History & Heritage CELEBRATE THE PAST

AMERICA IS CELEBRATING ITS 250TH BIRTHDAY IN 2026!

America's semiquincentennial is in 2026, and Miami County will be joining many other communities throughout the state to celebrate the events, people and places that impacted Ohio during the American Revolutionary War and beyond. Miami County has a rich history dating back centuries. Here are just a few of the places that continue to honor those that came before us and had an impact on the growth of Miami County and beyond.

OVERFIELD TAVERN MUSEUM

1808 was a time when the small settlement of Troy, Ohio was on the great frontier. This tavern was a gathering place for social and government purposes and is now open to the public as a museum featuring a collection of late-18th to early-19th century artifacts. The two-story Federal style square-hewn log building has survived as the oldest building in Miami County and one of the oldest in Ohio and is on the National Register of Historic Places.

MIAMI VALLEY VETERANS MUSEUM

Serving a seven-county area, the five-acre Miami Valley Veterans Museum is a long-term repository for artifacts, photos, over 250 veterans' interviews in their Research/Multimedia Center and other objects of significance to veterans and their families. Museum exhibits reflect time periods from 1745 to the present day and focus on all branches of the military.

JOHNSTON FARM & INDIAN AGENCY

Johnston Farm & Indian Agency celebrates 2000 years of Ohio's rich history from prehistoric Indians to Ohio's canal era while honoring John Johnston – farmer, public official, and U.S. Indian Agent for western Ohio from 1812 to 1829. On a visit to Johnston Farm, guests will enjoy a ride on The

Johnston Farm & Indian Agency

General Harrison, a replica 70-foot-long canal boat, drawn by mules, which at one time was used to haul passengers and cargo along the Miami and Erie Canal. Costumed guides on the boat and farm provide an authentic and memorable experience back in time.

WACO LEARNING CENTER & AIR MUSEUM

The Weaver Aircraft Company (WACO) was the largest manufacturer of civil aircraft in the US in the late 1920's and early 1930's. Today, at this historic field and museum, you can take a flight in WACO's biplane, "Sunny", to see beautiful Miami County from the sky. In addition, WACO offers a wide range of learning opportunities. With a mission to educate and inspire students and adults who have a passion for flying, WACO has developed programs around science, technology, engineering and math as it relates to aviation.

Miami County is proud of its history and heritage and the people who have impacted its forward progress. These are just a few of the places to visit and learn. Over the next couple of years, Miami County, and its communities, organizations and businesses will be celebrating America 250 through telling the stories of the people and places who made a difference in Ohio and the nation. More information about America250 and Miami County initiatives can be found at <https://www.homegrowinggreat.com/america-250-in-miami-county/>. Check back often because details will be added as they become available.

PICTURE PERFECT MURALS IN MIAMI COUNTY

Miami County is home to multiple marvelous murals. From the picture perfect selfie walls to honoring the history of the area, Miami County has a variety of murals for you to explore.

Downtown Troy has some fabulous murals that make for a perfect backdrop to any photo. The mural located at Prouty Plaza, designed by artist Aka Pereyma, uses different colors and shapes that makes for a fun and funky background. The mural in the parking lot of the Troy Rec portrays a black and white image of a canal boat with downtown scenery. The newest downtown Troy mural is located in the southwest quadrant of the Square and highlights many aspects of Troy, from industry to recreation and everything in between.

On the corner of East High and North Main in downtown Piqua, you'll find a tall mural showcasing the Miami and Erie Canal as well as early settlers of Piqua. Stand on Veterans Memorial Way to get the right angle to include the entire mural in your photo. Walk a block and see the county's newest mural of the Mills Brothers. An image of the Piqua native musicians is on the side of the Park National Bank building, on the corner of Main Street and Water Street.

Grab an ice cream and take a cute photo sitting on the bench in front of the Gem City Ice Cream mural. Located on the corner of North Second and East Main in downtown Tipp City, this mural is a classic photo spot. Or walk a block down the Alleyway connecting Coldwater Café and the Tipp City Public Library to see the town's newest mural. Immerse yourself in the art as you stand for the "I" in Tipp. This mural was completed in fall of 2020 by Tipp City native Atalie Gagnet.

For those who are photo savvy and love to find new and unique spots to take the perfect pictures, Miami County has plenty of murals to choose from. Be sure to check out these backdrops for your next photo inspiration.

