Three Clubs, Three New Directions

Following on from the announcement last week that Lee Morris had moved on from Worsbrough Bridge Athletic, three more clubs in the area have made major changes in the dugout within the space of five days.

Chris Millington

Vill Powell

Jordan Lemon

Following last Saturday's game Dronfield Town manager Chris Millington announced he will step down after this weekend's game against Dunkirk, ending a near 10-year spell in charge which has seen him oversee more than 400 matches.

The club have already named a successor, appointing captain Lewis Naylor as manager. Naylor has himself played more than 400 times for Dronfield and takes charge for the first time against West Bridgford a week on Saturday.

Then, on Sunday, Stocksbridge Park Steels announced they are also searching for a new manager after Jordan Lemon resigned from his position. Assistant Joe Tomlinson has also left the club, prompting the opening of a recruitment process for a new management team at Bracken Moor.

Finally late yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) Sheffield FC stated they have parted company with Vill Powell after deciding a change was needed at this stage of the season.

The developments mean four clubs from across the local football scene are now under new leadership or actively looking for it.

Millington's departure is the longest-serving of the three changes.

He says the decision has been several weeks in the making and believes the side now needs a different voice after almost a decade at the helm.

At Dronfield, the transition has been planned, with Naylor ready to step up from captain to manager.

At Worsbrough Bridge, Stocksbridge and Sheffield FC, attention now turns to who will lead the clubs forward following significant changes less than two months into the campaign.

For supporters of all three clubs, the coming weeks could prove pivotal in shaping the rest of the season.

End Of An Era At Dronfield

Chris Millington will bring the curtain down on almost a decade as Dronfield Town manager on Saturday, admitting he is "a bit tired" and believes the team now needs "a different voice".

Lewis Naylor

Chris Millington

The long-serving boss will take charge for the final time when Town host Dunkirk before handing over the reins following more than 400 games in charge.

The decision has not been made lightly.

Millington revealed it has been several weeks in the making, with discussions taking place behind the scenes to ensure a smooth transition and protect the future of the club.

"It's a decision that's been a few weeks in the making," he said.

"I've been thinking about it for quite a while and we've just had to put things in place to ensure a bit of continuity after my departure.

"It's quite emotional but I think it's the right thing. I know it's the right thing for the club and the team moving forward."

In an honest assessment of his position, Millington admitted the demands of nearly 10 years in the dugout had taken their toll.

"I'm a bit tired if I'm being honest," he said.

"I'm tired after nine and a half years.

"I think the team needs something different. I think it needs a different voice.

"You just know when you know.

"I think my time as manager, as hard as it has been to come to this decision, has naturally come to an end."

The comments will resonate with anyone involved in non-league football.

Managing at Step 6 level brings long hours, constant pressure and countless unseen responsibilities away from a Saturday afternoon.

Millington admitted the role has had a major impact on family life and paid tribute to partner Emily and his children for supporting him throughout his time in charge.

"Most people within non-league football know it's quite demanding," he said.

"You take a lot home with you.

"My kids get their dad back for a little bit."

While the managerial chapter is ending, Millington stressed he will not be walking away from the club he has helped shape.

Instead, he plans to remain involved behind the scenes and support the incoming management team.

In fact, confidence in what comes next was a key factor in his decision to step aside.

"I'd only finish if it was right and we had the right people primed to take over," he said.

"I'm really excited about that.

"I see my role moving forward not so much on the football side of things, but to support the new manager and make sure he's got all the support off the pitch that he needs."

The new manager will be club captain Lewis Naylor, another figure synonymous with Dronfield Town.

Naylor has represented the club more than 400 times as both a goalkeeper and outfield player and now takes his first step into management.

For Millington, the appointment provides reassurance that the club remains in safe hands.

Reflecting on nearly 10 years in charge, he spoke warmly of the people who made the journey possible.

From committee members and volunteers to players past and present, he insisted Dronfield's progress had been a collective effort.

"There are loads of people to thank," he said.

"The team behind the team, as I call them, we couldn't have done what we've done over the last 10 years without them.

"The junior committee, the chairman, the secretary, Nick and Gina, the players, my family.

"The club wouldn't be where it is without all those people."

Among his favourite memories were a famous 5-2 victory at Yorkshire Amateurs, beating champions-elect Parkgate, dramatic encounters with Hallam and a battling draw against Retford while playing with 10 men.

Yet perhaps his greatest achievement cannot be found in a result.

After almost a decade at the helm, Millington leaves a club that is stable, ambitious and prepared for the future.

And as he prepares for one final afternoon in the dugout, his focus remains exactly where it has always been.

"I want to give the new manager a platform to come in to a win," he said.

"It'd be great to see lots of people down here on Saturday.

"We need points on the board."

As part of the send off for Chris Millington in his final game as manager, Dronfield Town have announced that admission to Saturday's game against Dunkirk will be free. A number of former players will also be in attendance. Kick off for the United Counties League Division One match is 3 pm

Lemon Resigns As Steels Begin Search

Stocksbridge Park Steels are searching for a new manager after Jordan Lemon stepped down from his position this week.

Lemon's departure was confirmed in a club statement on Sunday, with assistant manager Joe Tomlinson also leaving Bracken Moor.

The announcement brought an end to a managerial spell which began with considerable optimism following Lemon's appointment after the departure of Ian Richards.

A popular figure throughout the club, Lemon arrived in the role carrying the backing of supporters who knew him first and foremost as a player.

His connection with the Steels runs far deeper than his time in the dugout.

Before taking charge, Lemon spent years representing the club on the pitch and became one of the most recognisable personalities at Bracken Moor. His commitment and popularity made him an obvious candidate when the opportunity to move into management arose.

The challenge he inherited was significant.

Following relegation from the Northern Premier League Premier Division, the task was not simply to compete but to rebuild.

Results during that period were mixed, but many supporters continued to back Lemon and Tomlinson because of the work they were putting in behind the scenes and their obvious commitment to the football club.

Stocksbridge's statement reflected that respect.

The club thanked Lemon for his efforts and said he had always acted in the best interests of the Steels. Tomlinson was also praised for the support he had given to the manager, players and club throughout his time as assistant.

Jordan Lemon

Both men left with the good wishes of everyone at Bracken Moor.

The timing of the departure means the club now faces a major decision.

Unlike Dronfield Town, where a succession plan had already been established before Chris Millington's departure, Stocksbridge must now recruit a completely new management team.

Applications have already been invited from interested candidates.

The vacancy is likely to attract plenty of attention.

Despite recent challenges, Stocksbridge remain one of South Yorkshire's biggest and most recognisable non-league clubs. The infrastructure, support and ambition associated with the Steels ensure the position will be viewed as one of the most attractive opportunities in the region.

Whoever succeeds Lemon will inherit a club keen to move forward and a fanbase eager to see progress.

For now, however, the focus remains on the departure of two men who were deeply invested in the football club and whose commitment was never in question.

Sheffield FC Pull The Trigger

Sheffield FC have parted company with manager Vill Powell, making one of the most significant decisions of the season less than two months into the campaign.

The world's oldest football club announced yesterday (Wednesday) that it had decided to end Powell's tenure after what it described as "careful consideration", concluding that a change was needed at this stage of the season.

While managerial changes are commonplace in football, they tend to carry extra significance at Sheffield FC.

Few clubs have the history, profile or expectations attached to the First Club, and every appointment arrives with a level of scrutiny unmatched by most sides at this level.

The decision also comes against the backdrop of a difficult start to the campaign.

Sheffield have struggled for consistency in the United Counties League Premier Division North and suffered a 2-0 home defeat to Eastwood Community on Tuesday night. Results this season have included defeats to Parkgate, Hucknall Town, Heanor Town, AFC Mansfield and Belper United, leaving the club looking to build momentum after an inconsistent opening few weeks.

Powell had arrived with a strong reputation in non-league football and was tasked with helping Sheffield FC recover from some challenging years on the pitch.

Managing Sheffield FC is unlike managing most clubs.

The position brings the expectation of delivering results while also carrying the responsibility of representing arguably the most famous name in world football history. Every manager inherits not only a squad and a fixture list, but also the weight of 169 years of history.

Despite deciding to make a change, the club was keen to recognise Powell's contribution.

In its statement, Sheffield praised his hard work, commitment and professionalism, while also highlighting the way he represented the club and worked alongside players, staff and supporters.

Vill Powell

The tone of the announcement suggested a respectful separation rather than a bitter one.

There was no criticism of Powell, only an acknowledgement that results and performances had led the club to believe a fresh direction was required.

The challenge now shifts to the boardroom.

Finding the right manager is rarely straightforward at any level of football, but Sheffield FC's unique status means the next appointment will attract significant interest across the non-league game.

The successful candidate will inherit a club with outstanding facilities, a proud support base and a global reputation that stretches far beyond the division in which it currently competes.

However, they will also inherit pressure.

Supporters want to see progress. They want to see Sheffield FC moving up the pyramid rather than looking over their shoulder.

The search for a successor begins immediately.

And for whoever gets the nod, one of the most high-profile jobs in South Yorkshire non-league football will be waiting.

Hallam Fallout Shows No Sign Of Ending

The ongoing turmoil at Hallam FC has deepened further after another dramatic week in the battle for control of the world's second-oldest football club.

Last week, South Yorkshire Sport reported on claims of financial difficulties, boardroom disputes and rival groups preparing to fight for influence at a crucial Annual General Meeting. Now, fresh reporting from the Sheffield Tribune's Dan Hayes has revealed further controversy surrounding the historic Sandygate club.

In a statement released by Hallam FC, club secretary Ashley Carson moved to distance the committee from controversial remarks attributed to supporter and club legal adviser Scott Loveluck. The statement said comments made about members of a supporters' group seeking change at the club were personal opinions and not the views of Hallam FC.

The latest developments come with tensions already running high ahead of next month's AGM, where competing factions are expected to challenge for senior positions within the club. The meeting has already been delayed on more than one occasion and is now viewed by many supporters as a defining moment in Hallam's future.

The Sheffield Tribune also reported that former committee member Mike Jolly, now associated with the group pushing for change, has had his season ticket revoked following allegations of gross misconduct. The claims reportedly involve alleged breaches of confidentiality and the use of club communications. Jolly has denied the allegations and maintains he has done nothing wrong.

