TREND COLOUR

NEW!

LIGHT-BLUE

Delicate light-blue brings to mind the clear sky of a sunny day, or the soft shimmer of the sea.

The effect? No matter what the season, the new hue brings summer vibes and calming coolness. This fresh colour nuance is a breeze to combine: from laid-back leisure outfits to formal occasions – stylish and soft.

TREND COLOUR

RUSSET-RED

Strength, character, charisma: russet red radiates warmth and power – for a look that is truly memorable.

This very special shade of colour works well with both soft and strong colours and matches perfectly with our pallet of earth tones. The russet-red tone is an excellent match for colour shades like copper and gold – for powerful natural accent.

My compression, my story

With mediven, we celebrate variety: colours, designs, accessories, styles. Because compression today comes in as many varieties as the personalities of the people who wear it every day. Countless stories, many different looks – colourful variety inside and out.

“As patients affected by lymphedema, we ought to be more courageous in terms of fashion, because I am convinced: if you like your look, you also feel good – and everything else will fall into place.”

Dominique Rogers,
lymphedema-patient, USA

“Even in my baby pictures I'm already wearing compression garments. Which is why it's so wonderful to see all the development: Meanwhile, I call them my best friends, my second skin, my salvation. And that is exactly what I want to be for others.”

Nicole Faccio, lymphedema-patient, UK

"Fashion has been my most important therapy since my diagnosis: enjoying fashion to the fullest with compression garments can help you rediscover yourself and to gain new self-confidence. And: strong colours are good for the soul."

Caroline Sprott, lipedema-patient, Germany

"Yellow, green, red, blue,... – the variety of compression arm sleeves is unbelievable. Fashion adds a burst of colour to my life which helps me to escape in the best sense of the word, and to view my illness in a more positive light."

Esther Beltrán, lymphedema-patient, Spain

Behind the Scenes

Team work: Good vibes up front and behind the scenes.

Love for detail: Everything fits perfectly.

Our mission: Compression without compromise – but with heart and soul!
