There was plenty to celebrate in the non-league game this weekend, with Hallam finally getting their league campaign up and running with a first victory of the season, while Sheffield continued their FA Vase adventure with a win over South Liverpool.

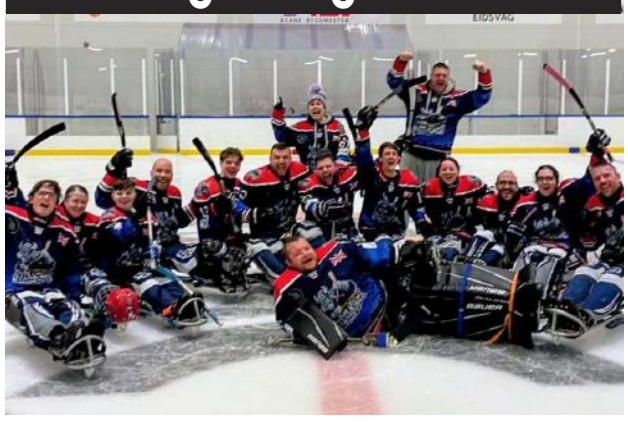

Hallam's long-awaited breakthrough was made all the sweeter by the contribution of Jacob Priestnall (left), who took centre stage with both goals in a 2-1 victory over Ashington to secure a much-needed three points. It was a result that will hopefully provide the platform for the Countrymen to build momentum in the weeks ahead.

There was also cup success for Sheffield, who kept their FA Vase hopes alive by coming from behind to beat South Liverpool 3-1. Leon Howarth (right) scored Sheffield's second goal and has now found the net in five consecutive games in which he has appeared. He was among those celebrating as the club secured a place in the last 64, where they will face Boldon CA of Ebac Northern League Division Two.

Sunday Cup Test Awaits Westville

Westville will face one of the most prolific Sunday sides in Yorkshire when they take on Old Farnley FC in the Second Round of the FA Sunday Cup on Sunday.

The tie will be played at Keighley Town's M T M Stadium, with Old Farnley the designated home side and required to stage the match at a ground meeting the competition's standards.

For Westville, the reward for progressing from the opening round is a meeting with a team rapidly establishing itself as one of the most feared attacking forces in West Yorkshire Sunday football.

Based in Leeds, Old Farnley currently top the Leeds Combination Jubilee Premier Division after winning all four of their opening league matches (the team in second place is the side Westville beat in the last round, Chapeltown). More striking than their league position, however, is the manner in which they have been dismantling opponents.

Their last seven competitive victories have produced an extraordinary 43 goals. During that run they have beaten Wykebeck Arms 6-1, Main Line Social 2-0, Whitkirk Wanderers 5-4, Bierley Bantams 12-2, Colton 6-2, Kippax Sundays 7-2 and FC Brighouse 5-2.

MTM Stadium where Westville travel to on Sunday.

The FC Brighouse victory came in the previous round of the West Riding Sunday Cup, underlining that their scoring exploits are not limited to league competition.

Early season statistics suggest the goals are spread throughout the side rather than relying on one star striker. Akram Lasalire has already reached seven goals, while Labi Adeniran has six. Sam Best and Bailey Wright have also made significant contributions as Old Farnley's attack has overwhelmed opponents.

Despite their current form, Old Farnley's rise is relatively recent. The club was only established in 2022 and has quickly emerged as one of the strongest teams in Leeds Sunday football.

Their record in knockout competition also suggests that while they are dangerous, they are not invincible. Last season they defeated West Bowling 11-4 in the West Riding Sunday Cup before seeing their run ended by Ryburn Valley.

Westville, meanwhile, will be confident they can cause problems of their own.

The Rotherham side have already shown their quality in cup competition this season and travel knowing they are capable of matching some of the strongest Sunday teams in the country.

What makes Sunday's clash particularly intriguing is the contrast in styles. Old Farnley's recent matches have regularly developed into high-scoring affairs, while Westville have built their reputation on organisation, resilience and an ability to rise to the occasion in big games.

With a place in the next round of the FA Sunday Cup at stake, Westville know they will need to find a way to contain one of the most potent attacks left in the competition.

If they can, they will have every chance of claiming another notable scalp and continuing a cup run that is already attracting attention well beyond South Yorkshire.

Denton Handed Tigers Reunion In Senior Cup

Craig Denton will come face-to-face with the club where he made his managerial name after Sheffield FC were drawn at home to holders Worksop Town in the quarter-finals of the Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA Senior Cup.

The tie is undoubtedly the standout fixture of the last-eight draw and pits Denton against a club he led to one of the most successful periods in their recent history.

During his time at Worksop, Denton guided the Tigers to the NCEL Premier Division title and League Cup double, while overseeing a club-record 22-match winning run on their return to the Northern Premier League.

His reward for steering Sheffield into the quarter-finals is a meeting with the current holders, who now compete in National League North, three levels above the world's oldest football club.

Sheffield earned their place in the last eight with an impressive 4-2 victory at Handsworth, while Worksop progressed courtesy of a convincing 4-0 success at Emley.

Another intriguing tie sees Frickley Athletic host Rossington Main.

Rossington reached the quarter-finals with a 2-1 win over Dinnington Town, while Frickley produced one of the most emphatic results of the round, thrashing Nostell MW 7-0 away from home.

Penistone Church will enjoy home advantage against Sheffield Wednesday U23s after cruising to a 5-0 victory over fellow NCEL Premier Division side Worsbrough Bridge Athletic.

The Owls' youngsters secured their place in the quarter-finals with a 3-1 victory at Swallownest.

The remaining tie sees Hallam FC host Barnsley U21s at Sandygate.

Hallam booked their spot with a 4-1 victory at Athersley Recreation, while Barnsley's youngsters were equally impressive in dispatching Rossington FC 7-0.

Teenage MMA Talent Marches to Fourth Victory

James Bovington

Teenage MMA fighter Lennon Jones is apparently "over the moon" having won his fourth fight at the Elite Combat Championship event in Rochdale where he defeated Sheffield's Rilee Mitchell.

Lennon, who turns 15 in December, lives with his family in South Hiendley and has trained at Legacy MMA in Hemsworth since spring 2024.

"I've now won three of my four amateur bouts," said Lennon, 15. "My uncle was a professional MMA fighter, and I grew up watching his fights plus lots of combat sports live and on video. I thought there's no reason not to get involved myself."

"The main elements to MMA are striking and grappling. I controlled the entire fight with my striking and got the opponent on the canvas and prevented him from doing so to me. These are called takedowns. I followed the agreed game plan and listened attentively to instructions from my corner. The aim in MMA is to get the opponent to submit including by knockout. At present striking an opponent in the head isn't allowed for me but that will come and then the fun will start."

Chris Hill is Lennon's coach at Legacy MMA. "Lennon put on a brilliant performance in Rochdale at 63kg. This was his first competition for a while, yet he dominated all three rounds. Lennon's longer-term goal is to get onto the England Team and begin competing on the international stage. He has the required potential to achieve. We're keen for local people to get to know Lennon and enjoy watching him make progress as we push him to the next level."

Dad Dave Jones and mum Amy are "proud of the time and effort our enthusiastic teenage boy Lennon puts into his training. The training has improved both his fitness and self-discipline which we've seen transfer into schoolwork and behaviour at home. We're obviously keen to support him achieve his goals and ambitions."

Lennon loves training with teammates and the thrill of competition. "This sport has boosted my confidence as well as keeping me in the best shape. My dedication to training and my high standard of performance in competition make me worth supporting. I've started training with the England junior MMA squad and travel around the country training. My ambition is to be a Yorkshire fighter representing England at international events."

There is no national funding available for Lennon who therefore "massively appreciates the generous sponsorship from RW Building Solutions Ltd., Wicks Building & Plastics, Braithwaite Contracting & Driveways and Scaleware. Other potential sponsors should message Dave Jones at davidjones5886@gmail.com or via Facebook Messenger.

For information about training at Legacy e-mail enquiries@legacymma.co.uk or contact via Facebook Messenger. The gym is in Bank Street, Hemsworth WF9 4NY.

Sykes Steps Up At Swallownest

Swallownest FC have announced that Gary 'Gaz' Sykes will take over as their new first-team manager, with George Housham joining him as assistant manager.

The club confirmed that Sykes would be remaining at Swallownest and stepping up into the managerial position as they look to push on during the remainder of the season.

It has been a period of change at Green Lane, with Brad Jones and his assistants Ash Barber and Matt Nettleship leaving the club during the summer. Jones had guided Swallownest to 13th place in their first season in the United Counties League Division One.

Jamie Housley subsequently returned to Swallownest for a second spell, having previously been assistant manager to Scott Mason at Parkgate. However, when Mason stepped down from his position in October, Housley returned to Parkgate to take charge of the first team, leaving Swallownest looking for another manager.

Sykes brings coaching and player-development experience to the role. In April 2024, he was announced as returning to Gainsborough Trinity as Head of Football Development, following the departure of Brad Wright.

Gaz Sykes

His role at Gainsborough involved supporting coaches and players across the club's Under-21 and Under-18 teams, while also looking ahead to the progression of Under-16 players. The position reflected the importance placed on developing young talent and creating a pathway through the club's age groups.

The work involved supporting those responsible for coaching the younger players as well as helping to develop the players themselves. It gave Sykes an involvement across several age groups, with the longer-term aim of strengthening the route from youth football towards the senior set-up.

Gainsborough chairman Liam McNulty described Sykes as an experienced and highly respected coach when announcing his return.

Swallownest will now be hoping that Sykes and Housham can provide fresh impetus as they look to build momentum and improve their fortunes for the remainder of the campaign. The new management team will have the opportunity to bring some stability after the changes of recent months, with the immediate priority being to get the team moving in the right direction and give supporters something to get behind.

New Era Begins At Briggers

Worsbrough Bridge Athletic have entered a new chapter after chairman Mark Booth stepped down following a decade of service to the club, with Darryl Jones and Luke Forgione taking over as joint chairmen.

Booth's final match in charge came at Albion Sports on Saturday, bringing to an end a period which saw him oversee one of the most significant rebuilding projects in the Briggers' recent history.

In a statement announcing his departure, Booth revealed he had dedicated 10 years to the club and felt the time was right to step aside following discussions with a consortium interested in taking the club forward.

While acknowledging recent criticism of the club's direction, Booth pointed to major improvements made during his tenure.

"The football club is now debt free," he said, while also highlighting investment in infrastructure, the playing surface, facilities and attendances.

Booth added that the club was in "a much stronger position" than when he first became involved and paid tribute to players, volunteers, sponsors and supporters who had helped during what he described as a largely successful and stable period.

His departure prompted an emotional response from the club, which credited him with helping steer Worsbrough through one of the most difficult periods in its history.

The club said Booth's hard work, resilience and determination had helped establish the foundations upon which Worsbrough can now build, adding that without his efforts over recent years the Briggers would not be in their current position.

Attention now turns to the future.

The incoming leadership team consists of familiar faces, with both Jones and Forgione having longstanding connections to Worsbrough Bridge Athletic stretching back to their teenage years.

Jones previously represented the club as a player and currently serves as chairman of the junior section, while Forgione enjoyed a decade-long association with the first team as a player before later taking charge as manager.

Both have remained closely connected to the club as supporters and say their ambition is to protect Worsbrough's identity while helping it develop on and off the pitch.

A key part of the new vision centres on strengthening the club's commercial operations and creating a more sustainable future.

Forgione brings experience from football and business through his role developing 4G1 Football Academy, an organisation that has grown into a significant force in grassroots player development across the region.

The new joint chairmen say they want to build stronger relationships with sponsors and local businesses, improve community engagement, enhance the matchday experience and create new opportunities for long-term investment.

Luke Forgione in his playing days at Worsbrough Bridge Athletic

They also see youth development as central to the club's future, with plans to strengthen links between the junior and senior sections to create clearer pathways into first-team football.

