Fantastic holiday in this beautiful country with friendly, polite people. We saw shrines, Mount Fuji, Tokyo, Museums and travelled on the Bullet Train. Trees were turning red and gold and weather was fine. Great guide, lovely hotels and well organised travel. A good bunch of solo travel mates of mixed ages. Tokyo has so much to see and do. You could spend a month there.

Let's explore together...

There's a special kind of joy that comes from travelling on your own terms – discovering new places at your pace, sharing stories with like-minded travellers, and returning home with memories that feel entirely your own. At Riviera Travel, that's exactly what our solo holidays are designed to deliver: the joy of discovery, the ease of travelling well, and the confidence of knowing you're in expert hands from the moment your journey begins.

For 2027 and 2028, we're thrilled to introduce new adventures made especially for solo travellers. In France, wander through the honey-coloured villages and medieval strongholds of Dordogne, Albi & Carcassonne, where history lingers in every stone. In Italy, feel the pull of the past as you explore Pompeii, Capri & the Bay of Naples, wrapped in dramatic coastline and stories that shaped a civilisation.

If life on the water calls to you, our solo river cruise collection has even more to tempt you. Celebrate the season on Christmas on the Danube or New Year on the Danube, or welcome spring with Spring in the Netherlands: Amsterdam & the Tulip Fields – all sailing aboard the world's first solo-exclusive ship, purpose-built for travellers who prefer their own space without ever feeling alone.

Every Riviera holiday balances discovery with comfort. We take care of the details – from departure support to expert Tour Managers, so you can relax into the experience – sharing meals with new friends, finding quiet moments when you want them, and enjoying the reassurance of a team that's there when you need us.

I hope you enjoy exploring this brochure and imagining where you'll go next.

With warm wishes for your next adventure.

Extraordinary adventures are our speciality

We know that the best part of a holiday is having somebody look after everything for you. But behind the scenes, there's so much that goes into creating the holidays you love. From our product experts who hand craft itineraries, to Tour Managers who look after you throughout, and our team at Riviera HQ who ensure everything runs smoothly, we go the extra mile so that all you need to focus on is enjoying yourself.

Our solo holidays continue to evolve, and my role is to ensure that we're providing supportive, inspiring experiences that help solo travellers feel confident, connected, and excited to explore with us again.

Will Product Director

As a solo traveller myself, I have had some wonderful experiences and formed special friendships. I love reading comments from our guests about how they have also made friends!

Linda
Senior Product Manager – Solo Holidays

I feel incredibly fortunate that my role with Riviera Travel allows me to explore the world and share its wonders with our guests. From breath-taking landscapes to meaningful cultural encounters, every journey deepens my passion for travel.

Cassie
Tour Manager

Linda recommends... Deep South USA plus Texas for solo travellers

A standout experience for me on this tour was our visit to RCA Studio B in Nashville, where Elvis recorded many of his greatest hits, as well as many other superstars like Dolly Parton and Roy Orbison. We had a guided tour around the studio and the guide was outstanding. She talked us through its history and played clips of some of the studio's greatest hits which had lots of us singing along and some dancing too. It was a really fun experience and as it was near the start of the tour it was a great ice breaking and bonding moment.

Don't just take our word for it...

It was my first solo holiday and I was a little anxious, but I needn't have been and I can't wait for my next solo trip with Riviera.

Solo holidays for first timers

Taking your first solo holiday can feel like a big step – but it's also the beginning of something extraordinary. Whether you're craving time to reconnect with yourself, hoping to explore a new culture, or simply ready to try something different, solo travel offers the perfect blend of freedom, adventure, and connection.

Only a phone call away

If you ever have questions before you go, the knowledgeable Riviera team is only a phone call away. Their friendly, reassuring support makes planning your first solo trip simple and enjoyable. Whether you're feeling a little nervous or just need help with the finer details, someone is always ready to guide you through each step.

Making friends on your first solo trip

One of the biggest worries for first-time solo travellers is feeling isolated. That's why every solo holiday begins with a welcome dinner and drink. In a relaxed, friendly setting, you'll meet your fellow travellers, share stories, and start forming connections that often last well beyond the trip. Everyone's in the same boat, so conversations flow easily and friendships form naturally. Our Tour Managers and Cruise Directors are hand-selected for their ability to foster a warm, inclusive atmosphere, helping everyone feel part of the group from day one.

