Obituary

Theodis “Sue Dog” Byrd Sr. was born October 9, 1950 in Texarkana, AR. to William H. Byrd and Geneva Byrd.

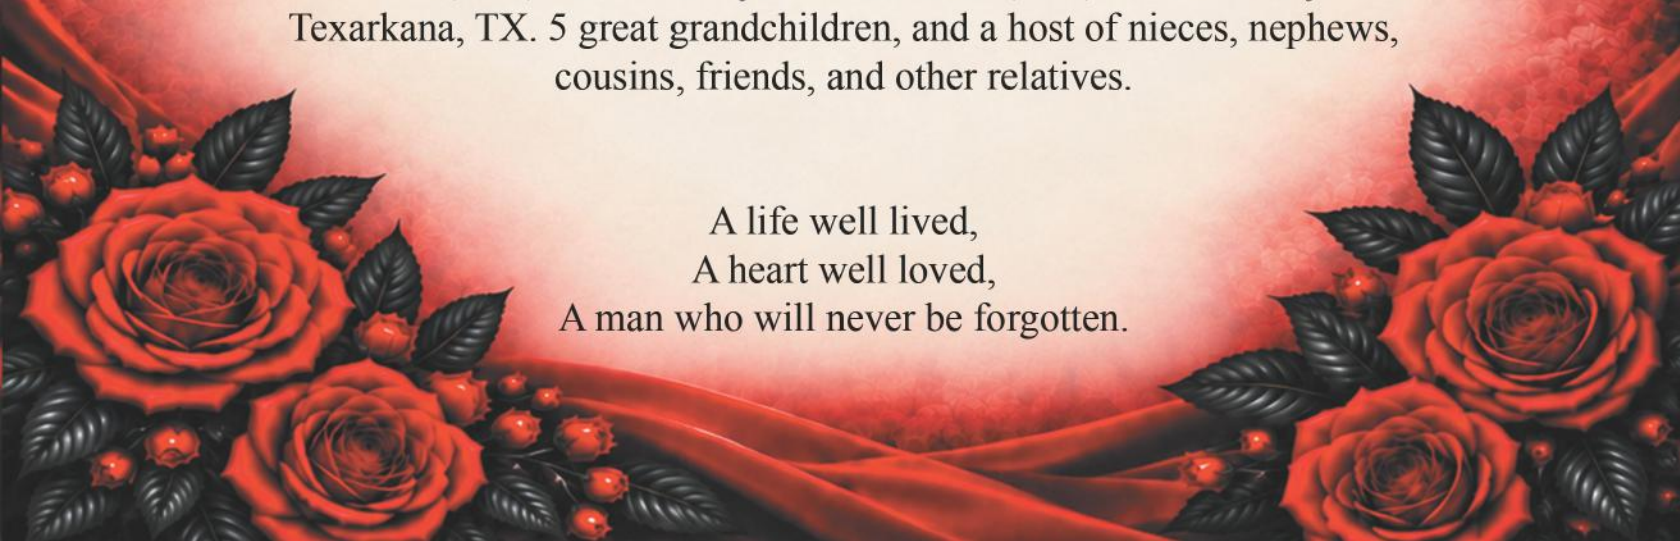

Theodis loved attending church and found great joy in being a part of sunday school and vacation bible school. Theodis Sr. was a faithful member and servant for over 15 years at Grace Community Baptist Church in Texarkana, AR. where Rev. Frank Byers serves as Pastor. He enjoyed conversations with his pastor and first lady about life, faith, and the promise of eternal life. Theodis Sr. accepted Christ later in life and discovered a newfound joy in his walk with the Lord. His faith became a source of happiness, hope, and peace, and he came to know that a life in Christ was truly a life worth living.

Theodis treasured the time he spent with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, just as he cherished every moment shared with his family. His love for family was evident in the special bond he shared with those closest to him. Though he will be deeply missed, the love, laughter, and memories he leaves behind will forever remain in our hearts. Theodis Sr. will always be remembered as a caring dad, brother, grandpa, uncle, and friend whose presence touched our lives in a way that will never be forgotten.

Theodis Sr. is preceded in death by his parents, William H. Byrd, Geneva Byrd, and 15 other siblings.

He is survived by his only son, Theodis “Theo” Byrd, Jr. of Texarkana, AR., a brother, Lloyd H. Byrd of Marianna, AR, 3 grandchildren, Keirra Threadgill of Texarkana, TX, Nathaniel Byrd of Texarkana, TX, and Dante Byrd of Texarkana, TX. 5 great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and other relatives.

A life well lived,
A heart well loved,
A man who will never be forgotten.

Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant

MATTHEW 25:23

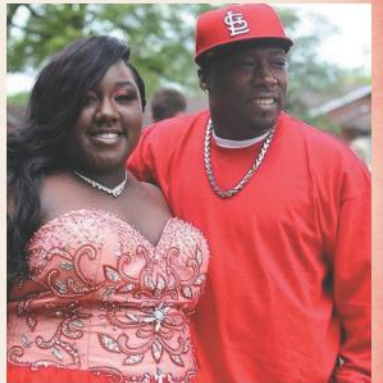

The page is framed by four clusters of red roses with dark green leaves, positioned in the corners. A soft, glowing red light emanates from behind the text, creating a halo effect. The background is a gradient of light to dark red.

SON'S Poem

A father's love is something that time cannot erase.
It lives within the memories
that no one can replace.
Though this life may bring a final goodbye,
love will always remain.
A father's lessons, strength, and care
will never be in vain.
Forever remembered,
forever missed,
and forever loved.
— Your Son

Theodis (Theo) Byrd Jr.

FAMILY Poem

Until We Meet Again

Though today we say goodbye, the memories will always remain.
The moments shared, the laughter, and the love will not be forgotten.

Life may carry us forward, but those we love remain a part of us.
We will remember the life that was lived and hold close the memories left behind.

Until we meet again, you will remain forever in our hearts.

With Love,

Your Family