Downtown Tipp City

HONORING PIQUA'S MUSICAL PIONEERS

The Mills Brothers were pioneers of the African American music scene. The vocal jazz quartet was born and raised in Piqua, Ohio until they moved to New York City in the 1930s to start their music career. The Mills Brothers became the first African American singers to have their own radio show, "Four Boys and a Guitar". The group sold over 50 million copies of more than 2,000 recordings.

This mural project was started by Mainstreet Piqua, and artwork and painting was done by a Columbus artist. It was funded through donations from many organizations and personal donors, and now is proudly displayed in downtown Piqua. After many years of planning and fundraising, the mural came to life in late summer of 2024. This art work is a great way to honor the legacy of these Piqua native, musical legends. You can find the mural in downtown Piqua on the side of the Park National Bank building, on the corner of Main Street and Water Street, across from Crooked Handle Brewing Co.

Let The Adventure Begin

EXPLORE THE OUTDOORS

FIVE COMMUNITY PARKS YOU'RE SURE TO LOVE!

Miami County has two rivers weaving throughout its communities, the State Scenic Stillwater River and Ohio's first National Water Trail, the Great Miami River. Along the Great Miami River, you'll find the Great Miami Recreational Trail, part of the nation's largest paved trail network. For those who want to take in some fresh air with a walk or a picnic, attend a fun community concert, or make memories with their friends and families, Miami County has some great parks on or near these rivers with much to offer.

Completed in 2024, Lock 9 Park is a focal point of downtown Piqua. With beautiful riverfront views and green spaces, water features, and convenient access to Piqua's downtown district, Lock 9 is quickly becoming a hub of activity. The park comes alive during events and concerts at the Trevino Performance Pavilion, and don't forget to grab a bite to eat or a drink at nearby Crooked Handle Brewing Co.

Schoolhouse Park is an ongoing project that is beginning to emerge as a community gathering space in the heart of Covington. With a large playground and a brand new splashpad and pavilion, this park offers endless fun for families looking to enjoy outdoor activities. To add to the fun, there are a variety of other amenities planned for future development.

Nestled along the Great Miami River is Treasure Island Park. This long-standing park in Troy offers beautiful spaces on and off the river. Visitors to Treasure Island will have plenty of space to walk, bike, fish, picnic, and they can even spend the night in a floating tent. Concerts at the amphitheater happen throughout the warmer months, and when at Treasure Island, take time to explore the Monarch Butterfly Habitat located on the north side of the park.

Tipp City Park

On the north side of downtown is Tipp City's oldest park, City Park. Filled with tall trees, picnic tables, frisbee golf, tennis courts, a playground, the aquatic center, and the famous Tipp City Roundhouse, there is no shortage of outdoor fun here.

West Milton Municipal Park sits right on the scenic Stillwater River. A stop here promises a peaceful area to relax and to enjoy the surrounding beauty. While here, residents and visitors can rent a canoe or kayak from Barefoot Canoe, play in the large playground area, grab a friend for a round of frisbee golf, go fishing, and more.

Whether you're exploring riverfront trails, playing on the playground, or relaxing at a local concert, these community parks along the rivers offer countless opportunities to connect with nature and each other.

Explore the Outdoors.

Float Troy

REST ON THE RIVER

by Brandy Gleason

Sleep in a floating tent? For real? When I heard about this one-of-a-kind unique camping experience, I immediately said, "Sign me up!" Now just because I said, "sign me up," does not mean that I was not thinking this whole camping on the Great Miami River thing through. I mean, what does something like this entail?

A Shoal Tent is the first of its kind inflatable, floating raft with a tent topper that allows you to sleep out on the water. There are no tent poles or set-up style forms, and the tent is entirely inflatable. The material in the tent is a six-inch-high pressure flooring that is similar to a paddleboard, which now doubles as your floating bed.

Treasure Island Park in Troy, Ohio, is where you will find the Float Troy experience. You get to your tent in these amazing Smithfly rafts that are surprisingly stable. Carefully load up your gear to paddle out for your stay. As you dip your oar into the water and bring it back up, a few drops of water will come along with it. Each stroke takes you closer to the tents, which are numbered. Maneuver your raft to the door of your booked tent, and you're there. Pro-Tip: Pack light! I am not kidding.

Honestly, this was pretty spectacular! Sitting at the door of the tent with the flaps open, I could enjoy the cool dusk breezes, feel the water rushing beneath the tent, and listen to the sounds of the evening beginning to fall.