In a joint statement, Jones and Forgione stressed that their goal was not to change the club's identity but to build on the work already carried out.

"This is not about forgetting the past," they said. "It is about respecting it, learning from it and creating an exciting future."

The pair inherit a club that has stabilised both on and off the field in recent years and one which remains one of Barnsley's most established non-league institutions.

For Worsbrough supporters, the departure of Booth marks the end of a significant era. The challenge now facing Jones and Forgione is to build upon the foundations laid during that decade and turn the club's ambitions for growth into reality.

With ownership remaining in local hands and two familiar figures returning to lead the Briggers, the club will hope a new chapter can prove every bit as successful as the last.

First Win At Last For Hallam

Hallam 2 – 1 Ashington

PITCHING IN NORTHERN PREMIER LEAGUE – EAST DIVISION

Hallam's long wait for a first league victory of the season finally came to an end as Jacob Priestnall's double inspired a deserved 2-1 success over Ashington at Sandygate.

After 15 attempts without a win, the Countrymen finally got the breakthrough their recent performances had deserved and, in doing so, climbed off the foot of the Northern Premier League East Division table.

The victory also moved Hallam above Stocksbridge Park Steels and continued a recent trend of improved performances under Danny and Richard Patterson that had often gone unrewarded.

"It probably had been coming for a while," admitted Richard afterwards. "We've not been far off in many games and probably not got what we deserved out of a lot of them. Today we got exactly what we deserved and it's a relief for the lads."

Hallam showed their intent from the opening whistle and could easily have been ahead inside two minutes.

Danai Rhule's cross from the right found Tommaso Zerboni and his effort was hacked off the line. The rebound fell kindly for Priestnall, whose follow-up crashed against the crossbar with Ashington already rocking.

A minute later Priestnall forced visiting goalkeeper Matty Alexander into a save before the pressure finally told in the seventh minute.

Ben Dyer flicked the ball into the path of Priestnall and the midfielder did the rest, advancing towards the penalty area before curling a superb finish into the bottom corner from the edge of the box.

It was the least Hallam deserved.

Danny felt the quality of Hallam's experienced players made a significant difference.

"We just looked a lot better team today," he said. "Our Richard in the middle, Kingy (Kingsley James) in there and Jacob causing problems all game. I thought the back four were superb as well."

The opening stages were competitive and physical, with Ashington captain Karl Ross becoming the first of eight players to enter referee Jodie Hunter's notebook after a late challenge on player-manager Richard Patterson.

The Hallam boss, turning out in midfield, later returned the favour with a robust challenge of his own as tensions simmered throughout the afternoon.

Ashington's best opportunity arrived in the 20th minute when a clever one-two released Oliver Thompson clean through on goal. With only Hugo Warhurst to beat, the striker somehow sliced his effort onto the post.

That chance sparked Hallam back into life.

Dyer saw an effort blocked before having strong penalty appeals waved away following a challenge by Rory Powell inside the area.

As the booking count continued to rise, Hallam remained the more threatening side. Priestnall twice tested Alexander from distance while Warhurst also found himself cautioned for dissent as tempers occasionally threatened to boil over.

Despite the physical nature of the contest, both Hallam managers felt referee Hunter handled proceedings well.

"There were some tasty tackles but that's what this league is about," said Richard. "I actually thought the referee was alright. It wasn't the easiest game to referee and I thought she was pretty consistent."

The visitors emerged after the break knowing they were still firmly in the contest but were fortunate to remain with 11 men.

Just minutes into the second half, Thompson launched into a wild late challenge on Priestnall in front of the dugouts. Most inside Sandygate expected a red card, but referee Hunter opted to produce only a yellow.

"The speed he came across at him, I thought it was a straight red," said Richard, while Danny Patterson agreed with the assessment.

Hallam did not allow the decision to distract them and they continued to look the more likely side to score and their second goal eventually arrived in the 66th minute and fittingly it came from Priestnall once again.

The number 10 won a challenge with substitute Jack Gibson inside the Ashington half before driving forward. Racing clear of the defenders, Priestnall continued his run before calmly placing his finish beyond Alexander and into the bottom corner.

It capped an outstanding individual display.

"Jacob was excellent," said Danny Patterson. "He caused problems all game. When you add that experience into the side, alongside players like Richard and Kingy, it makes a massive difference."

The second goal should have settled matters and Hallam almost extended their lead further when substitute Aris Cunha's effort was spilled by Alexander, although nobody in blue could capitalise on the rebound.

Ashington, meanwhile, struggled to create anything meaningful. Their only notable opening fell to Gibson, who dragged an effort wide as frustrations continued to mount.

The game became scrappy during the closing stages, which suited Hallam perfectly as they disrupted any rhythm the visitors tried to establish.

There was a late scare in the fourth minute of stoppage time when Noah Cunningham drilled home from the edge of the area with Ashington's first shot on target of the evening.

By then, however, it was too little and far too late.

The final whistle was greeted with celebrations from players and supporters alike as Hallam finally collected the victory that recent performances had suggested was only a matter of time away.

"It's brilliant for the lads," said Danny. "The only disappointment really is that we could have won the game by three or four with the chances we created. But the most important thing is the three points.

"We've added experience as the season has gone on and I think that's helped make us stronger. There are some very good teams in this league and you need that experience."

The challenge now is to build on the breakthrough result.

"We've got a few lads coming back as well," added Richard. "That's only our fifth home game this season and people forget how many away games we've had, travelling up and down the A1 every week.

"The lads have stuck together. Nobody has thrown the towel in and everybody wants to be here. Hopefully now we can start putting back-to-back results together."

For Hallam, after weeks of near misses and frustration, this felt like more than just three points. It felt like a reward for perseverance and perhaps the foundation for a climb away from trouble.

Less than 72 hours after the defeat, Ashington would part company with manager Marc Ellison, bringing an end to his tenure at Woodhorn Lane after a difficult start to their campaign. Hallam, meanwhile, will hope Saturday's victory marks the beginning of a very different story.

Vase Dreams Alive For Sheffield As Parkgate Bow Out

Sheffield FC kept their FA Vase dream alive with a stirring second-half comeback against South Liverpool, while Parkgate's run in the competition came to an end with defeat at Nelson. The result puts Sheffield, who were finalists in 1977, into the third round for the first time in 23 years.

Club booked their place with a 3-1 victory at the Home of Football, recovering from a disappointing first-half display to turn the tie around after the break.

South Liverpool struck first and deservedly led at half-time, leaving Sheffield manager Craig Denton far from impressed with what he had seen.

"The first half was really poor," he admitted afterwards. "I think it's probably the poorest half of football since I've been here.

"But we ironed it out at half-time and we've got a really special group of players who can turn it on. They did that in the second half."

Having impressed in their 4-2 Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup victory at Handsworth in midweek, Denton's side carried momentum into the national competition but initially failed to match those standards.

The turnaround after the interval was emphatic.

Nathan Whitehead levelled within four minutes of the restart before Leon Howarth completed the comeback just two minutes later as Sheffield suddenly found the cutting edge that had been missing before the break.

The visitors attempted to force their way back into the contest, but Club stood firm before Alex Hardwick wrapped up victory deep into stoppage time with Sheffield's third goal.

Denton was particularly pleased with the way his side responded under pressure.

"South Liverpool were really tough opposition," he said.

Alex Hardwick completes the scoring with Sheffield's third

"They made it difficult for us, got in our faces and were aggressive. So we're pleased to get through and into the next round."

The victory continues an encouraging spell under the former Worksop Town boss. Sheffield had led Blackstones 4-1 before that league fixture was abandoned, then scored four against Handsworth in the Senior Cup before adding another three in the Vase.

While Sheffield celebrated progress, there was disappointment for Parkgate as their campaign ended with a 4-1 defeat at Nelson.

The Miners travelled to Lancashire hoping to continue the momentum generated by recent league improvements under Jamie Housley, but found themselves a goal down at the interval when Jamie Edwards struck for the home side after 35 minutes.

The match was effectively decided during a devastating spell immediately after half-time.

Andrew Hill doubled Nelson's advantage before Sefton Gonzales added a third less than two minutes later as Parkgate struggled to recover from the hosts' rapid start to the second period.

Any hopes of a comeback were effectively extinguished when Gonzales converted a penalty midway through the second half to make it 4-0.

Josh Nodder pulled a goal back almost immediately for the Miners, but it proved only a consolation as Nelson comfortably saw out the remainder of the tie.

For Parkgate, the focus now switches entirely to climbing the NCEL Premier Division table after a difficult start to the season. Sheffield, meanwhile, remain on the road to Wembley and will await the next round draw with growing confidence after scoring 11 goals across their last three completed matches.

Club Hit Four To Reach Last Eight

Sheffield FC booked their place in the Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup quarter-finals with a deserved 4-2 victory over Handsworth at Olivers Mount.

After a lively but largely uneventful opening, Club struck first in the 21st minute when Alex Hardwick showed great composure to turn his defender and slot home.

Handsworth threatened through Jordan Hines and Ben Harriott, but Sheffield's quality in the final third proved decisive after the interval.

Kyani Clayton doubled the visitors' advantage just two minutes into the second half with a trademark run and finish, although Hines quickly pulled one back from a Mitchell Dunne assist.

Any hopes of a Handsworth comeback were short-lived. Connor Cutts restored Sheffield's two-goal cushion before Hardwick added his second of the night after racing clear to make it 4-1.

Substitute James Simmonite reduced the deficit late on after Rion Arbouin's effort struck the post, while Dunne was denied by the crossbar in the closing stages as the hosts attempted to set up a grandstand finish.

The victory continued Sheffield's improving form under manager Craig Denton, while Handsworth exited the competition despite another committed display.

Denton was pleased with both the result and the contribution of players who had been waiting for opportunities.

"It was really nice to give players who haven't had much game time recently some minutes and the lads took their chance. It was a really competitive game and we were clinical when it mattered."

Handsworth joint manager Jon Froggatt was disappointed by the nature of the goals conceded but remained upbeat.

"There wasn't much in it first half, but we made some costly mistakes and they punished us. We've been on a good run and one defeat won't derail what we're trying to do."

Sheffield now await the quarter-final draw, while Handsworth switch their full attention back to league matters.

Steels Punished By Ruthless Priorymen

STOCKSBRIDGE PARK STEELS

Adam Allcroft

Stocksbridge Park Steels endured another frustrating afternoon on their travels as Guisborough Town turned a competitive contest into a convincing victory with a ruthless second-half display.

There are afternoons in football when a side can feel that the game has slipped away from them before they have really had a chance to get going. For Stocksbridge Park Steels, their trip to Guisborough Town proved to be one of those occasions as a difficult afternoon ultimately ended in a heavy defeat.

The Steels arrived hoping to put together a positive performance but instead found themselves on the wrong end of a four-goal second-half blitz that left little room for argument about the eventual winners.

Yet the final scoreline perhaps told only part of the story, particularly when considering that Stocksbridge had opportunities to make the afternoon a rather different one.

Guisborough began the contest with plenty of energy, looking to impose themselves on home territory and putting the visitors under pressure during the opening exchanges. The hosts appeared the more comfortable side early on, but the Steels were not without their moments and came agonisingly close to taking the lead.

Liam Clayton was the man who almost provided the breakthrough. His effort took a deflection that sent the ball spinning towards goal, only for it to come crashing back off the woodwork. It was a frustrating moment for the visitors, who had done enough to create a genuine opportunity but were denied by the frame of the goal.

In games where confidence is not at its highest, those are the sort of moments that can make a considerable difference. A goal for Stocksbridge would have given them something to build on and potentially changed the complexion of the contest.

Instead, Guisborough gradually began to find their rhythm and take greater control of proceedings.

The home side's growing pressure eventually brought its reward when Matty Wilshaw found himself in the right place at the right time to finish from close range. It was a straightforward but important goal, giving the Priorymen the advantage and leaving the Steels with work to do.

