

Rotherham Titans produced the performance of the weekend as South Yorkshire clubs enjoyed a series of memorable victories.

Eight years after leaving the Championship, the Titans marked their return to the second tier with a stunning 38-35 comeback victory over Coventry. Looking down and out and trailing 28-12 at half-time against last season's third-placed side and play-off semi-finalists, Rotherham fought back through tries from Ben Cambriani, Jackson Barling (2), Morgan Veness and Callum Bustin (main photo) before replacement Mitchell Lacey-Babalola crashed over with two minutes remaining to complete one of the great Clifton Lane comebacks.

There was football success across the region too.

Dearne & District climbed to the top of the NCEL Premier Division after Owen Fieldsend and Jamie Austin (photo inset) fired them to a 2-1 comeback victory in their top of the table clash against previous leaders Bottesford Town.

Handsworth also came from behind to beat Worsbrough Bridge Athletic after Sam Awty's early opener, with Mitchell Dunne and Luke Mangham turning the game around for the Ambers. It was only Briggers second defeat of the season with Handsworth continuing their recent fine form taking 11 points from an unbeaten five game run.

Meanwhile, Armthorpe Welfare produced one of the shocks of the weekend by hammering high-flying Goole Town 4-1. Cole Patrick struck twice before Tom Joynt and William Mendonca completed an outstanding away win.

Morris Walks Away As Briggers Dare To Dream

Worsbrough Bridge Athletic's remarkable rise suffered a major jolt this week when manager Lee Morris resigned to take charge of NCEL Premier Division rivals Frickley Athletic.

The timing could hardly have been more dramatic. Less than 24 hours earlier, Morris had overseen a famous Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup victory over higher-ranked Stocksbridge Park Steels, with the Briggers prevailing 10-9 on penalties following a thrilling tie. It was another memorable chapter in a story that has transformed the fortunes of the Barnsley club.

When Morris arrived for his second spell in charge in September 2023, Worsbrough were preparing for another campaign in NCEL Division One. Three years on, they sit fourth in the Premier Division, having secured promotion to Step 5 for the first time in the club's history, reached a Sheffield Senior Cup Final and broken numerous club records along the way.

That progress made Wednesday's announcement all the more surprising. In confirming his departure, Worsbrough revealed Morris had resigned following an approach from another club.

The destination was soon confirmed as Frickley Athletic, who currently sit second from bottom in the same division.

For Worsbrough chairman Mark Booth, the disappointment was obvious, but so too was the gratitude. "We are disappointed that Lee and Rhys have decided to move on from the club, but that is football," Booth said. "Lee and Rhys provided the club with a record-breaking period and we will be forever grateful for what they achieved."

"Delivering promotion to the NCEL Premier Division for the first time ever in front of 1,600 fans is something people will never forget." Booth later urged supporters not to allow the managerial departure to overshadow the bigger picture.

In a lengthy statement, he described Morris and assistant Rhys Meynell as "club legends" and paid tribute to a partnership which has overseen arguably the most successful period in Worsbrough's modern history.

The chairman also praised the response from the playing squad following the news, insisting the club's ambitions remain unchanged despite the setback.

"The objectives remain the same and I know how determined the squad are to continue with their impressive start to life in Step 5," he said.

"To our supporters we need you now more than ever."

Morris struck an equally emotional tone in his farewell message. Describing his departure as a decision made with a "very heavy heart", he thanked players, supporters, volunteers and chairman Booth for their support throughout his time at the club.

He urged supporters to remember the promotion campaign, the cup final appearance and the many memorable away victories rather than focus on the manner of his departure.

"Worsbrough has become such a huge part of my life," he wrote.

"Remember the cup final. Remember those away-day wins. Remember the play-off semi-final."

"But most importantly, remember the promotion success, something we all made possible together."

Morris leaves Worsbrough with a win percentage of over 53% from over 250 games in charge, and over 71% in the past 12 months.

While the move may have surprised many outsiders, there is a strong emotional pull behind Morris' decision.

The former striker previously played for Frickley Athletic before ending his career and also managed the Blues from August 2016 until March 2017. Nearly a decade later he returns to a club with which he has long-standing ties and one which had targeted him on several occasions.

For Worsbrough, however, attention must quickly turn to the future.

Luke Smith has been placed in interim charge ahead of Friday night's home clash with Champion while the search for a permanent successor gets underway.

The challenge facing the next manager is significant. Morris leaves behind a squad sitting fourth in the NCEL Premier Division and brimming with confidence following their County Cup heroics.

But if there was one consistent message from Worsbrough's statements throughout a turbulent 24 hours, it was clear.

The manager may be leaving, but the dream remains very much alive.

Another Piece Of History Awaits

Hallam's remarkable FA Trophy journey continues on Saturday when Prescot Cables arrive at Sandygate for what promises to be one of the biggest matches of the Countrymen's season.

The visitors may be competing at the same level as Hallam, but they carry a pedigree and recent history which illustrates the size of the task facing Danny and Richard Patterson's side.

Prescot were playing in the Northern Premier League Premier Division last season before suffering relegation. Rather than struggle with life back at Step 4, they have immediately mounted a promotion challenge and arrive in Sheffield sitting second in the NPL West Division after an unbeaten start to the campaign.

Their record makes impressive reading. Eight league matches have produced five wins and three draws, while they have scored 15 goals and conceded only four. Earlier this week they hammered Lichfield City 5-0, underlining why many observers expect them to be in the promotion mix throughout the season.

That form means Hallam will start as underdogs.

It is a role that does not appear to bother the Countrymen in the slightest.

In fact, cup football has arguably brought the best out of Hallam this season.

The Countrymen have already produced one of the most successful Trophy runs in the club's history and earned huge credit for their victory over Runcorn Linnetts in the previous round.

That result carried added significance because Runcorn are themselves an established NPL West side, currently sitting in mid-table but boasting plenty of experience at the level.

Hallam's performance that afternoon convinced the management team that their side belongs on this stage.

Richard Patterson certainly felt his players deserved their success.

"I thought we were brilliant from first minute to last minute," he said.

"We've made loads of chances. We were defensively really good. We were good in midfield. We looked good out wide.

"Really proud of our lot. Again, they've worked themselves into the ground for each other."

What has impressed most about Hallam's recent Trophy displays is the balance throughout the side.

The Countrymen have looked organised defensively, energetic in midfield and threatening going forward.

The one criticism has been their failure to put games to bed when on top.

Against Runcorn, Hallam created enough opportunities to settle the contest long before penalties became necessary.

"Should have finished the game really at 1-0 to make it 2-0 or 3-0," Richard admitted.

Even so, the confidence gained from progressing appears to have had a positive effect on the squad.

Danny Patterson believes his players have grown throughout the opening months of the season.

"We knew from the start it would be a tough battle," he said.

"I think we rose to the occasion.

"I think we made a few changes and I think the lads that came in did really well."

The Hallam management team will also take encouragement from recent home performances.

Sandygate has become a much happier place in recent weeks and the Countrymen appear increasingly comfortable playing in front of their own supporters.

The atmosphere could be crucial against a Prescot side that has ambitions of quickly returning to the Premier Division.

Few clubs at Step 4 possess the resources, support and expectation that currently surround the Merseyside outfit. They arrive with the division's second-best defensive record and one of the strongest goal differences in the country at this level.

Hallam, however, have already shown they are capable of upsetting expectations.

Richard Patterson is embracing the challenge.

"It's going to be a tough game," he said.

"They're a good side. We know that.

"We're going into it as massive underdogs.

"But good, we relish that."

That mentality has served Hallam well throughout this competition.

With little external pressure and everything to gain, the Countrymen have repeatedly risen to the occasion when many have expected them to fall short.

Another victory would represent arguably the biggest result of the Patterson era and take Hallam another step further into uncharted territory.

Danny Patterson sees the game for what it is.

An opportunity. "What an opportunity," he said.

"Home game, Saturday, in front of our own fans.

"What an opportunity to go and make more history for this club."

And that is exactly what awaits.

Prescot Cables arrive as promotion contenders with recent Step 3 experience and an unbeaten league record.

Hallam arrive with belief, momentum in the competition and the backing of a Sandygate crowd that has already witnessed one piece of history this season.

Now they have the chance to create another.

Hallam Faces Battle For Future

Hallam FC's future leadership and ownership structure are set to come under the spotlight at a crucial Annual General Meeting after months of turmoil both on and off the pitch.

A detailed investigation by the Sheffield Tribune's Dan Hayes has revealed claims of financial difficulties, boardroom disagreements and a growing split among supporters over how the world's second-oldest football club should be run.

Supporters seeking change want Hallam to become a Community Benefit Society, arguing it would increase accountability and protect the club's long-term future.

Opponents fear the move could alter the historic club's identity and governance.

The debate comes at a difficult time for the Sandygate outfit, who sit bottom of the Northern Premier League East Division after a challenging start to the season.

According to the Sheffield Tribune report, rival groups are preparing for a potentially heated AGM, with the outcome likely to shape the future direction of one of Sheffield's most historic sporting institutions.

The investigation also details concerns over the club's finances after committee members reportedly loaned thousands of pounds to help keep operations running during a difficult period last season.

Current officials accept mistakes were made but insist Hallam's position has improved following a series of high-profile pre-season fixtures and ongoing efforts to stabilise the club. The AGM will decide the future.

South Yorkshire Clubs Learn FA Cup Opponents

South Yorkshire's four remaining representatives in the Women's FA Cup have all been handed home ties in the Third Round Qualifying draw, although none can afford to take progression for granted.

Barnsley welcome Mancunian Unity in what promises to be an intriguing test. The Manchester-based side have established themselves as a strong force in regional football in recent years and have become regular challengers at the top end of the North West Women's Regional League. Home advantage should make Barnsley favourites, but the visitors arrive with a reputation for being difficult opponents.

Proper. The Cumbrian side have emerged as one of the stronger clubs in the North West Women's Regional League and face a journey of more than 120 miles to South Yorkshire. The Belles' experience and pedigree in the competition will make them confident, but Workington's rise has ensured they are not a side to underestimate. Rotherham United arguably face the most eye-catching tie of the quartet after being paired with Spennymoor Town.

The County Durham club have enjoyed significant growth in recent seasons and have established themselves among the stronger sides in the North East game. Spennymoor's progress through the women's pyramid mirrors the ambition seen elsewhere within the club and they will arrive hoping to claim a notable scalp. For Rotherham, it represents an opportunity to measure themselves against another ambitious side from outside Yorkshire.

Sheffield FC Women will take on Sutton Coldfield Town at the Home of Football Stadium.

The Midlands visitors have been regular competitors in the national league system and have plenty of FA Cup experience. Sheffield, however, will be buoyed by home advantage as they look to continue a run that has already seen them negotiate two qualifying rounds.

The draw could scarcely have been kinder from a travelling perspective, with all four South Yorkshire clubs avoiding long away trips and earning the chance to progress on familiar territory. With a place in the First Round Proper at stake and £4,500 prize money awaiting the winners, there is plenty on the line when the ties take place on Sunday 4 October.

Bennett Name Takes Pride Of Place

A new trophy honouring one of Mexborough's most famous sporting families has been introduced to the Totty Cup qualifying tournaments.

The Bennett Cup will now be awarded in the Mexborough qualifying cluster, recognising the remarkable contribution of the Bennett family to football in the town and beyond.

The competition has been established to honour Walter "Cocky" Bennett, one of Mexborough's greatest footballers, who was the leading scorer in Sheffield United's First Division title-winning side of 1898 and also earned two England caps.

However, organisers opted to name the trophy the Bennett Cup rather than the Walter Bennett Cup in recognition of the family's wider sporting achievements and the lasting impact they had and renovated by local silversmith Bob Lamb.

The Bennett Cup made its debut as part of this year's Totty Cup qualifying programme, with schools from Mexborough competing for the honour alongside the opportunity to progress in the long-running primary school competition.

Organisers hope the trophy will help a new generation of young footballers learn about the area's rich sporting heritage while creating their own memories in one of South Yorkshire's most cherished schools tournaments.

With the latest qualifying events now completed, the introduction of the Bennett Cup provides a fitting new chapter for the competition and ensures the Bennett name will continue to be associated with football in Mexborough for years to come.

on football in the Dearne Valley.

The new trophy also acknowledges the contribution of Bob Bennett, the legendary Mexborough school football coach who guided school teams to Yorkshire and national success and helped develop a host of future professional players.

The idea was put forward by Daniel Garrett, who has also led efforts to restore Walter Bennett's grave in Mexborough Cemetery.

The trophy was donated by Linda Carlton of Mexborough Athletic JFC

Self Esteem To Tell Sheffield FC Story

Sheffield FC's remarkable bid to build a new future while protecting their historic past is now reaching a national audience through a new BBC podcast fronted by Yorkshire music star Self Esteem.

The world's oldest football club have announced that singer-songwriter and actor Rebecca Lucy Taylor, better known as Self Esteem, is narrating and presenting a behind-the-scenes series following the Club throughout the 2025-26 season.

The six-part series, Trouble at the Bottom: Sheffield FC, is now available on BBC Sounds, Spotify and other major podcast platforms, following life on and off the pitch as the Club attempts to navigate some of the biggest challenges in its 169-year history.

The project is particularly notable given comments made by Sheffield FC chairman Jon McClure when he helped lead the takeover of the Club earlier this year.

At the time, the Reverend and the Makers frontman was keen to distance Sheffield FC from comparisons with Wrexham and the Hollywood-backed documentary phenomenon that has transformed the Welsh club's fortunes.

