Welcome to Solikka Health . Reimagined

Empowering Your Brand. Elevating Health.

Welcome to the Solikka family. Over the past 15 years, our founder, Ken Schilling, has navigated the high-stakes world of E-Commerce, health, and wellness to successfully build multiple 7-figure brands. His vision for Solikka was simple but transformative: to break down the traditional barriers of manufacturing, inventory, and product development, making premium brand ownership accessible to businesses of all sizes.

Driven by a Healthier Lifestyle

At our core, we are dedicated to helping people lead a healthier, more vibrant lifestyle. Whether it is through our cutting-edge supplements, premium vitamins, nourishing skin care, or our innovative hydration solutions like the HydroStick electrolyte line, our extensive product listings are carefully curated to fuel peak performance, natural wellness, and everyday vitality.

Your E-Commerce & Retail Solution

We believe that growing a business shouldn't mean compromising on quality or dealing with logistical headaches. Whether you are a small retail boutique, a large big-box store, an influencer, or a driven entrepreneur wanting to generate extra income through E-Commerce, we have a tailored solution to help you succeed:

- Extensive Product Listings: Access a vast catalog of market-ready health, wellness, and skincare products designed to meet high consumer demand.
- Private Label Options: Build a brand you can be proud of with our custom formulations and expert product selection services.
- Manufacturing Partnerships: We work exclusively with trusted, U.S.-based manufacturing partners and FDA-registered facilities to ensure industry-leading quality, safety, and compliance.
- Strategic Fulfillment & Wholesale: Enjoy seamless, reliable logistics from our warehouse directly to your customer, backed by robust wholesale distribution networks.

A Powerhouse Partnership

Growth is best achieved together. Solikka has joined forces with industry leaders to expand our capabilities even further, allowing us to source products internationally and act as a premier industry broker. Solikka, alongside 3volution Organics and TruLife, is your ultimate one-stop solution.

No matter what level of business you are at—whether you are just starting out, scaling your E-Commerce footprint, or stocking retail shelves—our combined expertise makes us a true powerhouse in the health and wellness space. We provide the products, resources, and support you need to bring your vision to life.

Let’s build something extraordinary together!

Warm regards and with gratitude,

Ken Schilling
