MRS. MCKINLEY

During your ten years at PCDS you have lovingly created a child-centered Lower School.

For to you the child is always first!

You have helped us all to grow and become our very best.

For your love, deep commitment, and genuine compassion, we dedicate the 1998 Phoenician to you.
We will miss you and will always treasure your legacy.

When I'm a senior...

...there will be lots of Algebra.

--Blake Lewkowitz, Grade 3

...there will be computers built into desks.

--David Jensen, Grade 3

...I'll be a Latinist.

--Zara Howard, Grade 1

...I'll be buying things already, like corn, broccoli, and asparagus.

--Alexis Kezirian, Grade 1

When I was in Kindergarten...

I wanted to be a taxicab driver because you didn't have to go to school to learn to how to drive.

--Matt O'Connor

I thought Seniors did gross things...like kiss and hold hands.

--Emily Delgado

I only thought of finger painting. I didn't even like girls. I could never remember what order the name of the grades went in high school.

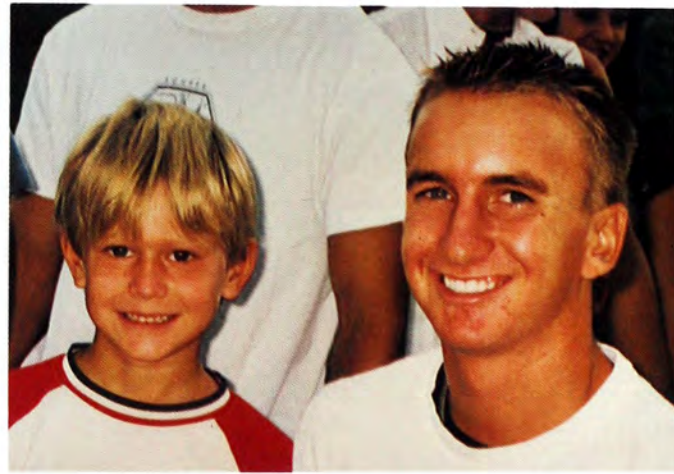

--Kevin Ghaswala

I thought seniors were from another planet. I just wanted to be taller.

--Jessie Gauntt

I thought seniors were superhuman and had bionic power. I wanted to be just like them.

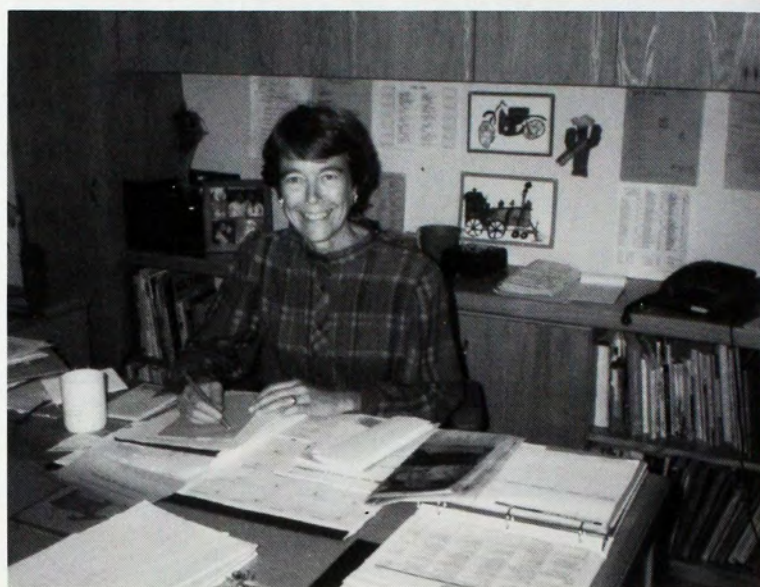

--Taylor Guerin

Looking in a mirror on the wall,
You see yourself now,
Looking at a photo from the past,
You see yourself then,
Imagining the future in your mind,
You dream of what you will become.
Reflections light up your life!

--Alexandra McKinley

REFLECTION...

The OED defines it first as "careful thought" and next as "an image of something"

Socrates claimed reflection got us further away from the shadows and closer to the true forms

Mike Swingler defines it as, "Ah, incident angle equals reflected angle"

Mr. Flail thinks therefore he is

On the banks of the Kern River, 47 seniors engage in reflection

Zen masters are always on the way toward reflection

Jordsworth, "in vacant and in pensive mood" finds himself "wandering lonely as a cloud" in the company of golden daffodils

Our femme latiniste translates, "imago praeteriti et promissum futurorum"

Everyone on the PCDS campus embodies reflection one way or another; we find that it is implicit in what we do so well here and in what we aspire to do with our futures. In classes students and teachers think, write, discuss, REFLECT on academic matters. On the sports fields we strategize. Ours is reflective curiosity and vitality. We ask not so much who or what or where, but why.