Top tip:
Short solo holidays are perfect for first timers

If you're feeling anxious about travelling solo for the first time, consider starting with a shorter trip. A four-day city break to Bruges can feel far less daunting than diving into a three-week tour across New Zealand. Shorter holidays offer all the benefits of solo travel without the pressure of being away for too long. They're a great way to test the waters, build confidence, and discover just how enjoyable solo travel can be. Once you've had a taste, you might find yourself ready to take on longer journeys with ease.

Life on a solo holiday

Travelling solo doesn't mean travelling alone – and that's exactly what makes Riviera Travel's solo holidays so special. From the moment your journey begins, everything is designed to ensure you feel supported, welcomed, and free to enjoy the adventure on your own terms. Solo tours blend independence with connection, helping you discover the world confidently while forming friendships that often last long beyond your return home. Along the way, thoughtfully planned experiences bring every destination to life.

A smooth start from your front door

Your journey begins the moment you step outside. With optional door-to-door transfers, reaching the airport becomes effortless, removing the stress of navigating travel logistics alone. At the airport or Eurostar station, a Riviera team member greets you, assists with check-in, and helps you settle in. On arrival, another friendly face will be waiting, ensuring you never feel left to work things out by yourself. This reassurance is especially valuable for first-time solo travellers and sets the tone for the smooth, connected experience that follows.

A warm welcome

What truly sets solo holidays apart is the way they bring people together. Our solo tours create a warm group dynamic where everyone shares the same outlook: curiosity, independence and a desire to explore. Because everyone is travelling solo, the atmosphere is naturally inclusive – conversations flow easily, connections form organically, and any pressure to 'fit in' fades instantly. Each trip begins with a welcome drink or dinner, giving you the perfect chance to get to know fellow travellers.

Dining together or alone is always your choice. Mealtimes are a relaxed, social part of the experience, with plenty of opportunities to chat about the day's discoveries. And if you'd prefer quiet time, that's welcomed too. These gentle, friendly moments often spark the friendships that become some of the most cherished memories of travelling solo.

Travellers from all walks of life

The people you meet on a solo holiday come from many backgrounds. Some are widowed or divorced, others have partners who don't share their travel plans, and many are simply ready for a new adventure. That diversity is part of the magic. Solo tours attract a wonderfully varied mix of like-minded travellers – there's no typical age or profile. All you need is a sense of openness, and we'll take care of the rest.

Everything's taken care of

A solo holiday with Riviera means every detail is handled, so you can simply enjoy the journey. Guided excursions are thoughtfully planned, expert Tour Managers are always there when needed, and small group sizes on our escorted tours – with a maximum of just 25 people – create a more personal, intimate experience. Each itinerary blends must-see highlights with time to explore at your own pace, offering the ideal mix of structure and freedom. Join group activities for company or enjoy quieter moments alone – the choice is always yours. With seamless logistics, included experiences and a supportive team, you're free to focus on discovering new places and forming meaningful connections. Whether you're a first-timer or experienced solo traveller, you'll explore confidently, knowing help is always within reach.

What makes solo tours special

These journeys are designed just for you. From the welcome dinner to group experiences created with solo travellers in mind, every detail ensures you feel comfortable, included and free to choose how much or little to join in. You'll have your own space – a room or cabin all to yourself, and no single supplements. It's the perfect blend of confidence, companionship and choice. It's solo travel, made simple – and made just for you.

Travel solo yet never alone

From thoughtful detail to great company and expert support, our solo holidays are designed to give you complete freedom – with all the reassurance, comfort and care you'd expect from travelling with Riviera.

The Riviera holiday begins from your departure point

From the moment you set off, you're looked after. A Riviera team member will greet you at the airport or Eurostar station, help you with check-in, and help you settle in.

Break the ice at the welcome dinner

Your holiday begins with a relaxed welcome dinner and drink, designed to help everyone get to know each other naturally. It's the perfect ice-breaker – and we often find guests choose to dine together throughout the trip.

Less is more with small group sizes

Our solo tours are limited to 25 guests, creating a more personal, friendly atmosphere. On our yacht cruises, it's even more intimate – with a maximum of just 19 guests on board.

A proper night's sleep – in a proper bed

Don't compromise on comfort. Our solo travellers usually enjoy a double bed so you can stretch out, sleep soundly and wake up refreshed – no narrow single beds, no feeling like an afterthought.

