MEET Kathy Gramkowski

It's been an interesting adventure to get to my dream job.

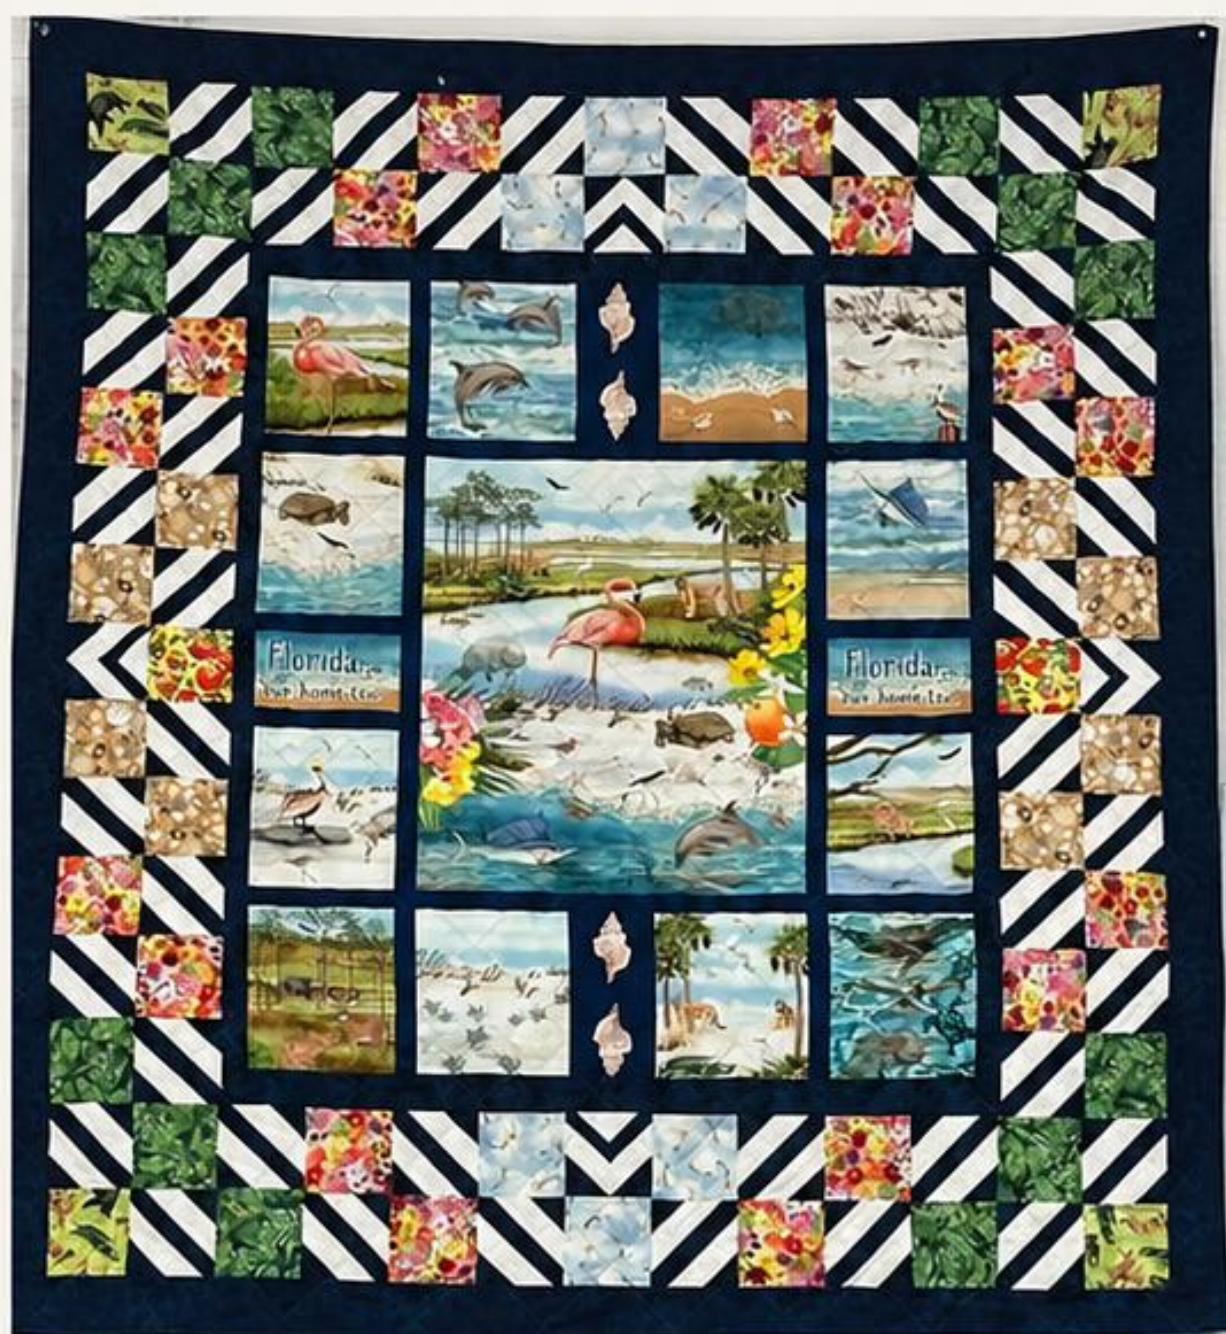

I started sewing alongside my mom in my preteen years, was fortunate enough to be the generation that still had home economics in school and then continued to meet knowledgeable and talented sewists along the way.

My sewing experience started as a seamstress and then evolved into costume designing and constructing.

Then about 30 years ago I was introduced to quilting at my local quilt shop, caught the bug or as we say in the quilting world "went to the dark side" and have no intention of returning back.

I enjoy most quilting techniques and learning new ones. I enjoy sharing my knowledge through classes and helping other quilters achieve success.

I am extremely fortunate to work at a shop that puts customer service above all else and it's not always about the sale. I'm excited to see where this adventure takes me and the wonderful people I will meet along the way.