Questions also remain over proposed changes to Hallam's governance. Supporters backing reform want the club to become a Community Benefit Society, arguing the move would increase transparency, protect assets and allow a wider section of the fanbase to have a voice in key decisions. Critics remain concerned that altering the club's long-standing structure could have unintended consequences for a club founded in 1860.

The dispute comes against the backdrop of a difficult period on the pitch. Hallam remain rooted at the foot of the Northern Premier League East Division, losing their latest game last evening 3-0 at Grimsby Borough, increasing concerns that off-field distractions could begin to have a greater impact on performances.

For a club renowned throughout the football world for its history and heritage, supporters on all sides insist they are acting in Hallam's best interests. However, with disagreements continuing over committee nominations, voting procedures and the direction of the club itself, there appears little prospect of a quick resolution.

All eyes now turn to the AGM on October 14, where the next chapter in one of South Yorkshire football's most remarkable stories will be written.

Westville Eye Another National Cup Run

Westville will carry South Yorkshire's hopes into one of grassroots football's biggest competitions on Sunday when they host Leeds-based Chapeltown in the first round of the FA Sunday Cup.

The tie, which will be played at Dearne & District, sees Westville begin their third season in the national knockout competition and offers the region's last remaining representative this weekend the chance to make another statement on the national stage.

For many football supporters, the FA Sunday Cup remains one of the sport's hidden gems.

The competition is effectively the FA Cup for elite Sunday League clubs, attracting leading amateur sides from across England and culminating in a showpiece final at a major stadium. Last season's final was staged at Bramall Lane, where Liverpool side Home Bargains defeated Hartlepool AFC Supporters on penalties after a dramatic 1-1 draw. Home Bargains were also the team who ended Westville's cup run in the last 16.

Westville's progress to that stage underlined the quality within the South Yorkshire side.

Despite being drawn away from home in every round, they battled through to the last 16 before eventually suffering a narrow 2-0 defeat against the eventual winners.

Rob Furniss believes that experience can help the club this year.

"This is our third season in the National Cup," he said.

"Last season we were drawn away every round but reached the last 16, narrowly losing 2-0 to eventual winners Home Bargains FC of Liverpool."

Standing in their way this weekend are a club with an impressive record of their own.

Chapeltown are regarded as one of the leading Sunday sides in West Yorkshire and have enjoyed notable success in the competition, reaching the semi-finals on two occasions in recent years.

Furniss expects another difficult assignment.

"This year's first-round opponents Chapeltown FC from Leeds have a rich history in the competition, reaching the semi-final twice in recent years, so we are expecting a tough test," he said.

While officially a home tie, the match will be played at Dearne & District, something Westville hope can work in their favour.

"The game is being played at Dearne & District which will feel like a home game for a lot of our players who play there on a Saturday," Furniss added.

There is also confidence within the camp after a strong opening to the season.

"We have had a good start to the season so will be looking to continue the good form in this game and see if we can have a good run at it this season."

With the memories of last season's national adventure still fresh, Westville will be hoping Sunday marks the start of another.

And if they can overcome experienced opponents in Chapeltown, South Yorkshire's sole representatives this weekend could once again find themselves dreaming of a return to the latter stages of the most prestigious competition in Sunday football.

Cresswell Returns To Rotherham In Key Role

Former Rotherham United captain Ryan Cresswell has returned to his hometown club after being appointed Chief Operating Officer of Rotherham United Women.

The 38-year-old takes up the role with immediate effect following an agreement between the club and Doncaster Rovers and will oversee the day-to-day running and continued development of the women's club.

For Millers supporters, Cresswell remains a familiar and respected figure.

Born in Rotherham, the former centre-half enjoyed two spells with the club and captained the side during one of the most memorable periods in its recent history. Renowned for his leadership and wholehearted commitment, he became a popular figure with supporters before moving on to continue his playing career elsewhere in the Football League and non-League game.

Since retiring, Cresswell has steadily built an impressive coaching and management CV.

His post-playing career has included roles with Sheffield FC and Matlock Town, while he has also gained experience within the women's game. Those experiences have helped establish him as one of the region's emerging football administrators and coaches.

His appointment represents an ambitious move by Rotherham United Women as they continue to strengthen the club's structure off the field.

Women's football has undergone significant growth in recent years and clubs throughout the pyramid are increasingly investing in leadership, facilities and long-term planning. Bringing in somebody with Cresswell's experience from across the professional and non-League game is a clear signal of intent.

The former defender will be responsible for helping drive the club forward while working closely with ownership, football staff and operational departments as Rotherham United Women look to continue their development.

Despite taking on the new position, Cresswell will remain involved in coaching within the men's game.

The club has confirmed he will also take up an assistant manager role with a National League North side, allowing him to continue developing his coaching career while bringing that experience back into his work at Rotherham.

For Cresswell, the appointment marks another chapter in a career that has taken him from hometown player to club captain, manager, coach and now senior football executive.

For Rotherham United Women, it is the arrival of a well-known local football figure whose experience and connections could prove invaluable as the club continues to grow both on and off the pitch.

Ten-Man Ambers Snatch Dramatic Point

FEATURE GAME

Steve Birch

Rossington Main 2 –2 Handsworth

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST LEAGUE – PREMIER DIVISION

Ten-man Handsworth came from two goals down to rescue a dramatic point in a South Yorkshire derby thriller against Rossington Main.

This contest had almost everything. A controversial red card, goals, efforts cleared off the line, outstanding saves and, ultimately, a stunning stoppage-time equaliser that ensured both sides extended their unbeaten league runs in an entertaining 2-2 draw at Oxford Street.

Handsworth arrived unbeaten in five league matches since their defeat at Parkgate, while Rossington were undefeated in eight, although five of those had ended in draws.

The visitors made the brighter start and almost struck inside two minutes when Toby Kenyon's effort cannoned into Rossington defender Adam Watson, who required treatment after taking the full force of the strike.

It set the tone for a physical encounter that would eventually force both teams into early changes. One particularly heavy challenge involving Handsworth's Rion Arbouin and Rossington's Mason Warren left both players unable to continue.

Handsworth dominated much of the opening stages and should have taken the lead on nine minutes when Cameron Hough's effort was cleared off the line by Reece Fielding.

A minute later, Kian Johnson was required to produce an excellent save to tip Alfie Dodsworth's diving header over the crossbar, before Arbouin flashed a dangerous ball across goal that evaded everybody inside the six-yard box.

The match then exploded into controversy midway through the first half.

A long bouncing ball saw Myron Gibbons and former Rossington defender Hough battling shoulder-to-shoulder as they raced towards goal. Gibbons went to ground and referee Harry Searby deemed Hough had denied a goalscoring opportunity, producing a red card that sparked furious protests from the Handsworth camp.

"It felt like we were up against it after that," said joint manager Jon Froggatt. "The red card, nobody in the ground thinks it is. We felt hard done by, but the boys reacted brilliantly and never stopped believing they could get something out of the game."

Rossington joint boss Ben Hunter was more philosophical about the decision.

"From our point of view he's clean through, so it could have gone either way," he said. "You can always look at referees and decisions, but for us it was more about what we did afterwards."

Despite their numerical disadvantage, Handsworth continued to create chances, although Rossington gradually began to make the extra man count.

The breakthrough came in the 31st minute. A free-kick from the left was delivered to the back post where captain Fielding arrived to power home a diving header from close range.

Handsworth reached the break a goal behind but remained firmly in the contest thanks to an excellent save from James Pollard, who got down well to deny Oli Nowak after a driving run through midfield.

The visitors emerged strongly after half-time and enjoyed plenty of possession despite being a man light.

However, Rossington doubled their advantage on 62 minutes. Oli Currie was afforded space on the left side of the penalty area and picked out Ross Hannah, who calmly took a touch before turning and firing beyond Pollard from close range.

At 2-0, the game appeared to be slipping away from Handsworth.

Instead, they produced a response that underlined the resilience which has fuelled their recent unbeaten run.

Pollard first kept his side in the contest with a magnificent save from Kian Holloway before the visitors reduced the deficit with 12 minutes remaining.

A deep free-kick caused problems inside the Rossington penalty area and Owen Haigh cleverly helped the ball on for substitute James Simmonite, who marked his first senior start with a close-range header.

"The lads were dead on their feet at times," said Froggatt. "To get that first goal back gave us belief. We've come a long way as a group over the last five or six weeks and it showed in the way they kept going."

The momentum had shifted firmly towards the visitors, although Rossington almost wrapped up the points late on. Holloway's powerful run and shot was brilliantly turned away by Pollard before the resulting scramble somehow failed to produce a third goal.

It would prove a costly miss.

Two minutes into stoppage time, Handsworth completed the comeback with a goal worthy of rescuing any match.

Luke Mangham collected Tyler Williams' pass down the left and shaped as if to find Mitchell Dunne's run into the area. Instead, he cleverly pulled the ball back towards Jonathan Williams, who arrived on the edge of the box and unleashed a stunning first-time finish with his left foot into the top corner.

"It's probably one of the goals of the season," said Froggatt. "The quality of the finish was unbelievable and the scenes afterwards showed what it meant to everyone."

Ben Hunter admitted his side had only themselves to blame after allowing the game to escape them.

"We didn't have enough control, even when they were down to 10 men," he said. "It became a basketball game and that's exactly what Handsworth needed.

"We spoke at half-time about getting more control of the game but we failed to do it. Momentum is everything in football and once they got one back, you could feel it changing."

Although disappointed to surrender a two-goal lead, Hunter acknowledged the visitors deserved their reward.

"It feels like a loss because we've conceded with the last kick of the game, but fair play to Handsworth," he said. "They're a good team and if we're honest we didn't do enough to deserve all three points."

For Handsworth, the draw stretched their unbeaten league run to six matches and felt almost as satisfying as a victory given the circumstances.

"We've shown real character," added Froggatt. "When you dig in with 10 men for that length of time and still come away believing you can win the game, it says a lot about the group.

"We probably created enough chances to win it, even with 10 men, which tells you everything about the effort the lads put in."

The final whistle brought an end to a superb advertisement for local football, with both sides extending their unbeaten runs and neither really able to argue with a share of the spoils after 90 breathless minutes.

Austin Treble Fires Dearne Clear

FEATURE GAME

Steve Birch

Dearne & District 5 –1 Worsbrough Bridge Ath.

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST LEAGUE – PREMIER DIVISION

Dearne & District strengthened their grip on top spot in the NCEL Premier Division with an emphatic 5-1 victory over local rivals Worsbrough Bridge Athletic.

