SPACE TRAVEL

Space Travel, a subsidiary company of Mannai Travel, was set up in 1988 and is a General Sales Agent facilitating the operations of various international airlines operating from Qatar. Space Travel currently represents Fly dubai, Kenya Airways, Philippine Airlines, Akasa Air and Shenzhen Airlines.

Having celebrated 45 years of operation in January 2022, Kenya Airways is a leading African airline flying to 42 destinations worldwide, carrying over four million passengers annually. As one of Africa's leading airlines, its modern 32-strong fleet includes the flagship B787 Dreamliner aircraft. Kenya Airways takes pride in being at the forefront of connecting Africa to the world and the world to Africa.

Founded almost 80 years ago, Philippine Airlines, the country's "national flag carrier" pioneered end-to-end airline operations and is its largest international airline. It's also the only full-service Filipino air carrier offering Business Class, Premium Economy and Regular Economy services. Its growing fleet, one of the world's youngest, consists of state-of-the-art aircrafts such as the Boeing 777 along with the Airbus A350 and A330 for long-haul routes and the A320/A321 family for regional and domestic routes.

Flydubai offers a comfortable flying experience, currently serving over 100 destinations with a continually expanding network. To date, more than 70 million passengers have chosen Flydubai, making it the second-largest carrier operating out of Dubai.

Akasa Air, launched on August 7, 2022, aims to transform India's air transportation by offering a dependable and affordable service. With the greenest and youngest fleet, it has quickly become India's fastest-growing airline, serving over 11 million passengers and connecting 22 domestic and five international cities. In March 2024, Akasa Air became the first Indian carrier to launch international operations within 19 months, with its inaugural flight to Doha.

Shenzhen Airlines is an airline headquartered in Bao'an, Shenzhen, Guangdong, China. It is based in Shenzhen Bao'an International Airport. It has been a member of Star Alliance since 2012, and is currently one of two Chinese airlines that are members. In 2010, the airline carried 16.5 million passengers, up 9% from the previous year. The airline had its headquarters in the Lintian Building at Shenzhen Airport.