Unbeatable solo pricing

Our solo pricing is refreshingly straightforward. No hidden extras, no awkward surprises – just excellent value that includes thoughtful solo touches, from being met at departure to porterage at your hotels and a welcome dinner.

Expert Tour Manager or Cruise Director looking after you throughout

Our Tour Managers and Cruise Directors are chosen for their warmth, empathy and sociability. They're experts in making solo travellers feel welcome, included and at ease – while sharing insight, stories and local knowledge along the way.

Here for you, every step of the way

Travelling solo feels easier when everything is taken care of. From start to finish, we handle the details and smooth out any bumps, removing stress from solo travel – so you can relax, explore and enjoy the journey.

Very interesting places. Nice, modern hotels. Well organised trip. Sightseeing, with interesting guides and free time in the afternoons. Good company of fellow travellers.

Istanbul, Ephesus & Troy

Turkey is a country with a unique identity straddling both Europe and Asia. Where familiarity merges with exotic, we find a blend of the Christian and Ottoman worlds where the jewel in the crown is incredible Istanbul.

Troy

Your itinerary

DAY 1 – Arrival in Kusadasi
Arrive at the airport for your flight to Izmir via Istanbul and transfer to your hotel.

DAY 2 – Ephesus
Today we have a guided tour of the ancient city of Ephesus and its breathtaking range of buildings. With its amazing two-storey Library of Celsus and the enormous amphitheatre, the Romans made it their capital of Asia. We'll see the Temple of Artemis, which was in its day, greater than the Parthenon in Athens. We then visit the small hillside site of the House of the Virgin Mary, before returning to the hotel in Kusadasi for a welcome lunch and drink to get to know your fellow travellers better. (B,L,D)
Included Experiences – Guided tour of Ephesus and visit House of the Virgin Mary

Ephesus

DAY 3 – Pergamon
Departing Kusadasi, we follow the coast towards the ancient Hellenistic city of Pergamon, where we have a guided tour. Perched on a high rocky outcrop, with stunning views for miles around, the city was famed for its library, so concerned were the Egyptians about this competition that they cut off supplies of papyrus to Pergamon, thus prompting the invention of parchment. We'll see the remains of the Temple of Trajan, the altar of Zeus and the world's steepest ancient amphitheatre. We'll continue our journey along the scenic coastline to Canakkale before dinner at the hotel this evening. (B,D)
Included Experience – Guided tour of Pergamon

DAY 4 – Troy & Gallipoli
Enjoy free time in Troy, famous for the 'wooden horse' story, when Queen Helen of Sparta eloped with Prince Paris to Troy and her enraged husband followed seeking her return. Today, Troy is a complex archaeological site that spans nine separate cities. It nevertheless remains a romantic and alluring place to anyone who has read about the heroic struggles recounted in Homer's Iliad. We'll take the short cruise from Asia to Europe over the extremely scenic, steep-sided Dardanelles, one of the world's busiest shipping lanes to the Gallipoli peninsula. This was made famous during the First World War as the scene of one of the greatest and most tragic campaigns of the conflict. We'll visit the Lone Pine memorial and Anzac Cove, where the Australians mistakenly landed and were forced to scale steep cliffs and ravines under constant bombardment. We'll continue our journey through this refreshingly picturesque landscape and arrive in Istanbul, where we stay three nights. (B)
Included Experiences – Visit Troy, Gallipoli and Anzac Cove

DAY 5 – Istanbul
We see the immense and beautifully preserved city walls and the remains of the magnificent Hippodrome and enjoy a visit to the breathtaking Hagia Sophia, quite simply one of the world's greatest architectural achievements. For thousands of years, Istanbul sat at the centre of the overland trade routes, and its Grand Bazaar became home to merchants from all over the known world. This afternoon we have a guided walk here to experience its sights and sounds. (B)
Included Experiences – Guided walking tour of Istanbul and visit to Hagia Sophia

Topkapi Palace houses the famous Topkapi Dagger, which is decorated with jade, diamonds and gold

