first win. Should the leaders extend their 100 per cent start to five games, the pressure on their title rivals will increase further.

Rossington Main were left frustrated when their home game against Knaresborough Town in the North East Regional League Southern Division was postponed. League officials took a pragmatic approach due to adverse weather and the travel challenges faced by clubs in a competition that stretches from Clee-thorpes to Alnwick. There were also a number of surprises in the Women's FA Cup first round, and Rotherham United must wait until this Sunday to discover whether they can add their name to that list. Their tie away at Leeds United was postponed on health and safety grounds. Leeds went into the midweek programme as leaders of FA Women's National League Division One North. Rotherham are targeting promotion to the FA Women's National League and, should they overcome Leeds, will face fellow tier-four side Norton & Stockton Ancients. Fran Lambert and Trinie Edwards scored for Barnsley Women Reserves as they recorded a 2-0 home victory over Staveley Miners Welfare to make it three wins from three in Sheffield & Hallamshire Women's County League Division One.

The only other side with a 100 per cent record in the division is Brodsworth Main, who have won both of their matches. Their away trip to leaders Stocksbridge Park Steels was one of several postponements, alongside that of Division Two leaders SJR Workop Community at Parkgate.

That allowed Sheffield Wednesday Reserves to move to the top of Division Two, one point clear after extending their winning run to five matches with victory over Socrates. Eve Bamford opened the scoring before Imogen Harrison-Devereux and Mika Russell added further goals before the break. Abbey Kirwan reduced the deficit in the second half.

Free-scoring Brinsworth Whitehill recorded an 8-0 home win over Courage FC. Division Two's leading scorer Caitlin Cooper added another four goals to her tally, while Emilia Foord, Beth Laidlaw, Isla Laws and Brogan Moreby were also on target. Charnock Ridgeway won 5-0 at Dearne & District, with Kerry Doman, Keeley Green, Harriet Plows, Evie Ravenhill and Georgia Skitt all scoring.

Sheffield Wednesday Development came from 2-0 down to win 3-2 at Barnsley Women Under-21s and move top of Division Three. Aimee Herbert and Amelia Scrivens scored for the hosts, but Summer Ingham bagged a hat-trick, including the late winner, for Wednesday. Millie Lee scored twice, while Sarah Black, Faith Gordon and Emily License were also on target in Brinsworth Whitehill Development's 5-3 victory at Swallownest Miners.

Sheffield Medics won 5-2 at Division Four leaders Courage FC Development, while Barlborough drew 1-1 with West End Terriers.

Rossington FC moved three points clear at the top of Division Five thanks to a 4-1 home win over Aston Swallownest. Carly Rowlands levelled for the visitors at 1-1 before the break, but goals from debutant Amelia Kamil, Katie Clarke and Summer Pearson secured victory for the league leaders, with Kamil adding a second later in the game.

Pearson's goal took her tally to 17 for the season. Rossington have now scored 37 goals in seven games. The division's next-highest scorers, Bramley Stingers, have managed 18 in six matches. Kinsley Ladies won 2-1 at Treeton Terriers to open up a six-point gap between the division's bottom two sides.

The University of Sheffield enjoyed success in three of their four British Universities and Colleges Sport fixtures last week. Ella Duffield and Emily Pickard scored in a 2-1 victory at Teesside 1s in Tier 2B, while Jenny Ryan netted all four goals as the 2s won 4-1 at York St John 1s in Tier 4B.

Inke Willoh was the standout performer with seven goals as the 3s romped to an 18-0 home win over Huddersfield 2s in Tier 5B. Amelia Gartell and Sophie Shandley both scored hat-tricks, while Holly Heard added two. Lea Bottner, Phoebe Ellis and Isla Johnstone were also on the scoresheet.

In contrast, the 4s suffered an 8-3 defeat at Sunderland 2s despite goals from Selma Tahiri-Jouti, who scored twice, and Polly Smith.

For Hallam, Annie Davidson and Amber Sewell found the net in a 3-2 defeat at Liverpool 1s in Tier 1. The 2s lost 8-0 at Durham 2s, while Maya Gale scored the only goal of the game as the 3s beat Bangor 1s at home in Tier 4B.

SCHOOL'S FOOTBALL

New Pastures End 50-Year Wait

DEARNE VALLEY COMPETITIONS
Chris Brook

New Pastures are celebrating a place in a Don & Dearne final for the first time in half a century after booking their spot in the Barlow-Salmons Shield showpiece.