"This is not Wrexham. I'm not Ryan Reynolds," McClure told BBC Radio Sheffield following the takeover.

Yet while Sheffield FC may not be chasing a Hollywood-style makeover, the new BBC series nevertheless shines a spotlight on a club whose story remains one of the most fascinating in world football.

Founded in 1857, Sheffield FC helped shape many of the laws of the modern game and remains one of only two clubs, alongside Real Madrid, to receive FIFA's Order of Merit. Despite that legacy, the Club currently operates in non-league football and continues its long-standing ambition of returning to the city from its current home in Dronfield.

The podcast follows players, staff, volunteers and supporters through a campaign described as pivotal to the Club's future.

Taylor said: "Trouble at the Bottom: Sheffield FC is an incredible and inspiring story.

"Tales of community and humanity are needed more than ever right now, and I am honoured to tell the story of Sheffield FC and those who continue to preserve its iconic legacy and protect and nurture its vital future."

The series also features BBC Radio Sheffield's Adam Oxley and Simon Thake, offering listeners unprecedented access behind the scenes at the Club.

According to the BBC, the programme explores not only events on the pitch but also wider questions surrounding Sheffield FC's future, including hopes of a return to Sheffield, ambitions for growth and the challenge of preserving a globally significant football institution in the modern game.

For McClure, who has repeatedly spoken about building something rooted in community rather than celebrity, the podcast offers a different kind of opportunity.

Rather than following the Wrexham blueprint of global exposure driven by star owners, the BBC series focuses on the people attempting to secure the future of a club that can legitimately claim to have started it all.

As Sheffield FC continue their latest chapter under McClure's leadership, their story is now available to audiences far beyond South Yorkshire, proving once again that while the Club may operate far from football's financial elite, its place in the game's history remains unique.

Briggers Show The Cup's Magic

The Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup has a habit of producing stories that league football cannot, and this week's action served up a perfect example as Worsbrough Bridge Athletic continued their remarkable rise by dumping Stocksbridge Park Steels out of the competition.

Only a few months ago, Worsbrough were celebrating promotion from NCEL Division One. Stocksbridge, by contrast, started last season at Step 3 before relegation from the Northern Premier League Premier Division. The gap between the clubs has narrowed quickly, but there was still a clear expectation that Jordan Lemon's side would have the quality to come through. Instead, Worsbrough produced the result of the round. The Steels created chances and dominated long spells of the contest but could not find a breakthrough. Worsbrough's best opportunity of the first half even required Chris Bumhira to clear off the line. When Connor Glavin headed the Briggers in front from a second-half corner, thoughts turned towards a famous upset. Stocksbridge eventually found a route back through Romario Dunne, whose superb free-kick found the top corner with 11 minutes remaining. Yet even that was only the start of the drama. A flawless shoot-out stretched all the way to the tenth round of penalties before Will Sutton's effort was saved, handing Worsbrough a memorable 10-9 victory and one of the finest county cup results in the club's recent history. While Worsbrough claimed the headline, Hallam produced the performance of the round. The Countrymen travelled to Dearne & District knowing they faced one of the county's form sides. Dearne went into the tie top of the NCEL Premier Division and had already beaten Bottesford Town, Penistone Church and Handsworth this season. Hallam, meanwhile, have found life difficult in NPL East and badly needed a confidence boost. What followed was an emphatic response. Jacob Priestnall opened the scoring midway through the first half before pressure from the visitors brought a second through an Owen Sykes own goal. Leon Howarth made it 3-0 before the break and effectively ended the contest. Jamie Austin's penalty briefly gave Dearne hope after half-time but Hallam remained in control and Howarth added a fourth from the spot in stoppage time. The result should not be viewed as a shock. Hallam are still the higher-ranked club. But winning 4-1 away to the leaders of the NCEL Premier Division represents one of their most convincing displays of the season so far. Sheffield FC also negotiated a potentially awkward tie against Maltby Main. The Club have endured an inconsistent opening to life in the United Counties League Premier Division North and could ill afford another setback. Ryan Cook ensured there was no slip-up, scoring either side of half-time to put Sheffield in command. Maltby refused to fold and Finley Gledhill's goal reduced the deficit within five minutes, creating a tense final period, but Sheffield held on to progress. It may not have been spectacular but it was exactly the sort of disciplined cup victory Vill Powell's side needed. Penistone Church quietly went about their business with a professional 3-0 success at Parkgate.

Nathan Keightley continued his impressive goalscoring form with strikes in each half before Kieran Ryan sealed victory late on. Church's league campaign has been built on consistency rather than headline-grabbing moments and this was another example of a side doing the basics well. Rossington Main earned local bragging rights with a 2-0 win at Denaby Main. After a goalless first half, Oliver Currie finally broke the deadlock before Alexander Phillipson struck three minutes later to settle the tie. Rossington FC also moved into the next round after a comfortable 3-0 victory against Doncaster Elite, Damian Wieczorek setting the tone with an early opener. Frickley Athletic recorded the biggest winning margin of the week, easing to a 5-0 victory at AFC Bentley. Joshua Dacre struck inside four minutes and Elliott Andrews added a first-half double before Luke Williams and Liam Flanagan completed the scoring after the interval. The one loose end came at Athersley Recreation where the visit of Silkstone United was abandoned after 40 minutes because of floodlight failure with the game still goalless. The tie will now be replayed next week. For all the impressive victories elsewhere, however, the enduring image of the week remains Worsbrough's players celebrating long after the final penalty had been saved. The Senior Cup has always been built on local pride, giant-killing feats and stories that linger long after the scores are forgotten. This year, the Briggers have already produced one that will take some beating.

Hello Square One, it’s not nice to be back

STOCKSBRIDGE PARK STEELS

Adam Allcroft

Stocksbridge thought they had got over their relegation hangover. They were in good form, performances were improving and they won on Wednesday night. But you occasionally have the sort of hangover that lures you into a false sense of security around 12pm before handing you a headache which feels like a knife in your head. The Steels have that headache.

It was a first ever trip to Beverley Town, a team that had risen very quickly from the local leagues into the Northern Premier League. But just because Stocksbridge knew the NPL well didn’t mean they had any advantage in a game where the Beavers were looking to continue their good form.

The Steels did look good in the first half, but chances were left to be rued once again in a sentence that has become far too common over the last year, never mind this season. Josiah Dyer should have been able to finish when a corner bounced to him at the far post. Before the half ended, he had another opportunity but that was saved, and Romario Dunne’s follow-up was blocked and the chance had gone away. But despite this, Stocksbridge weren’t able to get the all important goal.

And the second half would bring a tale that Stocksbridge have become far too acquainted with. A simple ball from a free kick for Beverley to Macauley Snelgrove and his shot deflected off two players before it beat Ben Townsend. It was a tremendously unlucky goal to concede, as if manager Jordan Lemon had spent his Friday night smashing up mirrors.

The final missed penalty in the epic shootout at Worsbrough Bridge Athletic.

That bad luck continued. It seemed certain for a goal when Leigh Overton had over committed in chasing down Tommy Marshall on the wing. The winger was able to round him and put a cross in and Tomas Poole was waiting. But Poole didn’t get power on the shot, and it was blocked on the line by a defender. It should have been level.

And the punishment would come, alongside a side helping of even more bad luck. A ball through found substitute Callum Connelly, and his burst of pace took him to the box before he finished. Stocksbridge were appealing for the offside, and later replays suggest that the appeals were not without credit. Tensions were boiling over, there was even a coming-together between several players in the aftermath of the goal.

Stocksbridge did push forward to try and get an equaliser, but it looked like they had been dealt too big a blow with that second half. Half chances came, Louie Ward sent a shot over the bar while Reece Clegg wasn’t able to keep his lob from going over the bar. But that wasn’t enough, and it was an especially frustrating defeat as it seemed like the Steels were taking steps forward, only to be pushed right back to the start. •Steels’ hopes of a Senior Cup run came to an end on Tuesday night after an extraordinary penalty shoot-out defeat at Worsbrough Bridge Athletic.

After a goalless first half, Connor Glavin put the hosts ahead midway through the second period before Romario Dunne curled home a superb free-kick 15 minutes later to force penalties.

What followed was a remarkable shoot-out, with the first 19 spot-kicks all converted. Worsbrough eventually edged in front at 10-9 before Will Sutton’s penalty was saved, sending the County Senior League side into the third round.

Steels manager Jordan Lemon was left frustrated by his side’s inability to turn their dominance into goals. He felt his team controlled the contest for long periods and created enough chances to win comfortably before switching off at a key moment.

“We completely controlled probably 95 per cent of the game and had plenty of opportunities, but we just couldn’t put the ball in the back of the net,” said Lemon. “After they got back to 1-1 we panicked when we should have shown more composure. We had chances to kill the game but didn’t take them.”

Lemon refused to blame Sutton for the shoot-out defeat, praising the quality of the penalties from both sides.

“It was a great shoot-out and you don’t see many finish 10-9. The lads on both sides took excellent penalties and it’s certainly not Will’s fault that we’re out of the cup.”

With Stocksbridge now out of all cup competitions, Lemon says the focus is firmly on league matters.

“We have to dust ourselves down and concentrate on the league now. Saturday is a must-win game for us and we’ll be setting up to make sure we’re on the front foot.”

More Than Just Compliments

HALLAM

Lucas Draft

Hallam’s week brought a familiar mixture of frustration and encouragement as the Countrymen suffered defeat in the league before bouncing back with a convincing Senior Cup victory.

For Danny and Richard Patterson, however, one comment after Saturday’s 2-0 loss at Morpeth Town perhaps summed up where Hallam currently find themselves.

“We’ve had the normal compliment come off their manager saying what a football side you are and you’re not far off,” said Richard Patterson.

“But again, we need to turn that into points.” That is the challenge facing Hallam.

Time and again this season they have earned praise for their football. Opposition managers have spoken warmly about the way they play, their organisation and their ability on the ball.

Unfortunately, compliments do not move teams up league tables.

Saturday’s trip to Morpeth provided another example.

The Countrymen travelled north looking to build on recent encouraging performances but immediately made life difficult for themselves.

Having stressed the importance of staying solid early in the game, Hallam found themselves behind inside five minutes.

“We set up to be hard to beat first half,” said Richard.

“We said don’t concede in the first five to ten minutes.

“We conceded in the first five minutes.”

The goal left the management team frustrated.

“Sloppy, rubbish goal to concede,” Patterson added.

Hallam improved as the game wore on and were more competitive after the break, only to repeat the same mistake.

Again Morpeth scored early in the half.

Jesse Omoregbee

Again Hallam found themselves chasing the game.

“We said don’t concede in the first five to ten minutes and we’ve conceded after five minutes again,” said Patterson.

“Again, not good enough defensively.”

Danny Patterson was equally honest in his assessment.

“Full credit to Morpeth,” he said.

“I thought they deserved what they got today.

“I don’t think we really did enough to warrant any sort of points.”

The Hallam joint-manager felt his team lacked some of the basics that had been evident in previous matches.

“I thought we were too passive at key moments in the game.

“Blocking shots, tracking runners, all that sort of stuff.

“I think we were a little bit missing today.”

The defeat was disappointing, particularly as Hallam had shown signs in recent weeks that things were beginning to come together.

The response on Tuesday evening therefore carried added importance.

While a trip to Dearne & District in the Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup may not grab the same attention as league fixtures or FA Trophy ties, it provided exactly what Hallam needed.

Minutes. Confidence. And goals.

The Countrymen delivered all three in a deserved 4-1 victory.

Danny Patterson was impressed with both the performance and the attitude shown by his players.

“Really good, really positive,” he said.

“You can see why they’re doing well in their league.

Hallam played with far more authority than they had at Morpeth and produced moments of real quality going forward.

The highlight came from Jacob Priestnall.

“What a goal from Jacob Priestnall,” said Patterson.

Just as pleasing for the management team was what happened after Dearne threatened to make a game of it.

Too often this season Hallam have allowed difficult moments to affect them.

This time they responded.

“Having conceded in the first ten, fifteen minutes, we could have folded,” said Danny.

“But I thought the lads showed character all the way through.”

Richard was equally pleased with the way his side controlled the second half.

“We did everything we needed to do,” he said.

“They’re very direct in everything they do and we just had to deal with that.

“I felt we dealt with it perfectly second half.”

Indeed, Hallam looked the stronger side throughout the closing stages and could easily have increased the margin of victory.

The past seven days have therefore summed up Hallam’s season in many ways.

There was frustration at Morpeth, where avoidable mistakes proved costly, but there was also a reminder at Dearne of the quality and spirit that exists within the squad.

The Countrymen are still searching for greater consistency and still need to turn encouraging performances into league points.

Yet there remains a belief from both the management team and players that they are moving in the right direction.

As Richard Patterson pointed out, Hallam are tired of hearing how good they are without seeing it reflected in results.

The next step is making sure the football, the commitment and the progress they continue to show are rewarded where it matters most.

In the league table.

•One other significant piece of news emerged from Sandygate this week with confirmation that defender Jesse Omoregbee has completed a move to National League side Boston United.

The 19-year-old has been one of Hallam’s standout performers since arriving at the club and attracted widespread interest from higher up the football pyramid following an outstanding spell under Danny and Richard Patterson.

Omoregbee was the first signing of the Patterson era, having previously worked with the pair at Retford, where they enjoyed a title-winning campaign together before making the move to Hallam.

Initially operating in a wider role, the teenager flourished after being moved into the centre of defence and quickly established himself as one of the Countrymen’s most important players.

His performances caught the eye of a number of clubs, but it is Boston United who have secured his signature and handed him the opportunity to test himself at National League level.