Gallipoli

DAY 6 – The Basilica Cistern & the Blue Mosque
Today, we'll go underground in Istanbul to see a historic underground cistern, made from stone said to have been salvaged from ancient temples with ornate carvings. Lost until it was rediscovered in the 16th century, the cistern has been welcoming visitors since 1837. Described as an underground cathedral, this feat of engineering dates back to the reign of Emperor Justinian in 532. The cistern could hold up to 80,000 cubic metres of water – and, standing inside it, you won't doubt it. With over 300 marble columns made from stone said to have been salvaged from ruined temples, look out for some of the ornate carvings including the famous carved heads of Medusa – eerie! Back above ground, we'll visit the iconic Sultanahmet Mosque, or as it's more commonly known 'the Blue Mosque'. After our visit, the rest of the day is at leisure to continue to explore Istanbul or relax in our hotel as you wish. (B)
Included Experiences – Visits to the Basilica Cistern and the Blue Mosque

DAY 7 – Topkapi Palace
We start the day with a guided tour of the Topkapi Palace, the glittering and labyrinthine imperial residence of the sultans for over 400 years. Today, it is a spectacular museum, but in its heyday, it functioned as a city within a city. We'll enjoy a short walk around the Spice Bazaar to savour the vibrant colours and fragrant smells of herbs and spices from around the world. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure. (B)
Included Experience – Guided tour of Topkapi Palace

In addition to the ship's main restaurant, our ships offer alternative dining experiences, still all included in the price.

La Brasserie, on board the Jane Austen and Lord Byron is where you can enjoy an informal light dinner. A tasteful experience, notably charcuterie and local cheese platters and freshly baked breads, paired with French wines. Located at the stern of the ship and featuring full length windows offering a beautiful river view experience.

Riverview Kitchen, located at the stern on our Rhine and Danube cruises, as well as Thomas Hardy on the Rhone, is available for lunch and dinner. It offers a more intimate dining experience with an open kitchen, large panoramic windows and al fresco seating so you can admire the fantastic views. Here in the evenings, you can enjoy a more informal experience that takes its inspiration from a traditional Grill restaurant.

Mosaic restaurant – which offers breakfast lunch and dinner – on board the Radiance and Resplendence, offers a unique food and wine pairing menu. Each course features a number of elements inspired by the rivers of Europe. Showcasing the finest local ingredients from these regions – one delectable bite at a time.

Your Itinerary

DAY 1 – Arrive in Dubrovnik
We welcome you aboard the superb four-star MV Felicita and help you settle into your cabin. Then it's time to relax! Perhaps you'll catch some rays on the sun deck or take a stroll ashore before a dinner in our yacht's restaurant. (D)

As we cruise between scattered islets and sparkling bays, you'll enjoy a front-row seat to some of Croatia's most mesmerising seascapes. We arrive in Korčula, a beautifully preserved medieval town encircled by honey-coloured walls and defensive towers. On our guided walking tour, wander its narrow lanes laid out in a unique herringbone pattern designed to soften the force of coastal winds. Korčula is famed for supplying high-quality timber to Venetian shipbuilders, as well as for centuries of artistic, musical and stonemasonry traditions that still echo through its streets. Included Experiences – Guided walking tour of Korčula

DAY 3 – Pučišća
We cruise northwards towards the glorious island of Brač, stopping in spectacular Pučišća. Stroll ashore or relax on board before the superb Captain's Dinner is served – a delicious selection of Croatian and Mediterranean specialities. (B,L,D)
Included Experience – Visit to Pučišća

DAY 4 – Pučišća & Split
We continue our journey north today, to Split, Dalmatia's vibrant capital. At the heart of Split lies the astonishing palace of the Roman Emperor Diocletian – more a fortified city than a palace – built at the turn of the 4th century. Today its ancient colonnades, temples and courtyards hum with daily life, cafés, galleries and atmospheric narrow streets. On our guided walking tour, explore this UNESCO-listed labyrinth and learn how its walls became a backdrop for scenes in Game of Thrones. (B,D)

On the northern shores are 16th-century fortresses, built to repel pirates and assaults by the Ottoman Empire. Hvar has been inhabited since Neolithic times; later, the Ancient Greeks founded a colony here, and during the 14th-century, as the Venetian Empire extended its influence, it became a major naval base. DAY 7 – Dubrovnik
Our yacht passes the rocky shores of the beautiful Elaphite Islands on its way to Dubrovnik. This afternoon we transfer to the old town for a guided tour. The city threw off its Venetian shackles during medieval times founding a commercial empire trading with the eastern Mediterranean, France, Spain and later the Ottoman Empire. The main avenue, lined by intimate cafés, is completely paved with marble. You'll marvel at monasteries, decorated churches and civic buildings dating from the 14th-century. This evening, recount all the wonderful experiences you've had over a delectable final dinner. (B,L)