The Mexborough school, formerly known as Doncaster Road, have not reached a Don & Dearne final since 1977. They will now have the chance to make more history when they face either Lacewood or Wath C of E in the final, with all four competition finals currently scheduled for March 18, 2027.

While New Pastures are chasing a first major Don & Dearne trophy success, they will also be looking to go one better than previous generations. Under the Doncaster Road name, the school finished as runners-up in the Barlow-Salmons Shield on three occasions but never managed to lift the trophy.

There is also plenty of history on the line in the Totty Cup.

Gooseacre have secured their place in the final for the second successive season, something the Thurnscoe school has never previously achieved. They will meet either Swinton Queen or Dearne Highgate after their semi-final ended in a dramatic 2-2 draw following extra time, forcing a replay.

Gooseacre are aiming to add to a proud Totty Cup record which includes victories in 1987 and 2000. They have also finished runners-up in 1997, 2010 and 2026, and now have another opportunity to add their name to the roll of honour.

The other two Don & Dearne competitions remain a little behind schedule.

In the Gordon Swann Cup, St. Johns or Brampton Ellis will take on either Swinton Queen, Dearne Highgate or Fitzwilliam in the final.

Meanwhile, the Brian Hyde Cup finalists have yet to be completed. St. Thomas or Hill Top await one of Sacred Heart, Wentworth or Victoria.

With several semi-finals still to be decided, organisers are hoping the remaining ties can be completed over the coming months to ensure all four finals can go ahead on the planned March date.

Current projected finals are:

Totty Cup: Gooseacre v Swinton Queen or Dearne Highgate

Barlow-Salmons Shield: New Pastures v Lacewood or Wath C of E

Gordon Swann Cup: St. Johns or Brampton Ellis v Swinton Queen, Dearne Highgate or Fitzwilliam

Brian Hyde Cup: St. Thomas or Hill Top v Sacred Heart, Wentworth or Victoria

For New Pastures, though, the biggest story is already written. Fifty years after their last appearance in a Don & Dearne final, they are back on the biggest stage once again

Titans Looking To Continue Dream Start

After a weekend without league action, South Yorkshire's rugby clubs return to the spotlight with an intriguing programme of fixtures across the Championship and National Leagues.

The biggest story of the season so far has undoubtedly been the remarkable return of Rotherham Titans to Championship rugby.

Promoted from National One in the summer, Harvey Biljon's side have exceeded expectations from the outset, winning four of their opening five fixtures to establish themselves among the early front-runners. Victories over Coventry, Bedford Blues, Caldy and Richmond have transformed the mood around Clifton Lane and raised hopes that the Titans can do much more than simply survive at this level.

Sunday's visitors are Cornish Pirates, another of the division's established heavyweights.

The Pirates remain

one of the most respected clubs in the Championship and will provide another significant test of Rotherham's credentials. However, after already overcoming last season's runners-up Bedford and semi-finalists Coventry, the Titans will approach the contest full of confidence. A fifth victory in six matches would further strengthen their position near the top of the table and reinforce their status as one of the success stories of the season.

Doncaster Knights also return to action looking to build momentum following their excellent 56-26 victory at Ampthill in their last outing.

Dean Richards' side produced some of their best attacking rugby of the campaign in that win, with Penaia Tagutu continuing his eye-catching start to the season. The Knights have shown plenty of attacking quality during the opening weeks and now face a key period as they seek the consistency required to climb the standings.

In National League 1, Sheffield RUFC face a demanding trip to fifth-placed Sale FC.

Despite sitting in the lower reaches of the table, Sheffield have been competitive in most of their fixtures and have collected valuable bonus points along the way. A positive result at one of the division's toughest venues would provide a major boost as they look to move further away from trouble and into mid-table contention.

Sheffield Tigers are also on the road this weekend with a National League 2 North visit to Otley.

Back-to-back victories over Wharfedale and Chester before the break have lifted confidence around Dore Moor and moved the Tigers into mid-table. Otley traditionally present a difficult challenge on home soil, but another strong performance could see Tigers continue their recent upward trajectory.

With Rotherham aiming to continue their fairytale Championship return, Doncaster seeking further momentum and both Sheffield clubs chasing valuable away points, there is plenty for local rugby supporters to look forward to this weekend.

THE LAST SHOT

For some reason, Sheffield FC's game at home to Blackstones was abandoned 15 minutes into the second half with the home side leading 4-1 at the time. The game will be replayed at a later date.