In a farewell message to supporters, Omoreg-bee said: “Firstly, I want to thank the club and the supporters, who have been brilliant with me and backed me from the moment I arrived.

“I’ve absolutely loved my time with all the lads and representing Hallam.

“I want to thank Danny and Rich for everything they’ve done for me. They’re two of the best people I’ve met in football. They’ve guided me, helped me become a better player and instilled a mentality in me that I didn’t know I had.

“I’ve loved every minute. Thank you.”

The Hallam management team paid a glowing tribute to the young defender.

“After playing against Jesse just once, we knew he was different and had so much raw ability at such a young age,” they said.

“We haven’t seen another 19-year-old like him at this level. He has everything and continues to improve, so at such a young age there really is no ceiling on what he can achieve.

“We’re absolutely gutted to lose him, but incredibly proud and happy to have played a part in helping him reach the level where he belongs and can push on even further.

“Good luck, Jess. Go and smash it.”

For Hallam, losing a player of Omoregbee’s quality is an obvious blow. Equally, his move to the National League is further evidence that the club continues to provide a pathway for talented young players to progress higher up the game.

Barton Giant Killers March Into Round Three

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST
Matt Jones

Barton Town’s memorable Emirates FA Cup run shows no sign of slowing down after the Swans booked their place in the Third Qualifying Round, whilst Dearne & District claimed bragging rights and top spot in the Macron NCEL Premier Division.

The Swans continued their giant-killing exploits against higher-ranked opposition, recording their fourth win in this year’s competition, seeing off Pitching in Northern Premier League side Boldmere St Michaels 3-1 at Marsh Lane. Joe Wood proved the match-winner with a brace before Grant Tait wrapped up a deserved victory deep into stoppage time as Barton progressed to the next stage of the Cup.

Back in league action, Dearne & District climbed to the summit of the Premier Division after overcoming previous leaders Bottesford Town 2-1 in Saturday’s headline clash. Henry Moore fired the visitors ahead shortly after the interval, but Dearne responded impressively through Owen Fieldsend before Jamie Austin struck the decisive goal midway through the second half to send the hosts above the Poachers.

Retford United moved into third place courtesy of a 2-1 win at Champion. Goals from Philip Watt and Alans Voskresenski put the Badgers in control before Corey Billy pulled one back late on for the hosts.

Worsbrough Bridge Athletic slipped to fourth after surrendering an early lead at Handsworth. Sam Awty scored within seconds of kickoff, but the Ambers hit back through Mitch Dunne before Luke Mangham’s late winner secured a 2-1 victory and lifted Handsworth into seventh.

Knaresborough Town complete the top five after a convincing 3-0 home success over Hor-bury Town, with Ben Gelder, Jake Turnbull and Alex Ingham all on target.

Retford FC dropped to sixth after being held to a 1-1 draw by Golcar United. Isaac Baldwin’s early goal looked set to hand the visitors victory before an Alfie Wilkinson own goal rescued a point for the hosts.

Five of the nine Premier Division fixtures ended all square. Parkgate and Rossington Main shared four goals in a 2-2 draw. Parkgate opened the scoring on 13 minutes through Alex Russell with Rossington equalising after 62 minutes through Adam Watson. The hosts regained the lead on 74 minutes when Alex Asaba struck but were pegged back again eight minutes later when Harry Wilson’s strike earned the visitors a point. Penistone Church produced a late comeback from two goals down to earn a point against Pickering Town, scoring through Kieran Ryan on 87 minutes before William Heath netted an injury time equaliser.

Keighley Town were denied what would have been a first league victory of the campaign when Oliver Norman’s penalty salvaged a 2-2 draw for Tadcaster Albion after Craig Billington and Connor Erangey had turned the game around for the hosts.

Thackley also had to settle for a point, Alfie King earning a 1-1 draw at Albion Sports after Lewis Waddington had opened the scoring for the Lions.

In Division One, Brigg Town strengthened their position at the top with a ninth league match unbeaten. Oakley Hill’s 35th-minute strike proved enough to secure a 1-0 victory at Leeds UFCA and maintain the Zebras’ three-point advantage in a game that saw Omar Sanyang dismissed for the home side.

Field Olympic climbed into second place after Kieron Batey’s goal earned a narrow win over Wakefield AFC, while Goole AFC suffered the afternoon’s biggest surprise as Armthorpe Welfare ran out emphatic 4-1 winners at the Victoria Pleasure Grounds.

Cole Patrick struck twice for Welfare before further goals from Tom Joynt and Will Mendonca completed an eye-catching success despite Callum Brooks finding the net for the Vikings.

Wombwell Town and Selby Town remain firmly in the promotion picture after both collected three points. Josh Brown and Eddie Agnew were on target as Wombwell defeated Hemsworth Miners Welfare 2-0, while Maximillian Bauer bagged a brace in Selby’s 3-1 victory at South Leeds.

LIV continued their upward momentum with a 4-1 home win over Route One Rovers to move into sixth place. James Nichols scored twice, with Jake Harman and Brodie Selman also getting on the scoresheet.

One of the most dramatic finishes of the day came at Winterton Rangers. The hosts looked set for victory after opening a two-goal lead against Ilkley Town, only for Prince Attakorah and Auzair Khan to strike in the closing stages and snatch a 2-2 draw for the visitors.

At the foot of the table, Appleby Frodingham claimed a vital 3-2 victory at fellow strugglers Immingham Town. After seeing a two-goal advantage wiped out by a Joshua Tasker double, AppFrod restored their lead through Ryan Bonser to secure three priceless points and move level on points with their opponents.

Harrogate Railway Athletic climbed above Crowle Colts after a 3-1 victory at Station View, with Alex Burton, Harry Bandeira and Sam Clothier all on target.

The only goalless encounter of the weekend came at the Chesterfield Poultry Stadium, where Club Thorne Colliery and Athersley Recreation shared the points in a 0-0 draw.

Cup Shoot-Out Drama

There was plenty of mid-week drama across the Macron Northern Counties East Football League with two JCP Construction NCEL League Cup Second Round ties requiring penalty shoot-outs, while a single goal proved enough in both the Premier Division and another cup encounter.

In the League Cup, Barton Town edged through after an extraordinary contest at Armthorpe Welfare finished level at 2-2.

Will Mendonca gave Welfare the lead on 28 minutes before Albie Collier equalised three minutes later. The hosts regained the advantage through Cole Patrick shortly after the hour mark, only for Collier to strike again in the final minute of normal time to force penalties. After a nerve-shredding shoot-out, Barton emerged 8-7 winners from the spot to book their place in the next round in front of a crowd of 142.

Horbury Town progressed with a convincing 3-1 victory over Handsworth. Luke Playford’s 38th-minute effort separated the sides at the break before Horbury took firm control after the interval. Joe Jagger doubled the advantage on 61 minutes and added a penalty five minutes later. Alfie Dodsworth pulled one back for Handsworth on 68 minutes, but Horbury comfortably saw out the win.

Selby Town also advanced, claiming a narrow 1-0 success against Hemsworth Miners Welfare. Joe Rawcliffe’s 33rd-minute goal proved decisive in front of an attendance of 213 as the Robins secured their place in the third round.

On Wednesday evening, another League Cup tie provided further penalty heartbreak. Frickley Athletic looked to be heading through after Liam Flanagan’s 39th-minute opener at Keighley Town. However, Harry Parsons struck five minutes from time to level the scores at 1-1 and send the tie to penalties. As with the previous night’s contest at Armthorpe, the shoot-out required 15 successful kicks before being settled, Frickley eventually prevailing 8-7.

In the Premier Division, Golcar United earned three valuable points with a 1-0 home victory over Albion Sports. After a goalless first half, Voldi Mbaya broke the deadlock on 77 minutes to secure the win in front of a healthy crowd of 332.

Meanwhile, in Division One, Route One Rovers and Club Thorne Colliery shared the spoils in an entertaining 2-2 draw. Scott Hutchinson put the visitors ahead after just five minutes before Bubacary Conteh Samateh equalised after 31 minutes. Jordan Buckham’s penalty on 34 minutes restored the visitors lead only for Conteh Samateh to score another leveller just four minutes later, despite a lively second half neither side could find a winner.

The week’s action leaves Horbury Town, Selby Town, Barton Town and Frickley Athletic safely into the next round of the League Cup, although the latter two needed the lottery of penalties to keep their hopes of silverware alive.

Swallownest Show They Mean Business

UNITED COUNTIES LEAGUE

Swallownest’s promotion credentials received both encouragement and examination this week as Jamie Housley’s side collected three points against one fellow play-off contender before slipping up against another.

Having worked their way into the Division One promotion picture over recent weeks, Swallownest faced a testing week against two sides expected to be in and around the top end of the table.

They passed the first examination impressively on Saturday.

George Walker continued his excellent season with a first-half double as Swallownest edged out Louth Town 3-2 in an entertaining contest at the Swall-Siro. Walker struck on 16 and 28 minutes before substitute Max Bown proved the hero with a dramatic 88th-minute winner.

It was the type of result promotion-chasing teams need to find and one which reinforced the feeling that Housley’s side belong among the leading contenders this season.

Tuesday evening proved a tougher assignment.

Staveley Miners Welfare arrived with ambitions of their own and left with all three points thanks to Ainsley Finney’s first-half strike in a 1-0 victory.

Defeat ended some of Swallownest’s recent momentum, but there is no disgrace in losing narrowly to another side expected to challenge near the summit. More importantly, Swallownest remain firmly established among the front-runners after an impressive opening to the campaign.

While Swallownest continue to look upwards, Sheffield FC were once again left wondering how they came away empty-handed.

Vill Powell’s side were beaten 3-2 at Belper United despite leading twice and producing another performance that suggested their league position does not tell the full story.

Brandon Webster put Club in front after only 15 minutes before Alex Hardwick restored the advantage in first-half stoppage time following Belper’s equaliser.

Leading 2-1 at the interval, Sheffield appeared well placed to collect a significant away victory.

Instead, the game slipped away.

Fraser Corden levelled after the break before striking again deep into stoppage time to snatch all three points for the hosts and leave Sheffield with nothing.

It continues a frustrating pattern for Powell’s side.

Time and again they have been competitive, and often the better side for long spells, but too many matches have been decided by fine margins. The encouraging aspect for Club is that much of their programme has been played away from home. As the fixture list begins to bring more home games, there will be hope that performances can finally be converted into points.

At Maltby Main, there was frustration of a different kind.

The Miners looked set to return from Stapleford Town with a valuable victory before being denied in the closing stages.

Josh McKay’s goal on 64 minutes appeared to have secured all three points for Nick Buxton’s side, only for Kameron Campbell to strike with two minutes remaining and rescue a point for the hosts.

While disappointment was the immediate reaction, the draw continued Maltby’s steady improvement and kept them moving in the right direction after a mixed start to the season.

Few teams will enjoy travelling to Stapleford this season and the point may eventually look a useful one.

For Dronfield Town, however, it was a week that underlined the scale of the challenge facing them.

Chris Millington’s side travelled to Southwell City on Saturday and held one of the division’s strongest sides for an hour before suffering a damaging collapse.

Ayleal Dill broke the deadlock from the penalty spot before adding a second six minutes later. Chris Okoye then completed a devastating twelve-minute spell that transformed a competitive game into a 3-0 defeat.

To compound matters, Callum Mawbey was sent off late on.

The challenge did not become any easier on Tuesday when unbeaten leaders Clipstone arrived at Stonelow Stadium.

The visitors demonstrated exactly why they are regarded as title favourites, racing into a three-goal lead before half-time through Oliver Monington, Eden Homer and leading scorer Drew Allwood.

Luke Bacon added a fourth after the break to preserve Clipstone’s perfect record.

Yet Millington was keen to focus on the positives.

“I thought we weren’t great first half and we were a lot better second half,” he said.

The Dronfield manager was particularly impressed by the way his players responded after the interval against what he believes is the division’s strongest side.

“They’re probably the best team we’ve played. Whoever finishes above them will win the league this year.”

Perhaps most tellingly, Millington believes recent performances show his side are moving in the right direction despite the results.

“I absolutely do think we’ve turned a corner.”

Elsewhere, the Division One table is beginning to develop a familiar look.

Clipstone remain the team everybody is chasing, while Southwell City continue to strengthen their own promotion hopes. Swallownest’s continued presence among that company is a measure of how far they have come since their early-season wobble.

For South Yorkshire’s clubs, though, the key story remains the evolution of Swallownest.

A month ago they were attempting to halt a slide down the table. Now they are measuring themselves against fellow promotion contenders and, despite Tuesday’s setback, showing they belong in the conversation.

Eckington Run Riot in Seven Goal Rout

BLADES SUPER DRAW
Keith Firminger

Wickersley CC are the early leaders and yet to drop a point after inflicting a second consecutive home defeat, 4-1, on Stannington Village. Wickersley started really well and went in front through Adam Daughtrey.

Then the teams evened each other out until Liam O'Brian latched onto a poor clearance and lashed it into the top corner to double Wickersley's lead. Stannington then had a spell of pressure through a number of free kicks and Ryan Oxley struck from 20yards in the top corner to make it 1-2. Stannington then had a goal disallowed from a long throw in.

The second half saw Wickersley start really well and a great move was finished by Daughtrey and followed by their fourth when Ben Thornton latched on to a poor defensive header and smashed the ball home. Both sides had goals disallowed after that, but Wickersley took the points home.

Wadsley Bridge Sixers also maintained their perfect record by beating a previously unbeaten Hackenthorpe 2-0. A goalless first half saw both sides have only had a couple of half chances. Sixers changed their line-up at half time and sub Danny Reet made a quick impression, scoring with a 25 yard free kick. A move from Sixers keeper and five passes later a great through ball from Reet was finished off by another sub Leo Penty to clinch the victory.