Reflection empowers us to bring into check injustices and to call a stop to unkindness and inequity. True reflection is a courageous act which compels us to face ourselves. As reflecting humans, we can come closer to knowing ourselves and our community.

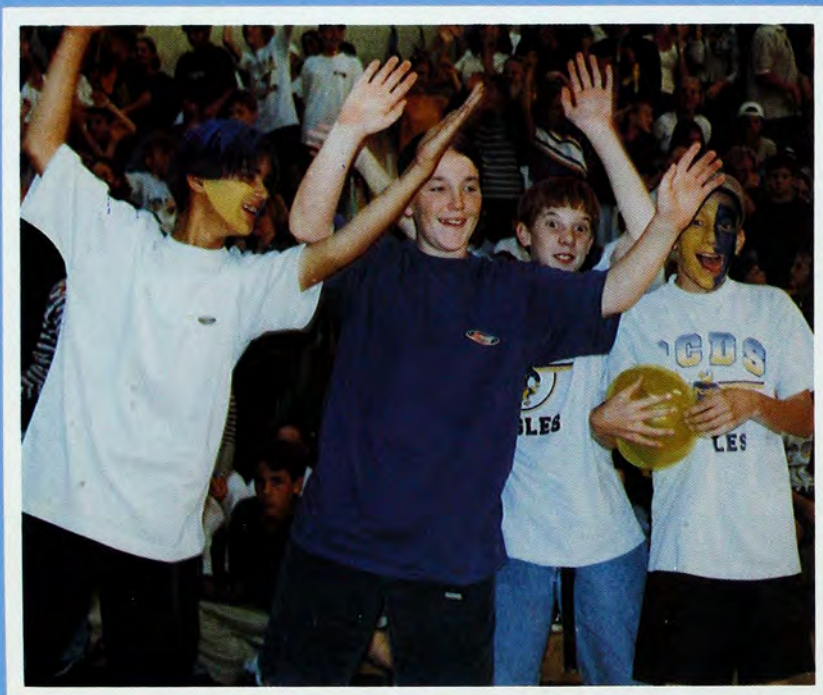

Reflection creates an image, color, and spice to the ordinary; we turn the impossible into opportunity. Whether in the company of friends, alone by the riverside, or in the Greek forum, reflection enlivens our days and creates our tomorrows.

BLUE AND GOLD DAY!

MR. BREWSTER REFLECTS...

*under the star fields, the night tide comes,
keeping time with waves that test the stance.*

*The inner mirror shows no self,
but sends instead across the water,
in glints and flashes, sparks that care.
A lighthouse, until its watch is over.*

SENIOR CHOICE AWARD MR. FLAIL

In reality nothing matters so we won't write anything for you...just joking! Your entertaining stories and endless words of wisdom made our days at PCDS all the more memorable. But how do you know we're telling the truth? Truth, after all, does not exist.

Dear Friends and Family:

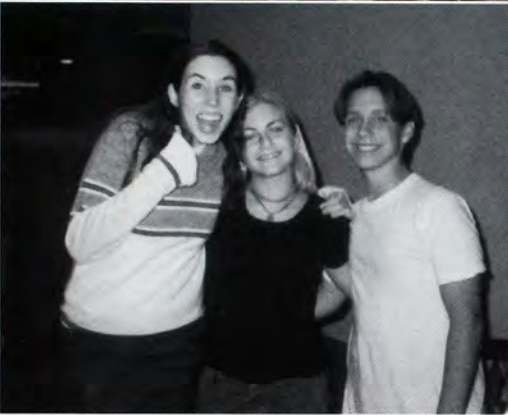

I can't believe the time has come for me to leave this small, enclosed environment of PCDS!! After awhile PCDS tends to grow on you, even if you don't want it to. I will miss you all: friends and teachers alike. Never fear, I will definitely come back and visit!

An illustrious senior told me once, "High school goes by so fast; enjoy it while you can. Never forget all that has happened to you because you'll soon be leaving PCDS." Freshmen, you still have time to enjoy everything—whether it be attending sporting events or other school-related functions with your friends, hanging out on the weekends, or eventually going off-campus. Sophomores, get ready for the hardest year yet. I wish you the best of luck. Juniors, you'll be ruling campus next year, so be prepared to carry on the traditions of the seniors. I'm sure you'll be a great Senior Class. Seniors, we've been through a lot together. I regret that I didn't get to know all of you better, but I still wish you all the happiness in the world.

