

An illustration of two stylized owls perched on a tree branch at night. The larger owl, presumably the father, is on top and wears round glasses and a purple and yellow patterned scarf. The smaller owl, presumably the mother, is on the bottom and wears a blue and purple plaid scarf. They are both looking forward with large, expressive eyes. The background is a dark blue night sky with several yellow stars of varying sizes. The tree trunk is brown and textured, with green leaves on the branches. The overall style is whimsical and colorful.