A Jamie Austin hat-trick, coupled with a stunning strike from Luke Skelton and a late Curtis Wilkinson effort, ensured the league leaders moved six points clear at the summit ahead of Bottesford Town's midweek fixture.

Dearne manager Zeph Thomas was delighted with the manner of the victory.

"It was a really good performance," he said afterwards. "It could have been more because we had quite a lot of chances in the first half and throughout the game. In a derby it could have been a tough one, especially with everything that's gone on at Worsbrough recently, but the boys performed really well."

With Worsbrough still adjusting to life following Lee Morris' departure, there was little to separate the sides during the opening half hour as both teams searched for a foothold in the contest.

Charlie Austerfield produced the visitors' first notable effort, cutting inside before firing straight at Dearne goalkeeper Ellis Pickard, while at the other end the league leaders twice saw efforts cleared off the line.

Jordan Kershaw was causing Worsbrough problems with his movement and Dearne felt they should have been awarded a penalty in the 28th minute when Owen Sykes' long throw caused chaos inside the visitors' penalty area.

Referee Gracie Dickens waved away those appeals, but two minutes later she had no hesitation in pointing to the spot when Austin was brought down just inside the area.

The striker dusted himself down and calmly sent the penalty into the bottom corner to give Dearne a deserved lead.

A second penalty appeal followed soon after when Kershaw fired wide, although again the referee was unmoved.

Worsbrough almost found an equaliser on 37 minutes when Lloyd Smith was played through, only to scuff his effort wide of the target.

That miss proved costly.

Three minutes later, the visitors found themselves in further trouble when Freddie Russell was shown a sin-bin after disputing a throw-in decision. Having advanced too far up the touchline while preparing to take the throw, he ignored instructions to retreat and continued his protests when possession was awarded to Dearne.

The home side capitalised immediately.

Austin chased down what appeared a lost cause near the corner flag and cleverly pulled the ball back into the path of Skelton, who unleashed a spectacular 25-yard strike into the roof of the net.

"It was a great strike from Skelly," said Thomas. "He's normally good for one a season. He was close to scoring on Saturday as well, so we're really pleased for him."

The goal transformed the game and Dearne struck again in first-half stoppage time.

Kershaw danced his way down the left wing before delivering a low cross towards the near post, where Austin arrived to flick home his second goal of the evening and send the hosts into the break with a commanding 3-0 advantage.

"I thought after the first 30 minutes we were comfortable," said Thomas. "Kirshan had a few chances and on another day you'd like to think he'd score, but he's getting into those positions and creating problems. Overall I thought we controlled the game well."

Dearne began the second half with the same attacking intent and created a succession of chances without finding a fourth goal.

Any hopes of a Worsbrough comeback suffered a major blow when Russell's evening deteriorated further. Just 11 minutes after returning from his sin-bin, he was shown a second yellow card after wrestling a Dearne player to the ground, leaving the visitors to complete the match with 10 men.

Interim manager Luke Smith had also found himself booked as frustrations began to grow on the touchline.

Despite being under heavy pressure, Worsbrough briefly threatened to make a contest of it when Keelan Gist pulled a goal back in the 66th minute.

The response from Dearne was swift and emphatic.

Five minutes later Austin completed his hat-trick after reacting quickest following a scramble inside the penalty area and drilling the ball across goal into the far corner.

The visitors' protests over an alleged foul in the build-up only compounded their problems. Stephen Williams was sent to the sin-bin for dissent, temporarily reducing Worsbrough to nine men.

With the game effectively over as a contest, Dearne continued to press forward in search of more goals.

Sykes rattled the post with a powerful 20-yard free-kick before the outstanding Wilkinson added a fifth. Substitute Ashton Peltier was the creator, pulling the ball back into the area for Wilkinson to finish confidently.

Sykes was still searching for a goal of his own and went close again in stoppage time when a vicious 35-yard strike took a deflection and flashed narrowly wide.

The final whistle confirmed another impressive night for the league leaders, who now turn their attention to Saturday's trip to Rossington Main.

"We're top of the league, which is nice, but it's still early doors," said Thomas. "People have games in hand and there's a lot of football to be played. We've just got to keep doing what we're doing and keep winning games.

"Rossington will be another tough one. It's one of my former clubs and I've got friends there, so that'll add a little bit of spice to it. We're looking forward to it."

For Dearne, this was another statement performance from a side beginning to look every inch title contenders. For Worsbrough, meanwhile, the search for stability continues after a second successive heavy defeat.

Stocksbridge in action against West Auckland Town

Jordan Lemon was a beloved figure at Stocksbridge. As a right back, he gave 100% to cause in every game, win, lose, or draw. He even had his own Luis Suarez moment in Pontefract, getting a red card handballing off the line while the Steels led 1-0, allowing Edd Hall to save the following penalty.

So when Ian Richards left Stocksbridge in a moment that continues to sting, Jordan Lemon took the natural step up. Even with a lack of managerial experience, his appointment was warmly received and he had the club behind him. Even when relegation from the Northern Premier League Premier Division happened, the majority of the fan base supported him going into the next season.

But, as the final whistle went at the West Auckland Town match, it didn't need a statement the next morning to say what was happening. Fans noted that Lemon and his assistant Joe Tomlinson went straight into the committee room rather than follow the team up to the dressing room following the 3-0 defeat. And when Stocksbridge's social media announced the news of Lemon and Tomlinson's resignation, it was gutting, but also not that surprising.

It was a game where the players seemed to sense the ending was near as well. The Steels have always been up for the fight, willing to battle for every ball. In this game, that wasn't there as West Auckland, who claim to be the first World Cup winners ever, won every 50/50 and got to every loose ball first.

The first goal was almost a farce when Will Sutton almost put the ball into his own net, only being denied by Ben Townsend's reflex save. Instead, it was a stunner that saw the deadlock broken. Liam Hegarty isn't one to normally score, but when he wasn't closed down he decided to have a go and Townsend was left with no chance.

And the first half was brutal, as West Auckland could have easily had the game done by half time. However, they were poor in front of goal and let Stocksbridge off. James Harrison in particular always seemed to get in a good position to score, only to send it closer to the cafe than the goal.

In the second half, the inevitable second would come. Townsend had been one of the few to come out of the first half with some credit but he'd have an error of his own as an errant bounce saw the ball loop over his head. Cobi Jones was aware and was able to nip in to score into an empty net.

Heads would drop after this and the result never looked like it might change. West Auckland would add another with Liam Bailey having a deflected strike go in, but really it didn't matter. It could have been far more than just the three, but the mental impact on the players was obvious as they slunk off following the full time whistle.

The resignation of Jordan Lemon and Joe Tomlinson was announced the next day, and Stocksbridge are looking for the next manager to take the reins. Unfortunately, the romantic story of Lemon going from the player who was only meant to be at Stocksbridge for a month before becoming the manager would have a heartbreaking ending.

Interim managers Ben Townsend and Gareth Davies then faced a difficult first assignment on Tuesday night as Stocksbridge slipped to a 4-1 defeat at Garforth Town.

The scoreline looked brutal on paper, but both were encouraged by what they saw after the break. Romero Dunn's goal pulled the Steels back into the contest at 2-1 and, for a spell, they looked the more likely side to score next.

Townsend felt the result did not accurately reflect the performance.

"It weren't a 4-1 performance," he said. "I thought the lads dug in and did really well. When luck's not on your side and you're down there fighting, you don't get the rub of the green and that's what's happened today.

"The second half was some of the best football we've played for a long time. We asked them to be brave, play with a little bit of freedom and show what they're capable of, and I thought they did that."

Davies also believed the game turned on key moments rather than a gulf in quality between the sides.

"We got a goal back and looked like the better team," he said. "We looked like we were actually going to equalise. The work ethic was there and the second half we were much the better side.

"When you're having a run and the luck's down, you just hope for that little change and I've got no doubt that'll come."

The defeat continued a difficult period for the Steels following the departure of manager Jordan Lemon and assistant Joe Tomlinson, but Townsend was keen to stress the players had not downed tools despite the recent turmoil.

"It's been a tough week," he said. "We've not just lost a manager, we've lost an ex-teammate and we've lost a good friend.

"I can't thank Jordan enough for what he's done. There's not a lot more Jordan and Joe could have done. The lads are working unbelievably hard, things are just not going our way at the minute."

Whether Stocksbridge can turn performances into points remains to be seen, but after a week dominated by resignation and disappointment, the second-half display at Garforth at least offered a hint that there is still some fight left in the Steels.

Lost Momentum

HALLAM

Lucas Draft

Hallam's FA Trophy adventure may have come to an end on Saturday, but the bigger disappointment arrived three days later.

A penalty shoot-out defeat against Prescot Cables was easier to accept after a performance full of commitment, quality and belief. Wednesday night's 3-0 loss at Grimsby Borough was a different story altogether.

Having built momentum through recent displays, the Countrymen suffered what was arguably their most frustrating setback in several weeks.

That's what made it such a difficult week to assess.

On one hand, Hallam were within a penalty shoot-out of reaching another historic milestone in the FA Trophy. On the other, they followed one of their best performances of the season with one of their poorest.

Saturday had offered plenty of encouragement.

Prescot arrived at Sandygate sitting second in the NPL West Division and carrying realistic ambitions of an immediate return to Step 3. Yet there was little between the sides.

In fact, Danny Patterson felt Hallam were the better team.

"I enjoyed the game," he said.

"I thought we were superb to a man again. We're really proud of them.

"We've gone in 1-0 at half-time, deservedly so I thought.

"They're second in their league and absolutely flying and you couldn't tell."

Leon Howarth's goal gave Hallam a deserved advantage and for long spells the Countrymen looked every bit the equal of their highly-rated visitors.

Prescot eventually levelled after a momentary lapse in concentration before the tie drifted towards penalties.

After victories from the spot in previous rounds, Hallam's luck finally ran out.

But there was little disappointment with the performance itself.

"I thought we matched them and more today," said Patterson.

"We've got new lads coming in as well who did really well."

Richard Patterson also felt there was very little separating the sides.

"Nothing between the teams really," he said.

"I thought collectively as a full squad we're getting there.

"Some big improvements and some good performances in there today."

Those comments reflected a growing belief around the club.

The Countrymen had defeated Dearne & District in the Senior Cup, pushed Prescot all the way in the FA Trophy and generally looked far stronger than their league position suggested.

The challenge was taking that confidence into Wednesday's trip to Grimsby Borough.