Stocksbridge headed into the interval knowing they remained within touching distance. There was still plenty of football to be played, and an equaliser would have been enough to put the pressure back on the hosts.

The visitors emerged for the second half with attacking intent, clearly aware that they needed to find a way back into the game. However, the search for an equaliser also brought an element of risk, with Stocksbridge committing more players forward and leaving spaces for Guisborough to exploit.

Unfortunately for the travelling side, the hosts were more than happy to take advantage.

With the Steels pushing higher up the pitch, Guisborough began to demonstrate just how dangerous they could be on the counter-attack. A swift transition caught Stocksbridge out and Wilshaw was once again on hand to provide the finishing touch, doubling his side's advantage.

It was a significant setback for the Steels, who had been hoping to build momentum after the restart. Instead, they were now faced with the challenge of finding two goals against a home side growing increasingly confident.

To their credit, Stocksbridge continued to search for a response rather than allowing their heads to drop.

Tommy Marshall came closest to providing one, testing Guisborough goalkeeper Ryan Catterick with an effort that threatened to give the visitors a route back into the contest. Catterick, however, reacted well, spreading himself and producing an important save with his legs to keep the ball out.

It was arguably the Steels' best opportunity of the second half, and one that could have made the closing stages considerably more interesting.

Instead, it proved to be a turning point.

Having survived that scare, Guisborough wasted little time in making the most of their opportunity at the other end. Another quick counter-attack exposed the Stocksbridge defence, with Conan Newall getting the final touch to bundle the ball over the line and make it three.

For the Steels, it was a particularly damaging goal. Any lingering hopes of mounting a comeback had effectively disappeared, and the afternoon was rapidly becoming one to forget.

Worse was to follow almost immediately.

Before Stocksbridge had much opportunity to regroup, Newall struck again, completing a remarkable double with another close-range finish just a minute after his first. Having started the second half with hopes of getting back into the contest, the visitors suddenly found themselves facing a four-goal deficit.

It is now four consecutive matches in which Stocksbridge have conceded four goals, an unwanted statistic that underlines the scale of the challenge facing Jason Blunt as he looks to steer the club back in the right direction.

First Steps In The Right Direction

HALLAM

For much of the season, Hallam's weekly column has carried a familiar theme. Encouraging performances. Positive signs. Reasons for optimism. But not enough points.

At long last, that changed on Saturday.

Hallam's deserved 2-1 victory over Ashington not only secured their first league win of the campaign, it also lifted them off the foot of the Northern Premier League East Division table and offered tangible reward for weeks of hard work and perseverance.

There was understandable relief around Sandygate.

Danny and Richard Patterson have spent much of the season insisting their side were not as far away as the league table suggested, and against Ashington they finally had the result to back up those claims.

The detailed match report elsewhere in this week's paper tells the story of the afternoon, but perhaps the most important aspect was the manner of the victory.

Hallam didn't sneak a win. They earned it.

Jacob Priestnall's double grabbed the headlines and rightly so, but there was a broader feeling that the Countrymen looked stronger, more experienced and more confident than they had done during the opening weeks of the season,

Both managers highlighted the influence of experience after the game.

Priestnall was excellent, Richard Patterson's presence in midfield added leadership and former Sheffield Wednesday and Barnsley midfielder Kingsley James brought another level of composure to the side.

After spending much of the season relying heavily on younger players adjusting to Step 4 football, Hallam are beginning to look more balanced. That could prove crucial over the coming months.

The victory also reinforced another important point. Nobody inside the dressing room had stopped believing.

While supporters understandably worried about results and league positions, the managers continued to speak about togetherness and commitment. Saturday validated that faith.

As Richard Patterson pointed out afterwards, players have continued travelling thousands of miles collectively this season without losing belief, despite a fixture list that has been particularly unforgiving.

That resilience may yet prove one of Hallam's biggest strengths.

The win also arrived during an important week for the club off the pitch.

One of the biggest pieces of news was confirmation that goalkeeper Hugo Warhurst has committed his future to Hallam for the remainder of the season despite attracting interest elsewhere.

That announcement should not be underestimated. Warhurst has established himself as one of the club's most important players and one of the most popular figures around Sandygate.

The response from supporters when the news broke probably said everything.

In a season where there has been no shortage of uncertainty, retaining a player of Warhurst's quality and character represents a significant boost.

The club described him as influential both on and off the pitch and anyone who has watched Hallam regularly over recent seasons would struggle to disagree.

Danny Patterson certainly appreciated the importance of the news.

"Hugo is a massive part of this club and everything we're trying to build here," he said.

"He was always going to attract plenty of interest throughout the season."

At a time when Hallam are fighting to move away from danger, keeping players of that calibre is every bit as important as signing new ones.

There was further recognition this week for Jacob Priestnall.

Fresh from his match-winning performance against Ashington, the midfielder was named Hallam's Player of the Month for October.

Few would argue with that decision.

Throughout a difficult campaign, Priestnall has consistently been one of Hallam's brightest performers and his goals on Saturday underlined exactly why he remains such an influential figure.

Supporters also have another attractive fixture to look forward to.

Hallam will host Barnsley Under-21s in the quarter-finals of the Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup next Tuesday evening.

Cup competitions have provided some of the brighter moments of the season so far and the visit of a talented Barnsley side should attract plenty of interest.

The tie offers Hallam another opportunity to continue building momentum while also providing a welcome break from the pressures of league football.

Away from results and league tables, the club also took time to mark Remembrance weekend.

The presence of Armed Forces Owls guests at Sandygate helped create a fitting and respectful occasion, one which both Hallam and Ashington supporters observed impeccably.

It served as another reminder of what makes Hallam special.

For all the focus on points, positions and performances, the club remains deeply rooted in its community and traditions. That connection has often carried Hallam through difficult periods before.

The challenge now is making sure Saturday's win becomes a beginning rather than an isolated high point.

One victory alone changes very little. The league table is still uncomfortable reading. There remains plenty of work ahead. But psychologically, the breakthrough felt important. The burden of searching for that first league win has now gone. The questions can stop. The players have proved they can win at this level. Now they need to prove they can do it again.

For the first time in a while, Hallam head into the coming week with genuine momentum and a little more breathing space.

After everything that has happened on and off the pitch this season, that alone feels like progress.

The next challenge is ensuring it is only the start.

Bottesford and Retford Keep Vase Dream Alive

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST

Matt Jones

The Macron Northern Counties East League will have two representatives in the FA Vase Third Round after Bottesford Town and Retford FC both safely negotiated their Second Round ties on Saturday.

Bottesford Town booked their place in the next stage after overcoming Chadderton 4-1 on penalties following a 1-1 draw. Jack Varley gave Bottesford a first-half lead and they remained on course for victory until Jordan Lazenbury equalised shortly after the restart. With neither side able to find a winner, the visitors held their nerve in the shoot-out to secure progression.

Retford FC produced the most impressive result of the day as they powered to a 5-1 victory at Maghull. Sam Smith's early goal put the hosts in front, but Retford responded superbly, turning the tie around before half-time through Ahmed Tahar, Iren Wilson and Alex Wonham. Liam Bennett extended the advantage after the break before Krzysztof Jarosz completed the scoring in stoppage time to send the NCEL side comfortably through.

Parkgate's cup run came to an end after a 4-1 defeat at Nelson. Jamie Edwards edged the home side in front before the interval and Nelson took control in the second half as Andrew Hill and a Sefton Gonzales double, including a penalty, opened up a commanding lead. Josh Nodder pulled a goal back for Parkgate, but the hosts were not to be denied a place in the next round.

Brigg Town were desperately unlucky to miss out after pushing North Shields all the way. Following a goalless first half, goals from Josh Jordan and Josh Batty put Brigg in a strong position before the hosts mounted a late comeback through Dan Wilson and Jordan Lashley's 89th minute penalty. The tie went to a shoot-out where North Shields edged through 4-3 in front of a crowd of 462.

As a result, Bottesford Town and Retford FC will carry the NCEL flag into the Third Round of the competition.

League action across the NCEL produced 48 goals over the weekend, with Wakefield AFC's remarkable 7-4 victory over South Leeds and Thackley's 5-1 success against Keighley Town among the standout results.

Friday night's Premier Division fixture saw Campion make it back-to-back home wins as a first-half brace from Ben Grech-Brooksbank secured a 2-1 victory over Tadcaster Albion. Grech-Brooksbank struck inside five minutes before adding his second midway through the half. Oliver Green reduced the arrears shortly before the hour mark, but Campion held on for the points.

Saturday's Premier Division programme featured several closely-contested encounters. Albion Sports defeated Worsbrough Bridge Athletic 2-1 thanks to two first-half goals from Joseph Poxon, with Connor Glavin's second-half penalty proving only a consolation for the visitors.

Barton Town and Golcar United shared the spoils in a 2-2 draw. Albie Collier gave Barton an early lead before Jason Mbaya and George Doyle turned the game in Golcar's favour. Danny Earl's 72nd-minute strike earned the hosts a point.

Horbury Town continued their impressive campaign with a 3-1 success at Dearne & District. Jack Boyle had given the hosts the lead, but goals from Joseph Angell and Lucas Smith put Horbury ahead before Keenan Davies-Mosley wrapped up victory shortly after the hour mark.

Frickley Athletic claimed a 2-0 win over Pickering Town through goals from Lewis O'Connor and Keelan Grist, whilePenistone Church edged a five-goal thriller at Handsworth. Elliot Harrison put Church head and Reece High then doubled the visitors' lead, before Mitch Dunne's penalty and Ben Harriott looked to have rescued Handsworth a point. However, Nathan Keightley's late penalty secured a 3-2 victory for the visitors.

Retford United and Rossington Main shared the points in a 1-1 draw. Oliver Currie's first-half effort put Rossington ahead before Alans Voskresenski equalised midway through the second period.

The biggest Premier Division win went to Thackley, who ran out 5-1 winners over Keighley Town. Lewis Sugden opened the scoring before Thomas Greaves levelled for the visitors. Paul Walker restored Thackley's advantage before Sugden added a penalty after the break. Two late goals from Alex Ingham completed an emphatic home victory.

Division One produced even more drama, none more so than at Wakefield AFC on Friday night where the hosts defeated South Leeds 7-4 in a breathtaking contest. George Birley and Harley Blankley both scored twice, with Callum Chalton, Miguel Cassama and Harry Shepherd also finding the net. South Leeds remained in contention thanks to Warren Carr, a James Law brace and Adam Hayton's late effort, but Wakefield ultimately had too much firepower.

Armthorpe Welfare strengthened their position with a comfortable 4-0 victory over Harrogate Railway Athletic. Alfie Charlotte opened the scoring before Mitch Pattinson netted twice and Liam Flanagan also got on the scoresheet.

Club Thorne Colliery matched that scoreline against Immingham Town. Ethan Harrison and Jackson Yates struck before the interval before Joe Hare scored twice in the second half to seal a convincing 4-0 success.

Crowle Colts defeated Goole AFC 2-1 thanks to goals from Jamal Stewart and Rhys Plater. Liam Owen's stoppage-time effort gave Goole hope, but Crowle saw out the closing moments.

LIV collected all three points in a dramatic 3-2 victory at Hemsworth Miners Welfare. Ryan Whincup and James Nichols scored either side of half-time to put the visitors in charge, but Hemsworth fought back through Ashley Bell's penalty and Aston Dunstan. The game looked destined for a draw until Victory Ojei struck in stoppage time to snatch victory for LIV.

At Ilkley Town, Athersley Recreation secured a 2-1 away win with early goals from James Woodhouse and Favour Ogbebor proving decisive despite Dan Clark-Coates reducing the deficit.

Kinsley Boys defeated Selby Town 2-0 courtesy of strikes from Lucas Stubbs and Labi Adeniran, while Appleby Frodingham and Winterton Rangers played out a 1-1 draw as James Chester's opener was cancelled out by Charlie Bibby.