Specifically to Caroline, Katie, Taylor, Britany, and Carrie: I will miss you guys so much next year!! I am honored to say that I consider each of you to be one of my closest friends. You all have been a part of my life, big or small. I know that you'll be successful in whatever you set out to do. Roman, Blosser, Snyder, Jon Ashley and Hawkeye: I also wish you the best in life. Please promise me that we'll keep in touch. I'll always remember the times we spent together. The Little B's: You girls are the best!! I'll never forget our leaky cabin with the four furry neighbors. Take good care of yourselves. To all the rest of my buddies: I hope to see you all soon. Never stop believing in yourselves. And finally, My family: You all have been such a big part of my life. I don't know how to thank you except to say, "Thanks for everything. I love you."

There's a miracle called friendship that dwells within the heart and you don't know how it happens or where it gets its start. But the happiness it brings always gives a special lift. And you realize that friendship is God's most precious gift. (unknown) In all of our searching the only thing we have found that makes the emptiness more bearable is each other. (Contact)

Words, Caravaggio. They have a power. (Ondaatje) Infandum Vita! We only know what we've perceived from the light we've seen. (M.S.) She said there is no reason and the truth is plain to see. (P.H.) What is a mind without a soul? And you know that she's half crazy but that's why you want to be there. (Cohen) There's more than one answer to these questions. (I.G.) You want to overturn the existin' institution. That's fine but you got to be sure you know how to build a better one. (Brammer) Man believes his imprint board is reality. (Leary) If I took it seriously, I would have left here a long time ago. (Mr. Buckman) So we beat on, boats against the current, borne back ceaselessly into the past. (F.S.F.) Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace may be found in silence...And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should...with all it's sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. (Desiderata) We are the light of the world. That they may see the good that we do and give glory to God. And we ourselves shall be loved for awhile and forgotten. But the love will have been enough; all the impulses of love return to the love that made them. Even memory is not necessary for love. There is a land of the living and a land of the dead, and the bridge is love, the only survival, the only meaning. (Wilder)

There are angels masquerading upon this earth as people and your mama is one of the finest. (F.G.T.) And she died softly one day looking out her window (Houston) How I wish you were here. (P.F.) Every day is a new and beautiful experience. (H.H.)

WINTER SPORTS

EAGLE VARSITY AND JUNIOR VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

The 1997 varsity volleyball team had definitely one of the best seasons ever. With two new coaches and a more competitive conference, the team was able to reach its full potential. Although a small team, the girls were able to form a close bond which helped them accomplish their goals. Teamwork made possible hard spikes after fabulous passes and amazing sets. After many years of working hard, the efforts of the volleyball program finally paid off, with victories against challenging teams from Northwest Community Christian and Seton Catholic. The many fans that supported the team were an integral part of each match, as the cheers inspired the team to great comebacks or cementing the lead.

"There is a time in every [woman's] education when [she] arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that [she] must take [herself] for better for worse as [her] portion. The power which resides in [her] is new in nature, and none but [she] knows what that is which [she] can do, nor does [she] know until [she] has tried."

Ralph W. Emerson

"It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own; but the great [woman] is [she] who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude."

Ralph W. Emerson

"The need of composing letters was the earliest and most constant incentive to terseness, clarity, and exactitude of statement." R.L. Alegroz

"Letters, such as written by wise [women], are, of all the words of men, in my judgment, the best." Francis Bacon

"What cannot letters inspire? They have souls; they can speak; they have in them all that force which expresses the transports of the heart; they have all the fire of our passions...and sometimes a boldness of expression beyond it (speech)"

Heloise to Abelard

On children who leave home for college

"The Post is the consolation of parents, who so miss their sweet daughter that they would give up fame and fortune, for the pleasure of her letters." Your adoring Mom and Dad

HARLEY-- BE STRONG...GET STRONGER

WHAT'S THE BEST PRESENT I EVER GOT?? ...YOU!
LOVE, MOM

HARLEY E CLUXTON IV

You will never be sorry -
for thinking before acting,
for hearing before judging,
for forgiving your enemies,
for being candid and frank,
for helping a fallen brother,
for being honest in business,
for thinking before speaking,
for being loyal to your church,
for standing by your principles,
for stopping your ears to gossip,
for bridling a slanderous tongue,
for harboring only pure thoughts,
for sympathizing with the afflicted,
for being courteous and kind to all.

-Anonymous

*Congratulations, Harley, College is great, hope you get in!
All my sisterly love, Fallon*

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid, one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble
and gentle in victory.

- Douglas MacArthur

*I know that I have that son in you, Harley.
All my love, Dad*