Instead, Hallam came away empty-handed and searching for answers.

The visitors actually started brightly.

An early chance for Leon Howarth and a huge penalty appeal could easily have changed the complexion of the contest.

Both Danny and Richard were adamant Hallam should have been awarded a spot-kick.

Instead, play continued and Hallam never truly recovered.

Richard Patterson felt the team's reaction to subsequent setbacks was the biggest concern.

"We started really well, first 10 minutes," he said.

"But from there on our reaction to conceding two soft goals, and we were soft.

"I was really disappointed."

The frustration with the officials was obvious afterwards, but neither manager attempted to use that as the main reason for defeat.

For all their anger over key decisions, they were far more concerned by what happened after them.

"We need more character than that when things go against you," said Richard.

"We didn't see that tonight."

Danny Patterson delivered an equally honest assessment.

"We've got to be better in certain phases of play," he said.

"We've had a good week and then we've come into this confident and I think we've fell flat at times.

"We've not defended right and it's too soft, really poor goals."

Those comments cut to the heart of Hallam's season so far.

The Countrymen have demonstrated on numerous occasions that they can compete.

They have matched teams near the top of their division. They have enjoyed an historic FA Trophy run. They have gained praise from opponents throughout the campaign.

What they have not done consistently enough is turn those performances into points.

The league table remains a concern.

The management team know that.

And after Grimsby, the focus switched from frustration to accountability.

"Let's see what we're made of," said Richard.

"It needs people to stand up when you're down there.

"It needs characters. It needs leadership."

That challenge now falls on the dressing room.

There were still positives to take from Wednesday night. Danny highlighted the performances of Tom Zebrone and second-half substitute Ben Dyers, while Cal Ward's contribution up front also earned praise.

But Hallam are now entering an important period of the season.

The Patterson brothers have repeatedly spoken about progress, improvement and learning.

The evidence has often been there.

The issue is consistency.

Against Prescot, Hallam looked like a side capable of competing with anyone at this level.

Against Grimsby, they looked a team still wrestling with the same issues that have hampered them throughout the season.

The next task is proving the Grimsby result was the exception rather than the rule.

Because if the Countrymen can redisCover the level shown against Prescot, there is still every reason to believe better days lie ahead.

If not, the frustration of Wednesday night may not be the last difficult conversation Danny and Richard Patterson have to endure this season.

Main Pair Keep Pace

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST

Matt Jones

There was no shortage of excitement across the Macron Northern Counties East League over the weekend, with 53 goals scored in the Premier Division and Division One, including a dramatic six-goal draw on Friday night and several emphatic victories on Saturday.

The standout fixture came at the Young Guns Arena where Tadcaster Albion and Knaresborough Town shared a thrilling 3-3 draw. The visitors looked set for victory after goals from Ben Gelder, Harry Coates and Nathan Cartman had twice put them in command. However, Jaydan Clarke-Thompson and Charlie Owen kept Tadcaster in contention before Curtis Senior struck in the final minute to rescue a point for the Brewers in front of a crowd of 282.

Elsewhere on Friday evening, Campion continued their impressive form with a comfortable 4-0 success at Worsbrough Bridge Athletic. Shay Muirhead helped himself to a first-half brace before Ewan Gregson added two more goals after the break, one from the penalty spot.

In the Premier Division on Saturday, Frickley Athletic secured a valuable 2-0 home victory over Thackley in new manager Lee Morris' first game in charge, despite going down to ten men before half time after the dismissal of Jayden Roberts. After a goalless first half, Sam Cable broke the deadlock before Joel Spencer wrapped up the points with a late second.

Barton Town produced a strong second-half display to overcome Golcar United 3-1. George Doyle's first-half effort gave Golcar the advantage, but Albie Collier and Danny Earl scored within two minutes of the restart before George Dawber sealed victory three minutes from time.

Horbury Town were among the day's biggest winners, defeating Albion Sports 4-1. Thomas Brook scored twice, with Joe Jagger and Joel Feirn also on target before Talent Ndlovu grabbed a late consolation penalty for the visitors.

Penistone Church claimed a 3-0 victory at Keighley Town with all the goals coming in the second half. Nathan Keightley converted a penalty on the hour before Harry Viggars and Reece High struck in the closing stages to secure all three points.

Pickering Town made the most of first-half opportunities to defeat Retford FC 2-1. Goals from Dominic Weston and Souleymane Coulibaly earned the Pikes a two-goal interval lead and although Bernard Nsiah Yaa's stoppage-time penalty reduced the deficit, Retford ran out of time.

There was derby stalemate at Cannon Park where Retford United and Dearne & District battled to a goalless draw, while Rossington Main and Handsworth shared the points in a dramatic 2-2 encounter. Rossington appeared on course for victory through goals from Reece Fielding and veteran striker Ross Hannah, but strikes in the final twelve minutes from James Simmonite and Jonathan Williams salvaged a point for Handsworth who finished the game with ten men after Cameron Hough saw red.

Bottesford Town and Parkgate also had to settle for a point each following a scoreless draw.

Division One produced plenty of goals, led by LIV's emphatic 7-0 victory at Athersley Recreation. James Nichols was the star of the show with four goals, while George Walmsley, Jake Harman and Noan Lyon completed the rout as LIV moved to within touching distance of the league leaders.

Brigg Town entertained a crowd of 477 and rewarded them with a 4-2 win over Winterton Rangers. Josh Batty scored twice, with Reece York and Dayle Southwell also finding the net.

Wombwell Town delivered another eye-catching performance as they defeated Immingham Town 6-1 despite going behind after only two minutes. Ollie Fearon and Dan Youel both struck twice, while Nash Connolly and Morgan James were also on target.

Route One Rovers enjoyed a productive afternoon, beating South Leeds 5-1 thanks largely to a four-goal haul from Umar Ali Zahoor. Despite Nathan Stephenson giving bottom of the table South Leeds an early lead, the hosts responded emphatically.

Appleby Frodingham maintained their recent improvement with a 3-1 victory over Harrogate Railway Athletic. James Chester scored twice and Ethan Bojang also found the net as the Steelmen established a commanding first-half advantage.

Field Olympic triumphed 3-0 at Hemsworth Miners Welfare, with Omar Habeeb scoring twice after Danny Edwards opened the scoring, while Ilkley Town recorded a similarly convincing 3-0 win over Goole AFC.

Crowle Colts survived a spirited comeback to defeat Club Thorne Colliery 3-2 after racing into a three-goal lead inside the opening twenty minutes, and Kinsley Boys edged past Leeds UFCA 1-0 courtesy of Lucas Stubbs' third-minute winner.

The points were shared at Armthorpe Welfare where Wakefield AFC fought back for a 1-1 draw. Alfie Charlotte's first-half strike looked set to earn Armthorpe victory before James Eyles levelled just after the hour mark.

With late goals, high-scoring victories and several important results at both ends of the tables, the final weekend of September provided another memorable chapter in the NCEL season.

Late Drama Rocks Midweek

There was no shortage of talking points in a busy midweek programme across the Macron Northern Counties East League, with title hopefuls maintaining momentum, dramatic late goals deciding contests and a handful of eye-catching individual performances lighting up both the Premier Division and Division One.

In the Premier Division on Tuesday, Albion Sports struck twice in the final nine minutes to snatch a 2-1 victory over Frickley Athletic. After a goalless first half, Elliott Andrew appeared to have secured the points for the visitors when he broke the deadlock on 70 minutes. However, Zackary Sangster levelled with nine minutes remaining before Joseph Poxon completed the turnaround in stoppage time.

Barton Town produced one of the performances of the night as they swept aside Pickering Town 4-0 in front of 301 spectators. Albie Collier opened the scoring after quarter of an hour before Tom Waudby doubled the advantage shortly before the break. Waudby grabbed his second on 75 minutes and Matthew Stafford completed an emphatic victory ten minutes from time.

A Jamie Austin hat-trick inspired Dearne & District to a convincing 5-1 success over Worsbrough Bridge Athletic. Austin converted a penalty on 32 minutes before adding further goals just before half-time and midway through the second period. Luke Skelton and Curtis Wilkinson were also on target, with Keelan Grist grabbing Worsbrough's consolation.

Horbury Town continued their strong form with a 2-0 win over Tadcaster Albion. Joel Feirn's first-half strike put the hosts ahead and Joseph Angell wrapped up the points eight minutes from time.

The quickest goal of the evening came at Roundwood, where Alex Asaba scored after just nine seconds to earn Parkgate a narrow 1-0 victory against Retford United.

There was a strong finish from Retford FC as they overcame Keighley Town 3-1. After a goalless first half, Krzysztof Jarosz opened the scoring before an own goal by Sam Tingle briefly brought Keighley back into the contest. Aaron Sennett-Neilson then struck twice in the closing 15 minutes to secure the points.

On Wednesday night, Rossington Main collected an impressive away win at Campion, Oliver Nowak's 64th-minute effort proving decisive in a 1-0 success.

Knaresborough Town edged past Penistone Church 2-1. Matthew Lee had given the Church an early lead, but Nathan Cartman equalised before the break and William Lenehan netted the winner midway through the second half.

Goals from Nathaneal Dyer and Jake Brown gave Bottesford Town a 2-0 victory at Thackley, both strikes arriving after the interval.

In Division One, Club Thorne Colliery left it late before defeating Appleby Frodingham 2-0. Lewis Graham eventually broke the deadlock on 76 minutes and Scott Hutchinson added gloss to the scoreline in stoppage time.

The biggest scoreline of the week came at Field Olympic, who demolished Immingham Town 6-0. Danny Edwards stole the headlines with a hat-trick, including a penalty just before the interval, while Kieron Batey, Jonathan Mwembie and Joseph Colley also found the net in a dominant display.

A crowd of 425 watched Goole AFC and Brigg Town battle out a goalless draw, the highest attendance across Division One despite neither side being able to find a breakthrough.

Leeds UFCA rescued a point in dramatic fashion against Selby Town. Maximillian Bauer looked to have earned Selby victory with a strike two minutes before half-time, only for Sidiba Krubally to snatch a 90th-minute equaliser for the hosts.

Wakefield AFC maintained their push near the top with a 3-1 win over Hemsworth Miners Welfare. James Eyles scored either side of the break, Kenzie Dillion added a third, and although Matthew Semley replied in stoppage time, the result was never in serious doubt.