Another notable comeback arrived at Wombwell Town, where Leeds UFCA led through a Bryce Fletcher own goal before the hosts turned the game on its head in the final quarter. Alhassane Keita scored twice, while Morgan James and Oliver Fearon were also on target as Wombwell stormed to a 4-1 victory.

Dearne Extend Lead As Goals Flow

It was a busy mid-week across the Macron Northern Counties East Football League, with leaders and promotion contenders continuing to battle for crucial points as the season gathers momentum.

On Tuesday, in the Premier Division, Knaresborough Town produced the performance of the night with a convincing 5-1 victory over Worsbrough Bridge Athletic. Ben Gelder struck twice inside the opening 34 minutes, while Jack Dyche and Samuel Leverett were also on target as the hosts raced into a four-goal half-time lead. Harrison Marvin gave Worsbrough brief hope after the break, but Theodore Hudson completed the scoring ten minutes from time.

Penistone Church edged a thrilling contest 3-2 at Golcar United. Harvey Booth gave the hosts an early advantage before Elliot Harrison and Trent Coulter turned the game around before the interval. George Doyle levelled shortly after the restart, but Nathan Keightley snatched the winner in stoppage time to secure all three points for Church.

Table-toppers Dearne & District left Frickley Athletic with a valuable 1-0 win thanks to Jack Boyle's 76th-minute strike. The sides were locked together at the break before Boyle's goal proved enough to separate them.

There was little to choose between Barton Town and Parkgate as they shared the points in a goalless draw, while Horbury Town and Retford United also ended level at 1-1. Lucas Smith levelled for Horbury in the second half after Ross Duggan had put the Badgers ahead after 28 minutes.

In Division One, Goole AFC maintained their challenge near the top of the table with a 2-1 victory at Wakefield AFC, with two debutants scoring the goals for the Vikings. Akram Lasalire opened the scoring in the first half before Adam Baskerville doubled the visitors' advantage early in the second period. Harry Shepherd reduced the deficit four minutes from time, but Goole held firm to claim the points.

Armthorpe Welfare and Field Olympic could not be separated in a 1-1 draw. Liam Flanagan gave Armthorpe an early lead, but Field were level before the break thanks to a Tom Joynt own goal, and neither side could find a winner in the second half.

Goals continued to flow across the Northern Counties East Football League on Wednesday evening, with 14 goals scored across just three fixtures.

In the Premier Division, Campion came out on top in an entertaining 4-2 victory over Handsworth. The hosts made the perfect start when Shay Muirhead struck after just two minutes, and they doubled their advantage through Ben Grech-Brooksbank seven minutes before the break. Alex Asaba pulled one back for Handsworth shortly before half-time to keep the visitors in contention, but Paddy Sykes restored Campion's two-goal cushion just after the hour mark. Mitch Dunne converted a penalty in stoppage time to reduce the deficit again, only for Luke Jefferys to have the final say moments later as Campion wrapped up an impressive win.

In Division One, Brigg Town moved back to the top of the table with a convincing 3-0 home success against Route One Rovers in front of a crowd of 286. Dayle Hutson gave Brigg an early lead inside four minutes and, after a hard-fought spell either side of the interval, Josh Batty's powerful header doubled the advantage with just over 20 minutes remaining. Lewis Collins completed the scoring ten minutes from time with a long-range strike to seal a comfortable victory.

Ilkley Town also enjoyed a good evening, recording a 4-1 triumph at South Leeds. Jamie Underdown's opener for the hosts was cancelled out by Clarke Doughney before half-time, leaving the teams level at the break. Ilkley then took control in the second period as Matthias Britton put them ahead soon after the restart. Dan Clark-Coates added a third midway through the half before striking again six minutes from time to complete a fine away win.

Denton's Sheffield Go Through October Unbeaten

UNITED COUNTIES LEAGUE

Sheffield FC rounded off an unbeaten October by booking their place in the next round of the FA Vase, while Swallownest returned to winning ways and Maltby Main battled back to earn a point on the road.

Since Craig Denton took charge, Sheffield have yet to taste defeat, and their 3-1 victory over South Liverpool continued that impressive run. Having gone through the whole of October unbeaten, the Vase success provided another positive result as Denton looks to build momentum at the club.

Sheffield had to come from behind after Robbie Marrow gave South Liverpool a 17th-minute lead, but Nathan Whitehead levelled shortly after the break before Leon Howarth put the home side ahead. Alex Hardwick sealed the victory with a stoppage-time third. The result sends Sheffield through to the next round, with the club's league form also showing signs of improvement.

They remain 15th in the Premier Division North with 12 points from 11 matches, but their recent unbeaten run offers encouragement as they look to climb the table. Belper United lead the division, ahead of Eastwood and Leicester Nirvana.

There was a difficult afternoon for Dronfield Town, who were beaten 3-2 at home by Louth Town in Division One. Arran Bovill gave Dronfield an early lead with a superb volley, but Louth responded through Jack McSpadden.

Connor Chapell restored the home side's advantage after Dan White headed a long throw back across goal, only for Alex Aldrich to bring Louth level before half-time.

Dronfield started the second half positively and created opportunities through Alex Wilkinson, Sam Bebbington and Chapell, but goalkeeper Stanley Simons kept them out. Louth then snatched the points in the 74th minute when Bradley Coulam followed up after Tom Hill had made a point-blank save.

The defeat leaves Dronfield 19th with 16 points from 18 matches, and manager Lewis Naylor is still searching for his first win in charge.

Matters did not improve on Tuesday evening, when Dronfield suffered a 4-0 home defeat against Glossop North End in the second round of the Derbyshire FA Senior Cup.

Maltby Main had to settle for a point after coming from behind to draw 1-1 at Sandiacre Town. The hosts took the lead after 12 minutes, when their number 11 headed home a free-kick delivered to the back post. Maltby were unhappy with the award of the set-piece and felt they should also have dealt with the delivery.

The visitors had been competitive in an evenly contested opening period, with plenty of aerial challenges, but went into the interval trailing. Shaun-Michael Tai was introduced for the second half in place of Tom Pawson, and Maltby eventually found a way back into the game through substitute Matthew France.

It was a hard-earned point for Nick Buxton's side, who had to show resilience after falling behind. The draw leaves them 11th in the table on 22 points from 18 matches.

Swallownest also had reason to be pleased after ending a run of three successive league defeats with a 2-1 home victory over Clifton All Whites. James Hardeman was on target for Swallownest, while a Clifton own goal provided their second. Kye Wade scored for the visitors in the 58th minute, but Swallownest held on to secure a welcome three points.

The victory followed defeats at West Bridgford Colts and Clipstone and gives Swallownest a timely boost as they look to move away from the lower reaches of the table. They now sit 13th with 21 points from 16 matches.

At the top of Division One, Clipstone Welfare continue to set the pace with 43 points, six clear of Staveley Miners Welfare, while South Normanton Athletic occupy third place on 33 points.

There remains plenty to play for across both divisions, with Sheffield looking to carry their October momentum into November, while Maltby and Swallownest will be aiming to build on their latest results. For Dronfield, the priority is to turn performances into points and find a way out of the bottom end of the table.

CENTRAL MIDLANDS ALLIANCE

Richard Lane

Three matches in three different competitions this week saw Melbourne Dynamo's impressive seven-match winning run finally halted at the hands of Derby Gazers in the Abacus Lighting Floodlit Cup.

Musa Jeng opened the scoring for Gazers on five minutes, soon answered by Jack Goodband. The visitors took the lead for the second time five minutes before the interval, Khenan Barrett the scorer, but again Melbourne wasted no time getting back on terms, Jake Peverley with the equaliser in added time.

They fell behind for the third time on 53 minutes to a Lopes Massampo goal, and this time there was no response as Lewis Smith scored again in the 83rd minute. Both sides found the net in injury time, Finn Neale cutting the deficit to one goal, but Gazers had the last word, Massampo getting his second, the final score 5-3.

In the Camper UK Premier North, Staveley Reserves consolidated third place with a 3-0 defeat of Evo FC. Sam Davies put them in front after 26 minutes from a corner. They increased the lead ten minutes after half-time, Sam Bingham finishing off a flowing move, and confirmed the win three minutes from time, Josh Nicholls the scorer.

The third match was in the Sheffield Senior Cup where, despite a dominant second half, Dinnington Town bowed out in the third round despite running Step Five Rossington Main close, the final score 2-1. The home side capitalised on their first-half chances, scoring twice, but Dinnington could only find one, Gabriel Oloko scoring after an hour.

A mixture of league and cup matches took place this afternoon, with one or two Division One sides added to the mix. As Burngreave United were on cup duty, their three nearest rivals took the opportunity to close in on them.

Harworth Colliery set off like a train, building up a three-goal lead at Teversal, but did not have much to spare by the end. Jay Jay Taylor got them off to the perfect start with goals after seven and 10 minutes, things looking ominous for the home side when Adam Morrison made it three on 27 minutes. Things gradually settled down, Cameron Pinnick pulling a goal back three minutes before half-time and another just before the hour. Unfortunately for Teversal, they could not find a third, Harworth taking the points 3-2.

Proceedings at the Fieldings followed an almost identical pattern as Glapwell took on third-placed Staveley Reserves. The visitors took the lead even more quickly, Harvey Brayford-Taylor finding the net with barely 30 seconds on the clock. Charlie Bingham extended the lead on 11 minutes. Glapwell squandered the opportunity to reduce the deficit by failing from the penalty spot after 36 minutes. The game remained even until the last ten minutes, Staveley finishing strongly as Alex Coates ended proceedings with a goal in the 81st minute and another three minutes later, making the final score 4-0.

Dinnington Town went a goal down at SJR Worksop before taking control of the game to win 4-1. Joe Bean gave the home side a 14th-minute lead, Lewis Fretwell levelling the scores ten minutes later. Josh Stead gave the visitors the lead with 36 minutes played, Dinnington extending their advantage with further strikes from Ollie Cooper midway through the second half and Craig Nelthorpe a minute before time.

RHP must be wondering how they only managed to get a point from their clash with Brodsworth Main after a match that might be called "competitive". A relatively even first half saw the sides reach half-time on equal terms, Sol Miller's 27th-minute goal for RHP equalled by Clayton Cherowbrier ten minutes later. As the second half progressed, the pressure on the Brodsworth defence increased, but the breakthrough never came, due in no small part to Brodsworth keeper Ellis Patterson, who had an inspired game.

There was another 1-1 draw at AFC Bentley as they faced Ollerton Town. Bentley missed a golden opportunity to take a 26th-minute lead from the penalty spot, with the ball apparently clearing not only the crossbar but also the stand. George Slack gave Ollerton the lead in the 51st minute, which looked enough to ensure a second win of the season, but it was not to be as substitute Dan James pulled a point out of the fire with 87 minutes on the clock.

In the Camper UK Premier South, Derby Singh Brothers moved up to third place following a 3-0 defeat of Bakewell Town. A 10th-minute goal from Abdul Akram gave Singhs an early advantage, the same player doubling the lead with 57 minutes on the clock. Khaleeq Shaffique came off the bench to seal the points with 73 minutes played.

FC Sunnyhill and Mickleover RBL drew 1-1, Sunnyhill's goal coming from Lewis Benjamin.

Cromford & Wirksworth Town and Blidworth Welfare met for the second time in a fortnight and, for the second time, the match ended all square. Blidworth led at half-time thanks to a Charlie Miller goal on 15 minutes, but Cromford turned the game on its head with two goals in four minutes shortly after the restart. James Hirst scored on 49 minutes, quickly followed by a second from Scott Taylor, which would have lifted them off the bottom. As all struggling sides will know, fate always takes a hand, with this one being particularly cruel, Blidworth's 88th-minute equaliser given as an own goal.