Jubilee Rangers good start came to a shuddering halt with a heavy 7-1 home defeat by Eckington MW. Eckington took the lead in the 9th minute when a long ball was sent forward for Dan White to chase down the keeper & tap home. Eckington doubled the lead in the 18th minute when a great lofted ball by Ryan Bailey found Aiden Horspool to flick over the goalkeeper.

third early in the second half when a ball into the box caused confusion and Horspool prodded home. Horspool completed his hat-trick in the 61st minute with a lovely finish into the bottom corner and it was soon five, with Dan White hitting a great strike from 35 yards into the roof of the net. Jubilee got one back with a good Alfie Smith free kick into the top corner, but Horspool grabbed his fourth of the game for Eckington in the 80th minute. The scoring was completed by White getting the second hat-trick of the day from the penalty spot.

Loca won the local derby at Mosborough Reds 2-0. Ten minutes in great play between Ollie Grady, and Michael Golland resulted in Logan Liggins firing a shot from the corner of the box in to the top corner to open the scoring. Both sides had chances after that but the rest of the first half stayed goalless. The second half was much the same with not many clear cut chances until Loca's new signing Gabe Oloko wriggled away from his man and fired into the bottom corner from 15 yards.

tory at Boynton Sports. After Jake Gamban had given Boynton an early lead, Earl reacted well and a period of pressure ended with them gaining a penalty, tucked away by Connor Chapell. Ethan Hobson then put Earl in front with a header and although Boynton equalised with a second for Gamban, Jake Squires put Earl back in front just before half time.

After the break Ashley Cooper increased Earl's lead with a long range effort, but Jack Bennett pulled one back for Boynton. That was as close as Boynton got though as Joe Turner netted Earl's fifth and Chapell netted his second penalty before Johnno Williams netted Earl's seventh with a 50 yard lob over the keeper. Will Sammons netted a fourth for Boynton, but Earl saw the rest of the game out without further damage to their lead.

The only Division 1 game saw Queens Head and Woodman Cotts both get their first points of the season by drawing 2-2 with each other. Very early on a sloppy pass allowed Kian Scott to intercept the ball and bury a shot into the bottom corner to give Woodman the lead. Queens hit back strongly and finally got an equaliser when Llyod Askwith scored from the edge of the area.

Second half it started evenly but Queens began to create chances and took the lead with a great strike from Harrison Marvin. Soon after, Woodman Cotts equalised with a pin point volley from Nathan Wood from the corner of the box into the top right corner. Queens were then reduced to ten men when keeper Zak Wild saw red for a foul outside his area, but the 10 men held on to take a share of the points.

The Sportsman smashed Barnsley Sports Academy 11-1 to go through to Round 2. Joshua Booth opened the scoring, but Barnsley levelled with a penalty, but after that it was one-way traffic. Nicky Owen got Sportsman's second and Dan Beech their third. Booth completed his hat-trick before half time, and after the break Sam Read got the sixth. Oliver Parfitt got the 7th and 8th, before sub Joe Kirkham hit a quick-fire hat trick after coming on with around half hour to go. Joining them in Round 2 is AFC Wisewood after a good 5-1 win at The Lounge Rye-croft. Jake Bradford and Sam Gommersall both scored twice to put Wisewood in charge. The Lounge pulled one back with a brilliant free kick into the top corner, but Charles Sherratt netted Wisewood's fifth in the second half to make sure.

Crookes are also in Round 2 after a 3-1 home victory over Warren Park Rangers Red Lion. Ben Smith tapped the ball in at back post in his first start to give Crookes the lead, before two Dylan Murphy long throws allowed Max Howard to add two more. The visitors pulled one back with a free kick on edge of the area, but Crookes saw the second half out well to go through.

Burngreave Stretch Lead as Cup Chaos Erupts

CENTRAL MIDLANDS ALLIANCE

With the Buckingham Insurance League Cup taking centre stage, league action was scarce this week, with just three fixtures played in the Camper UK Premier North Division.

A closer than expected scoreline at Rossington Main saw Burngreave United go four points clear at the top of the table, their margin of victory just a single goal, Curtis Morrison and Abdulrahman Asad giving them a 2-1 win.

Staveley Reserves moved up to second with a comfortable 5-0 defeat of Ollerton Town. The game reached the 38th minute goalless, but any hope the visitors harboured of going into the second half on level terms were torpedoed as Staveley hit them three times in as many minutes, Josh Nicholls' opener swiftly followed by goals from Alex Coates and Charlie Bingham. There was no way back for Ollerton, further goals from Coates 55 minutes and James Millar (75) rounding off the scoring. Teversal and Glapwell whose last outings had markedly different outcomes took a point apiece from a 2-2 draw. Teversal inflicted the first defeat of the season on Dinnington Town last time out while Glapwell gave AFC Phoenix their first win of the current campaign. Glapwell it was who struck first, Dylan Thornley striking after 12 minutes.

Teversal finally drew level through Jordan Jones in first half stoppage time before going in front after 54 minutes, Tom Suter with the goal, only for Thornley to cancel it out two minutes later to claim a share of the points.

The only Premier South game resulted in a 4-1 win for Holbrook Sports against Derby Gazers. The only goal of the first half came from a 38th minute penalty converted by Dylan Muir, the excitement coming in the last quarter of an hour. William Barnes increased the lead for Sports in the 77th minute, Joe Burkinshaw made it three on 80, Nathan Bennett adding to the total two minutes from time. Gazers did however have the last word, Matthew Thom finally getting them onto the scoresheet in stoppage time.

This season's Buckingham Insurance League Cup got underway, with the opening ten ties finishing overwhelmingly in favour of the home sides, eight of them going into round two with an aggregate of 36 goals to 8. Rather ironically the team who scored three of the eight finished on the losing side, Wirksworth Ivanhoe edging out Derby Singh Brothers 4-3.

Ewan Sutherill scored twice for Ivanhoe, Lewis Highton and Lucas Brough with one apiece, Singhs falling just short despite goals from Bryn Beresford, Ben Watkis and Harry Atwal. Most of the other scores were more decisive. Dinnington Town recovered from the shock of successive defeats with a 6-0 win over newcomers Dunscroft United. Ali Elkossi took just nine minutes to put the hosts in front, Gavin Allott doubling the lead with 33 played.

Logan Terry added to the total three minutes later to leave the outcome in little doubt. Jordan Turner's double, the first on the hour followed by another ten minutes later and one for Nathan Bennett saw the holders take the first step in their quest to retain it.

Having lost at home to Cromford & Wirksworth Town last Saturday, Holbrook St Michaels were given the opportunity for instant revenge which they took with both hands, running in six goals without reply. Rich Hanslow led the way with a hat trick, with Dan Kellogg and Steve Mallinder also finding the net, an own goal completing the half dozen.

Bakewell Town have not been able to build on a promising start to the season, they also conceded six on their visit to Gresley Rovers.

Ethan Watson hit a hat trick, Finn Cooper added two, Stevie Savage also among the goal-scorers. Bakewell did manage one in reply, Bailey Mathoon preventing the whitewash.

Long Bennington travelled up the A1 to Harworth, the 5-0 scoreline a reasonably respectable outcome. Adam Morrison's 16th minute opener was followed by one from Daniel Boulton with 35 on the clock, the same pair scoring again midway through the second half with Josh Miernik completing the job ten minutes from time. Another journey along the A1 took RHP Sports to Brodsworth Main who dominated the first half, Callum Stockton taking advantage of a defensive error on 8 minutes and again three minutes from the interval.

The visitors came into their own for a while in the early stages of the second half but couldn't convert it into goals. As the hosts regained the initiative further goals looked likely but it took Callum Verhees to the 88th minute before obliging with a well struck shot which went in off the post followed by an unfortunate own goal four minutes into added time making the final score 4-0. Borrowash, Victoria progressed to the second round, with a 2-0 win over Mickleover RBL, Oscar Supple and Juste Locko Nguete the scorers while Kyle Wesley and Logan Liggins eased SJR Worksop to a 2-1 win over Evo.

The final two games bucked the trend with the away sides successful. Beaten finalists Graham Street Prims went out in the opening round, Melbourne Dynamo's Jack Goodband converting a penalty on the stroke of half time. Worksop Town Reserves were pushed all the way by G3A, before going through 2-1. Dave Galinski gave the Tigers a 28th minute lead, Yahir Barros doubling the lead with 44 minutes played. Worksop struggled against a talented young team in the second half who had just a Tyler Dunn penalty to show for their efforts.

Barnsley Sides Serve Up Trophy Cheer

BARN斯LEY SUNDAY
Shaun Best

The Sheffield & Hallamshire Sunday Trophy took centre stage at the weekend, with several positive results for sides in the Barnsley district.

Darton Tap posted a comfortable 6-1 victory at home to Highgate WMC. Cian Everard and Max Curry set the hosts on their way before an unfortunate own goal gave Darton a three-goal cushion at the break. Jonathan Davis pulled a goal back for Highgate at the start of the second half, but three substitutes, Harrison Hayes, Tom Hallsworth and Jude Foster, all struck late on to hand the Tap a big victory.

Two goals apiece from Harry Burton and Josh Glover, alongside strikes from Jensen O'Connor and William Silcock, ensured Queens Head Hoyland registered the same 6-1 scoreline in their tie against Sherwood Rangers.

Three first-half goals, including a double from Zack Bond and a Devin McCartney strike, saw Cobcar A over the line with a 3-2 win away at Hope Valley Tap.

A Charlie Redfern hat-trick, plus goals from Joseph Griggs and Jake Scargill, gave AFC Pogmoor B a 5-2 win at FC Willaspoons.

New Lodge WMC put in a commanding performance to see off Worsbrough Common 4-1. Alex Corbin, Karl Thomas, Dale Whitaker and an own goal did the damage for the Lodge.

Similarly, a strong showing from Silkstone led to a 5-1 win over Murphy's AFC. Lewis Gillott helped himself to two goals, while Travis Harrison, Callum Robson-Allott and Lewis Devennie also found the net.

Owen Evans and Kristian Wroe handed Hoyland a 2-1 victory away at 10-man Chaucer Athletic, while Sun Inn recorded a 3-1 win at Smithies thanks to goals from Thomas Hobson and a James Reay brace.

Tyler Arnold and Alex Miller gave The New Bank a 2-0 victory over Norton Oaks Second, while Hoyland Common Falcons emerged 3-2 victors at Union Jack after goals from Jack Osborne, Steven Watson and Charlie Fannan.

Connor Housley and Dayle Jones steered The Ship Inn to a 2-1 victory at Wombwell Town.

In the Hospital Cup, Kian Oakley, Connor Ellis and a Callum Walton double gave The Cottage a 4-3 victory at Barnsley Town.

Meanwhile, Caulfield Birdwell Rovers went top of the Premier Division after a 2-0 victory at AFC Pogmoor. Danny Joynes capitalised on a mistake at the back to open the scoring before Jordan Good's second-half free-kick secured all three points for Rovers.

Herons Continue Perfect Start

DONCASTER SUNDAY

Chris Daines

County cup commitments meant a reduced programme in the Doncaster & District Sunday League, but the nine matches that did take place still provided plenty of goals and talking points.

The Premier Division headline act saw early leaders Scawthorpe Herons strengthen their credentials with an impressive 3-1 victory over reigning champions Temple. Having already beaten Edlington Tumbler on the opening day, Herons have made an excellent start and now look the side everyone else has to chase.

Edlington Tumbler also continued their promising opening to the campaign with a convincing 4-1 win over FC Pollington. Shay Evans-Booth proved the difference, helping himself to a brace as Tumbler collected another three points. Nat Baz and Dom were also on the scoresheet for the Edlington side as they followed up last week's six-goal haul with another strong attacking display.

There was no shortage of entertainment at Styrrup, where Premier Division new boys Horse & Groom and Styrrup

Rats shared eight goals in a dramatic 4-4 draw. Neither side could find a winner in a contest that swung from end to end, but both demonstrated why they should be capable of holding their own in the top flight.

Flying Childers made it two wins from three outings with a comfortable 4-1 success away to fellow promoted side ZK Dons. The result keeps Childers firmly in the early promotion picture while ZK Dons continue their search for a first Premier Division victory.

In the Championship, Dunscroft United picked up an excellent away result, defeating FC Ivanhoe 4-1. After a mixed start to the season, Dunscroft will hope the victory can provide a platform for a sustained run up the table.

Epworth Town Colts bounced back in style with a 4-1 victory at Rawcliffe United. Having suffered defeat on the opening weekend, Colts responded emphatically and will be encouraged by such a commanding display on their travels.

Division One continues to look highly competitive, although two of the pre-season favourites maintained their strong starts.

Kinsley Boys produced one of the performances of the weekend, seeing off newly formed Sands United South Yorkshire 7-2. The result underlines why many expect Kinsley to challenge for the championship and promotion come the end of the season.

Adwick Park Foresters also kept their momentum going, although they made life difficult for themselves. Foresters raced into a commanding 4-0 lead against Yorkshire Grey and looked home and dry before an astonishing fightback almost turned the game on its head. Yorkshire Grey scored three times to set up a nervous finish, but Adwick held on to secure a dramatic 4-3 victory and preserve their perfect record.

The division's only draw came between Balby FC and Langold Lakeside. Chances were few and far between in a hard-fought encounter that ended goalless, with both sides settling for a point.