Wednesday's Division One fixtures saw Armthorpe Welfare claim a 2-0 success at Ilkley Town through goals from Finley Harding and Bayley Lowe, while LIV and Crowle Colts shared the spoils in an entertaining 2-2 draw. James Nichols and Ryan Whincup were on target for LIV, with Atley Jackson and Brandon McClurey replying for the visitors.

Winterton Rangers secured a 2-0 home victory over Kinsley Boys, both goals coming in the second half through Lewis Walker and Tyler Hamilton.

Managers Depart As Seasons Shift

UNITED COUNTIES LEAGUE

Selston v Dronfield Town (Green)

The biggest stories involving South Yorkshire's United Counties League clubs this week came away from the pitch, with managerial change dominating the headlines at both Sheffield FC and Dronfield Town.

At Sheffield, Vill Powell's reign came to an end after a difficult week that saw Club suffer defeats in both cup and league competition.

Saturday's United Counties League Cup tie brought a narrow 1-0 home defeat against Knowle, with a late goal settling the contest in front of a large crowd at the Home of Football Stadium. Sheffield then followed that with a 2-0 home loss against Eastwood CFC on Tuesday evening as their difficult start to the season continued.

The decision to part company with Powell followed those setbacks and leaves Sheffield searching for new leadership as they attempt to climb away from the lower reaches of the Premier Division North table.

While Sheffield prepare for a new era, Dronfield Town are preparing for the end of one.

Chris Millington will leave his role after Saturday's fixture against Dunkirk and his final away game in charge brought both promise and heartbreak at Selston.

For over an hour, Dronfield produced some of their best football of the season.

A lively debut from Alex Wilkinson helped create the opening goal for Max Rhodes before Connor Chapell doubled the advantage from the penalty spot after Rhodes had been brought down.

Dronfield looked comfortable at 2-0 and might even have extended their advantage after Wilkinson struck the post.

Instead, the game turned dramatically.

Josh Smith reduced the deficit before a hugely controversial moment saw substitute Emmanuel Rogers booked for simulation after what appeared to be a clear foul inside the penalty area.

Rather than moving 3-1 ahead, Dronfield suddenly found themselves under pressure.

Nick Hines levelled on 85 minutes before Joe Naylor headed home deep into stoppage time to complete a remarkable comeback and condemn the visitors to a devastating 3-2 defeat.

The result leaves Dronfield in the lower reaches of the table and searching for a winning farewell for Millington this weekend.

The mood is considerably brighter at Swallownest.

Jamie Housley's side continue to establish themselves among Division One's promotion contenders and further strengthened those credentials over the past week.

Saturday's trip to high-flying Shirebrook Town looked one of the toughest assignments available and matters became even more difficult when the hosts established a two-goal lead.

Many teams would have folded.

Swallownest responded magnificently.

George Walker started the fightback before Liam Arnold completed the comeback as the visitors earned a deserved 2-2 draw against one of the division's strongest sides.

That result was followed by Sheffield and Hallamshire Senior Cup action on Tuesday evening against SJR Worksop.

Patrick Muirhead gave Swallownest the lead before the visitors equalised late on, forcing a penalty shootout.

Housley's side held their nerve from the spot to progress to the next round and keep another cup campaign alive.

With promotion form intact and cup progress secured, Swallownest remain South Yorkshire's standout success story this season.

For Maltby Main, however, it was another difficult week.

Promotion hopefuls Southwell City left Muglet Lane with a 2-0 victory on Saturday as the visitors reinforced their place among the leading contenders in Division One.

Things became even more frustrating on Tuesday evening when Pinxton arrived in South Yorkshire.

The Miners were expected to pick up valuable points against opponents from the lower reaches of the table but instead suffered a disappointing defeat that leaves them searching for answers after a difficult run of results.

The challenge for Nick Buxton's side now is to halt that slide before the gap between themselves and the play-off contenders grows any wider.

Elsewhere, Clipstone continue to set the pace at the top of Division One, while Southwell City and Staveley Miners Welfare remain firmly involved in the promotion hunt.

Swallownest's ability to keep pace with those clubs is a measure of how impressive their progression has been over the past month.

For South Yorkshire's quartet, though, this was ultimately a week defined by change.

One club has already made a managerial switch. Another is preparing to.

As autumn settles in, Sheffield and Dronfield face uncertain futures, while Swallownest continue to provide a reminder of what stability and momentum can achieve.

Southey Hit Eight To Go Top

BLADES SUPER DRAW

Keith Firminger

Wickersley CC and Wadsley Bridge Sixers maintained their perfect starts in the CBC Premier, while Southey Social surged to the Division One summit with a devastating eight-goal display.

Wickersley lead the way on goal difference after a controlled 2-0 home victory over Jubilee Rangers. Liam O'Brien's driving run created the opener for Adam Daughtrey before James Hardeman added a fine second, bending his effort in off the post as Wickersley made it four wins from four.

The Sixers are keeping pace after seeing off Mosborough Reds 3-1. Niall Wilkinson opened the scoring before Billy Kitching levelled for Reds before the break. Leo Penty restored the advantage in the second half and Chris Belhaw sealed victory as Wadsley Bridge continued their flawless start.

Hackenthorpe claimed one of the results of the day with a thrilling 4-3 win at Eckington. Chad Gibson was the star of the show, scoring a hat-trick and creating another for Kian Holloway. Eckington battled throughout with Adrian Horspool, Alex Flanagan and Pat Stothard all on target, but Hackenthorpe held firm to collect the points.

Royal Earl picked up their first home win of the campaign with a 2-0 success over Boynton Sports. Theo Wilson headed them in front before Connor Chapell produced a stunning 30-yard free-kick to wrap up the victory.

Stannington Village continued their impressive away form with a 3-0 win at Loca. Niall Loughlin struck twice while substitute Mikey Vella also found the net as Village made it two wins from two on the road.

In Division One, Southey Social laid down a major marker with an 8-0 demolition of Brinsworth Whitehill. Jack Whyers led the charge with four goals as the promotion favourites became the only side in the division to retain a perfect record. Roan Heeley, Aaron Liles, Jack Dickens and Isaac Kamara were also on the scoresheet in a ruthless display.

AFC Wisewood surrendered their 100 per cent record but remained unbeaten after drawing 1-1 with The Sportsman. After a scoreless first half, Sam Gommersall headed Wisewood in front, only for Dan Beech to earn The Sportsman a deserved point.

Queens Head recorded their first league victory of the season with a 4-1 triumph at Crookes. The hosts initially led through Hamish Adamson, but Queens took control after the break, scoring twice from corners before adding two more goals on the counter attack as Crookes chased an equaliser.

Herons Stay Perfect

DONCASTER SUNDAY

Chris Daines

Scawthorpe Herons maintained their unbeaten start to the Doncaster Sunday League Premier Division season with a convincing 4-0 victory over Pollingtob FC.

Murphys FC added to ZK Dons' difficult start to the campaign by running out 5-2 winners, while Herons Reserves claimed a 3-1 success against Horse & Groom.

The game of the day came at Edlington where Tumbler edged out Styruup Rats 5-4 in a thrilling nine-goal contest.

In the Championship, Auckley defeated Mallard 2-0 and Carcroft Village shared the points with Glasshouse in a 2-2 draw.

Epworth came out on top in a ten-goal thriller, beating Willaspoons 6-4, while Dunscroft returned from Rawcliffe with all three points following a 5-3 victory.

Innings enjoyed a productive trip to Edlington FC, recording a comprehensive 6-1 win, and Harworth MUSC defeated Warren Park Red Lion 4-2 away from home.

Division One leaders Adwick Park Foresters continued their impressive start to the season with a 5-2 victory over Balby FC.

Hensall Hawks edged out Herons Thirds 2-1, while Kinsley Boys were convincing 6-1 winners against Murphys Seconds.

Shireoaks produced the biggest score of the division, hitting eight goals against Goole Borough in a dominant victory.

Brinsworth And Darnall Lead The Way

ROTHERHAM SUNDAY

Mark Pilley

The leading contenders in the Rotherham & District Sunday League continued to strengthen their positions at the top of the table, while the Brain Beeley Cup provided plenty of goals and a few eye-catching performances across the weekend.

Brinsworth DC remain the team to catch in the Premier Division after extending their perfect start to four wins from four matches. Lewis Ford stole the show with a hat-trick as Brinsworth defeated AFC Lord Nelson 4-0, with Harry Day adding the other goal.

The result was particularly significant as Lord Nelson had earlier hit Whiston for seven in a rearranged fixture. Brandon Bagley netted a hat-trick while Kemahti Anderson scored twice in a 7-2 victory which briefly sent them into the top four.

Deer Park Tap continue to look like genuine title challengers following promotion. Goals from Harley Moore, Connor Sanderson, Billy Wright and Jamie Purkiss secured a 4-2 victory over AFP Press Box and lifted Deer Park onto 10 points from their opening four matches.

Defending champions The Gate Inn remain ominously placed in third despite having played fewer games than their rivals. Steven Taylor struck a hat-trick and Josh Stead added two goals in a convincing 6-2 win over Thorpe Hesley Village to maintain their 100 per cent record.

Further down the table, Clubhouse and Butchers Arms shared a 1-1 draw, while Thurcroft Hub and Jack in Box finished level by the same scoreline.

The Championship title race is already developing into a two-horse contest between Darnall Urban and Milldam, with both sides maintaining perfect records.

Darnall made it four wins from four after overcoming Swinton Athletic 3-1. Otis Junior Pyke continued his impressive early-season form with two more goals, while Kaiden Simpson was also on target.

Milldam remain level on points after edging a tough contest at Maltby Main Haynook. Charlie Crapper and a Kenan Rhodes double earned a 3-2 victory which kept Milldam neck-and-neck with Darnall at the summit.

Brinsworth Whitehill JFC Men's were held to a 2-2 draw by Handsworth Inn, who remain well placed in fourth position, while AFC Monkwood collected their first league win of the season thanks to Liam Reeve's brace in a 2-1 success over AFC Yorkshire Terrier.

In Division One, leaders The Little Mester made a major statement by defeating fellow promotion contenders Beighton Magpies 3-0. Keegan Hubbock, Kyle Skeldon and Corey Walker were all on target as Mester preserved their perfect start and opened up a gap at the top.

The Colin climbed into second place thanks largely to a Wesley Dearing hat-trick in a 4-2 victory over Kilton United, while Harthill edged an entertaining nine-goal thriller against Loca FC RDSL.

