

A person wearing a dark hoodie is sitting on a wooden bench, viewed from behind. They are looking towards a chain-link fence in the distance. The scene is dimly lit with a blueish-green tint, suggesting a nighttime setting. A few distant lights are visible through the trees and fence.

PREFACE

Welcome

Some stories begin with a person seeking answers.

Others begin with someone asking the questions.

Welcome is a psychological journey into perception, control and the thin line between who is helping and who needs help.

Inspired by the atmosphere of classic psychological thrillers, the song invites listeners into a world where appearances can be deceptive and certainty can quickly unravel.

What begins as a routine therapy session slowly reveals something far more unsettling.

As the story unfolds, assumptions are challenged, roles become blurred and the truth becomes increasingly difficult to define.

Take a seat.

The session is about to begin.