With several sides already beginning to separate themselves from the pack, the early weeks of the season are starting to provide clues about where the title races may be headed. Scawthorpe Herons, Edlington Tumbler, Kinsley Boys and Adwick Park Foresters have all made eye-catching starts and will be hoping to maintain their momentum as the campaign gathers pace.

Another Twist At The Top

COUNTY SENIOR

Warren Bird

The County Senior Premier Division title race took another dramatic turn this weekend as Dodworth MWFC became the third different leader in as many weeks, underlining just how open the early stages of the season have become.

Ecclesfield Red Rose arrived at the weekend top of the table after taking over from Kiveton Park seven days earlier. Before that it had been Kiveton setting the pace after their remarkable rise from last season's 12th-placed finish. Now it is Dodworth's turn after a statement 4-2 victory over Kiveton in the weekend's headline fixture.

Richard Blackburn, Ewan Dale, Jack Goodall and Brandan Gusdal were all on target as Dodworth leapfrogged both Kiveton and Ecclesfield to move onto 13 points. Having already beaten Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves earlier in the campaign, Dodworth have quietly built one of the most consistent starts in the division and now find themselves setting the pace.

Kiveton's defeat leaves them still firmly in contention, but after leading the table just a fortnight ago they have now suffered successive defeats for the first time this season. Connor Branton and Ishmael Lammy were on target, but the side that had been one of the division's surprise packages suddenly has rivals gathering around them.

Ecclesfield may have surrendered top spot but they remain the only unbeaten side in the division after a 2-2 draw at Hepworth United.

The promoted champions have adapted superbly to Premier Division football and continue to show remarkable resilience. Joe Harris and Malachi Smith gave Ecclesfield the platform for another win before Sam Thompson and Louis Wilkey rescued a point for Hepworth, who are quietly putting together a strong campaign of their own. While others around them have stumbled, Ecclesfield are still yet to lose and remain only a point off the summit.

Perhaps the side gathering the most momentum outside the top three is Denaby Main.

After taking just one point from their opening two matches, Denaby have now won three of their last four league games. Josh Epton scored both goals in a 2-1 victory over Oughtibridge WMSC as the former mid-table side moved level on points with Kiveton and firmly into the promotion conversation.

Wombwell Main continued their steady improvement with the biggest win of the weekend.

Only a few weeks ago they were searching for a first victory. Now they are unbeaten in three league matches after a 6-0 demolition of Handsworth Reserves. Kieran Hirst scored twice, while Ryan Wingrove, Zack Bond, Kieran Bradley and Lewis Easterbrook also found the net. Wingrove's recent scoring run has coincided with Wombwell's climb away from the lower reaches.

Swinton Athletic followed up last week's victory with another strong result, defeating South Elmsall United Services 4-2. South Elmsall's opening-day win had briefly put them at the top of the table, but they have since slipped into the bottom half as the season has developed.

Penistone Church Reserves remain difficult to beat and moved onto nine points with a 2-0 victory over Silkstone United through goals from Alfie Broughton and Callum Lee.

Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves picked up only their second win of the campaign with a 4-0 success over AFC Dronfield. Alex Cormack, Favour Ogbebor, Layton Senior and Callum Pearce supplied the goals. Stocksbridge may not be eligible for promotion, but their results are likely to have a significant bearing on the title race as the season unfolds.

AFC Dronfield's difficult return continues. Defeat leaves them still searching for a first victory and stranded at the foot of the table.

In Division One, relegated Jubilee Sports are beginning to look exactly what many expected before a ball was kicked, genuine promotion contenders.

A 5-1 victory over Barnsley Town carried Jubilee to the summit. Daniel Barnsley struck a hat-trick while Josef Turner and Theo Wilson also got on the scoresheet. After dropping out of the Premier Division last season, Jubilee's response has been impressive.

Royston surrendered top spot after being held to a goalless draw by Parkgate Reserves, although they remain firmly in the hunt.

Denaby Main Development's unbeaten start continued with a 1-1 draw against Swinton Athletic Reserves and they sit ominously placed with games in hand on all of the teams above them. Having won Division Two last season, they are already showing signs they could challenge for back-to-back promotions.

Dearne & District Development strengthened their own claims with a 5-2 victory over Dinnington Town Reserves, while North Gawber Colliery defeated Barnsley Town 3-1 through goals from George Bedford, Carey Welford and Miguel Bond-Smith.

Bentley Village claimed their first victory of the season with a 3-0 success over Sheffield Union, Aiden Davies scoring twice.

Division Two is developing an intriguing story of its own.

Wombwell Main Development continued their perfect start with a fourth successive victory, defeating Sheffield Medics 6-2. Ryan Halls-worth's hat-trick helped move last season's fifth-placed side onto 12 points from 12.

Tusaale United remain their closest challengers after hammering West End Terriers 7-1, while Dronfield Town Development moved level on points with them after a comfortable victory over Youdan FC.

AFC Dronfield Reserves made it back-to-back wins with a 6-1 success against Wombwell Town Reserves. Dylan Justice grabbed a hat-trick while Lewis Talbot added two more.

There was disappointment for Rotherham Town in the County Cup, where goals from Marley Edwards and Fraser Kilian earned a 2-2 draw against Hollingwood Old Boys before the visitors progressed 5-4 on penalties.

Six weeks into the season and the County Senior Premier Division remains impossible to call. South Elmsall, Kiveton Park, Ecclesfield Red Rose and now Dodworth MWFC have all enjoyed spells at or near the top. The only certainty so far is that every time one club appears ready to take control, another contender emerges to keep the race alive.

Brinsworth Set Early Pace

ROTHERHAM
SUNDAY
Mark Pilley

The goals continued to flow across the Rotherham & District Sunday League as the early-season picture started to take shape, with several sides already beginning to establish themselves as genuine title contenders.

In the Premier Division, Brinsworth DC moved clear at the summit after a ruthless 7-0 victory over Thurcroft Hub. Alex Bartholomew, Harley Battison and Lewis Ford were all on target, while Jacob Samuel Froggatt and Corey Goodwin both struck twice as Brinsworth maintained their perfect start to the campaign. Close behind are Deer Park Tap, who continued their impressive start following promotion. Connor Sanderson and Jamie Purkiss found the net in a 2-0 win at Jack in Box to leave Deer Park unbeaten with seven points from their opening three matches. Defending champions The Gate Inn remain ominously placed with a 100 per cent record after comfortably beating AFC Trades Rawmarsh 5-0. Jayden Blackwood, Jordan Pilling, Oliver Salkeld, Steven Taylor and Dainton Armitidge were all on target as the champions made it two wins from two and moved into third place with games in hand on their nearest rivals. Thorpe Hesley Village secured their first victory of the season thanks to McCaullie O'Connor's goal in a 1-0 success at Butchers Arms, while Whiston and Clubhouse shared the spoils in a 1-1 draw. The Championship is developing into a fascinating battle, with Milldam and Darnall Urban both maintaining perfect starts. Milldam made it three wins from three by edging past Sheffield Spartans 3-2. Josh

Brunt, Charlie Crapper and Kenan Rhodes scored the goals which kept Milldam top on goal difference. Darnall Urban remain level on points after a third successive victory. Otis Junior Pyke scored twice as they defeated Maltby Main Haynook 3-2 in another entertaining contest. Brinsworth Whitehill JFC Men's continued their recovery from an opening-day defeat by securing a second consecutive victory, beating Ecclesfield Blues 3-2 to climb into third place. The standout individual display of the weekend came from Swinton Athletic's Joel Sorby, who scored five goals in an emphatic 11-2 victory over AFC Yorkshire Terrier. Jamie Organ was also among the goals as Swinton recorded the division's biggest win of the day. AFC Maltby picked up their first win of the season, defeating Handsworth Inn 3-1 through goals from Ashley Brook, Cory Eagle and Dylan Sommerville. Division One already has a clear frontrunner. The Little Mester made it three wins from three with a 4-2 success at Joker and have remarkably scored 20 goals in their opening three fixtures. Corey Walker, Elliott Barnard, Brody Parker and Joshua Shepherd were all on target as they opened a two-point lead at the top. Bighton Magpies sit second after recording a comfortable 3-0 victory over The Colin. Jack Charlesworth, Stefan Hadfield and Ethan Hussain all found the net as Magpies remained unbeaten. In Division Two, AFC Brush and Easel continue to be the division's story. After recovering from an opening-day heavy defeat, they have now won three straight matches and top the table with a remarkable goal difference of plus 18. Logan Day, Callum Mounsey, Liam Sykes, Richard Williams and Sean Thompson were on the scoresheet in a 6-2 victory at Woodsetts Rangers. Wickersley AFC strengthened their promotion credentials with a 2-0 win over Ravenfield Arms thanks to a Jay White double, while Middlewood Rovers collected their first points of the campaign by defeating AFC Sheffield 5-1. Division Three remains tightly packed but Rosegarth's 5-1 victory over The Club Pot moved them into the leading group. Jamie Ward struck a hat-trick, with Jason Ward and Louie George Wesley adding the others. Aston Swallownest enjoyed a dream start to their campaign, beating Ecclesfield Stocks 4-0 through goals from Stephen Davis, G-Prince Prescott, Craig Ridge and Owen Stephenson. Aston Athletic and Brinsworth FC shared eight goals in a dramatic 4-4 draw, while United 4 Communities claimed an emphatic 6-0 win over Yorkshire Wanderers. At the top of Division Three, AFC Lounge, Rosegarth, Marquis and Ecclesfield Stocks are all separated by little after strong starts to the season. Division Four continues to belong to AFC Langold. They made it three wins from three after edging out Thurcroft Juniors 5-4 in a thriller. Oliver Billau bagged a hat-trick, with Tyler Moore and Jordan Platt also on target as Langold maintained their place at the summit. Brampton United sit second after a comfortable 4-0 success at Rawmarsh, while Sheppey picked up their first win of the season by beating Wickersley THS 3-1. With the campaign beginning to settle into shape, Brinsworth DC, Milldam, Darnall Urban, The Little Mester, AFC Brush and Easel and AFC Langold have all laid down early markers in their respective title races.

Steels, Gawber, Wombwell Lead Weekend Goal Frenzy

MEADOWHALL U18

Stocksbridge Park Steels came away with a fine 4-2 away win from Sheffield FC. Shilo Odilo, Eric Abija, Lincoln Marriott and Fin Davies with the Stocksbridge goals, 2 assists each for Lincoln Marriott and Vincent Hillman.

Sheffield replied through Fin McCabe and Archie Fletcher. A very tight game between Abbey Lane and Staveley Miners Welfare Blues saw the away team come away with a 2-1 win. Goalless at half time, second half goals from Jack Lenton and Noah Waller for Blues, with Abbey Lane replying through Connor Banton assisted by Joe Bindanda.

Handsworth FC had a comfortable 8-0 home win against Worksop Town Yellows. Reuben Burkinshaw with a four goal haul, Archie Stothard with two, Jenson Marsh and Zain Rahaq were the scorers for Handsworth. Plenty of goals around this weekend in Division One. North Gawber Colliery had a comfortable 6-1 away win at Din-nington Town. A hat trick for Eromosele Ovienloba, 1 each for Callum Bird, Oliver Jepson and Charlie Richardson for Gawber, with Harry Parker replying for Dinnington. A close game at Thorncliffe Villa saw the home team run out 4-3 winners against Mexborough Rangers. Lennon Sheehan, Emmanuel Nyakutira, Henry Sykes and Alfie

Whitfield for the home team. Rangers replied through Rohan Moncuit, Dylan Gooder and Theo Cookson. A very tight game at Worksop Town saw Ambers draw 1-1 with Penistone Church Whites. James McMillan for the home team and an own goal giving Penistone a share of the spoils. Plenty of goals for Wombwell Town who beat Worksop Town FC Tigers 10-1 at home. Owen Hardman with two, William Squire with two, Sam Guest, Ethan Gornall, Caylan Dearden, Jayden Luty, Hayden Sykes and Adam West for Wombwell Town for whom Ethan Gornall was the man of the match. Worksop replied through Charlie Green assisted by Josh Sprigg.

Cup Shocks, Big Wins Light Up Women's Weekend

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL

Julian Barker

Following their relegation from the FA Women's National League at the end of last season Doncaster Rovers Belles were making their earliest start in the Women's FA Cup this century.

The second round qualifying draw paired them away to Brodsworth Main whose ground Belles had used for their home games in the early 2000s.

The all-Doncaster tie, which attracted a crowd of 394, presented the proverbial banana skin for Belles who went ahead through a fine strike by Natalie Banaszczyk after 13 minutes. Brodsworth defended well enough to not be unduly troubled for the rest of the first half which ended with them enjoying several minutes of pressure which included the equaliser by Laura Ferguson.

The second half was just five minutes old when Lori Hudson, some 40 yards out, punished a poor clearance and the ball crossed the line just inside Scarlett Slater-Rowley's top right corner to give Brodsworth a 2-1 lead.

Was the competition about to produce one of its biggest ever shocks? Hudson was just wide with another effort from range and then Ferguson was fractionally wide as Brodsworth pressed strongly. Had either managed to put Brodsworth 3-1 up, then it would probably have been game over. Belles steadied and goals by Natalie Shaw and then Bradie Wild saw them forge a 3-2 lead with just under 20 minutes to play.

Belles cup record in recent seasons has been wretched and a far cry from the 1980s and 1990s when they were the team to beat. Under Lee Mitchell, who assumed the managerial reins in the summer, they have shown they are a tougher nut to crack than was the case all too often during their two most recent seasons in the FAWNL.