Also at the wrong end of the table, Graham Street Prims picked up a precious point from a 2-2 draw at Ripley Town thanks to Levi Hulme and, believe it or not, an own goal.

There were seven more ties in the second round of the Buckingham Insurance League Cup.

Melbourne Dynamo recovered quickly from their midweek defeat with a 4-1 victory over Holbrook St Michaels. Danny Guild, Jack Goodband, Ali Brown and Ben Gowing scored for Dynamo, with Richard Hanslow getting one for the Saints.

Evo FC almost produced a shock against Burngreave United, going in front with a goal from Oliver Beautyman. Umar Mohammed replied for the hosts, which sent the game to penalties, Burngreave winning 5-4.

Derby Gazers have enjoyed success in both cup competitions this week. Mickleover Athletic were their victims on Saturday, Gazers winning 3-1. All of the goals came in the second half, Isaac Hutton's 50th-minute opener followed by a double from Khenan Barrett in the 66th and 75th minutes, Mickleover's reply coming in the closing minutes.

A hat-trick from Noah Trivett propelled Borrowash Victoria into Round Three at the expense of Wirksworth Ivanhoe. The first two goals were penalties awarded for handling offences, the third a beautifully struck free-kick from 25 yards.

The three remaining ties featured sides from the Macron Store Nottingham Division One. Kirton Brickworks, currently top of Division One Central, faced an in-form Elite AFC, who proved too much of a handful, Kirton going down 4-1. Tommy Pallett (2), Bartek Chrobak and Robbie Glennon scored for Elite, Corey Woods replying for the visitors.

Gresley Rovers B had to stage a comeback after finding themselves two goals in arrears against Rowsley 86. Sam Elliott and Harry Harrod gave the Division One side a realistic chance of reaching the next round, but Gresley gradually chipped away at the lead, Ethan Watson, Stevie Savage and Sheene Gordon making the final score 3-2.

One team did make it through, Heanor Town knocking Linby Colliery out on penalties following a 1-1 draw. Harry Thorne scored for Linby and Tyler Beer for Heanor, who won the shootout 5-4.

Brinsworth Edge Further Clear

ROTHERHAM SUNDAY
Mark Pilley

The Rotherham & District Sunday League title race took another twist over the weekend as leaders Brinsworth DC ground out another victory while several of their nearest challengers dropped points.

In the Premier Division, Brinsworth made it eight wins from nine matches with a hard-fought 1-0 success over Thurcroft Hub. The victory moves them on to 25 points and, with their rivals unable to keep pace, strengthens their position at the summit.

Second-placed Deer Park Tap remained unbeaten but were forced to settle for a point after being held by Thorpe Hesley Village in recent weeks. This time, however, they returned to winning ways with an impressive 4-1 success away at Thorpe Hesley. Morgan Bridgewater, Jayden Roberts with two, and Ousseifi Alimiyao Sayou were on target as Deer Park kept the pressure on the leaders.

Defending champions The Gate Inn produced one of the performances of the weekend as Josh Stead struck five times in a remarkable 6-3 victory at Butchers Arms. Morgan James grabbed the other goal as The Gate maintained their pursuit of the top three despite having played fewer games than all of the sides above them.

At the other end of the table, AFC Trades Rawmarsh collected a desperately needed second victory of the season. Ethan Creamer's hat-trick inspired a 7-2 success over Clubhouse, while Ben Knox, Brandon Potts and Adam Saxton also found the net.

Whiston also enjoyed a welcome boost with a 4-1 victory at Jack in Box. Lewis McMichael hit a hat-trick and Owen Crowder added the other goal as Whiston climbed off the foot of the table.

There was no league action in the Championship, but the Brian Beeley Knock Out Cup offered several leading sides the chance to make their mark.

League leaders Darnall Urban suffered a surprise exit, losing on penalties to Division One strugglers Kilton United after a 1-1 draw. It was a notable setback for the Championship pace-setters, who had previously lost just once all season.

Milldam, by contrast, booked their place in the next round in emphatic fashion. Charlie Crapper scored twice and Tyler Jackson netted a hat-trick as they thrashed FC Kimberworth Park RHT 8-1. With Milldam still six points behind Darnall but holding games in hand, they remain very much in the title picture.

Maltby Main Haynook also progressed with a 2-1 win over Hope Valley Tap, while Swinton Athletic defeated AFC Monkwood 3-0 and AFC Maltby knocked out Sportsman Inn with a 4-2 victory featuring a Cory Eagle brace.

Division One leaders The Little Mester maintained their perfect campaign by receiving a walkover against Wickersley AFC in the cup and remain the side everyone else is chasing.

Behind them, Brecks Snooker continued their impressive progress with a 3-1 victory at Beighton Magpies. Jack Bancroft scored twice alongside Matthew Lucas as Brecks strengthened their promotion credentials and extended their unbeaten start.

Shakhtar Sheffield recorded only their second league win of the season with an impressive 5-1 success at Manor Hotel, while Joker claimed one of the standout cup victories of the weekend by eliminating Division Four leaders Wincobank Rovers in a thrilling 4-3 encounter. Bradley Carroll scored twice as Joker progressed.

Division Two remains headed by AFC Brush and Easel, who were inactive in league competition but safely negotiated the cup with a 2-0 victory over Ecclesfield Stocks thanks to goals from Dalton Broomhead and Gaz Podmore.

Rotherham Town Spartans continued their strong recent form with a 5-2 league victory over RUSC85 The Travellers. Kingsley Little bagged a hat-trick, while Ryan Machon and Chris Bradley were also on target as Spartans moved into the promotion picture.

Ravenfield Arms strengthened their position in the top four after defeating Woodsetts Rangers 3-2, while Treeton Terriers and Bradgate shared a six-goal thriller.

In Division Three, AFC Lounge continue to look formidable. Their perfect record remains intact after a thrilling 5-4 victory away to Aston Swallownest. Having won all six of their league fixtures, Lounge remain top and increasingly look the side to beat.

Rosegarth kept pace at the top with a 4-1 victory over Steel City Whippets. Morgan Pattison, Jason Ward and Bradley Worthy were among the scorers as Rosegarth moved level on points with the leaders, albeit having played two matches more.

United 4 Communities also remain firmly in contention after Sean Thompson's hat-trick inspired a 4-1 victory at The Club Pot.

Aston Athletic picked up another three points with a 3-0 victory over Yorkshire Wanderers, who are still searching for their first points of the campaign.

In Division Four, AFC Langold were frustrated by Horse and Jockey and had to settle for a 2-2 draw despite goals from Russell Bird and another teammate. The dropped points dent their hopes of closing the gap on leaders Wincobank Rovers.

Inter Rother collected only their second victory of the season, beating Thurcroft Juniors 2-0 and moving themselves off the bottom end of the table.

Sportsbox Stay Out In Front

MEXBOROUGH SUNDAY
Shaun Best

Swinton Sportsbox strengthened their position at the top of the Premier Division after an entertaining 6-3 victory over Swinton Ring O' Bells.

Rhys Plater led the way with a hat-trick, while Harry Emptage added two more goals and Bayley Lowe was also on target as Sportsbox maintained their early advantage at the summit. Hayden Barnett, Elliott Harrison and Fraser Hartley replied for Ring O' Bells in a game packed with attacking quality.

Denaby United remain the closest challengers after securing a 2-0 success against Groves Social. Max Moseley proved the difference between the sides, scoring both goals to keep Denaby firmly in the title picture.

In Division One, Union Jack and Sim Roomz continued to share second place after both collected three valuable points.

Sim Roomz edged out Highgate WMC 3-2 thanks to a blistering first-half display. Gage Parton struck twice and Joshua Armstrong also found the net before the break to put the hosts in command. Highgate responded through Euan Davies and Jonathan Davis after the interval, but Sim Roomz held on to claim a narrow victory.

Union Jack were more comfortable winners, seeing off Courtyard 3-0 away from home. Liam Lambert scored twice as the visitors secured another important success to remain amongst the leading pack.

Cross Keys Wath also retained a share of second place despite taking a break from league action. They progressed in the Brian Hardeman Challenge Cup with a convincing 3-0 victory over Barnburgh WMC. Bailey Winnard grabbed two of the goals, while Archie Corker completed the scoring as Cross Keys marched into the next round.

There was plenty of drama in the Fred Whitehead Trophy, where Mexborough Athletic and White Hart Wadworth served up an eight-goal thriller. The sides could not be separated after a pulsating 4-4 draw, sending the tie to penalties. White Hart Wadworth then held their nerve from the spot, claiming a 4-1 shootout victory to secure their place in the next stage.

Eckington Edge Ten-Goal Thriller to Reach Semis

BLADES SUPER DRAW

Keith Firminger

Eckington MW won a ten goal thriller 6-4 against Loca to reach the League Cup semi-finals for the first time.

Eckington took the lead in the 11th minute. Good work from Harry Marsh, who dug out a cross for Dan White to head home 1-0. Eckington got a second in the 32nd minute when Marsh was put through on goal to slot home. Dan White again nodded home from close range in the 34th minute to make it 3-0, but Loca grabbed one back in the 35th minute when Cammy Evans set up Brandon Ashmore. A minute later Loca were right back in it when a well worked free kick was eventually bundled home by Ashmore.

Eckington started the second half quickly and re-established their two goal lead when a good ball through was met with a good Aiden Horspool finish, but Loca were back in it two minutes later when a ball eventually fell 10 yards out and was rifled home by Harry Cookland.

Eckington again regained their two goal advantage in the 65th minute when Owen Ryan smashed home following a mazy run. Ethan Flower neatly flicked the ball home in the 72nd minute to make it 6-3 and although Ashmore completed his hat-trick with a penalty, there was no more goals and Eckington ran out 6-4 winners.

Holders Royal Earl faced the same Wadsley Bridge Sixers they beat in last season's final and again it was Earl that came out on top. Brandon Whitfield gave Earl the lead with a tidy finish and Connor Chapell made it 2-0 before half-time with a hotly disputed penalty. Ashley Cooper made it 3-0 straight after the break, but Danny Reet pulled one back with a brilliant lob from 30 yards. They should have reduced it further when they were awarded a penalty, but it was missed and Earl sub Scott Ruthven put the game beyond Sixers with two goals to make the final score 5-1

Stannington Village went through to their 5th consecutive semi-final with a 4-2 victory at Boynton Sports. An explosive start saw Stannington take the lead when Aemad Gadour was brought down in the area and Charlie Hobson scored from the spot. Boynton equalised soon after when Luke Walker forced a mistake and the ball fell to Joe Reilly who composed himself to smash the ball in.

Stannington regained the lead after half-time when a Niall Loughlin corner was headed home by Gadour and they extended their lead when a Niall Loughlin whipped in free kick glanced in off a defender. Jack Worrall fed Joel Purkiss who found the bottom corner from 20 yards to make it 4-1 and although a brilliant touch and finish from Luke Walker pulled one back it wasn't enough.

The fourth semi-finalist is Wickersley CC after they received a bye.

Jubilee came from two down to grab a share of the points with a 2-2 draw at Hackenthorpe. Jubilee were hoping to make it 3 wins on the spin but it couldn't have got off the worse start for them took as Hackenthorpe took the lead through a stunning 25-yard strike from Harrison Case. The home side then doubled their advantage when Aston Thompson headed a corner back across goal for Joe Lister to produce a terrific header from the penalty spot. Jubilee were still well in the game and pulled one back just before the break when Leuan Toner head home.

The second half saw both teams create and miss chances until the equaliser for Jubilee came when Alfie smith picked the ball up 25 yards out and curled a superb shot into the corner to give his side a point.

AFC Wisewood completed the double over title rivals Southey Social with a 3-2 victory to keep up the pressure on the leaders. Goals from Sam Gommersall and Oscar Liversage gave Wisewood a 2-0 lead after just ten minutes. Wisewood were well on top but failed to add to their tally and Southey were now getting back in the game.

