There was a chickey living in a normal henhouse

Chickey that the world outside the henhouse is curious about

But Chickey found a small gap, and he escaped through this

And looked at the wide fields,

Also looked around the flower garden

But the chickey got lost in the forest

Then the sun went down

Then the rabby and doggy helped chickey

With thier help, all three returned to the farm