Here are a few things to bring to make your stay more entertaining and enjoyable. We brought a deck of cards to play a game before it got dark. I am a snacky kind of person, so I brought some of my favorite things to nosh and a few drinks to sip. Bring a good flashlight or a tent lamp to hang. I am getting old, so I brought some inflatable backcountry mattresses for us to sleep on.

Pro-Tip: I had a lot of people ask me about the bathroom. Well, it is a tent, so there is no bathroom. You have two options, paddle to the shore and use the bathroom located there or bring a port-a-potty.

WATER WONDERS OF MIAMI COUNTY

Discover the beautiful sights of the waterfalls here in Miami County! Whether you are on the hiking trail, taking an easy stroll, or on an adventure to check waterfalls off your list, you can find it in Miami County. Lace-up your hiking boots, grab your rain gear and check out these local water wonders.

Located within the Greenville Falls State Scenic River Area, Greenville Falls is a beautiful cascading waterfall surrounded by hiking trails, a natural arch, and plenty of history. Visitors can watch the cascades slide about 20 feet over natural rock formations into Greenville Creek and through a natural limestone arch formed by the flowing waters. The 92-acre park also includes a system of trails that allow visitors to stroll along the river and admire the natural beauty.

Charleston Falls Preserve is one of the most visited nature parks in Miami County. Home to more than 216 acres of forests and prairie lands with four miles of trails, the crown jewel of this preserve is the waterfall. Sharing the same rock strata as its namesake, Niagara Falls, the “Miniature Niagara” scales about 37 feet tall and continues into the Great Miami River. The approximate four miles of trails meander through a variety of natural habitats to explore, perfect for all skill levels.

Ludlow Falls is considered one of the best-kept secrets of Miami County. Located in the village of Ludlow Falls, Ohio, this impressive waterfall is tucked underneath a bridge heading into town. This impressive waterfall has a 15-foot drop and is about 50-60 feet deep. Springtime is considered the best time to visit the falls when the cascades are the most powerful and beautiful. These beautiful falls are made for viewing only. Accessing the Falls is as easy to reach as it is to miss, you just have to take a short trail.

If you enjoy the outdoors and exploring beautiful natural creations, you'll appreciate the opportunities that the waterfalls in Miami County provide.

TROY STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL CELEBRATES ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY IN 2026

by Candy S Collins, Compass Ohio Writer

The Troy Strawberry Festival is a much-anticipated annual event in Miami County, Ohio, attracting over 150,000 visitors yearly. This free festival celebrates community, culture, and, of course, strawberries.

Live entertainment is a festival staple, with various performances scheduled throughout the weekend. Music fills the air, creating a lively atmosphere that complements the festive mood. Arts and crafts vendors are also on hand, offering a selection of unique and handmade items that make perfect souvenirs or gifts.

Family-friendly activities ensure that there's something for everyone at the festival. There are plenty of fun and friendly competition opportunities, from the Strawberry Pie Eating Contest to the Tennis Shootout and Strawberry Classic Run. The Cruise-In is a hit with car enthusiasts, while the array of family activities keeps the little ones entertained.

Of course, the star of the show is the delicious strawberry-forward food. With over 50 food and beverage vendors spread throughout downtown Troy, visitors can indulge in various strawberry-based dishes. The festival celebrates all things strawberry, from classic favorites like strawberry donuts and shortcakes to more inventive creations. Each food vendor at the festival partners with a Miami County non-profit organization, ensuring that your indulgence supports a good cause.

For the latest information on the festival's schedule and events, visitors are encouraged to check the official website, www.troystrawberryfest.com. The Strawberry Festival in Miami County is a vibrant and welcoming event that offers something for everyone, making it a perfect way to kick off the summer season.

LIKE A LOCAL

EAT LIKE A LOCAL: FIND THE PLACES LOCALS LOVE

To truly experience a place, there's no better way than to eat like a local. In Miami County you'll find cozy family-owned diners, lively neighborhood joints, and out of the way places that serve it up right. Locals are the experts and know the hidden gems that give a city its unique flavor. Places like this have been around awhile and know how to treat their guests with a special hometown service.

There's no place quite like K's Hamburger Shop in Troy. Fresh beef burgers, fries, shakes and malts fill you with a feeling of sweet nostalgia for a time when good food was simple and served with a smile. You can sit at the counter for a unique vantage point to watch the cooks fry up the burgers and prepare your plate right in front of you.