AFC Brush and Easel continue to dominate Division Two. A 4-1 victory over Bradgate made it four wins from four and extended their advantage at the top. Sean Thompson scored twice, with Jordan Billum and Dalton Broomhead also finding the net.

Wickersley AFC remain unbeaten after drawing 1-1 with Hope Valley Tap, while Woodsetts Rangers produced one of the performances of the weekend by defeating Ravenfield Arms 7-1. Cameron Hill and Davy Rio Lee both claimed hat-tricks.

Woodman Woodlaithes bounced back from earlier struggles in spectacular fashion, hammering AFC Sheffield 9-0 with Aaron Talbot and Nathan Hooper both scoring twice.

Division Three remains extremely congested. Aston Swallownest continued their excellent start with a 2-1 victory over Aston Athletic through goals from Thomas Moss and Sam Bell, while Brinsworth FC secured a 3-2 win over The Club Pot thanks to goals from Keaton Rowley, Jack Rowley and Callum Jarvis.

Steel City Whippets also kept themselves among the leading pack as goals from Edward Woolfe and Idris Yusuf earned a 2-0 victory over Sportsman Inn.

The Brain Beeley Cup provided plenty of talking points as clubs from across the divisions looked to advance.

AFC Maltby were among the biggest winners, with Reece Reeve hitting a hat-trick in a 5-1 victory over Horse and Jockey.

Brecks Snooker underlined their promotion credentials with a convincing 7-1 success against Inter Rother, while Chaucer Athletic progressed thanks to Reece Hawkes' hat-trick in a 4-2 win over Ship Inn.

Langold Old Boys defeated Ecclesfield Blues 4-2, and Ecclesfield Stocks eased through with a 4-0 victory over Thurcroft Juniors thanks in part to a Ben Litchfield brace.

Rosegarth continued their impressive start to the season by beating RUSC85 The Travellers 4-1, while Sheffield Spartans powered past United 4 Communities 7-2.

Middlewood Rovers claimed one of the standout results by knocking out Division Four high-flyers Brampton United 3-2, and AFC Lounge completed another productive day with a 6-2 victory over Manor Hotel.

At the top of the league structure, Brinsworth DC, Darnall Urban, Milldam, The Little Mester and AFC Brush and Easel all remain unbeaten and are beginning to establish themselves as the early pace-setters, although with only a few weeks of the season gone, there is still plenty of football left to play.

Turner Treble Keeps Dinnington Flying

CENTRAL MIDLANDS ALLIANCE

Richard Lane

Dinnington Town and Rossington Main were the standouts in a busy week of Central Midlands Alliance action, while Harworth Colliery maintained their perfect start and SJR Worksop claimed derby bragging rights.

Harworth continued their 100 per cent record in the Premier North with a commanding 3-0 win over SJR Worksop on Tuesday night. Billy Stafford and Fin Musson both converted early penalties to put the Colliery side in charge before Cory Goodwin wrapped up the victory late on. SJR's task was made even harder when two players were sent off, leaving them with nine men by the final whistle.

Rossington Main enjoyed a productive week. They followed a 3-1 midweek victory at Ollerton Town, thanks to a Damian Wieczorek double and a Lee Holmes header, with an emphatic 4-0 Buckingham Insurance League Cup success over Frickley Athletic Reserves. Holmes, Leo Graham, Marcel Chipamaunga and Finlay Perkins were all on target.

Dinnington progressed in two competitions. Jordan Turner, Nathan Jessop, Jedidja Matuta and Ali Elkossi helped them cruise to a 5-1 Sheffield County Cup win at Thorncliffe United before Turner stole the headlines again on Saturday with a hat-trick in a 4-1 Premier North win over Rossington Main Reserves. Cole Thorpe also found the net as Dinnington strengthened their position in the top four.

SJR Worksop bounced back from their Harworth defeat by winning 2-1 against Worksop Town Reserves. Bailey Gooda gave the Tigers the lead, but Matty Templeton struck twice in the second half to turn the contest around.

There was also local bragging rights at Cudworth where Doncaster Elite Academy defeated Evo Academy 3-0, Travis Gordon scoring all three goals.

Elsewhere in the Premier North, RHP Sports overcame third-placed Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves 1-0 despite being reduced to nine men at one stage, Joe Kingsman grabbing a dramatic late winner.

The League Cup produced plenty of goals. Derby Gazers hit AFC Normanton for six, Blidworth Welfare won 4-1 at Ripley Town, Ollerton Town defeated AFC Phoenix 3-1, Teversal edged Bentley 5-2 after a much closer contest than the final scoreline suggested, and Mayfield beat Eastwood CFC Development 4-2.

In the Premier South, leaders Holbrook Sports were held to a 1-1 draw by FC Sunnyhill, George Bailey rescuing a point that keeps the sides first and second respectively. Holbrook St Michaels enjoyed a better afternoon, Richard Hanslow's hat-trick inspiring a 4-1 victory over Mickleover RBL.

Wirksworth Ivanhoe returned to winning ways with a 3-1 success over Mickleover Athletic, while Bakewell Town ended a four-match losing run by beating Graham Street Prims 2-0. Gresley Rovers B defeated Cromford and Wirksworth Town 2-1, and Derby Singh Brothers condemned Linby Colliery to another defeat with a 2-1 victory.

Earlier in the week, Holbrook Sports strengthened their grip on top spot with a thrilling 3-2 derby victory over Holbrook St Michaels, while Melbourne Dynamo continued their recovery from a poor start to the campaign with a comfortable 4-1 win against Wirksworth Ivanhoe. Mickleover RBL also climbed to second place after seeing off Graham Street Prims 2-1.

Nostell Leave Leaders Hanging On

COUNTY SENIOR

Warren Bird

The County Senior Premier Division title race took another dramatic twist as leaders Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915 were forced to settle for a remarkable 4-4 draw against Nostell MWFC, while Dodworth MWFC's one-week stay at the top came to an abrupt end.

Dodworth had climbed to the summit after defeating Kiveton Park the previous weekend, but their reign lasted only seven days as AFC Dronfield produced one of the shocks of the season. Ross Dawson and Daniel White scored the goals in a 2-0 victory that handed Dronfield only their second league win and immediately threw the championship race open once more.

The result offered Ecclesfield the chance to put daylight between themselves and the chasing pack, but they found themselves embroiled in the game of the season.

Nostell, who have steadily improved since their opening-day defeat after relegation from the NCEL, refused to be overawed by the unbeaten promotion winners.

Luke French put the visitors ahead after 16 minutes before Fabian Johnson levelled nine minutes later. Jack Westwood restored Nostell's advantage on 32 minutes, only for Dane Hodgson to make it 2-2 six minutes later.

The visitors again took control after the interval. Piankhi Taseti made it 3-2 before Thomas Street extended Nostell's advantage to 4-2 with only 15 minutes remaining.

At that point Ecclesfield's unbeaten record appeared to be heading for the history books.

Instead, Glen Greene reduced the deficit on 67 minutes before Dane Hodgson struck his second goal of the afternoon on 88 minutes to complete a remarkable recovery and preserve the leaders' unbeaten start.

Kiveton Park were also frustrated in their attempts to regain top spot as they were held to a 1-1 draw at Penistone Church Reserves.

Callum Lee was on target for Penistone, while Kiveton's recent slowdown continued after their brief spell at the top of the table earlier in the month.

One side who are gathering momentum is Denaby Main.

After taking only one point from their opening two matches, Denaby have quietly rebuilt their campaign and Josh Epton's goal earned them a 1-1 draw at Silkstone United. They continue to edge closer to the leading group and look genuine contenders to become involved in the race as the season develops.

Hepworth United suffered a setback as they were beaten 4-0 by Oughtibridge WMSC.

Luke Needham and Billy Needham were joined on the scoresheet by Connor Platts, who netted twice in one of Oughtibridge's best displays of the campaign.

Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves produced the league's biggest win of the weekend, crushing Handsworth Reserves 5-0.

Abel Nnamdi Nnabuife opened the scoring, Josh Wharin struck twice and John Hennessey and Callum Pearce completed the rout. Although unable to challenge for promotion because of their reserve-team status, Stocksbridge continue to influence the fortunes of those around them.

Thorncliffe Villa's adjustment to Premier Division football gathered further pace with a 3-1 victory over South Elmsall United Services. Finnlay Taylor, Ben Vigrass and Farrell Cawthorne scored the goals, while Cameron Kilmartin replied for South Elmsall.

Elsewhere, George Walker and Zack Bond were on target as Swinton Athletic and Wombwell Main shared a 1-1 draw.

In Division One, Jubilee Sports continue to look every inch a side determined to return to the Premier Division at the first attempt.

Relegated last season, the leaders brushed aside Maltby Main Reserves 6-0. Daniel Barnsley was again among the goals, Liam Hill-Simmons and Archie Saxton-Clayton also found the net, while Brendon Reid-Flanagan helped himself to a hat-trick.

Denaby Main Development remain the closest challengers.

Last season's Division Two champions preserved their unbeaten start with a 3-1 victory over Dinnington Town Reserves. Ryan Hardy, Alfie Hanman and Cole Jones scored for Denaby, while Rhys Topham replied for Dinnington.

Barnsley Town bounced back into contention with a convincing 4-0 victory over Royston. Conor Asquith continued his prolific campaign with two more goals, while Dion Travis and Aiden White also got on the scoresheet.

Bentley Village's recent improvement continued as Ryan Walker, Aiden Davies and Sadeeq Mahmud scored in a 3-1 victory over North Gawber Colliery, whose reply came from George Bedford.

Parkgate Reserves defeated Dearne & District Development 3-1 through Samiullah Ahmad, Connor Sanderson and Oli Salkeld, while Patrick Wearden struck twice and Alasdair Wilford once in Sheffield Union's 3-0 win over Swinton Athletic Reserves.

Division Two remains headed by Wombwell Main Development, who maintained their outstanding start with a 2-0 victory over AFC Dronfield Reserves through goals from Ethan Gornall and Ryan Hallsworth.

Dronfield Town Development remain firmly in pursuit after a 7-0 demolition of Youdan FC. Mark Fereday scored twice, while Alfie Carey, Tom Fairweather, Devonte Williams, Ryan Whitney and Arjun Dosanjh all found the net.

Treeton Terriers stay firmly in the hunt after a 4-0 win over Sheffield Medics. Harley Battison claimed a hat-trick and Sam Drury added the fourth.