Morgan Kelly headed home at the back post to pull one back and with Southey now on top they levelled just before half-time when Jay Slocombe turned home a Carlton Carty strike from close range. The game could have gone either way in the second half, but it went Wisewood's way when a terrific cross from Jon Pugh was met with a Lucas Hiley looping header to win the game

Crookes gained an important 4-2 win at Woodman Cotts. Sam Stacey gave Woodman a half-time lead and the points looked to be heading their way when Nathan Wood doubled their advantage soon after the break. Crookes had other ideas though and two goals in 10 minutes through Dylan Murphy and Cam Ronksley had them level. It looked as if that's how it would finish, but going into the final minute Oli McQuillin put Crookes ahead and a minute later he rounded the keeper to grab his second.

Cup Drama As Quarter-Finalists Confirmed

MEADOWHALL U18

Martin Gilmour

It was Meadowhall League Cup action this week and goals were in plentiful supply at Sandy Lane as Worksop Town Tigers emerged 5-4 winners from a thrilling Worksop derby again Worksop Yellows.

Another hat-trick from Esoosa Osahenmwinda, along with a brace from Dan Green, fired Tigers into the quarter-finals whilst James Baboolai, Tyler Davies and two from Cameron Walsh replied for the Yellows.

There was just a single goal between Abbey Lane and Staveley Miners Welfare, with Abbey Lane progressing thanks to a 1-0 victory. Archie Rodgers grabbed the all-important winner.

Dodworth Miners Welfare booked their quarter-final place with a convincing 5-0 home win over Thorncliffe Villa. Freddie Berek struck twice, while Reese Dearden, Joe Sykes and Rilen Hunt were also on target.

Sheffield FC progressed with a 6-2 victory over Worksop Town Amber. Fin McCabe and Charlie Winter both netted twice, with Sam Jordan and Archie Stothard also finding the net. James McMillan scored both goals for Amber.

It took a penalty shoot-out to separate Wombwell Town and Penistone Church Blacks after a thrilling 3-3 draw. Wombwell eventually prevailed 4-3 on penalties. Hayden Sykes scored twice and Ethan Haywood added the other for Town, while Riley Town, Stan Wood and Ronnie Wilkes were on target for Church.

Stocksbridge Park Steels cruised into the last eight with an emphatic 8-1 victory at Dinnington Town. Brody Redman scored for the hosts, while Victory Ogbebor led the way with four goals. Devon Bowskill added a brace, with Lincoln Marriott and Bailey Crapper also on the scoresheet.

Staveley Miners Welfare Blues completed the quarter-final line-up with a 6-1 win over Mexborough Rangers. Leighton Hutchinson bagged a hat-trick, Theo Hill scored twice and Alex Long also found the net. Danya Hama replied for Rangers.

Worksop Towns' Esse Osahenmwinda

Penistone Mean Business

COUNTY SENIOR

Warren Bird

The County Senior Premier Division title race is beginning to take shape and, while Dodworth MWFC and Kiveton Park remain the leading contenders, Penistone Church Reserves have forced their way firmly into the conversation.

Dodworth held onto top spot with a 4-2 victory over Denaby Main, maintaining their two-point advantage at the summit. Harry Sagar moved onto nine league goals for the season with another brace, while Matty Love and Ethan Kenny were also on target. Sam Yates scored both of Denaby's goals, but the defeat leaves them searching for the consistency that briefly lifted them into the title picture.

Kiveton Park ensured there was no change at the top with a 3-2 victory at Thorncliffe Villa. Ben Bertram was the difference, helping himself to a hat-trick to keep the pressure firmly on the leaders. Dan Ashton and Finn Taylor replied for Thorncliffe.

The side making the biggest statement of the weekend, however, were Penistone Church Reserves. Harry Hoyland produced a stunning four-goal performance as Penistone won 5-3 at Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves. Alfie Broughton added the fifth in a result that moved Penistone to within three points of the summit and underlined their growing credentials as genuine title challengers.

Wombwell Main also remain firmly in the mix after a 3-2 victory over Ecclesfield Red Rose. Owen Hardman, Jordan Good and Jhy Bowler were on target as Wombwell climbed into fourth place. For Ecclesfield, it was a first league defeat of the campaign and continued a run that has seen the early pacesetters win just twice in their last eight league matches, five of those ending in draws.

Hepworth United are another side quietly gathering momentum. Having beaten Dodworth the previous weekend, they followed up with a 4-1 success against South Elmsall United Services and sit well placed with games in hand over most of the clubs above them.

AFC Dronfield's revival continued with a 3-1 victory over Handsworth Reserves. Ross Dawson and a George Talbot double earned the points, while Ewan Buxton scored for Handsworth.

Nostell MWFC maintained their recent improvement thanks to Sam Borrie's goal in a 1-0 victory over Silkstone United.

The remaining Premier Division fixture ended level as Arnie Grayson and Callum Walton were on target in a 1-1 draw between Oughtibridge WMSC and Swinton Athletic.

In Division One, leaders Jubilee Sports saw their advantage checked after being held 2-2 at Bentley Village. Aiden Davies scored both goals for the hosts, while Daniel Reet was among the scorers for Jubilee.

Hepworth United Reserves took advantage to strengthen their grip on second place with a crushing 7-1 victory at Denaby Main Reserves.

Royston kept themselves in the promotion picture with a 3-1 success against Barnsley Town. Ashley Mills, Owen Moule and Sam Muxlow were all on target, while Joe Bambrough scored for Barnsley.

North Gawber Colliery continued their climb with a 5-1 victory at Swinton Athletic Reserves. Ben Lilley, Preston Miller, George Bedford, Luke Teece and Amir Lukwago all found the net.

Sheffield City enjoyed one of their best afternoons of the season by defeating Sheffield Union 5-0. Luke Challand, Lachlan Cook, Regan Millard, Max Smith and Sam Stringer all got on the scoresheet.

Elsewhere, Parkgate Reserves edged out Dearne & District Reserves through Jayden Roberts' goal, while Dinnington Town Reserves defeated Maltby Main Reserves 2-1 thanks to strikes from Freddie Fowler and Oliver Knott. Ashton McDool scored for Maltby.

Division Two remains every bit as competitive, with Wombwell Main Reserves continuing to set the pace.

Goals from Ethan Gornall, Tawanangoni Nyachuru, Hayden Sykes and Riley Jepson secured a 4-0 victory at Rotherham Town and preserved Wombwell's unbeaten record.

Dronfield Town Reserves lost ground after suffering a 4-2 defeat at Treeton Terriers. Harley Battison, Jack Binney and a Lewis Ford double secured the points for Treeton, while Jake Hatton and Emmanuel Rogers replied.

West End Terriers strengthened their hold on third place with a 4-1 victory over Sheffield Medics thanks to goals from Harrison Bashforth, Toby Jones, Elliott Probert and Braiden Barry.

Dodworth MWFC Reserves recorded the division's highest score of the weekend, winning 6-3 at Middlewood Rovers. Tom Smith and Atley Jackson both scored twice, while Finlay Bailey and Rodwell Murwisi completed the scoring.

Tusaale United remain firmly in touch with the leading pack after a 3-0 victory over AFC Dronfield Reserves. Mohamed Ramadan, Ishola Azeez and Amaan Aslam were all on target as Tusaale collected their fourth league win of the season.

Tumbler Hold Nerve As Herons Close In

DONCASTER SUNDAY

Chris Daines

The Doncaster & District Sunday League title races are beginning to take shape and there was another entertaining round of fixtures across all three divisions at the weekend.

In the Premier Division, leaders Edlington Tumbler continued their impressive campaign with a 4-1 victory over Horse & Groom. The win maintains Tumbler's place at the summit on 21 points from eight matches, although they continue to look nervously over their shoulder at Scawthorpe Herons, who remain six points behind with two games in hand.

Herons strengthened their credentials with a commanding 3-0 victory away at Murphys. I was another statement result from the division's only remaining side with a 100 per cent league record and means they have now won all six of their league matches, boasting the division's best goal difference at +20.

The race for third place is becoming increasingly competitive. Defending champions Temle climbed into third courtesy of a hard-fought 3-2 victory at ZK Dons. After a sluggish start to the defence of their crown, Temple have steadily worked their way back into contention and now sit on 11 points from six games.

Styrrup Rats also continued their improvement with a 3-0 success against Flying Childes. That victory lifts Rats into fifth place and leaves Childers still occupying fourth despite suffering a fifth defeat in eight league outings.

Unfortunately, I could not find any verified goalscorers from the Premier Division fixures through publicly available reports or FA Full-Time updates, so I've avoided speculation.

The Championship produced perhaps the result of the day as Innings FC travelled to promotion-chasing Carcroft Village and stormed to a remarkable 6-0 victory. Carcroft began the weekend third in the table and with one of the division's best defensive records, making the margin of victory all the more surprising.

At the top, leaders Dunscroft United picked up another valuable point with a 1-1 draw way at Auckley. The result extended their lead to two points after nearest challengers Epworth Town Colts were without a fixture. Dunscroft now have 22 points from nine matches and continue to set the pace in the promotion race.

Warren Park Red Lion strengthened their promotion challenge by edging FC Ivanhoe 3-2. he victory keeps them fourth and within touching distance of the top three.

SFC Glasshouse produced one of the division's standout performances, winning 5-3 away t FC Willaspoons in an eight-goal thriller, while Harworth Colliery MUSC climbed into the top half with a crushing 6-0 victory over AFC Mallard. .

There was also no shortage of drama at Rawcliffe United, where the home side and Edlinton FC shared eight goals in a breathless 4-4 draw. .

Division One remains one of the most competitive sections of the league, although Adwik Park Foresters continue to lead the way.

Foresters made it eight wins from nine matches by dismantling Sands United South Yorkshire 10-3. The league leaders now have 25 points and a healthy eight-point advantage over third-placed Kinsley Boys, although several challengers have games in hand.

Perhaps the most ominous threat comes from Shireoaks Welfare. Their 8-1 demolition of ensall Hawks maintained a perfect record of six wins from six league matches. Shireoaks' goal difference now stands at a remarkable +31, comfortably the best record in the division, and they remain the only side capable of matching Adwick's relentless pace if they continue to win their games in hand.

Kinsley Boys stayed unbeaten with a thrilling 7-6 victory at Langold Lakeside in the hghest-scoring match of the entire weekend. Thirteen goals were shared between the sides in a contest that swung repeatedly before Kinsley eventually emerged with all three points. The victory keeps them third with 17 points from seven matches.

AFC Murphys enjoyed a productive afternoon with a 4-2 victory over The Sportsman, whil Scawthorpe Herons Thirds and Yorkshire Grey could not be separated in a 3-3 draw.

With Edlington Tumbler looking to fend off the challenge of unbeaten Scawthorpe Heronsin the Premier Division, Dunscroft United setting the pace in the Championship and Adwick Park Foresters trying to hold off the perfect-start challenge of Shireoaks Welfare in Division One, the title races are beginning to gather real momentum as the winter months approach.

Barnsley Rally Again to Chase Top Spot

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL

Julian Barker

Barnsley Women came from behind for the second game running to record a 3-2 win at Wythenshawe in the FA Women's National League Division One Midlands.

Last Thursday's victory moved Barnsley just a point behind leaders Leafield Athletic who had suffered their first defeat of the season, 2-1 at Northampton Town the night before.

Wythenshawe went into the game with a strong home record, seven points from three games in which they had scored four each time. Olivia Dixon put them ahead, but Aaliyah Nolan levelled shortly before the interval. Rachel Dunlop restored the advantage early in the second half, but Barnsley responded strongly with Amber Sewell levelling and Milly Wortley netting the winner.

Barnsley could move top this Sunday as Leafield play Notts County who are third, on goal difference behind Barnsley.

