Show your love for both cats and classics at the same time with our new Meowsterpieces of Kiterature tote! The tote features six reimagined versions of your favorite classic novel covers, updated to include cute cats and clever puns by Georgia artist Carrie Cantwell. This sturdy organic cotton bag will hold all the important things you need and look cool at the same time!

Product Description:
Durable 12-ounce, 100% certified organic cotton canvas
Organic cotton web handles reinforced with stress-point stitching

Carrie Cantwell lives in Atlanta, Georgia, with her partner and her 3 rescue cats: NASA, Edie and Tippy. She enjoys '80s movies, yoga, oat milk lattes and synthwave music.

Carrie creates artwork with quirk! She's an artist known for playful themes, bold color palettes, and a distinctive sense of humor. Her work is recognized for its vibrant, whimsical style that sparks joy and resonates with audiences of all ages. At the heart of her practice is a simple mission: to create small moments of happiness and make people smile through art.

The idea for Meowsterpieces of Kiterature arrived unexpectedly, born from a lifelong love of drawing cats and a deep appreciation for classic literature. Combining the two felt instinctive. Always looking for ways to weave cats and a touch of lighthearted humor into her work, this series became a natural meeting point of her favorite creative interests. It began purely as a passion project, starting with well-known literary titles, the cat puns seemed to reveal themselves effortlessly. For her, wordplay adds warmth and whimsy, and certain phrases instantly transform into feline counterparts as if delivered by some mischievous creative signal

Why Carrie Cantwell?

Creative Expertise with Proven Reach

Carrie Cantwell brings together the rare combination of professional design expertise, proven commercial success, audience influence, and industry credibility.

Built on Creativity, Backed by Experience

For over 25 years, Carrie has built a career creating artwork that connects with audiences through humor, color, and storytelling. Her experience spans fine art, illustration, surface pattern design, film and television, education, licensing, and product development.

Artist. Educator. Industry Leader.

Today, Carrie collaborates with brands to create products that delight customers while benefiting from the visibility, trust and loyalty she has built within the creative community.

Licensee Testimonials

"Carrie had a wide selection of art available for licensing, and she was very responsive and friendly. Because we needed exclusivity, and several pieces of hers had already been licensed, she created similar custom illustrations and got them to us quickly in the formats needed. We're looking forward to licensing more of her art in the future."

kate & laurel®
ALL THINGS DECOR

"We really enjoy everything about art licensing with Carrie. Her catalog is full of licensable art, and she consistently creates and shares fresh, trending work regularly. Her illustrations and patterns have been a great asset to our company, and we look forward to continuing our profitable, rewarding long-term relationship."

DenyDesigns.

"Carrie was an absolute pleasure to work with from start to finish. She was enthusiastic, highly professional, and incredibly responsive throughout the process. Carrie is organized, reliable, and clearly understands the licensing process inside and out. We highly recommend her as an illustrator and licensing partner."

Fly Paper Products

"Carrie consistently delivers proven, trend-forward designs that began selling immediately, directly contributing to our sales from the start. She is outgoing, enthusiastic, flexible, and always quick to respond, making collaboration seamless and enjoyable."

FUNKYPAPER CO.

"Carrie is very professional, friendly and easy to work with. She was happy to accommodate design tweaks, and she was responsive and quick with edits. Carrie delivered her charming, kid-friendly art as print-ready, high resolution files in a timely manner."

PRINCESS AWESOME

"Carrie is an exceptionally talented illustrator with a strong eye for design and trends. Her artwork began selling immediately on our platform, which speaks to both her creative skill and commercial awareness. We truly value having her ."