Wombwell Town Reserves defeated Youdan 4-0 through doubles from Liam Lambert and Logan Mee, while Middlewood Rovers enjoyed a productive afternoon against Rotherham Town. Finley Marsden struck twice and Zac Leeson and Josh White were also on target in a 4-0 victory.

A month ago Kiveton Park were surprising everyone at the top of the table. Last week Dodworth occupied first place. This week neither side could take control, while Ecclesfield's unbeaten run survived another examination and Nostell announced themselves as genuine contenders. As the season approaches the end of September, the Premier Division remains as open as ever.

Belles Stalled As Goals Flow

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL

Julian Barker

The FA Women's National League Cup group stage fixtures were completed with the third round of games in each of the 22 four team groups. All 22 group winners plus the 10 runners up with the best record advance to the knock out phase of the Cup. The other 12 runners up along with the 20 best third placed teams enter the Plate. All the other teams are eliminated.

Barnsley Women, having been beaten by both Derby County and Stockport County, were unable to progress ahead of their final game when they enjoyed a satisfying 2-1 home win over Manchester United Under-21s. Tanya Fozzard's header at an uncleared corner gave Barnsley the advantage at the interval. Jemima Jarvis scored direct from a free kick around 35 yards out to clinch victory shortly after the visitors had levelled.

Sheffield FC were effectively out ahead of their clash against Chesterfield at the SMH Stadium. Sheffield needed a very high scoring victory as well as Sheffield United Under-21s to lose at Loughborough Lightning to stand any chance of progressing as one of the best third placed sides. Loughborough won 2-0, but Sheffield, for whom Eve Shepherd scored, lost 4-1. Former Sheffield player Lexie Butterworth netted one of Chesterfield's goals.

The expansion of the competition a few years ago to include PGA/Under-21 teams of Women's Super League clubs has proved far from universally popular. The PGA teams have so far had to play all their games on the grounds of their FAWNL opponents who have had to incur the expense of hosting (ground hire and match officials).

At the moment, a proposal to expand the FAWNL by the addition of four PGA teams next season has been given the go ahead. However, the PGA teams will not be able to gain promotion from tier three.

Betty Cheetham headed Doncaster Rovers Belles into an early lead in their home game against Loughborough Foxes, but the visitors soon levelled and the clash between the two East Midlands Women's Regional League Premier Division title contenders failed to provide more goals. Mansfield Town moved three points clear after winning 1-0 at Lincoln Women in the encounter between two teams who had started with two wins from two.

Kirsty Unwin 2 and Maia Taylor were the Dronfield Town scorers in their 5-3 home defeat to Division One leaders Belper Town. YP Women won 7-1 at Newark Town, Maisie Everitt bagging a hat trick, along with goals by Talia Brammah 2 Charlotte Bennehan and Liberty Shaw.

Rotherham United came from behind to win 4-1 at Ossett United in the North East Women's Regional League Premier Division. Eden Hinchliffe quickly restored equality and Laura Bartup edged Rotherham ahead by the interval. Goals by Jasmine Saxton and Pip Cassidy in the last 15 minutes ensured a second successive 4-1 away victory.

Rossington Main lie third in the Southern Division after winning 4-2 at FC Farsley. Lauren Breen bagged a hat trick to take her tally from two games to eight with Amy O'Brien the other scorer for Rossington who have games in hand on the two unbeaten teams above them.

York based Evolution enjoyed a four goal interval lead at Sheffield Wednesday who improved in the second half with Amy Broomhead's goal proving a consolation.

The delayed Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA Women's Cup first round ties were all completed. Holly Housley gave Brodsworth Main an early lead at home to Dinnington Town and it was 3-0 at the break with Holly Findlay and Jess Tate adding further home goals. Emily Barker pulled one back for Dinnington.

Regular scorer Abby Watkinson bagged yet another hat trick for Handsworth, but her tally was bettered by Delia Hurdiss who scored four in their 8-1 victory away to SJR Worksop Community. Harriet Lloyd, who has settled in nicely in her early days at Handsworth, also scored. Emily Murphy netted the consolation for SJR whose first team progressed as 7-1 home winners over Sheffield Wednesday Reserves for whom Sheridan Betts scored. Reagan Hanson 4, Anya Bourne, Amelia White and Toni McHamilton were on target for the much stronger fifth tier SJR.

Stocksbridge Park Steels ended September as Sheffield & Hallamshire Women's County League Division One leaders. They took their tally to ten points from 4 games after winning 2-1 at Oughtibridge War Memorial. Eve Allen and Anna Davis scored their goals with Cheryl Mawhood on the mark for Oughtibridge. Stocksbridge had beaten Handsworth Reserves 7-1 at home in midweek, last season's top scorer Gemma Harte netting four times.

Molly Waite 2, Maja Calvert, Krizia Firth and Fern Thompson were on the mark for Barnsley FC who are second with seven points from three games after their 5-2 home win over Handsworth Reserves whose goals came from Sam Hallam and Brooke Tully.

Barnsley Women Reserves, for whom Cassidy Clift and Zoe Laughton scored, were 2-1 home winners over Rotherham United Under-23s whose goal came from Gracie Lucas.

Parkgate top Division Two ahead of Brinsworth Whitehill on goal difference. Ellie Chadburn gave them a two goal interval advantage at home to Penistone Church. She doubled her tally in the second half when Emily Cooper, direct from a corner, Amelie Hartley and Ruby Hellewell also scored. Parkgate dominated the second half, but how would the game have evolved had the home keeper not denied Penistone an instant equaliser to Chadburn's opener?

Beth Hardy put Socrates ahead at Charnock Ridgeway who gained a point thanks to the equaliser by Harriet Plows, both goals coming in the second half. Dearne & District drew 0-0 at home to Kiveton Park, both teams happy to record a welcome clean sheet after conceding more goals than they would have liked in earlier games.

Brampton United, who were free-scoring on their way to last season's Division Four title, have started life in Division Three with two wins from two and they are third in the table following their 2-1 home success over Swallownest courtesy of goals by Ellie Martin and Stephanie Simpson. Leaders Dronfield Town Development have a 100% record from their three games. Chancet Wood are second with seven points from four games after goals by Madeleine Batchelor and Josie Goldsmith gave them a 2-1 home win over Barnsley Women Under-21s.

Gracie Edge and Mikayla Harper were the Kiveton Park Reserves scorers in their 2-0 home win over Wickersley Youth, while Megan Hammond 2 and Tilly Ironside scored for Sheffield Wednesday Development in their 3-2 win at Maltby Juniors.

Brodsworth Main Development recorded a 14-1 victory at West End Terriers to displace Courage FC as Division Four leaders on goal difference, both teams having maximum points from three games. Lucie Smith 5, Sophie Smith 4, Amy Lyons 3, Brooke McGonnell and Elyse Thornton were on target for Brodsworth who more than doubled their pre-match goals for tally.

Lyssa Brearley 3, Molly Thrustle 2, Ruby Burke and Isabelle Hutchison were the Scawthorpe Scorpions scorers in their 7-2 win at Sheffield Medics whose goals came from Eleanor Chambers and Cheryl Obinwa.

Nikola Anderson and Alicia Dias were on the mark for FURD, Football Unites, Racism Divides in their 2-2 home draw against New Lodge, Rebecca Hague and Steph Marsland on the mark for the visitors. Frickley Athletic 2nd XI were 3-1 home winners over Barlborough.

Bramley Stingers moved three points clear of Rossington FC at the top of Division Five after recording a 3-1 home win in their meeting. Amelia Barr put Bramley ahead, but Hayley Briggs levelled before half time. Second half goals by Daisy Jenkins and Ruby Rider clinched the points for Bramley. Dawn Chadburn 2, Carly Rowlands 2, Sophie Redmond and Rebecca Wright were on the mark for Aston Swallownest in their 6-3 home win over Kinsley Ladies.

SCHOOLS FOOTBALL

Gooseacre March On In Totty Cup

Thurnscoe Gooseacre emerged as the standout performers from this year's Totty Cup qualifying tournaments as the road to the famous schools competition quarter-finals was mapped out across Mexborough, Swinton, Wath and Dearne.

Gooseacre were the only one of the 25 competing schools to complete the qualifying phase with a perfect record. Their six victories featured impressive contributions from Louis Sheppard, Noel Whitehurst and Daniel Addo, who each scored twice during an outstanding campaign.

Mexborough St John's topped the Mexborough cluster and made history by winning the inaugural Bennett Cup. Leo Hill led the way with four goals, while Corey Jeeves added a brace as St John's claimed the new trophy in style.

Swinton Queen proved that defensive solidity can be just as important as attacking flair. Their four matches produced just a single goal, scored by Zach Bradley, but remarkably it was enough to secure top spot in their cluster and a place in the quarter-finals.

Brampton Ellis were the leading side in the Wath section after winning four of their five matches to complete the quartet of cluster champions.

The qualifying phase also produced a touch of nostalgia with Conisbrough's Morley Place reaching the Totty Cup quarter-finals for the first time since 1968. The school will now look to write a new chapter in its history after ending a wait of almost six decades for a return to the latter stages.

The four cluster winners are joined in the quarter-finals by the four runners-up, setting up a series of intriguing ties to be played during the week beginning October 5.

Camborne Snatch It At The Death

SHEFFIELD RUFC

Callum Robinson

Sheffield RUFC were left wondering what might have been after Camborne pinched a dramatic 26-24 victory at Abbeydale Park with just minutes remaining.

Following the heavy defeat at Plymouth Albion, Sheffield returned home looking to get their National One campaign back on track against another newly-promoted side enjoying an impressive start to the season.

Injuries continue to test the depth of the squad. Chris Hooper joined Sinjin Broad, Cuchulain Livingstone and Jake Hicklin on the sidelines, while Archie Crapper, Cammy Catleugh and Josh Redfern remain long-term absentees.

Those enforced changes led to a reshuffle in the backline. Will Smith moved from centre to the wing, Matty Drennan stepped into the number 12 shirt, while Brayton Taylor and Jack Delaney both made their debuts. Felix Crapper started at openside flanker and Rhodri Campbell came into the front row.

The opening exchanges were closely contested, neither side able to establish clear control. Camborne perhaps enjoyed a little more territory but Sheffield's defence held firm.

The visitors broke the deadlock midway through the first half. After taking advantage of some loose Sheffield play to work their way upfield, Camborne secured lineout possession inside the home 22 before creating space for winger Harry Larkins to score. Fraser Honey converted for a 7-0 lead.