Laura's Country Diner in Laura, is a beloved small-town spot known for its hearty, home-cooked meals and warm, welcoming atmosphere. With generous portions of classic comfort food like chicken pot pie, meatloaf, and big breakfasts, it's a place where locals gather to talk and eat good food. The diner captures the charm of rural Ohio, making every visit feel like coming home.

Locals flock to Lighthouse at the Lock in Piqua! Open only for breakfast and lunch, this cozy spot serves classic comfort food. Get there early for a hot coffee and the special of the day. Ask the wait staff about their favorite meals and enjoy.

Sam & Ethel's

#HOMEGROWN GREAT

Hungry for breakfast, lunch or dinner? Locals love Lincoln Square in Troy for excellent American style homecooked cuisine. Have a belly busting burger served with crispy fries, try some fluffy blueberry pancakes or the special of the day. If you're lucky and arrive on the right day, you might get to order the tacos made from the owners own special recipe.

Pearson House in West Milton reminds you of days eating in Grandma's kitchen. The home cooked dishes hit the spot for anyone who's hungry and feeling nostalgic. Always remember to have a slice of pie. They've served over 700,000 slices since their opening 40 years ago!

At Sam & Ethel's in downtown Tipp City, have a seat at the counter, or in one of the booths and get ready for a meal you won't soon forget! Enjoy breakfast all day or the soup of the day. It's all great food at a great cost with a staff devoted to serving you the best.

ANTIQUING ADVENTURES AWAIT IN MIAMI COUNTY

Let's go antiquing through Miami County! Antiquing is a fun way to find new things, create new projects, and add a little character to your home. It is an art form to many people as they spend hours crafting their antiquing strategies and mapping out the best plans. We rounded up a few of the most unique spots in Miami County for antiquing. Around here, we are all about preserving the past while looking forward to the future.

If you are looking for unique, chic art, and antiques, The 3 Weird Sisters Studio is for you! Centered on the square in downtown Troy, you can't miss this shop! Inside, you will find plenty of weird finds for unique minds. The shop features a collection of unusual trinkets, vintage items, handmade and local art, and clothing for men, women, and children. This unique shop also features various reimagined home and garden decor. It's a different experience every time you visit!

Midwest Memories Antiques is a vintage-inspired store, located in downtown Tipp City. With more than 100 dealers, this is the jackpot for design inspiration and unique finds! The store offers a wide variety of furniture, collectibles, and locally crafted merchandise, such as apparel, home decor items, gifts, and more. In addition to all the fantastic merchandise, visit the salvage area for reclaimed windows, doors, shutters, and hardware to add a little vintage flare to your home. Don't forget to pick up your favorite shade of Annie Sloan Chalk paint to transform your project into your own.

3 Weird Sisters

Patriot Antique Shoppe is unlike any other antique shop in Miami County. This shop specializes in 18th and 19th-century American antiques, featuring portraits, quilts, trunks, and many other unique finds you won't see anywhere else. This shop is ideal for those who love preserving history and appreciating times gone-by. Aside from the usual antique items, you might also find farming and household tools, like a candle mold, burl bowl, or a tea cupboard.

The Birch Tree is nestled in the heart of Piqua, exuding a quaint charm that complements the historic appeal of its wares. Visitors can peruse a diverse collection of antiques, ranging from vintage furniture and timeless decor pieces to unique artifacts that tell tales of yesteryears. Whether you're a seasoned collector or a casual browser, this antique haven in Piqua offers a delightful journey through the past.

Filled with primitives and vintage finds, The Mercantile is a unique antique store located in Piqua, Ohio. Here, you can find a mix of old and new items with a selection of home decor items, collector items, figurines, and so much more! The items in the shop have been sourced from local collectors, auctions, and area estate sales. As the inventory is never the same, you might find treasures like Carnival and Fenton Glass, vintage mixing bowls, cast iron cooking pieces, repurposed lighting fixtures, and antique furniture.

Specializing in vintage holiday decor, the Apple Tree Gallery is located on Main Street in historic downtown Piqua. Year-round you will find antique items to fill your home with glad tidings of the Christmas season, or the spooky chills of Halloween!

If you want something special, this is the place for you! West Milton, Ohio, boasts a hidden gem in the form of a captivating antique shop called Now & Then Antiques. This shop is a haven for vintage enthusiasts seeking unique treasures.

As you are antiquing your way through Miami County, make sure to add these stops to your itinerary. We look forward to your visit with us!
