Cooking Club: Slice of Tradition

This edition of Cooking Club celebrates the rich heritage of our region by teaching you how to make a delicious dessert that has been a cherished tradition for generations. Just in time for the holiday season, Slice of Tradition is a fun virtual baking class where you'll learn how to make kuchen from scratch, as well as a dessert topping. We'll mix and bake together while picking up baking tips, kitchen confidence, and a few stories behind this beloved treat.

Whether you're brand new to baking or already love spending time in the kitchen, this class is a chance to create something beautiful, learn a new skill, and make a dessert you'll be proud to share with family and friends. Grab your ingredients, log in from your own kitchen, and discover why kuchen has been bringing people together for generations—one slice at a time!

Important: Note about Adult Supervision: These classes involve real-life cooking (with tools, heat, etc.), so parent/caregiver supervision and support is required. Parents/caregivers should determine the appropriate amount of supervision and assistance that kids need depending on their abilities and maturity. A shopping list and Zoom link will be sent out approximately 2 weeks prior to the event.