Sheffield's response was immediate.

A penalty kick to the corner provided excellent field position and, after securing clean lineout ball, the hosts drove powerfully towards the try line. Captain Ben Whitney eventually emerged with the ball to score. Callum Posa added the conversion and the scores were level after 26 minutes.

The contest remained a real battle.

Defences dominated and scoring opportunities were rare, but Sheffield struck a crucial blow just before the interval. Following a penalty and a yellow card for Camborne skipper Sam Matavesi, Sheffield again kicked for the corner. Another well-executed driving maul ended with hooker Rhodri Campbell touching down.

Posa converted and Sheffield took a 14-7 advantage into the break.

The second half opened positively for the hosts but momentum swung when scrum-half Elliot Fisher received a yellow card. Camborne pressed hard and eventually found a way through just before Sheffield returned to full strength.

After a lineout close to the try line, full-back Frankie Nowell found a gap and crossed close to the posts. Honey converted and the visitors were level again at 14-14 after 56 minutes.

The game had become a test of character.

Once more Sheffield responded positively. A penalty produced another attacking lineout and another driving maul. Camborne struggled to contain it and replacement hooker Will Archer powered over for Sheffield's third try. Posa's conversion drifted wide but the hosts were back in front at 19-14.

Camborne again showed why they have started the season so strongly.

Hooker Ben Priddey forced his way over for a converted score that brought the Cornish side level once more at 19-19.

Even then Sheffield refused to lie down.

Despite losing Dom Parsons to the sin-bin, the home side produced perhaps their best attacking moment of the afternoon. The backs finally found some space and debutant Brayton Taylor crossed for a try which sent the Abbeydale crowd into celebration. Although the conversion was missed, Sheffield led 24-19 entering the final ten minutes.

Unfortunately, there was one final twist.

As Parsons returned to the field, Priddey crossed for his second try of the afternoon. Honey kept his nerve with the conversion and Camborne edged ahead 26-24 with less than three minutes remaining.

Sheffield still had one last opportunity. A penalty gave them a lineout inside the Camborne 22, but a not-straight throw brought the game to an end and allowed the visitors to head back to Cornwall with all five points.

The defeat was particularly painful for Sheffield to take. Not only had they led on three separate occasions, they were within touching distance of securing a second National One victory of the campaign before Camborne's late fightback. It also ended an impressive home record at Abbeydale Park, with Sheffield having gone almost two years without suffering defeat on their own ground.

While the result left the hosts frustrated, two bonus points ensured they were at least rewarded for another competitive display. Against one of the division's form teams, Sheffield once again showed they are capable of matching sides at National One level despite an injury list that continues to grow.

Elsewhere, Sheffield Tigers remain in search of their first National League Two North victory after a 27-19 defeat away at Fylde. Tigers once again produced a committed performance against one of the division's stronger sides and stayed in contention deep into the second half before the Lancashire outfit eventually secured the points. The result continued a run of narrow defeats for Tigers, who have been competitive in every outing without quite finding the win their efforts have deserved.

This weekend presents another stern challenge for Sheffield RUFC as they travel to London to face Rosslyn Park. Traditionally one of National One's strongest clubs, Rosslyn Park remain a formidable force on their own ground and Sheffield will need to be at their very best if they are to return to South Yorkshire with league points. However, performances against Leeds Tykes and Camborne have shown they are capable of troubling quality opposition.

Sheffield Tigers return to Dore Moor on Saturday where Harrogate provide the opposition. After several narrow defeats, Tigers will view the fixture as an excellent opportunity to finally get off the mark for the season. Harrogate have made a solid start themselves, but home advantage could prove crucial for a Tigers side desperate to convert encouraging performances into a much-needed victory.

Both Sheffield clubs have shown enough during the opening weeks of the campaign to suggest better results are around the corner. The challenge now is turning competitive displays into wins as the season begins to gather momentum.

Knights Up And Running As Titans Hit Reality Check

South Yorkshire's two Champ Rugby clubs experienced contrasting fortunes in round two as Doncaster Knights collected their first win of the campaign while Rotherham Titans were brought crashing back down to earth by reigning champions Worcester Warriors.

A week after celebrating a stunning comeback victory over Coventry on their return to the second tier, Rotherham travelled to Sixways hoping to build on one of the division's standout opening-day results.

Instead, they received a harsh but valuable lesson in the standards required to compete with the Championship's elite.

Worcester ran in 12 tries on their way to a commanding 78-12 victory, underlining exactly why they lifted the title last season.

Yet the final score did not tell the full story.

For the opening half-hour, Rotherham more than held their own.

The Titans showed plenty of ambition with ball in hand and twice matched their illustrious opponents on the scoreboard. Harry Stone crossed for the visitors before Isaac Shaw added a second score that brought the game level at 12-12 and briefly raised hopes of another upset.

At that stage, Rotherham looked capable of causing the champions significant problems.

However, Worcester's class gradually began to show.

The hosts ruthlessly punished errors, built momentum through sustained pressure and found their attacking rhythm at precisely the right time. Four further tries before the interval left the Titans staring at a daunting 38-12 deficit at half-time.

To their credit, Harvey Biljon's side never stopped competing.

Rotherham enjoyed periods of pressure after the restart and attempted to force their way back into the contest, but Worcester's defence remained resolute.

Once the champions had weathered that spell, they shifted through the gears once more.

Six unanswered second-half tries completed an emphatic victory and demonstrated the gulf that can still exist between a newly-promoted side and a team with genuine title aspirations.

Biljon was understandably disappointed but remained philosophical afterwards.

"We spoke about this season producing the highs of highs and the lows of lows and I think that has happened in week one and in week two," he said.

"We probably got a bit of the confidence knocked out of us early doors, or at least up until about 30 minutes of the first half.

"I thought up until that point we were up for the fight and then our errors were an issue around our handling and, to be fair, how good were they to go and take scores."

The Titans boss also identified discipline and accuracy as key areas that must improve.

"In the second half I don't have too much to talk about; our discipline, speed and set piece were probably the big turning points.

"We will quickly put this game to one side and move on to the next challenge; we moved on quickly from the Coventry game and we'll do the same with this one."

That challenge comes this weekend when Bedford Blues visit Clifton Lane in another major examination of Rotherham's credentials.

While the Titans were enduring a difficult afternoon in the Midlands, Doncaster Knights were celebrating their first league victory of the season with a deserved 29-15 win over Hartpury at Castle Park.

After the disappointment of defeat at Cornish Pirates a week earlier, the response from Dean Richards' side was impressive.

The Knights made a flying start as Telusa Veainu crossed under the posts after just two minutes. Jasper McGuire's powerful break created the opportunity before the experienced Veainu stepped his way through the defence. Alex Dolly converted to make it 7-0.

Hartpury quickly responded and edged ahead through tries from Jack Cotgreave and Harry Short, taking a slender 12-7 lead.

Doncaster regrouped well.

Saracens loanee James Isaacs marked his debut in style by driving over from a rolling maul, with Dolly adding the extras to put the Knights back in front before Hartpury nudged ahead again with a late penalty for a 15-14 half-time advantage.

The second period belonged almost entirely to the hosts.

Dolly kicked a penalty to restore the lead before Doncaster produced the standout score of the afternoon.

Semesa Rokoduguni scooped up a loose ball and surged downfield before delivering one of his trademark one-handed offloads to Zach Kerr, who powered over in the corner. Dolly's excellent touchline conversion stretched the advantage.

The Knights then effectively sealed victory when Penaia Tagutu finished superbly out wide following a clever delayed pass from Veainu.

Just as pleasing for Richards will have been the defensive effort that followed.

Hartpury searched for a route back into the game but were repeatedly denied by a determined Doncaster pack, whose maul defence proved particularly impressive after the problems encountered at Cornish Pirates a week earlier.

The 29-15 victory gets the Knights up and running and provides an encouraging platform ahead of a run of away fixtures.

Elsewhere around Champ Rugby, Bedford Blues maintained their perfect start with victory over Chinnor ahead of their trip to Clifton Lane, while Coventry bounced back from their dramatic defeat at Rotherham by overcoming Cornish Pirates. Worcester's demolition of the Titans keeps the champions among the early pace-setters and Ealing Trailfinders continued their strong start with another victory. Blackheath remain one of the surprise early packages after following up their opening-day success with another win.

Two rounds into the season and South Yorkshire's clubs sit in very different positions.

Doncaster appear to have found their footing after an opening-week stumble, while Rotherham have already experienced both ends of Championship rugby life.

The Titans have enjoyed the thrill of a famous victory and suffered the pain of a heavy defeat within the space of seven days.

As Biljon warned, this season will bring the highs of highs and the lows of lows.

After two weeks, nobody in South Yorkshire could argue with that assessment.

Stars Youngsters Shine In Title Charge

SHEFFIELD STARS

Robert Mawhood

A youthful Sheffield Stars side produced a superb performance to finish runners-up in the 2026 Yorkshire League season at Heckmondwike.

Fielding just one regular first-team rider, the Stars pushed hosts Heckmondwike Saints all the way before eventually finishing only three points behind on the day. League champions Hull were left a further 12 points adrift in third.

For much of the meeting Sheffield occupied third place, but their fortunes changed dramatically with two maximum seven-point heat wins over Hull in heats eight and 11.

The standout moment came in heat eight when experienced rider Kieran Hale teamed up with nine-year-old Stanley Russon to secure a famous maximum. In doing so, Russon became the youngest Sheffield rider ever to win a first-team race.

The Stars' challenge gathered momentum as the meeting progressed and siblings Lacey and Lincoln Ackroyd claimed victories in heats 14 and 15 to close the gap on Heckmondwike, although the hosts ultimately held on for victory.

Heckmondwike finished with 57 points, Sheffield 54 and Hull 42.

Despite their strong finish to the campaign, Sheffield had to settle for second place in the final league standings, with Hull crowned champions on 15 points. The Stars finished on 10 points, one ahead of Heckmondwike.

There was further success for Sheffield in the Yorkshire Grand Prix series as Women's British No.2 Lacey Ackroyd won the final round and secured the overall championship.

The club also celebrated two age-group champions. Brothers Joey Athersych and Zach Athersych claimed the Under-10 and Under-8 titles respectively. Remarkably, neither rider competed at Heckmondwike, making their achievements even more impressive given they have been involved in the sport for less than six months.