Chesterfield are fourth after recording a 6-0 victory at Sheffield FC who remain firmly rooted to the bottom of the table. Ruby Shore 2 and Imo Fowler gave Chesterfield a 3-0 interval advantage. Three goals in quick succession by Evie Carter 2 and Jess Thompson in the last 15 minutes saw Chesterfield more than double their pre-game goals for tally of four (all 1-0 wins).

Chesterfield are close to ensuring a second successive season in the FAWNL, but Sheffield need points urgently if they are to give themselves genuine hope of avoiding relegation.

Rotherham United whose aim is to win promotion to the FAWNL had a taste of what to expect when they lost 2-0 in their delayed Women's FA Cup first round proper tie at unbeaten Leeds United who top FAWNL Division One North.

Huddersfield Town lost 2-1 at home to Middlesbrough which reduces Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA representation in the national women's cup competition to just two teams, Sheffield United who are exempt until the third round and SJR Worksop who won 3-0 in their all fifth tier tie at South Shields to book a tough home tie against Halifax who are a place below Leeds.

Toni McHamilton 2 and Reagan Hynson scored for SJR whose County Cup tie at home to Millmoor Juniors will now be played on 22nd November.

Stocksbridge Park Steels maintained their six point lead at the top of Sheffield & Hallamshire County League Division One thanks to a 3-2 home win over Rotherham United Under-23s. Gemma Harte netted twice after Jodie Shakespeare opened the scoring and it seemed a comfortable home win was assured, but Rotherham fought back with goals by Daisy Edwards and Bronte Webster, but they narrowly failed to dent the 100% home record of their hosts.

Barnsley Ladies celebrate after scoring

Barnsley Women Reserves stay second. Amy Caddick gave them the interval advantage with Zoe Laughton doubling the score before Amber Elliott netted a late goal for visitors Handsworth Reserves.

Carly Gill and Karly Salter were the Millmoor Juniors scores in their 2-1 home win over Dinnington Town for whom Laura Walsh scored. Ebony Dennis and Caitlin Bentley were the respective scorers as Frickley Athletic drew 1-1 at home to Barnsley FC Ladies.

The Division Two table has been revised after the withdrawal of Courage FC whose results have been expunged. Sheffield Wednesday Reserves had topped the table after the previous Sunday's games, but they are third, five points behind SJR Worksop Community who have maximum points from their six games after winning 5-2 at Penistone Church for whom Caitlin Sammon and Kirsty Downing were on target.

Catlin Cooper netted both for Brinsworth Whitehill, now second, following their 2-0 win at Rossington Main Reserves.

Charnock Ridgeway recorded their best score of the season, Millie Stephenson bagging a hat trick with Kerry Doman 2, Keeley Green and Georgia Skitt also on the mark in a 7-0 home victory over Kiveton Park.

Lola Peacock 2, Emily Cooper, Caylen Hawley and Ruby Lawrence were on target for Parkgate in their 5-0 victory at Dearne & District.

Doncaster Rovers Belles goalkeeper Scarlette Slater-Rowley has kept a clean sheet in each of Belles' last three games, the most important of which was last Sunday's home game against Lincoln Women. PHOTO: Julian Barker

Sheffield Wednesday Development remain top of Division Three, Summer Ingham bagging a hat trick in their 3-1 win at Brampton United whose goal came from Bobbie Tonks.

Gracie Edge and Sophie Ibberson were the scorers for Kiveton Park Reserves who stay a point behind following their 2-1 home win over Maltby Juniors for whom Maci-Jae Raynes scored.

Millie Lee netted five for Brinsworth Whitehill Development who won 7-4 with Holly Lee and Charlotte Lythall their other scorers at Dronfield Town Development. Aiyanna Flower bagged a hat trick with Olivia Brady the other home scorer for Dronfield had maximum points from their three games beforehand.

Swallownest were 7-0 home victories over Barnsley Women Under-21s, while Emily Furniss, Leilah Hansen and Selma Jouti scored for Chancet Wood in their 3-0 win at Wickersley Youth.

Courage FC Development remain a point clear at the top of Division Four after they won 5-3 at Sheffield Medics.

Brodsworth Main Development stay second, Sophie Smith with a hat trick and Lucie Smith the scorers in a 4-0 home victory over Barlborough.

Both Jo Marfleet and Steph Marsland netted twice for New Lodge who recorded their first win, 4-2 at Scawthorpe Scorpions whose goals came from Lyssa Brearley and Isabelle Hutchison.

Katie Clarke, Amelia Kamil, Katie Paton and an opponent were the Rossington FC scorers as their position as Division Five leaders was greatly enhanced by their own 4-2 win at Kinsley Ladies and Bramley Stingers suffering a six point deduction for fielding an ineligible player. Jodie Snelson was Bramley's scorer in their 1-1 draw at Treeton Terriers.

It was knock out competition time in last week's British Universities and Colleges Sport fixtures.

Sophie Hopkinson was the scorer for Hallam 1s who lost 5-1 to Liverpool 1s in the National Trophy, the highest ranked competition.

A week after losing 8-0 in a Tier 3B fixture at Durham 2s, Hallam 2s enjoyed a huge swing in fortunes when they won 12-0 at Huddersfield 2s in the Northern Conference Cup. Harriet Ward 5, Pips Waite 3, Faith Hall, Gracie King, Xana Sved and Millie Wragg were their scorers as they booked their place in the next round. Hallam 3s advanced with their 4-0 home win over Manchester 4s featuring a hat trick by Kate Thompson

University of Sheffield 2s progressed with Martha Bienvegnu and Charley Watt on target in a 2-0 win at Lancaster 2s.

Pirates End Titans Fortress

Titans v Pirates

Rotherham Titans suffered their first home defeat in more than two years as Cornish Pirates underlined their Championship credentials, while Doncaster Knights were undone by a blistering first-half spell at promotion contenders Ealing Trailfinders.

For the first time this season, the Titans found themselves on the wrong side of the result at Clifton Lane.

After dramatic home victories over Coventry, Bedford Blues and Caldy, Harvey Biljon's side were brought back down to earth by a powerful Cornish Pirates outfit who produced one of the most accomplished performances seen in South Yorkshire this season.

The final 40-21 scoreline was deserved, but Rotherham certainly played their part in an entertaining contest.

The hosts made the perfect start when Callum Bustin burst through the Pirates defence to score after 15 minutes and hand Titans an early lead.

At that stage another famous Clifton Lane afternoon looked a possibility.

However, Pirates gradually asserted control through their powerful forward pack and clinical attacking play. Arthur Relton crossed first before fly-half Arwel Robson added another as the visitors turned the game around.

The pivotal moment arrived just before half-time.

Rotherham thought they had fought their way back into the contest when they were held up over the Pirates line. Instead of levelling the scores, they watched Pirates march downfield moments later and score through Hugh Bokenham to establish a 21-7 interval advantage.

It proved a huge swing.

Pirates extended their lead shortly after the restart through Henry Palmer, although Rotherham refused to surrender. Isaac Shaw produced a superb break to create the opportunity for Zac Nearchou to score and keep the hosts in touch.

Once again Pirates had the answer.

Hooker Morgan Nelson crossed before Ben Cambriani finished smartly in the corner to reduce the deficit to 33-21 and offer a glimmer of hope heading into the closing stages.

The Titans pushed hard for a fourth try and a potentially valuable bonus point, but the Cornish defence stood firm before replacement hooker Matt Pritchard added a late sixth try to complete an impressive away victory.

Defeat ended Rotherham's lengthy home unbeaten run, but Biljon was quick to praise both the quality of the opposition and the attitude shown by his players.

"They are a powerful team, and you can see they've got a process which they stick to which is very good," he said.

"But besides all of that, I'm immensely proud of the attitude, the energy and the enthusiasm our players showed today.

"Our accuracy probably not, because there was a couple we didn't get right, but sometimes you get days where things just don't fall your way."

Biljon also highlighted the crucial moments either side of the interval.

"Just before half-time there were big moments for both teams. We were held up over the tryline and then for them from the lineout and the scrum through to their score. Those were big moments."

Although disappointed, Rotherham can still reflect on an excellent start to the campaign. Four victories from six matches leaves the newly-promoted side firmly established in the top half of the Championship standings.

Doncaster Knights also faced one of the division's heavyweights and ultimately paid the price for a devastating ten-minute spell before half-time in a 45-26 defeat at Ealing Trailfinders.

For half an hour the Knights were more than competitive.

Penaia Tagutu continued his excellent season by scoring Doncaster's opening try after Ollie Fox released the backs, while captain Telusa Veainu then produced one of the tries of the weekend.

Reading play brilliantly deep inside his own 22, Veainu intercepted and sprinted almost the full length of the field to score under the posts and level matters at 12-12.

Unfortunately for the Knights, Ealing then demonstrated exactly why they remain among the promotion favourites.

Four tries arrived in a devastating ten-minute burst as Diego Bailey crossed twice and the hosts ruthlessly punished Doncaster mistakes to open a commanding 38-12 lead.

To their credit, Dean Richards' side responded strongly after the interval.

Semesa Rokoduguni sliced through after a dominant maul had created the platform, before Zach Kerr crossed late on following another trademark one-handed offload from Rokoduguni.

The second-half performance was far more encouraging and limited further damage against one of the Championship's strongest squads, but the first-half collapse ultimately proved too much to overcome.

Elsewhere around the Championship, Worcester Warriors maintained their place at the summit with another victory and now head to Castle Park this weekend for one of Doncaster's toughest assignments of the season. Rotherham, meanwhile, have a quick turnaround as they travel to Nottingham on Friday evening looking to bounce back immediately from their setback against Pirates.

The Titans have already shown this season that they respond well to adversity, recovering from the heavy defeat at Worcester with victories over Bedford and Caldy.

The challenge now is to do it again.

For Doncaster, the visit of the defending champions represents an opportunity to make a statement, while Rotherham will look to underline once more that their excellent start to life back in the Championship is no passing phase.

Sheffield Punished By Relentless Sale Power

National League Rugby

NATIONAL LEAGUE

After the excellent win against Cambridge two weeks earlier and a weekend without a fixture, Sheffield made the short journey over the Pennines to take on Sale FC in Cheshire, fully aware of the scale of the challenge ahead.

Sheffield remained without several key players through injury but still travelled with a strong squad. Prop Kyle Smith was set to make his debut from the bench, while Sinjin Broad returned at scrum-half, allowing Elliot Fisher to move among the replacements.

Sale, a well-drilled outfit with access to players from Sale Sharks, were quickly into their stride. The hosts struck twice early on through back-row forward Jos Gilmore after five minutes and full-back Mark Dixon on 13 minutes. Scrum-half James Mitchell converted both scores to give Sale a 14-0 lead.

However, Sheffield responded impressively.

Just four minutes later, hooker Rhodri Campbell burst through the Sale midfield and made significant ground before finding fly-half Callum Posa, who raced in beneath the posts. Full-back Jack Delaney converted and reduced the deficit to 14-7.

Sheffield's recovery continued and, with 21 minutes gone, they broke through the Sale defence again. Winger Chris Hooper made the initial break down the left before offloading for back-rower Josh Kent to finish wide out on the flank. Delaney was unable to convert, but Sheffield had closed the gap to just two points at 14-12.

Sale were not to be denied for long.

On 25 minutes, centre Osian Roberts crossed for the hosts' third try and Mitchell added the conversion to extend the lead to 21-12.

Yet again Sheffield found a way back.

Following a sustained spell of pressure, Hooper crashed over close to the posts. Delaney converted and, after 33 minutes, Sheffield were firmly back in contention at 21-19.

Unfortunately for the visitors, Sale's power game began to take control once more. On 36 minutes, back-row forward Corbin Thunder crashed over and Mitchell's conversion sent the home side into the interval leading 28-19.

Despite Sheffield's efforts after the restart, Sale showed exactly why they are among the strongest sides in National One.