The result apart, the day belonged to County League Brodsworth who play two tiers below Belles and failed to win for the first time since January. Belles have been paired at home to Workington Town, who boast a 100% record in all their games this season, in another banana skin of a tie.

Tier six YP Women caused an upset as they defeated tier five Gainsborough Trinity 8-0 in a tie between two East Midlands Regional League teams. Heidi O'Reilly 2, Charlotte Bennehan, Talia Brammah, Evie Carr, Ayanna Davidson, Maisie Everitt and Macie White were on target for YP who have been paired away to another East Midlands Premier Division outfit in Lincoln Women who will provide a much sterner test in the next round.

Handsworth bowed out, losing 2-1 at Leeds Modernians. Ruby Coleman-Burns was Dronfield Town's scorer in their 4-1 exit away to SJR Worksop.

Rotherham United booked their place in the next round thanks to a 6-0 victory at Lower Hopton. Lauryn Wilcock gave them the lead and Hannah McWilliams doubled the advantage from a penalty for a 2-0 interval lead. Both netted again in the second half when Erren Davies and Gracie Lucas also scored.

One of the stated targets for Rotherham was to reach this season's first round proper and the third round qualifying draw has been relatively kindly paring them at home to Spennymoor Town with whom they drew 2-2 in the League two Sundays ago.

Barnsley Women have a home tie against Mancunian Unity who prevailed on penalties when the teams were paired at the same stage a year ago. Sheffield FC have home advantage against Sutton Coldfield Town.

Meanwhile, Barnsley enjoyed a good day in their push for FAWNL Division One Midlands title. They were 3-0 home winners over Sutton Coldfield as they climbed two places to second in the table where they now trail leaders Leafield Athletic by a single point. Aaliyah Nolan netted twice before the interval and Lucy Cook added the third in the second half.

Eve Shepherd gave Sheffield FC an interval advantage at home to Notts County who overturned the deficit before Sheffield restored parity through Mollie Mae-Crump. However, two late goals saw County secure maximum points and leave Sheffield rooted to the bottom of the table.

Sheffield now have a two week break from League action as they bid to rectify matters. This Sunday is a "free hit" as the outcome of League Cup group fix-ture away to Chesterfield (at the SMH Stadium) is academic as far as Sheffield, who cannot progress from the Group, are concerned.

The following Sunday's Women's FA Cup tie against Sutton Coldfield who are two places and three points better off is of greater significance in Sheffield's bid to maintain tier four status. A one win would boost confidence as well as bring in much welcome prize money.

There were goals galore in the first round of this season's Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA Women's Cup with four teams recording double figure victories, though this was chiefly due to the luck of the draw pairing teams who are far from equally matched.

The draw involved teams from Regional Leagues (tiers 5 and 6) and County Leagues (tier 7, but with several divisions at this tier).

Parkgate ran out 17-1 home winners over Durkar Devils. Ellie Chadburn was top individual.

scorer with six goals and Olivia Turner netted four. Emily Cooper, Amelie Hartley, Caylen Hawley, Nevaeh Nall, Amy Pollock, Francesca Smith and Kacie Wilson all chipped in with a goal. Carys Yates was the consolation scorer for Durkar.

New Lodge, one of the teams in their debut season, had home advantage to a much stronger Barnsley Women Reserves who won 16-0. Jess Jones top scored with five, while there were hat tricks for both Francesca Lambert and Zoe Laughton. Jasmine Blunt, Rosalie Boyle, Amy Caddick, Jess Endley and Charley Senior scored once each. Barnsley netted eight in either half and the game was effectively over as a contest inside 15 minutes, by which time Laughton had completed her hat trick.

Oakwell-based Barnsley FC were 10-1 winners away to Sheffield Wednesday Development. Molly Waite netted four times with Krizia Firth 2, Lily Holt 2, Maja Calvert and Natalia Szyg the others on target.

Tier six Rossington Main proved far too strong for their County League hosts Brampton United. Ella Mortimer, who has recently re-joined Rossington from Rotherham United, scored four times. Both Jenna Bramley and Lily Robinson netted twice, while there were singles for Aleks Korab-Karpinska, Holly Lewis, Alice Linsell, Amy O'Brien and Scarlett Oldridge in a 13-0 away win Rossington Reserves bowed out, with Rowan Newman their scorer in a 4-1 defeat at home to Millmoor Juniors for whom Christina Lee, Tilly Payton. Kacey Simmons and Lillie Wares scored once each.

There were walk-overs for Doncaster Rovers Belles and also their Development team, Sheffield Wednesday (first team) and Treeton.

Three ties - Brodsworth Main v Dinnington Town, SJR Worksop (first team) v Sheffield Wednesday Reserves and SJR Worksop Community v Handsworth - have been rescheduled for this Sunday due to Women's FA Cup ties taking priority last weekend.

Stocksbridge Park Steels began their Sheffield & Hallamshire Women's County League Division One fixtures with a 4-1 victory at Dinnington Town on Wednesday last week. Gemma Harte continued from where she left off last season by bagging a hat trick. Anna Davis was the other Stocksbridge scorer, while Kelly Wright netted for Dinnington. Stocksbridge then drew 3-3 at Frickley Athletic on Sunday when Eve Allen 2 and Sam Woodham scored.

Brooke Tully and Amber Elliott forged a 2-0 interval for Handsworth Reserves away to Rotherham United Under-21s who pulled one back through Jess Broadhurst.

Brinsworth Whitehill were 12-1 winners at home to Charnock Ridgeway as they more than doubled their pre-match goals for tally in Division Two. Caitlin Cooper scored four, while there were hat tricks for both Gabs Green and Isla Laws. Hannah Barden and Kimberley Moore netted singles, while Ruby Spittle was the consultation scorer for Charnock. SJR Worksop Community won 6-0 at Socrates and Penistone Church 3-0 at Dearne & District thanks to goals by Courtney Wragg 2 and Ava Rhodes-Smith.

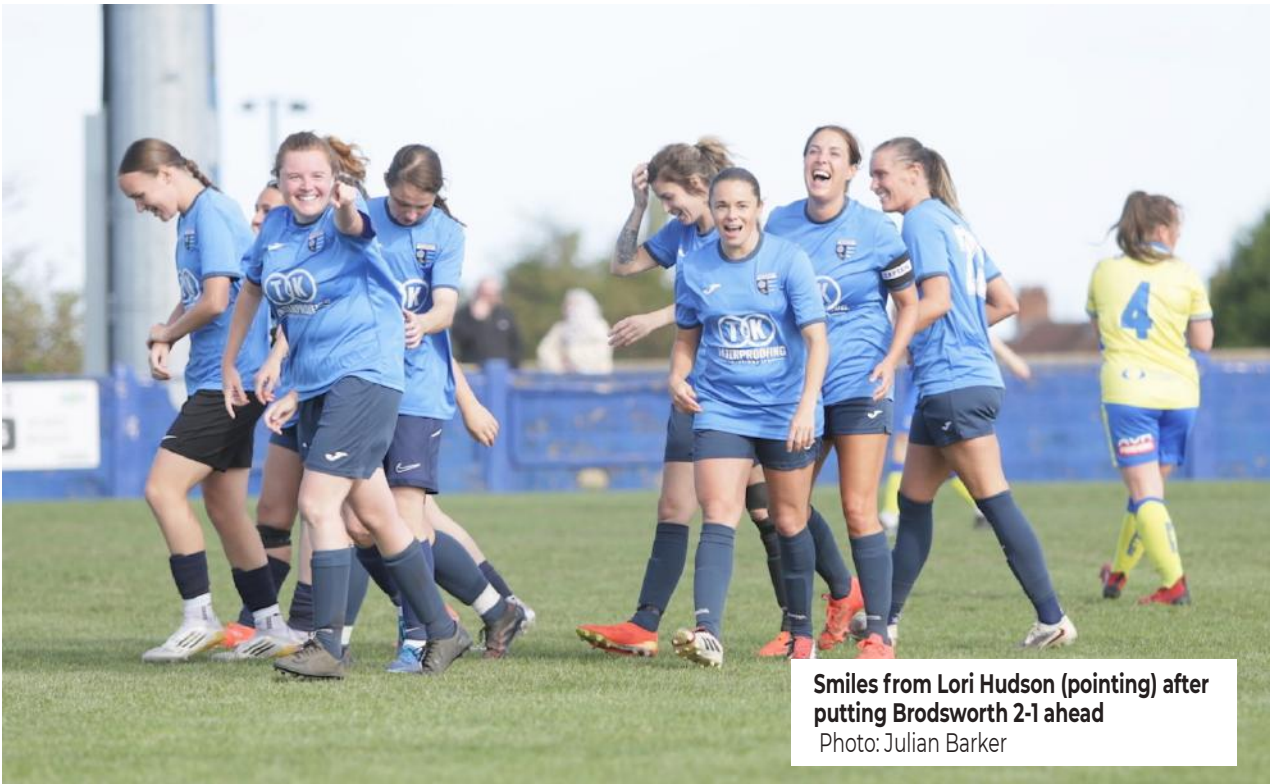

Madeleine Batchelor bagged a hat trick with Emily Furniss the other home scorer as Chancet Wood won by the odd goal in seven against Brinsworth Whitehill Development for whom Holly Lee netted all three in Division Three.

Abygale Almeida and Aiyana Flower were on target for Dronfield Town Development who overturned Kiveton Park Reserves interval lead courtesy of Sophie Ibberson to claim the points with a 2-1 win which lifted them five points clear at the top of the division.

Sophie Smith bagged a hat trick for Brodsworth Main Development whose other goals in their 8-1 home victory over West End Terriers in Division Four came from Jill Edmonds 2, Brooke McGonnell 2 and Amy Lyons. Ffion Brown was on target for Scawthorpe Scorpions who lost 2-1 at Courage FC. Goals also flowed in the other two games with Frickley Athletic 2nd XI winning 5-0 at home to FURD, Football Unites, Racism Divides and Barlborough successful by 5-2 at Sheffield Medics.

RUGBY UNION

DONCASTER KNIGHTS | ROTHERHAM TITANS | SHEFFIELD | SHEFFIELD TIGERS

Albion Show Sheffield The Standard

SHEFFIELD RUFC

Callum Robinson

Sheffield RUFC were brought crashing back down to earth on Saturday as they suffered a 47-5 defeat away at Plymouth Albion, one of the early pace-setters in National One.

After the excitement of the previous week's historic first National One home victory over Leeds Tykes, the trip to Devon always looked one of the toughest assignments of the season. Albion had already won both of their opening fixtures on the road and underlined their promotion credentials with a ruthless display at Brickfields.

There were changes to the Sheffield side. Winger Cuchulain Livingstone missed out after suffering an injury against Leeds, opening the door for debutant Harry Chubb, while Alex Keeton came onto the bench. Aaron Lonsdale was also absent as Sheffield's squad faced the long journey south.

Any hopes of a settled start disappeared almost immediately.

Sheffield failed to secure possession from the kick-off and Albion instantly demonstrated their quality. Winger Pita Ratukadreu seized on the loose ball and surged forward before sending number eight Sam Daly over for the opening try inside the first minute. Francisco Diaz Dart converted to put the hosts 7-0 ahead.

Things quickly got worse for the visitors.

Although Sheffield won an early penalty and attempted to build pressure, a promising position evaporated and Albion struck again after a lineout. Second row Huw Taylor crashed over wide on the left and Diaz Dart maintained his perfect record from the tee as the lead stretched to 14 points after just six minutes.

To their credit, Sheffield responded.

A spell of pressure and a yellow card for Albion flanker Jarrard Hayler offered encouragement. The visitors drove a maul to the try line and felt they had a genuine opportunity to get themselves onto the scoreboard. However, the chance slipped away and Albion gradually regained control.

The hosts' power proved decisive.

When Sheffield conceded territory close to their own line, Daly powered over for his second try after 16 minutes. Another successful conversion made it 21-0 and the home side were firmly in command.

The pressure remained relentless.

Albion monopolised possession and territory, forcing Sheffield into defensive mode for long periods. Daly completed his hat-trick on 26 minutes and Diaz Dart's conversion pushed the advantage out to 28-0.

At that stage there was a danger the game could run completely away from Sheffield.

Instead, the visitors dug in admirably.

Defensively they showed plenty of determination to keep Albion scoreless for the remainder of the half and, despite spending much of the opening 40 minutes on the back foot, they managed to reach the interval without suffering further damage.

Any hopes of mounting a comeback disappeared soon after the restart.

Daly crossed for his fourth try of the afternoon and, with Diaz Dart again adding the extras, Albion moved 35-0 ahead.

There was cruel luck for Sheffield moments later.

An excellent move involving Matty Drennan and Chris Hooper appeared certain to produce a try. Drennan's return pass looked perfectly judged, but Hooper suffered a torn hamstring as he accelerated towards the line and the ball drifted into touch with the opportunity gone.

Albion took full advantage.

Fly-half Harrison Legg added their sixth try shortly afterwards and another conversion pushed the score out to 42-0.

Despite the deficit, Sheffield continued battling.

The forwards gradually began to gain some momentum and their perseverance was finally rewarded in the 66th minute. Strong work from the pack created the platform and centre Barney Goatley crossed wide on the right to ensure Sheffield would not leave Devon empty handed. Callum Posa was unable to convert but the visitors had a deserved score on the board.

Albion added one final try through Cameron Doak before the closing stages became another illustration of Sheffield's resilience.

Even after Dom Parsons received a yellow card with six minutes remaining, the visitors refused to fold. Down to 14 men and facing a relentless home side, they held firm and prevented any further scoring before the final whistle.

