FEATURED KAPPA LEAGUER

Meet Wilson Alexander Duncan, a 14-year-old rising young leader from Crestwood High School in Sumter, South Carolina, and a proud member of the BMS Kappa League. Wilson is the son of Victoria Duncan and the grandson of Bro. Harvey Evans, an initiate of the Zeta Sigma Chapter. Even at a young age, Wilson is already setting the standard through his commitment to academics, leadership, athletics, and personal growth.

Wilson currently maintains an outstanding 4.0 GPA and has earned numerous academic and extracurricular accomplishments. His achievements include:

- All-Year Honor Roll Recognition*
- Upward Bound Program at Morris College*
- Kappa League Secretary*
- Crestwood High School Football Team*
- Crestwood Wrestling Team*
- Phrozen Elite Track & Field*
- Phrozen Elite Flag Football*

Wilson's favorite subject is Science, which aligns perfectly with his future aspirations in the medical field.

Beyond academics, Wilson continues to excel in athletics and leadership while demonstrating discipline, teamwork, and determination both on and off the field. Through Kappa League, he continues developing the educational, occupational, and social skills needed to become a successful young leader.

Wilson believes Kappa League helps guide young men through personal growth and development while preparing them for future success. Inspired deeply by the love and guidance of his grandmother, Benita Evans, Wilson shares that her unconditional love, kindness, and compassion have helped shape the young man he is today.