The hosts repeatedly put Sheffield under pressure and found ways to repel any attacking threat. While Sheffield remained competitive and created opportunities of their own, Sale's organisation and physicality gradually wore them down.

Hooker Alfie Longstaff proved particularly effective from close range, crossing three times in the second half as Sale's powerful forward unit exerted complete control. Mitchell successfully converted all three scores as the lead stretched to 49-19.

Late yellow cards for Zak Poole and Elliot Fisher did little to aid Sheffield's cause, although by that stage the result had already been decided.

The final score was perhaps a little harsh on Sheffield, who had battled their way back into contention during a competitive first half, but Sale's quality and depth ultimately proved decisive.

Sheffield now turn their attention to next Saturday's home clash with Dings Crusaders at Abbeydale Park, with a 3pm kick-off.

Elsewhere, Sheffield Tigers continued their recent revival with a third consecutive National League Two North victory, winning 31-21 away at Otley.

Having transformed their season with successive wins over Wharfedale and Chester, Tigers carried that momentum into another tough Yorkshire away day. The visitors produced another composed performance to come away from Cross Green with maximum points, scoring five tries in the process.

The victory moved Tigers further clear of the lower reaches of the table and completed a remarkable turnaround after losing five of their opening six league matches. What had looked like being a difficult campaign only a few weeks ago has suddenly taken on a much brighter complexion, with three successive wins lifting confidence throughout the squad.

With a league-free weekend now ahead, Tigers can reflect on a highly productive month which has seen them collect three victories on the bounce and move into mid-table contention.

SHEFFIELD STARS

Season of Stars

SHEFFIELD STARS

Robert Mawhood

The Sheffield Stars race season for 2026 ended on a sunny Halloween morning at the Graves track.

The combined event of the Club Individual and Round 10 of the Sheffield Grand Prix had been postponed last week due to Storm Austen. The weather and track conditions were perfect for a top day of racing. Eighteen riders lined up, with a healthy eight riders aged under 12 (indicating a bright future for Sheffield).

The qualifying races saw Pawel Idziorek in dominant form, winning four of his five races (his only defeat came at the hands of Oliver Banyard in his fourth race). Zach Athersych won three of his five races, the under 8 would finish the day with four titles.

After ten rounds of the Grand Prix series the age related winners (with the best six scores counting) were:
Open - Matt Parrott
Womens - Lacey Ackroyd
Under 17 - Oliver Banyard
Vets 35+ - Will Banyard
Under 13 - Lincoln Ackroyd
Under 10 - Stanley Russon
Under 8 - Zach Athersych

The twelve club championship races started with a race in memory of Dave Shoat, the former club volunteer would have been 80 this week. Pawel Idziorek kept up his winning streak, finishing ahead of Oliver Banyard, Niall Morton and Matt Parrott.

Zach Athersych (three) and Oliver Banyard (two) picked up multiple titles. The main prize, the Open Club Individual, provided the best race of the day. A blanket could have been thrown over the four riders for a frenetic four laps. Niall Morton chose this moment to win his first race of the day, and successfully defend the crown he won last year. Oliver Banyard finished in second, with Pawel Idziorek third and Kieran Hale fourth.

The Club championship winners were:
Open - Niall Morton
Womens - Lacey Ackroyd
Under 19 - Oliver Banyard
Under 16 - Oliver Banyard
Vets 35+ - Chris Palmer
Under 13 - Lincoln Ackroyd
Under 10 - Stanley Russon
Under 8 - Zach Athersych
Senior Clubman - Will Banyard
Dave Shoat Junior Clubman - Zach Athersych

Sheffield Women Hit Top After Seventh Unbeaten

SHEFFIELD HOCKEY CLUB

Andrew Pettigrew

Sheffield First team are currently in top spot in the Yorkshire & North East Premier Division.

They are unbeaten after seven matches after an opening 2-2 draw against Doncaster at the start of the season and since then they have won all six of the matches culminating with a 5-3 win at Lindum.

Sheffield 1s were relegated from the English National League North Conference after just one season up there. If their superb start continues the team is set up to hopefully go straight back up after just one season.

At the start of the weekend Stokesley, having played seven games, were top of the table on 19 points, Sheffield were second on 16 points having played six, and Newcastle Univ 2s were third on 13 points.

Newcastle University 2's had also played six games and were third on 16 points.

Newcastle were playing at home on Saturday and their opponents were Stokesley – the first top end clash of the season.

Newcastle won the game 3-1 and moved up to second place as Stokesley dropped down to third while Sheffield's win against Lindum moved them into top spot.

This Saturday ninth place Leeds 2 travel to Sheffield, Newcastle University 2 travel to Sheffield University Bankers and Stokesley are at home to Lindum. The top three will be looking for wins to maintain their positions.

The following week, on Saturday 14 November Stokesley travel to Sheffield, Newcastle University 2 travel to Leeds 2.

Sheffield Ladies 1s secured a 5-3 victory over Lindum in a fixture defined by dramatic fluctuations in tactical cohesion and momentum.

Beth Sanderson scorer of Sheffield's second goal

Alysha Ferreira who scored a brace in Sheffield's 5-3 win

The opening quarter proved surprisingly uninspired and unstructured, with both sides exhibiting early sluggishness, imprecise passing, and an unsettling lack of tactical control that left players and spectators alike questioning the sudden dip in standards.

That early uncertainty was swiftly erased in the second quarter as Sheffield orchestrated a devastating offensive display, netting three goals in rapid succession. Alysha F started the revival, utilising sublime stickwork to dissect Lindum's defensive line before registering a brilliant open-play finish. Beth Sanderson extended the lead shortly after unleashing a direct strike on goal to further consolidate Sheffield's advantage

Scarlott Doxley continued this goal-scoring streak launching an incisive run from the right flank and demonstrating exquisite composure to convert a one-on-one opportunity against the advancing goalkeeper.

The defensive team of proved solid throughout the quarter providing no opportunities for Lindum's front line. Sheffield's transference around the back and their calmness and composure allowed the ball to work its way up the pitch to create the goals.

The team sustained its offensive impetus into the third quarter, executing two further goals during their most dominant stretch of the match. Alysha F subsequently completed her brace with another masterclass in open-play technique, engineered in large part by the visionary playmaking of Alex Buskwood, who repeatedly exploited gaps in Lindum's structure providing assists for three goals altogether, before the side executed the tactical centerpiece of the afternoon: a meticulously rehearsed 1-2 penalty corner routine polished off with precision by an Alex Buskwood penalty corner goal.

The final quarter regressed into another chaotic, disjointed affair. As exhaustion set in and defensive discipline faltered, Lindum managed to capitalize on disjointed Sheffield, rendering the closing stages a somewhat bewildered scramble.

Nevertheless, the substantial buffer built during Sheffield's explosive second and third quarters ensured the eventual 5-3 outcome even though Lindum fought back with three goals in the fourth quarter.

Sheffield Men's 1s team started the season well despite a 3-1 defeat at home by Deeside Ramblers as this was followed by three victories: a good 4-2 win against last season's second place team, Neston; followed by 2-1 win away at Newcastle University and then a home 2-0 victory over Brooklands Manchester University 2.

The journey to Didsbury Northern on 17 October did not go as planned as Sheffield lost 2-0.

Last Saturday newly promoted Sheffield University Bankers were the visitor to Abbeydale Sports Club, a first meeting of the clubs for many years and it was a typical hard fought local derby.

In the first quarter Sheffield dominated play and Harry Faulkner gave home side the lead scoring a penalty stroke goal early in second quarter and as the quarter progressed Bankers came more into the match although their passing did leave a bit to be desired.

Into the third quarter and Bankers' began to get their act together and they started to take control. Five minutes into the third quarter Bankers' Daniel Mohammedbhai scored from their first penalty corner not only to level the scores but also to energize the visitors who began to dominate the game.

As the clock began to run down during the fourth quarter Sheffield were holding out well against Bankers' attacks. In the last minute of the game Bankers won a penalty corner and seconds after it was awarded the final whistle went.

In circumstances such as these a penalty corner is played out even though the final whistle has been blown and the game only ends either when a goal has been scored, the attacking side commits an offence, or the ball travels more than five -meters outside the 'D'.

In this game with Bankers confidence growing during the second half of the game it seemed inevitable that a goal would be scored. The corner was injected, a shot was made on goal and the ball deflected into the air close to the goal and a Bankers' player volleyed the ball into the net. End of match.

Bankers celebrated their win as a dejected Sheffield could only look on in dismay.

These things happen in sport and it never feels good when they do. Sheffield's Women's 1s have benefitted from an 'overtime' penalty corner goal and no doubt more Sheffield teams will also benefit during the season.

Sheffield drop down to sixth in the EHL Men's North Conference and they travel to Durham University 2 on Sunday 8 November before they face Division leaders Lindum on Sunday 15 November.

Sheffield's Men's 2nd team were promoted to the Yorkshire & North East Premier Division last season in a move they also made in 2023-24 after winning Division 1. In 2024-25 they were relegated from the Premier Div back to Division 1.

So far, they have lost all seven matches played with five goals scored and 30 against. It would seem that another relegation is inevitable but here comes the good news.

They have played the top seven teams and excepting an away defeat by 9th place Whitley Bay & Tynemouth they play three of the bottom four in the next three weeks: 7 November away to Durham City 1 (0pts); 14 November away to Leeds 2 (9pts); 21 November home to Durham University 4 (1pt)

Theoretically, if Sheffield 2s beat Durham City twice and Durham University 4 twice (and possibly Leeds 2 once or twice), and assuming those teams do not gain points Sheffield 2s could survive!

Sheffield Women's 2s meanwhile were high flyers last season in Division 1 although their charge was halted later on in the season.

This season the team sits in midtable on nine points from three wins and three defeats.

This season the squad includes younger players moving up from the teams below and they have shown that they are no push-overs.

The side should grow with confidence as the season progresses and while they may not challenge the top end of the division they should move up as the season progresses and the phrase 'watch this space' should well apply to next season.

Elsewhere in the club the Men's 3s who play in the Y&NE Yorkshire Division 2, a division that they seem to have occupied since before lockdown, they are at last showing promise.

The side are fourth in the table with a game in hand over Sheff Univ Bankers 3s. Sheffield are on 10 points and Bankers 3 and Leeds 4 are on 15 points. Watch this space.

Another club side doing well are Women's 5s who play in the lowly Division Peak 2 and while they may be at the bottom of the tree. they have won three and drawn two of their games to date and lost the other two. Some young players have moved to higher teams to be replaced by more younger players, and considering the team were at the bottom end of the table last season this year's team are doing really well.

Steelkings Take Bergen Bronze

SHEFFIELD STEELKINGS

Bill Hardy

Sheffield Steelkings returned from Norway with bronze medals after an encouraging third-place finish at the Bergen Rams Cup, a tournament that brought together club and international para ice hockey teams from across Europe.

The Kings faced a difficult start to the competition, opening with a 5-0 defeat against hosts Bergen Rams before coming up against strong Swedish opposition in FIFH Malmö, who recorded a 9-0 victory.

However, the Sheffield side responded impressively to bounce back in their final two matches. Their first win came in emphatic fashion as they swept aside the Norwegian Women's National Team 9-0. The fixture was made even more notable by the Steelkings icing an all-female line, highlighting the club's commitment to providing competitive opportunities for players across the sport.

That result set up a final clash with the Ukrainian Men's National Team and the Kings rounded off their weekend in style. In a closely fought contest, Sheffield produced one of their strongest performances of the tournament to secure a 3-1 victory and ensure a place on the podium.

Finishing with two wins and two defeats, the Steelkings claimed third place overall and returned to South Yorkshire with bronze medals. Against a backdrop of international opposition and a demanding schedule, the tournament provided another opportunity for the IceSheffield-based club to showcase both its growing strength on the ice and its role in helping develop para ice hockey in the UK.

THE LAST SHOT