While the result was disappointing, Sheffield's players will recognise they came up against one of the strongest teams in the division. Albion's perfect start to the campaign continued and they showed exactly why many observers regard them as genuine promotion contenders.

Elsewhere, Sheffield Tigers suffered more late heartbreak as they were edged out 26-24 by Heath at Dore Moor in National League Two North.

Having already lost narrowly at Huddersfield the previous week, Tigers found themselves involved in another contest that went right to the wire. Louis Redfern-Brown crossed for a first-half try and Tom O'Brien added the conversion and a penalty as the hosts stayed in touch throughout.

Heath held a narrow advantage entering the closing stages before Tigers launched a final fightback. Silas Talbot crossed midway through the second half and, when Miles Dodsworth touched down with two minutes remaining, Tigers looked capable of stealing victory. O'Brien converted both scores, but Heath managed to hold on for a dramatic two-point success.

The defeat leaves Tigers still searching for their first league win of the campaign despite collecting valuable bonus points along the way.

This weekend sees both city clubs facing another significant test.

For Sheffield RUFC, attention turns back to Abbeydale Park where they welcome Camborne. The Cornish outfit arrive with confidence after making an encouraging start to the season and promise to provide another stern examination. Sheffield will be keen to bounce back quickly from the Plymouth defeat and continue building momentum in front of their own supporters.

Sheffield Tigers meanwhile face arguably their toughest challenge yet as they travel to Fylde. The Lancashire club are ex-tion contenders in National League Two North and Dore Moor's men will need to produce their best performance of the season if they are to return home with league points.

Both Sheffield clubs have shown enough during the opening weeks of the season to suggest victories are not far away. The challenge now is turning encouraging performances into the results needed to climb their respective tables.

Titans Steal The Headlines

South Yorkshire's return to Champ Rugby could hardly have started in more dramatic fashion as Rotherham Titans pulled off one of the opening weekend's standout results, while Doncaster Knights came away empty-handed from a tough trip to Cornish Pirates.

The Titans had waited eight years for their return to the second tier and marked the occasion with a remarkable 38-35 victory over Coventry at Clifton Lane.

It was a result that few saw coming at half-time.

Coventry, last season's third-placed finishers and Championship semi-finalists, looked every inch the polished professional outfit as they opened up a commanding 28-12 lead before the break.

Former Titan Tom Bacon crossed for the visitors, while scrum-half Sam Maunder helped himself to two tries and captain Jordan Poole also touched down as Coventry threatened to spoil the South Yorkshire party.

Rotherham, however, stayed in touch through tries from Ben Cambriani and Jackson Barling and, crucially, never allowed the deficit to damage their belief.

Whatever was said in the dressing room at half-time worked wonders.

Morgan Veness crashed over within a minute of the restart before Callum Bustin added another as the atmosphere around Clifton Lane began to change.

Even when Coventry fly-half Bruce Houston crossed to re-establish control for the visitors, the Titans refused to go away.

Roared on by a passionate home crowd, they continued to attack and eventually forced their way back into contention.

Barling crossed for his second try of the afternoon with four minutes remaining to reduce the gap to four points.

Then came the decisive moment.

With just two minutes left on the clock, replacement Mitchell Lacey-Babalola burst through to score the try that completed a stunning comeback and put Rotherham ahead for the first time all afternoon.

There was still time for more drama.

Coventry thought they had snatched victory deep into stoppage time, only for the score to be ruled out for an infringement in the build-up.

When the final whistle sounded, players and supporters celebrated one of the most memorable victories seen at Clifton Lane in recent years.

The significance of the result was not lost on head coach Harvey Biljon.

"I am mentally proud and beaming with pride because of the effort that those players put in," he said.

"To come up against a team that's full time and to play with the speed that they do and for us to hold on for 80 plus minutes doesn't come by chance. It comes by effort, training those scenarios in that situation and the players thoroughly deserved their plaudits for today."

Biljon also revealed there was little panic in the dressing room despite the sizeable half-time deficit.

"The dressing room at half time was a very calm place, we didn't get overly emotional.

"We had some specific messages at half time, and the players went out and delivered to that script and to have players trust you as a coach in those moments and then to go and deliver it, it's just very rewarding." The Titans boss also praised the impact made by his replacements. "We were really brave with our bench, we didn't hold out and wait for moments. We've got a strategy and a plan, and I think all those players that got on to the field made a real contribution and added value and when you've got a squad like that, it's a good place to be."

For a newly-promoted side facing one of the division's strongest clubs, it was a statement victory and one that will have the rest of the Championship taking notice.

Doncaster Knights' opening weekend proved less successful as they suffered a 45-19 defeat at Cornish Pirates.

The final score perhaps did not fully reflect a contest that remained finely balanced for more than an hour.

Pirates struck first through scrum-half Dan Hiscocks before Nathan Langdon responded for the Knights after good work from Telusa Veainu and Penaia Tagutu.

The hosts edged ahead through another try out wide before their powerful driving maul began to have a telling impact on proceedings.

Yet Doncaster remained very much in the contest.

Jasper McGuire crossed before half-time and then added his second shortly after the break, with Alex Dolly converting to level the scores at 19-19.

At that stage it appeared the momentum had swung firmly in the Knights' favour.

Unfortunately for Dean Richards' side, Pirates then turned the contest into a battle of forward power.

The Cornish outfit repeatedly drove over from close range and, aided by two Doncaster yellow cards, scored four further tries to pull away during the closing stages.

While the defeat will disappoint, there were positives for the Knights to take.

Veainu looked dangerous whenever he found space, Tagutu carried strongly and McGuire's brace demonstrated Doncaster's ability to trouble opponents in the tight exchanges.

The challenge now is to reproduce the encouraging aspects of their performance over a full 80 minutes when Hartpury visit Castle Park this weekend.

Elsewhere around Champ Rugby, Bedford Blues produced arguably the result of the round by defeating reigning champions Worcester Warriors, while Ealing Trailfinders opened their campaign with victory at Chinnor. Blackheath celebrated their return to the division with success at Nottingham, Ampthill won at Richmond and Hartpury also began the season with a victory.

After just one week-end the table means little, but there is no doubt about the story of the opening round from a South Yorkshire perspective.

Eight years after leaving the Championship, Rotherham Titans are back.

And they have returned with a bang.

RUGBY LEAGUE
SHEFFIELD EAGLES

Eagles Stars Bound for Australia World Cup

SHEFFIELD
EAGLES

Bradley Saxton

Sheffield Eagles will have four Wheelchair players representing their countries at the 2026 Wheelchair Rugby League World Cup in Australia, with Luis Domingos and Chris Haynes selected for England and Sid and Gareth Ramsey named in the Wales squad.

Domingos and Haynes have both been included in Tom Coyd MBE's final 10-man England squad, having initially been named in the 12-player training squad, and will now head to Australia for the tournament later this year.

The selection caps outstanding seasons for both players with the Eagles during the club's second year competing in the Betfred Wheelchair Super League.

Domingos, who joined Sheffield from Castleford Tigers at the start of the season, made an immediate impact in his first campaign with the club, finishing as the Eagles' top try-scorer with 30 tries.

His performances were recognised at the club's end-of-season presentation, where he was named 2026 Wheelchair Players' Player of the Year.

Haynes has enjoyed another impressive campaign, scoring 28 tries and making a number of important contributions for Greg Brown's side.

His performances saw him named 2026 Super League Wheelchair Player of the Year, and he will now have the opportunity to represent England on the biggest stage.

England will face Wales, USA and Ireland in the group stages, with all three fixtures taking place at the WIN Entertainment Centre in Wollongong.

England's first group-stage fixture will provide a particularly interesting encounter for the Eagles, with England facing Wales on Friday, October 30, potentially bringing all four Sheffield players together on opposite sides of the international divide.

Haynes and Domingos will be joined in Australia by teammates

Sid and Gareth Ramsey, who have both been selected in Alan Caron's 12-player Wales squad.

The selection of the Ramsey pair carries its own place in history, with two father-and-son pairings set to represent Wales at a Wheelchair Rugby League World Cup for the first time.

The Ramseys will join Martin and Matthew Turner in the Wales squad. Although a father and son have previously featured in the Wales set-up, never before have they represented Cymru together at a World Cup.

Sid has already earned senior Wales caps after representing Cymru at this year's Celtic Cup and has enjoyed an excellent season with Sheffield, becoming a regular once again in the Super League side.

His performances earned him a nomination for the Shooting Star Award at the Eagles' end-of-season presentation.

Gareth, who has previously represented the Wales 'A' team, is one of three potential debutants named in Caron's squad.

He has also been a key player for the Eagles' Wheelchair Reserves throughout the campaign, earning a nomination for the Wheelchair Player of the Year award.

For Sheffield Eagles, the selections mean four players from the club's Wheelchair programme will take their place on the international stage in Australia.

For Domingos and Haynes, it is the reward for standout individual seasons and an opportunity to pull on the England shirt at a World Cup. For Sid and Gareth, it represents a historic opportunity to represent Wales together as father and son.

And with England and Wales meeting on Friday, October 30, the Eagles' four representatives could soon find themselves on opposite sides of the international battle.

Runs, Wickets, Drama: A Season That Delivered

YORKS SOUTHERN PREMIER

Roger Pugh

Sheffield Collegiate were the outstanding team for most of the season, setting down an early marker with a comprehensive win over 2025 champions Cleethorpes in April.

Openers Abdul Fa-seeh and Jack Timby were in the divisions top ten run-scorers, and Fa-seeh was missed at the end of the season when Collegiate lost their last two league games, then narrowly lost to Richmondshire in the White Rose Yorkshire champions semi-final; Jamie Carrington was their top-wicket-taker with 48. Cleethorpes were 32 points clear of their nearest rivals in second place, just ten points behind Collegiate. Cleethorpes' Josh Knapton had a fine season with 53 wickets, whilst new signing Muhammad Aamir weighed in with 39; and Tom and Nic Keast both passed 600 runs at the top of the order.

The Meggie's also won their first YCSPL T20 title, beating Wakefield Thornes in the final. Just 18 points separated third and ninth places in the table, and Whitley Hall, who competed with Cawthorne for third place for much of the season, won out in the end. Muhammad Ashraf impressed with 512 runs and 30 wickets, but it was very much a team effort by the Baxter Field side. Cawthorne, whose end of the season was marred by various absences, slipped to seventh place in the last week, but overall they had a very good season and reached their first K3 Dental Cup final.

The returning Connor Fisher and new-comer Biswick Kapala both had fine seasons for Tickhill, who will probably have been disappointed not to have put pressure on the leaders. Wakefield Thornes, who finished fifth, had three outstanding performers in leading wicket-keeper Waqar Hussain, who was also in the division's top ten run-scorers; James Rhodes, second highest run-scorer; and skipper Matty Taylor, with 51 wickets and 362 runs.

They and Cawthorne ended on 160 points, along with Doncaster Town, for whom Harsha Rajapaksha scored 585 runs and took 31 wickets. Wickersley Old Village's recruitment paid off, with the division's top wicket-taker in Mayank Mishra (55 wickets), who joined from Cleethorpes, also contributing 571 runs, and Mike Jepps providing a solid presence at the top of the order; Abdul Qayoom also had a fine season with the bat, and they were safely ensconced in mid-table throughout the season.

Appleby Frodingham had a poor start to the season and for a time looked as if they might get drawn into the relegation battle, but with the division's top run-scorer, skipper Alex Grimes (895 runs), and two others in the top six (Paras Ratnaparkhe and Kieran Lindley – who also took 34 wickets) and the evergreen Paul Hilton, who was third in the bowling chart with 52 wickets, they pulled well clear in the end.

Sprotbrough were engaged in a three-way battle with Hallam and Whiston Parish Church to stay in the division, and won out in the end, not least due to the efforts of Parteek Khalsa (635 runs and 51 wickets), with honourable mentions also for Joe Toole and Nicky Graves with bat and ball respectively. Hallam's stay in the division ended after two seasons; whilst Andre Bradford was the third top run-scorer with 735 runs, they lacked strength in depth and struggled from the start, as did Whiston, who make an immediate return to the Championship.

Championship Division

There was no doubting Ackworth's status as the top team in the division, and they wrapped up their promotion on 15 August. Skipper Luke Townsend was their outstanding performer with 743 runs and 46 wickets, whilst Jerome Bossr and Dale Longfield were both in the division's top ten run-scorers and wicket-takers respectively.

They also beat Sheffield Collegiate 2nds to regain their T20 Plate title from two years ago, and reached the Northern Area finals in the national competition. Ali Zaryab set a new League record with 1,423 runs for Barnsley Woolley Miners, but after he returned home, the Shaw Lane men struggled somewhat, and needed to win their last game to hold off Shiregreen's excellent second-half of the season run, which also saw them claim the Whitworth Cup for the second time in four seasons.

Max Heseltine was Barnsley's leading bowler with 31 wickets in his first season as a first-team regular as they made a quick return to the Premier Division. Shiregreen's Muhammad Rameez was the league's joint top wicket-taker with 62, whilst opener Haris Khan contributed 691 runs. Arsalan Mir (743 runs and 42 wickets) was outstanding for Elsecar, who were in the mix for most of the season before falling away in the closing weeks.

Coal Aston, in their first season back in the Championship, had an excellent season and finished fifth; overseas Regan Sheahan (737 runs and 49 wickets) was outstanding for them. Aston Hall were in fourth place for much of the season, before being overtaken by Shiregreen and Coal Aston at the end, and had the second-highest run-scorer in Muhammad Khan (875 runs).

