NOVEMBER 2026

FROM FIRST STEPS TO CENTER STAGE
PROGRAM SPOTLIGHT: SHOOTING STARS

Our Shooting Stars Program introduces dancers ages 6–9 to ballet, tap, jazz, hip hop, and musical theatre!

As dancers build their technique and confidence, they also focus on musicality, expression, applying feedback, and working together.

What Shooting Stars are Working Towards:

- Technique: Making their movements more controlled and improving alignment.
- Musicality: Making intentional, expressive choices in their dancing.
- Leadership: Following rules and expectations; applying corrections; and intentionally trying to improve.
- Teamwork & Community: Working cooperatively with their classmates while respecting their teacher and the studio.

It's exciting to watch these young dancers build the confidence and skills that set the stage for years of success in dance and in life - while having a lot of fun!

RESPECT

NOVEMBER WORD OF THE MONTH

Respect is more than following the rules. It's about creating a positive, supportive space.

Here's what RESPECT looks like in our studio:

- Respect for Yourself: Believe in your potential, celebrate your progress, and give yourself grace when something is challenging. Respect also means listening to your body and taking care of yourself.
- Respect for Your Teachers: Come ready to learn, listen, and be open to corrections and feedback.
- Respect for Your Classmates: Cheer each other on, give others space to learn and move, and be a supportive teammate.
- Respect for Our Studio & the Art of Dance: Take care of our studios, and shared spaces, and appreciate the opportunity to learn, create, and dance together.

Thank you for helping make our studio a positive and inspiring place for all!

ARMS

FOCUS OF THE MONTH

This month, we are helping our dancers bring purpose, energy, and artistry all the way to their fingertips. Using their arms with intention improves balance, sharpens turns, and brings emotion to life on stage!
