OUR APPROACH TO HOSPITALITY

Hospitality is at the heart of everything we do.

Inspired by the Italian tradition of gathering around the table, we believe the finest celebrations are those where guests feel welcomed, cared for, and completely at ease. Every event is thoughtfully planned to encourage meaningful conversation, shared experiences, and exceptional dining.

Our team works closely with each host to understand the purpose of the occasion, offering personalized recommendations for menus, wines, and the flow of service. Every detail is considered with care so that you can spend your time where it matters most with your guests.

Whether you're celebrating a personal milestone or hosting an important business gathering, our commitment remains the same: thoughtful cuisine, genuine hospitality, and an experience that feels effortless from beginning to end.

At il Girasole, every table is set with intention, every dish is prepared with care, and every guest is welcomed as if they were joining us in our own home.

"HOSPITALITY IS NOT A SERVICE.
IT IS THE FEELING OUR GUESTS TAKE HOME."

PLANNING YOUR EVENT

Every event at il Girasole begins with a conversation. Once we learn about your occasion, guest count, and vision, our team will guide you through every step of the planning process, from selecting the ideal dining experience and crafting a personalized menu to curating wines and finalizing the details that make your celebration unique.

To ensure the highest level of quality and service, all private events are customized and confirmed in advance. Menus may be tailored to accommodate dietary preferences and special requests whenever possible, and our culinary team is pleased to work with you to create an experience that reflects the style of your event.

A food and beverage minimum may apply depending on the date, time, guest count, and the area reserved. A signed agreement and deposit are required to secure your reservation, with the remaining balance due following your event. Final guest counts and menu selections are confirmed prior to your event to ensure a seamless dining experience.

Should you have any questions throughout the planning process, your dedicated event coordinator will be available to assist you every step of the way.