As with the Premier Division, there was a three-way battle at the lower end of the table, between Doncaster Town 2nds, Oughtibridge War Memorial and Rockingham Colliery. Oughtibridge lost their battle at the end of August, but Rockingham's remarkable last day win at Ackworth and Doncaster's defeat at home to Barnsley meant that Rockingham escaped from the second-bottom spot they had occupied all season. It was a significant slip for Doncaster, who had finished fourth in 2025. Of the bottom three, Rockingham did have the outstanding performer in Lasith Lakshan (660 runs and 43 wickets).

Division 1

Like Ackworth in the Championship, Warmsworth clinched promotion on 15 August. They led the table throughout, losing only twice, and had the division's top wicket-taker in Kyle Humphrys (58 wickets – as well as contributing 665 runs) and the second-highest run-scorer in James Loveridge (874 runs).

Wath occupied second place all season, and finished 30 points behind Warmsworth; they had the league's top all-rounder in Syed Shah (1,018 runs and 49 wickets), whilst Jason van Dyk was third in the division's run-scorers with 788.

Whitley Hall 2nds never gave up, and were 14 points behind Wath in third place at the end; Sam Chatterton, with 667 runs, was their outstanding performer. England over 50s' Steve Foster is one of the greats of South Yorkshire cricket, and he scored 739 runs and took 31 wickets for fourth-placed Treeton, for whom Amir Shahzad was the division's second-highest wicket-taker; they would have been disappointed not to be challenging for promotion.

Mathew Lowe (716 runs) and Samuel Grant (48 wickets) were the top-performers for fifth-placed Conisbrough. Frickley Colliery made up the top half of the table, a very creditable achievement in their first season in the division after achieving promotion from division 2 in their first year with us, Jordan Bowers scoring 765 runs for them, and they also won their first YCSPL cup silverware, the Mick Savage Memorial Trophy.

West Bretton found life tough in their first season in the League, and finished bottom, with Wickersley Old Village 2nds eight points above them in the other relegation place.

Division 2

At one stage or another, eight teams were in promotion contention in this hotly-contested division. Champions Norton Oakes achieved back-to-back promotions, pulling away in the run-in to finish top by 16 points. Skipper Joshua Cross led the way (505 runs and 42 wickets) in a solid all-round team performance.

On the penultimate Saturday, Thorpe Hesley & High Green clinched the second promotion spot, an improvement of seven places on 2025, with two bowlers in the division's top ten, Oliver Law and Ashley Reynolds, and Keagan Thiele as their top run-getter.

The remaining six of the promotion contenders finished within ten points of each other; with Sheffield Collegiate 3rds, promoted from Division 3 last year, in third place and boasting the division's second-top wicket-taker, Ben Fielding (50).

Fourth-placed Hatfield Town boasted the division's top run-scorer, Joshua Hartfield (709 runs), and a point behind them were Norton Woodseats, who had the top wicket-taker, Blake Stocks (51).

Millhouses Works and Penistone were level on 160 points, two ahead of Elsecar 2nds.

At the other end of the table, Wakefield Thornes 2nds endured a miserable season, with just three wins, and finished next to bottom, despite having the second-top run-scorer, wicket-keeper Harley Cushman, with 704 runs. Two points below Thornes were Hallam 2nds, these two sides having dropped significantly from last year's fifth and fourth respectively.

Division 3

Another club to achieve back-to-back promotions were Division 3 champions Coal Aston 2nds, thanks in particular to bowlers Shaun Trower (55 wickets) and Elliot Tye (42), both in the division's top five wicket-takers.

In was a similar story at second-placed Darfield, for whom Saman Kursheed was the League's joint-top wicket-taker with 62, whilst Nathan Kitchen weighed in with 45. Having held second place for a large part of the season, Frecheville Community will be disappointed to miss out on promotion by just four points; Ashan Lakmal and Daniel Kempton both passed 500 runs for them.

Higham, 32 points further behind in fourth place, had some of the division's top performers in the division's top run-scorer Ryan Bagshaw (676 runs), skipper Glen Burden in third place with 601, and Gareth Kilburn, with 41 wickets.

Three were relegated from this division, the second XIs of Rockingham Colliery, Sprotbrough and Wath.

Second-bottom Sprotbrough won more bonus points than any other side (44), suggesting that they were well in contention in many of the 16 games they lost.

Division 4

Another tightly-contested division, in which Whiston Forge came out on top of six clubs, the rest of whom were in with a shout of promotion until the final week. Forge, crowned champions on the penultimate Saturday, were yet another to achieve back-to-back promotions, and were well served by new signings Harrison and Owen Struggles, the former with 484 runs, just three behind their top-scorer, Omar Waine, and Owen with 333 runs and 33 wickets; whilst a key strength was the way in which their lower order batsmen pulled them out of difficult situations.

Sheffield University Staff, who missed out on promotion on a conditional issue last year, sealed the second promotion spot on the last day; Sabeethan Kana-gasingham was their top run-scorer and Waqas Tanveer was fourth in the division's top wicket-takers.

Kexborough finished third, level with the Staff on points, but lost out having won one less game, and they boasted the division's top two bowlers in Matty Bowering (54 wickets) and Thava Nigathan (47), whilst Bavasuthan Selvanayagam was the division's fourth-highest run scorer with 622.

Stocksbridge, Ackworth 2nds and Thorncliffe & Wentworth all finished within ten points of the second promotion spot. Ackworth had the division's top run-scorer, Dave Harris (895 runs) and the third, Alex Clemo (733).

New club Pledwick consolidated in a creditable sixth place, with James Eastlake third in the division's wicket-takers. Treeton 2nds' Robbie Broomhead was up amongst the League's top run scorers all season, and finished with 791, sandwiched between the Ackworth pair.

Four teams were relegated from this division, including Bradfield Village Fellowship and Sheffield Caribbean, who suffered second successive relegations.

Division 5

Wombwell Main made an immediate return to Division 4 as champions, Elliot Mann was the division's third-highest run-scorer with 604, and they had two of the top ten bowlers in Mark Mustill-Hope and Ben Reeves. Second-placed Waverley were 28 points behind the leaders, but 34 ahead of their nearest challengers, and they were another club to achieve a double promotion. Waverley's Jerin Varghese (50) and Vishnu Das Devadas (49) were the top two wicket-takers in the division, and they also had the top run-scorer in Sajid Hussain (719).

The next five clubs all won eleven games and were separated mainly by bonus points, Silkstone United leading the way amongst them. Amongst these, Sheffield Collegiate 4ths' long-serving Charlie Wall was the division's second highest run-scorer with 621 and Penistone 2nds' Matt Scholey the third-highest wicket-taker with 43. Five clubs were relegated from this division, of which bottom side Barnby Dun were also relegated from division 4 the year before.

Division 6

Newcomers Sheffield Centralians took the division by storm, losing only one game, and winning the President's Trophy by beating Sheffield Caribbean in the final, for good measure. The chief architects of the club's success were Adeeb Khan (897 runs) and Muhammed Khan (755), the latter also being fourth on the wicket-takers' chart with 44.

Parkhead 2nds were 40 points behind them in second place, but 16 points ahead of their nearest rivals, and were well-deserving of their second successive promotion. Their top run-scorer, Nathaniel Sloane, was third in the division list with 678 runs.

Third-placed Green Moor had two of the division's top six run-scorers, Satvir Singh and Scott Jones, both of whom passed 600 runs, Singh also being second in the bowling chart with 50. Whiston Parish Church 2nds, who finished fifth, had the division's top run-scorer, Shadab Ahmmed, with 692 runs.

This division was the most affected by the increased relegation to accommodate nine new teams in 2027, with six of the 12 sides relegated, including Sheffield United 2nds, who made an immediate return to division 7, and Conisbrough 2nds, who suffered a second successive relegation, despite Tom Humphries' 376 runs and 49 wickets.

Division 7 North

Stocksbridge 2nds made this division a one-horse race, also losing just the one game, and finishing 44 points clear of the rest to claim the one promotion spot; James Hague (350 runs) and John Musgrove (41 wickets) were their top performers in what was a real team effort.

Wombwell Main 2nds finished just above Higham 2nds in second place; Ryan Linney, of fourth-placed Mexborough Athletic, was one behind Musgrove in the bowling chart with 40; James Andrews of fifth-placed Rockingham Colliery 2nds, scored 677 runs, over 200 more than anyone else in the division; and Houghton Main 2nds, in sixth, had two out of the top ten in both the batting and bowling charts, Kye Jay Kitching and Ryan Atkinson in the batting and bowlers Gul Safi and Gulagha Sadiq.

Adwick-le-Street skipper Matthew Eades was the division's second highest run scorer with 447, but was unable to prevent his side being one of the three that were relegated.

Division 7 South
Six of the division's ten sides were newcomers from the former Yorkshire & Derbyshire League, and one of those, Sheffield Medics, won the division's single promotion place by 30 points. Their top batsmen, Arun Urs and Ali Cheema, were first and third respectively amongst the division's run-scorers, each totalling over 400 runs.

Coal Aston 3rds were runners-up, their successes owing much to the bowling of Wayne Base (39 wickets) and Josh Lester (32). Third-placed Allama Iqbal were just two further points behind, and relied heavily on the batting of Sajjad Ali (422 runs) and Wasiqullah Niazi (360).

Manu Satheesan of fourth-placed The Chronicles England was joint second amongst the division's wicket takers with Adam Bryant of Brookhouse. Fifth-placed Sheffield Super Kings had three of the top six run-scorers in the division in Pavan Gannerla, Guhan Marimuthu and Pranesh Sankar – Marimuthu also contributing 40 wickets.

Sheffield Centralians 2nds finished bottom and were one of the three relegated sides, despite boasting the division's top wicket-taker in Mayank Gahlot (43).

Division 8 North
Frickley Colliery 2nds were worthy champions, finishing 26 points clear of fellow-promotees Eden Madras

Parklands. Corey Hawkesworth (43) was their leading wicket taker, second in the division overall, and they had two others in the division's top ten, including Luke Malone, who was also the fourth-highest run-scorer in the division with 507. Mrinmoy Borgohain was the star player for Parklands, with 293 runs and 40 wickets.

Third-placed West Bretton 2nds' strength was their batting, and they boasted the division's top three run scorers in John Hubery (789), Curtis Gates (650) and David Hoyle (519). Sixth-placed Pledwick 2nds had the top wicket-taker in David Cocliffe (45).

Division 8 South
Champions Waverley 2nds won back-to-back promotions, losing only the one game and finishing 40 points ahead of the field, thereby emulating their first team to achieve a double promotion for their club; Belgin Thomas (438 runs) was their leading run-scorer, and Sreejith Babu (37 wickets) their top bowler.

Waverley 2nds also beat Darfield 2nds to win the Billy Oates Memorial Cup. Sheffield Spartans inflicted Waverley's only defeat, on the last Saturday, to earn the second promotion place; their Shabir Ali was the division's top run-scorer with 574 and his 37 wickets made him third in the bowling list, whilst Waqar Hussain (446) was third in the division's run-scoring.

De la Salle finished eight points behind Spartans in third place and they had the division's second-highest run-scorer, Robin Scaife, with 488. Majad Hussain took 44 wickets for Handsworth 2nds, the most in the division, but was unable to stop them being relegated.

Division 9 North
The division's champions were Sheffield University Staff 2nds, who finished 22 points above second-placed Kexborough 2nds, and the third side in the promotion places were Fishlake 2nds.

The Staff had three of the top ten in both the division's run-scoring and wicket taking, with Ciaran Hanvey (397) their top run-scorer and Chris Stride (38) their top bowler. Kexborough's Thomas Green was the top wicket-taker with 43, whilst Ben Whitehouse, of fourth-placed Dearne, was the top-run-scorer with 659 runs from only 13 innings.

Division 9 South
It was also a double promotion for Whiston Forge CC when their second XI finished as champions of their division, and they had the top wicket-taker in Andy Smith (42). They were 30 points clear of their nearest rivals, Tickhill 3rds, and four clear of the third promotees, Frecheville Community 2nds.

Luke Young of Tickhill was the division's top run-scorer with 547, whilst Mike Rose of Richmond was second with 512. Richmond finished sixth, and we are sorry that they have decided that they

Banyard Shines as Stars Close Season Strong

SHEFFIELD STARS

Robert Mawhood

Sheffield Stars 'A' team ended the 2026 North and Scotland League season on a high, with a second successive group stage win on home shale at Cookson Park, the last victory was at Fife three weeks ago.

Sheffield started strongly with a maximum seven point score from Oliver Banyard and Niall Morton in heat two. From then on, they never lost a heat as Banyard and Kielan Burton rolled out three race wins each. Sheffield were out of the title hunt, but had a bearing on which team would lifting the League title.

Banyard and Morton recorded a 6-4 heat advantage over Astley and Tyldesley in heat 23, which confirmed Bury Comets would be the destination for the League title (which they last held in 2023).

Sheffield's win means they finished the season in fourth place.

Match result - Sheffield Stars (66), Astley and Tyldesley (62), Bury Comets (58), Fife Revolution (47).

Sheffield's 'B' team also finished on a high, tying on points with Heckmondwike Saints in the B group match. Lizzie Rigley and Lacey Ackroyd were Sheffield's only race winners. Sheffield B finished the season in eighth place, just half a point from Heckmondwike Saints.

Saturday racing was at Horspath, near Oxford, and saw Oliver Banyard (under 16) and Lacey Ackroyd (Girls) maintain their lead in the BYJL GP with a third successive unbeaten performance. Lincoln Ackroyd (under 12), Joey Athersych (under 10) and Zach Athersych (under 8) just missed the podiums, all three currently stand in fourth place in their age group GP.
